Our community welcomes GSC students

Welcome to Statesboro!

On behalf of the citizens of Statesboro and Bulloch County, we extend a hearty welcome to students from Georgia Southern College. This special week is dedicated to the celebration of our students and the contribution they make to our community. The Board of Regents for Georgia Southern College has decided to host an event to honor our students, and we are grateful for this opportunity to express our appreciation.

We believe that the presence of students in our community enriches us all. Their energy, creativity, and innovation are qualities that are valued and celebrated. We are proud to be a part of a college that produces leaders of tomorrow. We look forward to continuing our partnership with Georgia Southern College and ensuring that our community remains a welcoming and supportive environment for all students.

We are confident that this event will be a success, and we wish our students all the best in their academic endeavors. We look forward to seeing them in action and celebrating their accomplishments.

Miss Davis feted at miscellaneous tea

To the Business of Georgia College:

An account of the Board of Regents of the University of Georgia, from the first organized body in 1801, to the present date in 2020.

We on the Board of Regents are proud of the progress that our college has made over the years. From humble beginnings to a respected institution, we have worked hard to ensure that our students receive the best education possible.

Miss Davis was feted at a miscellaneous tea, which was held in her honor. The tea was attended by many of our faculty and staff, as well as friends and family. Miss Davis has been a valuable member of our community, and we are grateful for her contributions.

Henderson’s report...

Midget Varsity defeats Swainsboro Midgets 20-0

President Henderson’s report shows recent progress at Georgia Southern

On August 31, 1960, Jack W. Henderson, president of Georgia Southern College, introduced the report of the 1959-60 academic year to the Character of the Student and the Genelal Education Program. This report, which includes the University Bulletin, is a significant milestone in the College’s progress and growth. The report highlights the achievements and developments of the past year, providing insights into the College’s commitment to excellence in education.

The report begins with an overview of the College’s academic programs, including a detailed analysis of the General Education Program. It emphasizes the importance of a well-rounded education, preparing students for success in their future careers. The report also acknowledges the efforts of faculty and staff in enhancing the quality of education and the student experience.

The College has faced challenges, such as the impact of the Great Depression and the Second World War, which have influenced the development of the College’s programs and facilities. Despite these challenges, the College has continued to grow and adapt, ensuring its relevance and effectiveness.

The report concludes with a call to action, emphasizing the College’s commitment to providing a quality education for all students. It encourages ongoing assessment and improvement, ensuring that the College remains at the forefront of educational innovation.

The full report is available for review, providing a comprehensive understanding of the College’s progress and goals for the future.

The story behind Georgia Southern

Georgia Southern University, founded in 1906, is a public university located in Statesboro, Georgia. It is one of the leading institutions of higher education in the state, offering a wide range of academic programs and opportunities for students to pursue their interests and careers. The university is committed to providing an excellent education while maintaining a strong sense of community and tradition. At Georgia Southern, students have access to a variety of resources and support to help them succeed in their academic and personal goals. The university's mission is to educate and prepare students for leadership and citizenship in a diverse and global society, ensuring a bright future for its graduates.
Jimmy Dorsey Orchestra to play at GSC September 27

The GSC student body and faculty will welcome the Jimmy Dorsey Orchestra with a concert Thursday, September 27, at 7 p.m. at the Turner Arena. The Jimmy Dorsey Orchestra, featuring the talents of Jimmy and Pinckerie Dorsey, will perform a selection of popular dance music and a few of the numbers made famous by the Dorsey brothers, Glenn, Harry, and Tommy. Tickets cost $4.25 for adults, $2.50 for students, and are available at the Turner Arena Tuesday, September 25, or may be purchased in advance at either of the GSC offices.

In Recognition... of the important contribution our local industries are making to our city and our community.

We say Thanks...and pledge our continued cooperation to further the growth of our industries and to develop a better community in which future growth can prosper.

We salute you during the Georgia Industry Week, Sept. 23-30.
