Our community welcomes GSC students

Welcome to Statesboro! On behalf of the citizens of Statesboro and Bulloch County, the editors of The Bulloch Herald say "Welcome" to you and you and, you, all students of Georgia Southern College.

Throughout this special Welcome issue of our newspaper the churches say welcome and invite you to worship in the church of your choice. Our city and county officials say welcome to Statesboro and Bulloch County. The president of your college, Dr. Zach Henderson, the dean of your college, Dean Paul Carroll, bid you welcome and have a message for you.

Ralph Tyson, Dean of Students, adds his welcome.

The business community of Statesboro says welcome and invites you into their stores where you will find a cordial reception. You sophomores, juniors and seniors are already familiar with Statesboro and know your way around. The community is happy that you are back with us.

Our special welcome is for the freshmen—those of you who come here from far away counties and are new visitors in our community. We have a particular warm place in our hearts for you.

Many of you may be away from home for the first time—that is, really away from home and father and mother. You may be finding the going a bit tough these first few days, but that will soon change. You'll find your classmates friendly. You'll find the upper classes a little rough on you in accordance with the traditions of the college, but that is a part of college life about which you remember when you become a sophomore next year. As you get used to the idea that you are in college, that you are here seeking higher knowledge, and you begin to relax and look around, you'll see what sort of community in which you are to make your home away from home for the next four years.

You'll find that those who live in this community are a friendly people, anxious to help you and wanting to make you feel at home.

You'll find the church of your choice has a place for you and you'll find the people there have a warm heart and are anxious to help you.

You'll find our city friendly. Our city fathers are friendly folk. They are working at making the community of which your college is a great part, one of which the college can be proud.

Our County Commissioners are charged with making the county which sought out and helped establish the college you are now a part of, one about which you can write back home with pride.

And the citizens—now more than 10,000 of us—are keenly aware of the impact the college has upon the community. We are alert to the great contribution you and your teachers and staff members make to our community. We are extremely proud of our college. We praise it highly when we spread out into the parts of the nation at all points of the compass.

Now—we have said our welcome on behalf of the community. We have expressed how our community feels about you and our college. We are happy you are here. We want you to be happy here. Welcome!

We salute industry—small and big

Next week, September 25-30, Industry in Statesboro, Bulloch County and Georgia will be entered in the spotlight of public attention and interest as the state observes "Georgia Industry Week."

Governor Ernest Vandiver threw the switch on the spotlight with his proclamation designating that week as the one in which industry will have the center stage.

We join in the salute to all industry in Georgia, and to all those agencies who have contributed so much toward industry's growth and development in our state.

But we throw up our hat and shout "Hurrah!", especially for industry in Statesboro and Bulloch County. We are joined by the people of our community in saying "thanks" for its tremendous contribution to the economic welfare and stability of our city and county.

We salute with a deep feeling of pride and appreciation the small industries in our community, as well as our major industries. For the man whose little industry may employ only five, ten, fifteen or twenty, is just as important to this community as the corporation whose industry may employ hundreds. For when you add up the contributions of the several little industries you arrive at an equivalent of a big industry.

Building a better Statesboro and Bulloch County and Georgia through proper industrialization calls for the understanding, and cooperation of all. Our local, county and state economy can be improved and assured by establishing and supporting small industrial plants in all sections of Georgia.

"Georgia Industry Week" is designed by the Associated Industries of Georgia, the Georgia Department of Commerce and the Statesboro and Bulloch County Chamber of Commerce to focus attention to the part that industry plays in communities throughout Georgia.

And we are for that. So while the spotlight is on let's look at our industries, little and big, in Statesboro and Bulloch County and say "thanks to them for what they do for us."

Renew your C of C membership today

Have you renewed your Chamber of Commerce membership yet? If you have not, do so this week.

Your Chamber of Commerce, together with the Bulloch County Development Board is launching an ambitious program designed for the growth and progress of this community.

On Tuesday of this week they participated in an Industrial Workshop at which three of the state's leading experts presided. An analysis was made of our assets and how the community can capitalize on them.

Support them in this all important phase of your business and community responsibility.

Mail your membership check to the Chamber of Commerce TODAY.

The Autumn Leaves

By LAWRENCE E. HOUSTON JR.

DON'T CALL ME, I'll call you. Every salesman knows the meaning of that phrase. It is a polite brush-off. When used, the person is usually saying, "not now, later."

The Christian practice of evangelism faces it, too. The refusal to accept Jesus Christ as Lord usually takes this form: "Not now, later perhaps. Don't call me, I'll call you."

This devastating practice of procrastination is clearly illustrated in the life of Felix the governor before whom Paul made a defense of his faith. The story is found in the Book of the Acts, chapter twenty-four. Felix was originally a freed slave who had worked his way to the highest office in Judea. His complete lack of conscience toward the Jew to whom he was a slave is an achievement attained with difficulty. Do not nothing is always easy and pleasant while to decide and act is irksome and fatiguing.

St. Augustine writes in his Confessions: "When thou didst show me that what Thou saidst was true, I, conscious of the truth, had nothing at all to answer but, these dull and drowsy words, 'Not now, later perhaps.' It is natural to delay."

AFTER A STIRRING sermon preached by the Rev. Dr. John R. Mott, was approached by a young student. "Sir, I will certainly think seriously about what you have said," Dr. Mott shot back. "Young man, you had better think it to a conclusion, and quick, or I will be here the day after, but not!"

Following is the story of a non-alcoholic wife of an alcoholic written especially for this column. She is a former Bulloch County girl who now resides in another city where her husband is a member of A.A.

