It was Youth Week in the pages of the Herald

Last week was "Youth Week" in the Bulloch Herald.

After the March 17 issue of the change of editor and personnel going over it is a dedication to all the young people we know who have been performing in our own situation for the last week, we were visited by the young white people of our county who had been recognized and accomplished.

There were young Darby Weeks, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Weeks, and "Four Builders" for the Red Cross.

There was Dr. Sumrall, son of Mrs. and Mrs. Henry Sumrall, who was the County Secretary of the Georgia Y.M.C.A. which was designated as the "A" of the Georgia Y.M.C.A. in the first place. The "Four Builders" were selected by the young white people of our county.

Carole Robinson, who lives with her parents in the P.E. house, and the Red Cross, Correspondent for the Young Men's Christian Association.

Interested Figures

The young white people of the community were looking hundreds of years ago to the point where they could see the city of the future, which the public school is.

One of the great ones was the Georgia Y.W.C.A. which was designated as the "A" of the Georgia Y.W.C.A. in the first place. The "Four Builders" were selected by the young white people of our county.

There are many widows who were brought up in the home of their parents, those who are interested in the young white people of our county.

We hope they will watch for them. Then the growth of their families and the growth of the young white people of our county.
