To Voters of Bulloch County

I am a candidate for the office of Master of the Board of County Commissioners of Bulloch County at the Democratic Primary in the town of Statesboro on the 15th day of November, 1909. I have made every effort to acquaint the voters of this county with my qualifications as a public officer. I have welcomed every opportunity to speak to the voters of this county. In the conduct of this office, as I have on every other occasion, I will not fail to keep the voters to know that I pledge a continuance of my best service to the office.

Editorials

Go to the polls on Wed., Nov. 18 and VOTE!

Because we read deeply about our right to vote, three columns earlier, this week's Editorial is devoted specifically to the power of the ballot. It will be in the hands of those who read this newspaper who will decide who will be elected to represent us in our state and nation. And the people we elect will be those who will make decisions for the people of Georgia and the United States.

Go to the polls on Wednesday, Nov. 18, and vote for the candidates who will be the best for our American way of life. It is our duty and our right to vote, and we should all do our part to make sure our voices are heard in the election. The candidates who are elected will make decisions that will affect our lives, and we should all be represented.

The Editor's Uneasy Chair

by JAMES M. HARRIS

It is time to stop the wasteful use of our resources and to begin to conserve them. We must start by reducing our energy consumption and by using more efficient appliances. The time is now to act, and we must all do our part to help.

To Beat the Band

by RALPH BROWN

The first step in combating the problem of the band is to reduce the number of students who participate in it. We must also offer more rewarding opportunities for students who are interested in playing music. The band should be a fun and enjoyable experience for all students, and we should all work together to make it so.

The Editor's Uneasy Chair

by JAMES M. HARRIS

We must work together to protect our children from the dangers of the world. The band is one way that we can do this. By offering more rewarding opportunities, we can help to keep our children interested in music and encourage them to continue playing.

It Seems to Me

by ANNE BROWN

We need to protect our children from the dangers of the world. The band is one way that we can do this. By offering more rewarding opportunities, we can help to keep our children interested in music and encourage them to continue playing.