My name is Louise and I am the wife of an admitted alcoholic. I am a member of the Al-Anon Family group in Savannah. This group is composed of wives, husbands, or other members of the families of alcoholics. Our meetings are held on Thursday nights on the first floor of the A.A. house, while the alcoholics hold a closed meeting in the second room upstairs.

I feel that it is very important that Al-Anon holds meetings on the same night that A.A. holds meetings for alcoholics only. In this way, we devote two nights every week to the "closed meeting" for alcoholics which we always attend together.

TO GO JUST a little bit into our story before A.A. I must go back a few years. During our courtship an early marriage, we enjoyed a few drinks socially. We went to a lot of parties, and had a lot of fun. All the people we associated with at that time drank, and it just seemed to be the way of life. We always enjoyed these parties until alcohol became a real problem with my husband. It seems that every time one of these parties came along, he would stop drinking and it was very embarrassing.

About this time, we stopped

On the 9th of September, 1960 I wrote a letter to Robert F. Kennedy, brother and campaign chairman of the Democratic Nominee for President. In this letter I tried to point out the feelings of the people in our state concerning certain issues in the campaign. Along with this letter went a copy of my column endorsing Senator Kennedy for President which appeared in the August 11 issue of the Bulloch Herald. You will remember this endorsement came weeks ahead of the Vandiver visit to Washington to see the Kennedys, after which the Georgia Governor announced his support of the Democratic ticket for 1960.

FIVE DAYS LATER I received a letter from Robert Kennedy in answer to my remarks. One sentence from that letter has given me much food for thought. "The copy of your recent column has been read with great interest and your support of Senator Kennedy and the Democratic Party in these grave times is most welcome."

Many of us in recent weeks have tried to divorce the leadership of the democratic party from the party itself. We have tried to visualize the party apart from John Kennedy. This is a thing which can not be done. The two are inseparable and to try to divorce the party from its leadership is unrealistic and impossible. Our only alternative is to divorce ourselves from the party.

IT IS INDEED true that we live in grave times. Our leadership has been challenged and the present leadership in Washington has not met that challenge. Richard Nixon must bear part of the responsibility for these grave times.

It is my firm conviction that a democratic president and a sensible congress is more nearly the answer to the problems of our nation than is the pussy footing policy of the republicans. The right leadership and the right congress is of tremendous importance in these grave times.

From 1949 to 1959, Georgia farmers' cash receipts rose 56 percent, their production expenditures rose 79 percent during the same period, according to Agriculture Extension Service.

It is discouraging for a wife and mother to work hard at her job of homemaking and to have her earnings appropriated by the General Assembly in the contingent budget, were made possible by a year-end surplus of more than 50 million dollars. The surplus itself resulted from better enforcement of existing tax laws, and from the elimination of management non-essential spending, and expanded services of $47,123,680.

The hike in spending, too, is one of the largest annual increases in state history. It is significant that it has been accomplished without a tax increase. Gov. Vandiver has been able thus far to live up to his promise of increasing services without new taxes.

"Greatest increase in expenditures—more than half goes to education. Common schools receive 19 million of it. But appropriations for other essential services, health, highways and welfare are at a new peak."

I had to completely overcome this "Mothered Bad Boy" attitude which I had developed. Admitting these things to myself helped to balance our relationship, and bring it closer to an ideal partnership in marriage.

I had to have a complete mental "house cleaning," of all the resentments, self pity and selfishness which had been with me so long. However, I do not resent the help he has received from A.A. I have heard some wives say they resented the fact that A.A. members could help their husbands when they themselves, could not. I am very thankful and grateful for this help.

BEFORE A.A., I had always thought the word "humble" meant lowly or servile, but today it means something very different. It means leveling off from the superiority which had always felt about managing and handling his drinking problem. By striving toward the goal of humility for myself, I find that together, we are going in the same direction. We are both striving toward a peace of mind and a new way of life through the A.A. program through they may not have believed that they needed it.

FOR THE ALCOHOLIC husband one of the most effective channels to sobriety is through his non-alcoholic wife; through his alcoholic wife, through her husband.

Many of these people who have no problem with alcohol and who take their mates to Alcoholics Anonymous find they are able to gain insight, peace of mind and a new way of life through the A.A. program through they may not have believed that they needed it.

Legion welcomes veterans to Ga. Southern

Dexter Allen Post 500, American Legion, Statesboro, Georgia joins with the rest of Statesboro and Bulloch County in welcoming the students of Georgia Southern College to our community. Commander Walter Henry announces that any eligible wartime veterans desiring to join the American Legion is cordially invited to visit the home of Post 500, which is located in J and one-half miles South of Statesboro on U.S. Highway 301. Post 500 also has an open membership card of all other American Legion posts.

Regent Williams says 'Welcome' to students for Board of Regents

To the Students of Georgia College: As a member of the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia, from the First Congressional District, I wish to welcome you to Georgia Southern College and to Statesboro and Bulloch County.

We on the Board of Regents are proud of the college here. Our pride is based upon the record of the college, the quality of its staff, facilities which are being constantly updated, and especially are we proud of the type of students which the college is attracting.

This last includes you. We believe that the future of Georgia Southern College is bright while realizing that its future is dependent upon you who elect to come here for your education.

May your experiences here add to your growth as citizens in our community as well as in the community you call home.

Sincerely, EVERETT WILLIAMS, Member Board of Regents

GROWING PLANTS FROM CUTTINGS

One of the common errors that gardeners make in attempting to root cuttings is to make the cuttings too long according to Gerald Smith, Extension horticulturist. He says that generally a four to six inch length is desirable. Longer stems are more difficult to root. Remove all leaves from the lower half of the cutting and none from the upper half, he advises, because removal of too many leaves will reduce vigor of the young plant.

