Forget Yourself In One Moment Of Prayer

Trinity Episcopal Cathedral of the Charleston Diocese of the Episcopal Church in America

As a Christian, I find that the idea of being completely submerged in prayer is a powerful and peaceful experience. It is a moment where I can let go of all the worries and concerns of the world and focus solely on my connection with God. In this moment, I feel a sense of peace and tranquility that I cannot find anywhere else.

In the words of Kahlil Gibran, "Prayer is not asking. Prayer is a deep regret, a search, the yearning of spiritual nature, the2 sense of something greater than ourselves." This is a perfect description of the experience of prayer for me.

As I sit in this quiet moment, I feel a sense of gratitude for all the blessings in my life. I am thankful for the love and support of those around me, and for the opportunity to grow and learn from my experiences.

Prayer is not just a religious practice, it is a way of connecting with the world around us. It is a way of finding peace and tranquility in a world that can be chaotic and overwhelming.

In the end, prayer is a way of reminding ourselves that we are not alone, that we are connected to a greater power, and that we are capable of finding peace and tranquility in even the most difficult of circumstances.

God bless you and may your prayers always be answered.

Four H goals for 1960 inspire 4-Hers to Learn, Live, and Serve

The Georgia 4-H Club has set four goals for the 1960 year, which are designed to inspire 4-H members to learn, live, and serve. These goals are:

1. To develop a better understanding of their individual values and how they fit into the larger scheme of things.
2. To take an active part in the social and economic development of their communities.
3. To become better citizens of the state and the nation.
4. To develop leadership qualities and skills.
