Boys are still needed to help the Editor sort the many contributions which have been received for the High School Homecoming Issue which will be published November 8th. Also boys are needed for the photo assignment who can help with the taking of pictures. Those boys interested in helping should see Mr. T. L. Tuck at the High School.

Jesse Shuler, who has been working for the newspaper and also the weekly publication for years, has gone back home to the farm following his return from the Pacific theater in the armed forces. He is now raising turkeys on the farm and wishes to thank all of the people who have patronized him. He will be happy to see some of the old friends who have not seen him for years.

The second annual fishing tournament will be held at the lake in front of the school on Saturday, November 8th. The prize winners will be announced at that time. Those boys who are interested in fishing are encouraged to enter the tournament. The prize money is cash and will be awarded to the winners.

The third annual reunion of the students of the Class of 1950 will be held at the school on Saturday, November 8th. The reunion is open to all alumni and former students of the school. The reunion will include a picnic and a program. All former students and alumni are encouraged to attend the reunion.
Rev. Glass’ book portrays ‘the good’

The Rev. E. L. Glass of Statesboro, in conjunction with the American Baptist Home Mission Society, has just published a hardbound book, "Baptist Missionary". It is a brief history of the American Baptist Home Mission Society from its beginning in 1836 to the present day, recounting its significant history and the many lives it has touched.

The book is available for purchase at local bookstores or online.

Helms family holds reunion at Ebenezer

The Helms family held its annual reunion at Ebenezer Baptist Church this past weekend. The gathering was a great success, with many family members from across the country coming together to celebrate.

Attendees enjoyed a variety of activities, including a family history workshop and a reunion dinner.

Rites held for Bascombe Rackley here July 18

Rites were held for Bascombe Rackley here July 18 at Ebenezer Baptist Church. The service was a poignant reminder of the importance of community and the impact of loss.

The service was attended by many friends and family members, who came together to remember Bascombe and celebrate his life.