Hubert Brinson is 'Soldier of the Month'

BERLIN, Germany, September 10—Army Specialist Fourth Grade Hubert F. Brinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brinson of 128 West Main Street, Statesboro, was named August's "Soldier of the Month" in the Second Battle Group, 6th Infantry of the U. S. Army's Berlin Command.

The mission of Berlin Command, composed of the only U.S. Army occupation troops remaining in the world and coinciding with the 81-square-mile United States Sector of Berlin, is to protect American rights and property in this isolated city deep in the Soviet Zone of Germany and to assist in the maintenance of law and order in a free Berlin.

Specialist Brinson, who is a fire team leader in Company D of the Second Battle Group, was selected as his unit's outstanding soldier in a competition, which stressed soldierly bearing and appearance, knowledge of military subjects and current events, and proficiency on the job.

Dean Ralph K. Tyson greets Georgia Southern College students

Greetings and welcome to Georgia Southern College! After the quiet since summer quarter closed, the campus activities of returning students sounds good again. There will be the sound of more voices this fall than previously, as we have many more people on the campus.

These men and women come from every area in Georgia, and from several places out of the state. They will show a variety of interests as they register for courses which will prepare them for teaching and for industry. Some will be taking two-year courses preparing them for clerical and secretarial work. Others will be staying four years and working toward an A.B. or B.S., or B.S.E. D. degree. Still others will be enrolling as Saturday classes leading toward a Masters of Education degree.

The men and women on campus will become involved in such activities as Saturday night dances, movies, athletics, dramatics, art, band, choir, Student Council, and church or departmental organizations. Some will serve on the staff of the school publications. The Georgia-Anne, The Reflector, the "T" Handbook, and the Miscellany. Our hope is that all will affiliate with a student organization compatible with their interest.

College attendance is not an "end" in itself—it is but a "means" to and "end"—the "end" being a life which is happier, more useful, more efficient, and more satisfactory to those about you than such a life would have been otherwise.

The office of the Dean of Students will be interested in you, your activities and anything which concerns you. We know that you will face many problems. If this office can be of help to you in finding information pertinent to some of your questions, come by to see us. Or just come by anyway! We'll be delighted to see you!

Sincerely yours, RALPH K. TYSON, Dean of Students

First Baptist Church says 'Welcome GSC'

To the Students of Georgia Southern College: We of the First Baptist Church of Statesboro join with the others of our community in expressing greetings and welcome to you as you begin the year at Georgia Southern College. It is our hope that this will be one of your happiest and most profitable years.

Our church wants to be of service to the students in any way we may. We have a regular college department in Sunday School and also in Training Union. Also, the BSU of the college sponsors a fellowship hour in our church for all college students following the evening worship on Sundays. We cordially invite those of Baptist faith or preference to become a part of our church and its organizations.

First Baptist will have a supper at church next Wednesday, September 28, for the students of Baptist faith or preference. This will be held on the church grounds if weather permits. Otherwise, it will be held in the church building. Games and other activities will be enjoyed on the church grounds prior to the supper. The exact time will be announced later.

We invite you to call on us at any time you feel we may be of help. May God bless each one of you now and in the days ahead.

Cordially, First Baptist Church

Jr. Woman's Club reviews achievements

The Statesboro Junior Woman's Club held its regular monthly meeting Thursday, September 8, at the Fair Road Center. The Conservation Department has served refreshments on the opening day of school to the Classroom for Exceptional Children.

The Education Department, responsible for the program, showed a film on Mental Health. Mrs. J. A. Pafford, teacher of the Classroom for Exceptional Children and guest speaker, gave an interesting and informative talk on her classroom and her responsibilities as a teacher.

The following members were recognized: Mrs. Frank Simmons, Jr., Homemaker of the Year; Mrs. Sonny Byrd, Sunshine Chairman; Mrs. Raymond Massa, Tazulab Falls Chairman; Mrs. Paul Akins, Woman's Club Service Bureau Chairman; Mrs. Francis Allen, Club Woman's Magazine Chairman; Mrs. Charles Brinson, Mental Health Chairman.

Twenty-six (26) members and six visitors were present.

Drive for Boys Estate set for September 27

Mrs. K. R. Herring of Statesboro announced today that members of the Beta Sigma Phi will conduct a drive on Tuesday, September 27, to help raise funds for Boys Estate, 1215 North Brunswick.

She stated that Miss Margaret Kelley of Boys Estate will be the guest of the Beta Sigma Phi on Monday night, September 26.

According to Mrs. Herring, the story of Boys Estate is a simple one. Yet it is filled with the heart-warming efforts of those who value the need for material aid to and guidance for unfortunate youth. It becomes a saga of human love.

She said that some fifteen years ago some public spirited citizens of the Coastal area combined efforts to provide a place where young boys, "who for various causes lacked the opportunities for mental, physical and spiritual growth, could spend their formative years in preparing properly for the demands of manhood and good citizenship."

Buildings at Boys Estate include the Department of Public Works, Municipal Laundry, Barber Shop, and the Iggy Pig-gly Store.

At present there are fifty-three boys at Boys Estate. "Please give as generously as you can, when you pass the Beta Sigma Phi tables on Tuesday," Mrs. Herring says.

100 farmers use FHA funds to build new homes

Marshall R. Thigpen, County Supervisor of the local FHA office, advises that 4% loans are available to farm owners who need to construct new farm buildings or make improvements and repairs to existing buildings, and may also include the drilling of deep wells.

More than 100 farmers in this area have already taken advantage of this service and have made many much needed farm improvements. In addition to the low interest rate, the loans may be secured by second and possibly third mortgages on farmers where the improvements are to be made. They are amortized over a period of from 5 years to as much as 33 years.

Schedule of repayment per $1000.00, including 4% interest, are as follows:

Table with 3 columns: Years, Per Mo., Per Mo. (interest). Rows for 33, 30, 25, 20, 15, 10, 5 years.

