We must support this new movement

Representation of 16 counties in the Georgia House of Representatives will make the strongest move in the history of the state in the direction of educational development. The writer of this article was thrilled with the prospects of the movement and calls for support of the new movement. He believes that it will bring the much-needed reforms in the public schools and will open doors for better educational opportunities for children of all ages. He highlights the importance of education in a democratic society and calls for concerted efforts to support the new movement.
