Forget Yourself In One Moment Of Prayer

Tomorrow, Friday, March 6 is Good Friday. In this hour, the Doctor of the Church, St. John of the Cross, called it the 'Hour of the Force of the Holy Spirit' and has it assigned to us to empty ourselves of all the works and thoughts that the evil one has sown in our hearts. This hour has the value of the year as a whole. In this, we will be able to meet the conflicts that arise along the way. If we can't see these or read them, the best way is to take courage and find our way into the hour. The hour will then become a means to empty ourselves of our evils.

by we become empty to accept it.

Prayer is more than the mere exaltation of the spirit of devotion in meditation which a demon cannot withstand; it is the expression of a faith, unitive and majestic, that is born of the soul from the heart, the power of the spirit and the charity of the body in which prayer is addressed.

The soul gives all to prayer, the womb of God, that is nourished and given to the human soul for the purpose of possessing it by means of the grace of the Holy Spirit.

As the trinity of the Church, the Holy Ghost, the need to be emptied of all evils, and to exalt our hearts, are the principal characteristics of the hour of prayer. The hour is not to be considered as a means whereby we receive something, but as a means whereby we are emptied of our evils.

The hour of prayer is to be held in the pious place of the priest's chair. In this hour, the soul is to be emptied of all evils and to be exalted.

In this hour, the soul is to be emptied of all evils and to be exalted.

It's Bigger than He is

And in a person's life, some have the idea that the little chap is petted by the classes of our society, not because he is a child, but because he is a child of Christ. The little chap is the child of Christ, and the child of Christ is bigger than He is.

The little chap is the child of Christ, and the child of Christ is bigger than He is.

Before It's Too Late

If you are a citizen of this world and you have a voice in the hour of prayer, you are not only obeying the laws of God, but you are also obeying the laws of God in the hour of prayer. The hour is not to be considered as a means whereby we receive something, but as a means whereby we are emptied of our evils.

The hour of prayer is to be held in the pious place of the priest's chair. In this hour, the soul is to be emptied of all evils and to be exalted.

In this hour, the soul is to be emptied of all evils and to be exalted.

Anxiety is the failure to accept life as it really is

by Dr. John Ross

Anxiety is the failure to accept life as it really is, and it is the failure to accept the truth as it really is. In this hour, the soul is to be emptied of all evils and to be exalted.

The hour of prayer is to be held in the pious place of the priest's chair. In this hour, the soul is to be emptied of all evils and to be exalted.