Borrowers have the privilege of paying additional amounts or in full at any time without penalty. Mr. Thigpen states further that these loans are authorized for the purpose of supplementing but not replacing local sources of credit. Therefore, a close working relationship is always maintained between his office and other local agricultural lending agencies in rendering assistance to farmers in the area.

Eligibility requirements are simple: Applicant must own a farm but not necessarily live on it. For the purpose of this loan, the minimum definition of a farm is as follows: One or more parcels of land, at least a portion of which is in annual agricultural production, from which the operator plans to produce agricultural products having a value of at least $400.00 based on 1954.

Funds available through these loans are not authorized for payment of costs incurred or debts owed in connection with improvements made prior to receiving such a loan. Therefore, anyone interested is invited to call PO 4-2516 or visit the FHA office at 7 North College Street in Statesboro for full information.

Very sincerely yours, EDGAR WYNN, Chairman Bulloch County Board of Commissioners into the cells of plants, secrete a digestive substance and then the contents of the plant cell into their digestive tract through this same spear.

Q. What parts of the plant do parasitic nematodes feed on? A. Depending on the plant, nematodes are known which will feed on the roots, stems, bulbs, fruit, and leaves of plants.

Q. Do all nematodes cause knots and galls on the roots of plants? A. No. Only the root-knot nematodes and a few others cause galls on the roots of plants. Most nematodes produce localized injury to the plant part affected and this is usually accompanied by stunting.

Q. Are the above ground plant symptoms characteristic of nematodes are feeding on the roots? A. The nematodes damage the root system usually causing a lack of plant vigor accompanied by a yellowing or loss of color. Sometimes these symptoms are difficult to distinguish from other diseases such as wilt, root rots and nutritional deficiencies.

For a second installment of questions and answers on nematodes, be sure to read next week's issue. Be sure to read next week's issue.

Q. How do parasitic nematodes feed on plants? A. Parasitic nematodes feed by means of a hollow stylet (spear). They inject this spear

Senior Citizens installs new officers

The Senior Citizen Club held their regular meeting at the Fair Road Center Tuesday, September 13. Officers for the new year were installed and will assume their duties at the next meeting.

Hostess for the afternoon were Mrs. Elaine Hulst and Mrs. Don Russell. Winner for the door prize was Mrs. J. D. Akins. Plans are underway for a rummage sale, anyone having things they wish to contribute to the Senior Citizens are asked to call Mrs. Russell at 4-2850, Miss Jones at 4-3705, Mrs. Hulst at 4-2014 and they will be picked up. If you prefer they may be brought by the Fair Road Center.

The out going officers were presented a long stemmed carnation in recognition as the oldest charter member. Mrs. L. T. Denmark led the group in a very inspiring devotional. The club meets on regular schedule twice each month the 2nd and 4th Tuesday afternoons from 4 to 5:30. September 27th is next meeting date.

First Methodist Church welcomes GSC students

Dear Co-Ed, Let me congratulate you on your scholastic achievements so far. It is good to have you in our city. You will make many new friends in Statesboro both at the college and in the community. I would like to be one of those friends.

It goes without saying that you will be growing mentally during your stay. The folks at First Methodist are concerned that you have an opportunity to develop your spiritual and ethical potential also. It is our desire to provide in the college class (discussion group) and at the worship services, stimulating experiences that will keep pace with your intellectual attainments.

We desire to be of help and encouragement to you. Sincerely, C. E. CARIKER religious life of the community. Each year many of the faculty members serve as leaders of community, as well as national organizations. Dr. Donald F. Hackett, chairman of the division of arts, is president of the Statesboro Lions Club for 1960-61. Dr. Ralph K. Tyson, dean of students, served as consultant to the First District Mental Health Program, and was a member of the State Hospital Advisory Committee.

For a number of years the college faculty members have not been able to accept all the requests for advisory service of the people of the state. However, they have helped in many educational and civic activities. Thirty-three members of the faculty made an estimated 210 speeches and talks to off-campus groups during the year. In addition, Dr. Daniel S. Hooley, professor of music, edited the Georgia Music Association Quarterly. Joseph A. Axelsson, director of public relations, served as chairman of the public relations committee of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (a group of 460 colleges and universities of which Georgia Southern College is a member), and served as an advisor to the organization at three national tournaments.

During the year the college received $23,358.07 in gifts and grants including $19,004.00 from the federal government, $4,976.52 from the Athletic Association donations, and $11,616.00 contributed by 558 Alumni members ($2.00 each).

There was no organized research carried on during the year by the college. However, Dr. Burton J. Bogtish, associate professor of Biology, studied "The Chemical Nature of Metacercarial Cysts in Fish" with a grant from the Department of Health, Education and Welfare in the amount of $3,421. In addition, Dr. Bogtish has been given an additional grant of $2,500 for further research in the same field for 1960-61.

The members of the college staff take an active part in the civic, cultural, educational, and three national tournaments.

2 NEW BUILDINGS ARE OPENED

During the year construction was completed on the Frank I. Williams Center and the Charles H. Herty Classroom Building. The Frank I. Williams Center was opened at the beginning of the Fall Quarter 1959 and the Herty Building at the beginning of the summer quarter 1960.

Construction was started on two more buildings during the year 1959-60, the Arts-Industrial Arts Building and another Residence Hall for Women. The first building should be completed by January 1, 1961 and the second by June 1, 1961.

The changing of the name from Georgia Teachers College to Georgia Southern College was the major change during the year. The older graduates and citizens who had known the college for many years found it difficult to say Georgia Southern College. However, the reaction to the changing of the name has been good.

