Tobacco market make Growers happy

Tobacco farmers who sold to the Herald in Statesboro will receive the highest prices they have ever had for their crop, according to Webster Brown, buyer for the Ann.

The new crop of tobacco is质地 and number the finest ever brought into Statesboro. Tobacco is selling at prices which are not only higher than those of any other year, but are also far in excess of the highest price paid for tobacco in the past.

and stays around...

Your Weekly Newspaper

If you live in Bulloch County your weekly newspaper is THE BULLOCH HERALD...undoubtedly the one paper that stays round the home or office for an undetermined but neverless lengthy bit of time. To be read by all the family, invariably. There is nothing hurried about the HERALD.

AND OUR ADVERTISERS, TOO.

are assured of full readership by the large and growing family of HERALD readers. No hurried page turners and ad skippers—merely because the snow-week appearance of the HERALD draws full attention to every item. It's stay off at least a week around the house means at least a second or third look at your advertisement.
