Bulloch Development Corp. set up to secure new industry

Proclamation

Georgia Industry Week—1960

WHEREAS, Industry is continuing to make a significant contribution to the economic growth of the State of Georgia; and

WHEREAS, Industry has been largely responsible for the development of man-made fiber and for the formation of the modern economy; and

WHEREAS, It is hereby proclaimed that the citizens of the State of Georgia do today declare their appreciation and support of industry and the people who represent industry in our state; and

WHEREAS, It is in recognition of the industries and the economy of our state that this day is proclaimed as Georgia Industry Week in the State of Georgia;

NOW THEREFORE, I, ernest hamilton mason, governor of the state of Georgia, do hereby proclaim this day, the twenty-first day of September, 1960, Georgia Industry Week, and do the said industries, together with those who represent them, extend to the people of the state of Georgia my sincere appreciation and thanks for their contributions to our state's economy.

CONSIDERING the foregoing resolutions, I, ernest hamilton mason, governor of the state of Georgia, do hereby proclaim this day Georgia Industry Week, to be observed throughout the state of Georgia.