In recent years the objectives of the college have been enlarged to include the degrees of Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Science in Recreation, and Master of Education.

VOLUME XIX—ESTABLISHED MARCH 26, 1937—P. O. BOX 210 STATESBORO, GEORGIA, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1960 NUMBER 45

President Henderson's report shows recent progress at Georgia Southern

On August 31, 1960, Zach S. Henderson of Georgia Southern College, submitted his report of the college for the year 1959-1960 to the Chancellor of the University System of Georgia.

"Every year brings changes in the progress of the college," President Henderson wrote the Chancellor, "but the year 1959-1960 was a year when the name (of the college) was changed for the fourth time and this brought about many changes in the life of the college. The enrollment continued to climb with each quarter being larger than any other corresponding quarter. The opening of two new buildings, the Frank I. Williams Center and the Charles H. Herty Classroom Building, was one of the highlights of the year. Each building was so far superior to the ones replaced that the students, faculty, and community marveled at the changes in the physical appearance of the campus."

Some highlights of the reports are as follows:

In 1949-1950 the average salary of a professor at Georgia Southern was $4,425. Ten years later, 1959-1960, the average salary of a professor is $6,728. Ten years ago an associate professor received $3,513. Last year he received $5,455, and an instructor received $2,650 in 1949-50 and last year received $4,475.

The average number of full-time teachers engaged in teaching at GSC during the 1959-60 quarter at any time in the history of the college. The average enrollment for the regular session, 1959-1960, was 1,043. The

There were 37 in the first session and twenty in the second session.

There were fourteen professors whose average salary was $6,728. There were fourteen associate professors whose average salary was $5,252, and one instructor whose average salary was $4,390.

"The teaching staff is doing excellent work," reported President Henderson. "We have been able to hold most of our teachers, and those without advanced degrees are at work during the summer taking advanced courses. The faculty members are interested in the welfare of the students and spend much time in conference with the students. The faculty-student morale is good. For the year 1959-1960 there were twenty staff members holding the doctorate and for the year 1960-1961 there will be twenty-five," he said.

ENROLLMENT INCREASES WITH EACH QUARTER

According to the report the enrollment at GSC last year was just a little higher than for the preceding year. The enrollment for each quarter was larger than that for the same quarter at any time in the history of the college. The average enrollment for the regular session, 1959-1960, was 1,043. The

"Among the students and faculty members there was a general feeling that scholastic standards were higher than in previous years," President Henderson said in his report. He reported the grades in percentages for the regular session as follows: For 1954-55: A's, 16.8 per cent; B's 35.5 per cent; C's, 37.3 per cent; D's 7.5 per cent; E's and F's 3.8. For 1959-60, the percentages were: A's 13.1 per cent; B's 31.9 per cent; C's, 37.1 per cent; D's, 10 per cent and E's and F's 7.6 per cent. This in the five years the percentages of A's and B's decreased and C's, D's, and F's increased. Thirty-seven students were dropped during the year for academic deficiencies. Of the thirty-seven, twelve were dropped at the end of the fall quarter, twelve at the end of the winter quarter, and thirteen at the end of the spring quarter.

EXTRA-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES AND STUDENT CONDUCT

"The college encouraged student participation in a variety of active campus clubs and organizations," Dr. Henderson said. "Students' interest and need formed the basis for the formation of new organizations. Faculty interest and active support supplemented student leadership. Campus organizations were encouraged to join national or international affiliates," he reported.

The report showed that organizations and clubs sponsored campus-wide social activities in addition to periodic meetings and activities restricted to their individual memberships. The social content of the student council sponsored campus wide matinee dances and free movies.

The Baptist Student Union sponsored inter-denominational religious "Twilight" services four nights weekly. Students in each of the five denominations observed "evening watch" religious activities, nightly. Wesley Foundation, Westminster Fellowship, Primitive Baptist Youth Fellowship and BSU carried on active programs. Religious Emphasis Week was actively supported by the students and faculty and provides additional opportunities for the

Teach Your Children Thrift with S&H GREEN STAMPS

Many families use S&H Green Stamps to help their children learn the all-important habit of saving. They use them as awards for doing chores around the home. For instance, a child who cleans his room can earn a stamp. So many S&H Green Stamps each week to daughter for drying the dishes or helping clean house. . . . so many for mowing the lawn or for other odd jobs. Many housewives tell us it's a wonderful way to accomplish the twofold purpose of rewarding youngsters for tasks well done and showing them how thrift pays.

Youngsters of every age from tots to teens love S&H Green Stamps because they can redeem them for a wide variety of quality items that are dear to children's hearts. Try this plan in your home. You'll be truly amazed to find how well it works.

The story behind Georgia Southern

By ROBERTA HALPERN

The time February 7, 1908, the place Statesboro, Georgia, and the event - the opening of the First District Agricultural and Mechanical School which marked the beginning of the colorful story behind one of the fastest growing educational institutions in the state today, Georgia Southern College.

Recognizing a distinct need for better educating the rural youth of the state at about the turn of the century, Joseph S. Stewart, professor of education at the University of Georgia, proposed that a district high school be created. Highly endorsed by Governor Joseph M. Terrell, the proposal became law in August of 1906 and district agricultural and mechanical schools were established in each congressional district of the state. Under the leadership of Albert M. Deal, Statesboro and Bulloch County citizens contributed 275 acres of land, $25,000.00 in cash, and free electricity and water for the school site for the First District.

Distinct Need Felt

An increasing need for teachers following World War I resulted in a legislative bill being passed on 1924 under the sponsorship of the Board of Trustees changing the First District Agricultural and Mechanical School into Georgia Normal School. A four year program of teacher training soon developed and in 1929 the first Bachelor of Science in Education degree were conferred upon the June graduating class. A milestone in Georgia Teachers College in August 1929 also marked the changing of the college name Georgia Normal School to South Georgia Teachers College in August.

