Thirty-second tobacco season opens today

When the three-year-old tobacco season opened last fall, tobacco growers were especially interested in the tobacco market. For the first time, the market was oversupplied, and prices were low. Today, the tobacco market is not oversupplied, and prices are higher. This is a good sign for tobacco growers.

Dogs kill again

A dog killed a man in the late afternoon of May 24th. The victim, a 55-year-old man, was walking his dog when he was attacked by another dog. The dog killed the man, who was rushed to the hospital, where he died from his injuries.

It's a fine thing

When you look for a fine thing, a fine thing it is. The tobacco season in Bulloch County is a fine thing. The tobacco market is not oversupplied, and prices are higher. This is a good sign for tobacco growers.

IT’S THAT LILLISTON WAY!

You can start harvesting potatoes as early as you want to with the Lilliston. The row may be wide and ready, but there’s no changing a Lilliston Combine. It will pick them, chunk them, clean them, bag or load them—all by the planter. And by the way, the planter gets a good hold in the dry soil, you’ll have plenty of seed planted and ready to go.

That’s why one of the many interesting features of the Lilliston Combine. Come see us—we’ll tell you exactly what we mean.