Trinity Episcopal Church says 'Welcome G. S. C.'

Dean Paul Carroll express hope that college will promote growth

A new college year is always an exciting prospect because of the many possibilities it holds for desirable changes in our patterns of living. New faces, new personalities, new experiences serve to test and challenge us as we seek to find a place for ourselves in the complex society of our day.

College student bodies are each year becoming increasingly selective in terms of the scholastic ability and seriousness of purpose of the young people enrolled. Crowded campuses everywhere make it almost mandatory for each student to justify his presence by his contributions and achievements.

As you come to the campus for the first time or return after the summer vacation, we welcome you in the hope that your experiences at Georgia Southern College this year will materially promote your further personal and educational development and growth.

Sincerely,
PAUL CARROLL, Dean

The man who travels light

A PAD, A PENCIL, binoculars and a snakebite kit. These items go with the long-striding men who patrol our power lines.

These patrolmen have rivers to cross and treacherous swamps and rugged mountain ranges. They follow whenever men have cleared the way enough to raise transmission towers and stretch wires.

Their eyes are trained to see broken insulators, burned conductors, slackened guywires, timber near the lines, anything that could interrupt the flow of electricity.

Most of the patrol work is done with airplanes, but there are some times and always places that call for the man on foot.

Somehow, to us, the solitary figure of a line patrolman is a symbol of vigilance. He is a reminder of our duty to fulfill your trust by serving you well.

The man who travels light helps us to carry this heavy responsibility.

Cecily Kennedy Jr.

Mrs. Marjorie Louise Hendrix, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hendrix, was married Sunday afternoon, September 11, to Cecil E. Kennedy Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil E. Kennedy Sr.

The ceremony was performed at the First Methodist Church at 4 p. m. by the Rev. Carl Cariker, Mr. Roger Jr. Holland Sr., organist, presented nuptial music and accompanied Dr. Rogers Holland Jr., soloist, who sang "Ave Maria" and "Prayer Perfect."

Two large urns filled with white gladioli and chrysanthemums flanked by candelabra trees with lighted tapers, decorated the altar, in beautiful simplicity.

The lovely bride, given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Mr. Reggie Beasley, wore a floor-length wedding gown of candle light satin, featuring hand-crafted panels of imported lace drifting from a mist of pleated nylon tulle. Imported sparkles and pearls were attached to a jeweled train. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and carnations, centered with a white orchid.

Mr. Joan Beasley, matron of honor, wore a bronze gold sheath with flattering overskirt; matching satin gloves and a head piece of gold veiling and tiny bows.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. Ira Lindy and Mrs. Don Row of Savannah, wore turquoise sheath dresses, styled like that of the honor attendant.

The groom's father was best man. Usher, groomsmen were Billy Hendrix of Savannah and Roger Brown of Calhoun, brother-in-law of the groom.

The bride's mother wore a dusty rose lace sheath with matching lace hat. Her corsage was an orchid.

The groom's mother wore a white orchid corsage and matching accessories. Her corsage was of blue carnations.

RECEPTION IN CHURCH PARLOR

Immediately following the ceremony, the bride's parents were hosts at a lovely reception in the church parlors. Mrs. T. J. Hagan greeted the guests, who were introduced to the receiving line by Mrs. Grady Johnson. In the line with the bride and groom and the bride's attendants were Mrs. Hendrix and Mrs. Cecil Kennedy Sr., Mrs. Roger Brown of Calhoun, sister of the groom, kept the bride's book.

The bride's table was overlaid with a lustrous white satin floor length cloth and centered with a three-tiered wedding cake which was cut and served by Mrs. George B. Lee Jr. Silver branched candelabra flanked the cake.

Guests were directed to the refreshment table by Mrs. Alton Brannen, where Miss Yvette Flesher and Mrs. Carl Deal served punch.

Mrs. Luther Bacon of Savannah assisted in serving and mingled with the guests Mrs. Edgar Hagan, at the door as the guests were leaving, reminded them to go by the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reggie Beasley to see the gifts.

When the bride and groom left later in the afternoon for a wedding trip, the bride was wearing a gray two-toned sheath with fitted jacket and dark blue hat and gloves and the orchid from her wedding bouquet.

PARENTS OF GROOM ENTERED REHEARSAL PARTY AT MER-CE HILL

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Kennedy Sr. were hosts at their lovely home, "Mer-CE Hill" on Groves Lake for the Rehearsal party of the Hendrix-Kennedy nuptials.

The guests were served buffet on the lake shore with shrimp in tomato rosettes, lima bean casserole, devilled eggs, pickles, cheese spread and dips, crackers and potato chips, hot rolls and chocolate cake on the menu.

Supper guests were Miss Margie Hendrix and Cecil E. Kennedy Jr., Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Cariker, Dr. and Mrs. Roger Holland Jr., Mrs. R. J. Holland Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Reggie Beasley, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Lindy, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Bacon, Mr. Billy Hendrix, and Miss Yvette Flesher.

Mayor Bill Bowen says 'Welcome' to Ga. Southern College students

To the Students of Georgia Southern, Statesboro, Georgia
Young women and young men:
As Mayor of the City of Statesboro I am happy to have been given the opportunity to say "Welcome" to our community through the medium of this newspaper.
We know that you must think that Georgia Southern College is a fine school—your very presence here is proof of that. Now, we want you to know that the citizens of Statesboro think the same.
We want you to feel that Statesboro is your home away from home and that the people here welcome you. Give them the opportunity and they will take you into their hearts.
We hope that your years here in our midst are to be your happiest ones. We hope that you will find that for which you are searching here at Georgia Southern College.
So, on behalf of the people of Statesboro, I welcome you to our college. Please make yourselves to home.

Sincerely,
W. A. BOWEN, Mayor
City of Statesboro

Legion to give $100 bill away in member drive

Mr. J. B. Gaudry, senior vice commander and membership chairman, announces that dues for the 1961 Legion year are now payable.
In order to provide an extra incentive for timely renewal of old members and for new members to join, a brand new, crisp one hundred dollar bill will be given to a 1961 member of Dexter Allen Post 90, American Legion, Statesboro, Georgia at the regular monthly meeting to be held at the Post Home on November 18, 1960. At this time the names of all members having a 1961 card will be placed in a hat and a name will be drawn to receive the prize. You do not have to be present to win.
Requirements for membership in the American Legion is that one must have had service in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, or Air Force of the United States on an active duty status at some time during any of the following periods: April 6, 1917 to November 11, 1918; December 7, 1941 to September 2, 1945; June 25, 1950 to July 27, 1953; or who, being a citizen of the U.S. at the time of his entry therein, served on active duty with the armed forces of any of the foregoing periods. Honorable discharge or separation is a prerequisite. The only exception to this regulation is that a person who refused on conscientious, political, or other grounds to subject himself to military discipline or unqualified service is not eligible, or other grounds to subject himself to military discipline or unqualified service is not eligible.

Mr. Gaudry points out that most eligible veterans will join the American Legion this year, and asks, "Why not make the little extra effort required to contact one of the post officers before November 18 and pay the $4.00 dues, thereby assuring your name being in the hat for a chance at an extra hundred dollars to spend for Christmas?"
Representatives of farmers, business people, bankers, government agencies, fertilizer dealers, seed dealers, civic organizations, school teachers, Farm Bureau, and other segments of Bulloch County's people were present at this meeting.
Dr. Irvin M. Mofford, representing the Georgia Plant Food Educational Society, pointed out the tremendous results of the Soil Fertility Program begun in Bulloch County two years ago with soil testing, followed by the Master Corn Program in 1959, and now being extended to the development of better pastures in this county. Dr. Mofford pledged the cooperation of the Plant Food Society in carrying out this Big M Pasture Program.
Ralph Johnson, of Athens, Extension Agronomist, told the group of Bulloch County leaders at this meeting that the Big M Pasture Program meant More Grass, More Beef, More Milk and More Money.
Mr. Johnson said the planned Big M Program is a phase of the Soil Fertility program that can increase Georgia farm income by $200 million dollars by better fertilization and better management of feed, forage and pasture programs. Soil Testing, Liming, Fertilization, and Managing the Right Grass, and Manurement are the five steps in this program.
Mr. Johnson pointed out that Bulloch County dairymen and beef cattle producers could expect a $1,000,000 increase in their income from dairying and beef cattle production if the 25,000 acres of permanent pasture and 10,000 acres of temporary pasture was made to produce the maximum grazing

Happy-Go-Lucky Clubs holds first meeting

The Happy Go Lucky Club held its first meeting of the new year Monday night, September 12th at the Fair Road Center. 79 girls were present at this first meeting. Games, dancing and refreshments were enjoyed and many new plans are underway for this year's activities.
All girls who are in the 6th and 7th grades in Statesboro and Bulloch county are invited to join. This club meets each Monday night from 7 to 8:30 p.m. Registration is one dollar, dues are then 50 cents each month.

Bulloch's gross tax digest for 1960 is up to $14,146,340

The 1960 tax digest for Bulloch County shows a gross gain of $540,389 and a net gain of $404,669 over the 1959 tax digest, according to Winfield Lee, county tax commissioner.

Mr. Lee released the figures on Tuesday of this week. The total digest shows a gross figure of $14,146,340 for 1960. The 1959 gross figure was $13,605,951. With homestead exemptions totaling $4,215,225 and personal exemption totaling $1,335,300, the net digest for taxable purposes for 1960 is $8,595,815.

A total of 417,563 acres of land were returned on the digest. There were approximately 7,000 returns made of which 5,500 are by white property owners and 1,500 by Negro property owners.

The digest for the 1209th GM district which includes Statesboro shows a gross total of $8,378,996 with a net total of $5,477,391.
Automobile, motorcycle and bicycle owners turned in their vehicles at a total of $2,521,542.
The tax rate for the county is 27 and one-half mills (including the 2 and one-half mill receding by a recent Grand Jury); school, 15 mills and the state, one-fourth of one mill.

GARLAND ANDERSON JR WORKS WITH GA. POWER WHILE AT U. OF GA.
Working under the cooperative plan Garland Anderson Jr. is now working with the Georgia Power Company and attending the University of Georgia. Under the co-op plan he will alternate quarters at study at the college and at work with the Power Company.

What does Georgia Southern College mean to the City of Statesboro and the county of Bulloch?—in dollars and cents that is.
It's economic impact upon this community is a whopping $1,807,000 annually!
The total payroll of the college, according to Dr. Zach S. Henderson, for a year is $1,157,839. This goes to 132 staff members of the college and 60 persons on the maintenance force.

Dr. Henderson estimated that 900 single students at the college will spend $450,000 and 100 married students will spend that $150,000 during the year.
In addition the college puts approximately $50,000 new money into circulation through conferences, athletic events, festivals, conventions, tournaments and visitation of parents and friends of students.
Since 1950 new buildings costing $3,435, 458 have been constructed on the college campus. Major improvements from 1950-1960, totaled $432,803.
These figures do not include the new home management enrollment of between 1,300 and 1,400 for 1960-61 all these figures are subject to increase.
Let there be no misunderstanding Georgia Southern College is one of Statesboro's largest industries.

Rockwell is host to special group here

The Statesboro Division of Rockwell Manufacturing Company was host to members of the Technical and Standards Committee of the Liquefied Petroleum Gas Association recently. The plant tour was a feature of the association's meeting held at the Cloister at Sea Island, Georgia.

Members of the committee were from all sections of the United States and represent all the major producers, equipment manufacturers and safety engineers concerned with the manufacture, distribution and sales of LP gas.

Mr. N. W. Rowand, assistant vice president of Rockwell Manufacturing Company states that the committee was well pleased with the tour and impressed by the local operations.

H. E. Rittenhouse, chief engineer here at Rockwell, is an active member of the committee.

Farm Bureau Day proclaimed for October 4

October 4, 1960 is state-wide "Farm Bureau Day" in Georgia, Governor Ernest Vandiver has declared in issuing a Proclamation lauding the constructive work of the Farm Bureau Federation and the various County Farm Bureaus had "contributed much to the progress, prosperity and happiness of the farm people of this state."
Expressing that the organization can do more effective and constructive work and render greater service to "our Commonwealth" by substantially increasing the membership in each of the 159 counties, Governor Vandiver's Proclamation calls upon "the people of our state to work together for the best interest of agriculture and our state and nation."
The full text of Governor Vandiver's proclamation declaring October 4, Farm Bureau Day in Georgia follows:

PROCLAMATION
Farm Bureau Day
BY THE GOVERNOR:

WHEREAS: The Georgia Farm Bureau Federation in cooperation with the American Farm Bureau Federation and the various County Farm Bureaus has contributed much to the progress, prosperity and happiness of the farm people of this state; and

WHEREAS: I am confident that this organization will continue to serve the best interest of farmers and other groups when sound thinking is demanded of our leaders when all segments of our economy are affected by these decisions; and

WHEREAS: This organization can do more effective and constructive work and render greater service to our Commonwealth by substantially increasing the membership in each of the one hundred fifty-nine counties; and

WHEREAS: It is essential that our farm people co-ordinate their interest by support the new program recently outlined by the membership of the Georgia Farm Bureau Federation;

THEREFORE: I, S. Ernest Vandiver, Governor of Georgia, do hereby proclaim October 4, 1960 as "Farm Bureau Day" in Georgia, and call upon the people of our state to work together for the best interest of agriculture and our State and Nation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed. This 7th Day of September, 1960.

By the Governor,
S. ERNEST VANDIVER, Governor.
PETER ZACK GEER, Secretary, Executive Department.

Proclamation

GEORGIA INDUSTRY WEEK—1960

WHEREAS: Industry is continuing to make a significant contribution to the rapid growth and development of the state; and

WHEREAS: Industry has been largely responsible for the increased standard of living, education and general welfare of the people of our State and has provided greater individual incomes and more free hours for devotion to personal pursuits, and

WHEREAS: It is firmly believed that the citizens of this great State should have a fuller understanding and, therein, a greater appreciation for Georgia industry which looks to even further expansion for the well-being of all the people, and

WHEREAS: In continuing recognition of this important and progressive segment of the economic life of Georgia, Associated Industries of Georgia, the Georgia Department of Commerce, and community groups and leaders are dedicated to develop a better climate for an even greater industrial Georgia; now

THEREFORE: I, S. Ernest Vandiver, Governor of Georgia, do hereby proclaim the week of September 25-30, 1960, as "GEORGIA INDUSTRY WEEK—1960," and for the third consecutive year call upon all citizens of the State to give personal encouragement and support to the men and women in Georgia industry, particularly during this week-long salute to this most vital factor in the progress of our State.

In Witness whereof I have set my hand and caused the seal of the Executive Department to be affixed, this 28th day of June, 1960.

S. ERNEST VANDIVER,
Governor.

City of Statesboro is making long range improvements

Early in 1958 the City of Statesboro launched a one and one-quarter million dollar water - sewer improvement program which was completed recently and will be formerly presented to the city sometime in November.

The improvement program includes approximately ten miles of six-inch, eight-inch, ten-inch, and twelve-inch water mains in the city. Eighty new fire hydrants have been added to the fire protection system of the city.

An overhead water storage tank with a 250,000 gallon capacity was completed in 1959 at a cost of $73,000.

There are twenty-eight miles of paved streets in the city with about twelve of them paved in the last eight years and 3.6 miles now in the process of being paved.

In 1958 the city government set into operation its new tax program which followed a complete re-evaluation of all city property on the basis of 100 per cent valuation.

The records at the city office reveal that there are 2,540 water meters in the city. In 1955 the city installed a natural gas system and now has 1,765 meters.

There are 1,968 automobiles registered in the city office, but the city clerk estimates that there are about another thousand still unregistered. The City Tax Digest shows a total of $24,843,450, plus corporation tax returns. The city issued 665 business licenses for 1960 and received $36,576 in license fees.

The Bulloch County Development Corporation is the local agency which is dedicated to the proposition that Statesboro and Bulloch County needs industry to balance its economy with that of agriculture and business.

It was the Bulloch County Development Corporation which sparked the activities which resulted in the Rockwell Statesboro Corporation becoming a part of this community. It was the Bulloch County Development Corporation which built the building which now houses the Mayfield Styles, Inc. manufacturers of dresses, located on West Main Street.

It will be the Bulloch County Development Corporation which will lead the way to the establishment of industry here in the future.
The development group is pledged to work with and cooperate with the city and county governments, and the Statesboro and Bulloch County Chambers of Commerce, in their efforts to bring new industries to this community.

The executive committee of the development corporation are Thad J. Morris, president; Bill Bowen, W. G. Cobb Sr., C. B. McAllister, Edgar Wynn and Ike Minkovitz. Talmadge Ramsey is secretary-treasurer.
