10,000 registered to vote in the Nov. 8 General Election

More than 10,000 Bulloch County citizens are registered and eligible to vote in the November 8 General Election. However, based on the 1952 and the 1956 election returns only more than one-third of them will go to the polls next Tuesday to cast their ballot.

In the 1952 General Election 4,721 Bulloch Countians went to the polls with 3,619 voting Democratic and 909 voting Republican, and 193 not voting for either party. In 1956, 4,318 went to the polls with 3,414 voting Democratic and 904 voting Republican.

The polls in the county will open at 7 o'clock Tuesday morning and close at 7 o'clock Tuesday evening. Mr. R. P. Mikol, Ordinary of Bulloch County, will supervise the election as provided by the law which states that the county ordinary will serve as election manager.

The polls in Statesboro will be located in the courtroom of the county courthouse. The ballot is like unto a bed sheet, it is that large, in addition to the state of candidates for state offices named in the state Democratic Primary in September, 1960, and the candidates for county offices named in the Bulloch County Democratic Primary in November, 1959, it will carry the names of the Democratic electors, the names of the Republican electors, a blank space for write-in electors, and the names of the independent candidates. Then there are the nineteen constitutional amendments.

It has been pointed out that citizens may "split" his or her vote. That is, one may mark the ballot at the extreme left side of the ballot and vote for the Democratic candidates for the state and county offices, already named in the state and county primaries. And then vote for the Democratic electors in the second column by marking X in the space provided, or vote for the Republican electors in the third column in the space provided. Or vote for whom you please by writing in the names of your own state of electors or

BEA takes stand on six of the Amendments

The Bulloch County Education Association would like to take this opportunity to inform you the General Public as to how we in Bulloch County Education feel in regards to the amendments concerning education, to be voted on in the general election on November 8th. The amendments and how they will be stated on the ballot and our position on them are as follows:

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NUMBER ONE
"The ballot will state that this is an Amendment:
... to provide for the appropriation of motor fuel taxes for highway construction and maintenance purposes in order to provide an adequate system of highways, state and post roads and bridges in this State." (The BEA is FOR this amendment, feeling that it is necessary that the Legislature repair its control over expenditures in State Government.)

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NUMBER THREE
"The ballot will state that this is an Amendment:
... to provide for additional members from the State-at-Large to the State Board of Education and a new method of filling vacancies." (The BEA is AGAINST this amendment. The present size of the board is quite satisfactory. Expanding the Board in size would make it more cumbersome and less effective and would allow additional members to be political appointees which would tend to reduce the quality of the political unit, and inhibit it in its stated function of formulating the policies for the State Board of Education. It would also make possible the stacking of the State Board of Education by the present Administration which could be controlled into another administration.)

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NUMBER FIVE
"The ballot will state that this is an Amendment:
... to change the provision relating to the millage limitation for the tax levy for education." (The BEA is FOR this amendment. This would allow the County Board of Education to raise the millage for education from 15 to 20 mills if it became necessary. We in Bulloch County most likely would not be effected by this since we are in the mist of a tax re-evaluation program and our millage will most likely be reduced, but it would be good for the system where they might need the additional millage.)

Don't give away your voice in the U.S.A.

Just one vote—your vote—doesn't count? Don't you believe it!

Best proof that your vote counts is this— Right up to the moment when you step into the voting booth on November 8, the candidates for President will stump the country. Here in Bulloch County two candidates for the office of sheriff will be seeking your vote, right up to the moment you mount the stairs going to the courtroom where the ballot booths will be set up.

All the pre-election effort is designed to persuade you to mark your ballot a certain way. The candidates for the Presidency and their supporters and the candidates and their supporters for our sheriff's office and the state wide constitutional amendments have been working on you, trying to influence you to vote their way.

Because on Election Day you are the boss. Make no mistake about this. You are the people, the

IN HOMETOWN AMERICA

By LAWRENCE E. HOUSTON JR.

I RESENT . . . THEREFORE! ONE OF THE most troublesome sins of the spirit is resentment. Taking its place along with jealousy, tension and self-centeredness, it is another cause of stunted spiritual growth. Resentment is restrictive. They restrict our physical health. One man held resentments against his wife for fifteen years. He was finally forced to have a thyroid operation. His resentments had caused a malfunction of his glands.

A young businesswoman became upset with her work and was advised to take a six-month leave of absence. This she did, but when she returned she developed a severe case of shingles almost immediately. In consultation with her physician, she poured out her resentments against several persons in her business firm. She accepted the forgiveness of God and recovered from the shingles in three weeks instead of six months.

RESENTMENT RESTRICTS our mental outlook as well. Three men, failed by professors in a certain college, reacted in this manner. One could talk of nothing else except that he had been ill-treated by the administration. The pleasant memories of his college days were erased by his brooding resentments. The second man held a bitter grudge against his professor in Greek and ended up existing in a rather useless life. The third man, having been expelled from the institution, awakened to his privileges and responsibilities, became a trustee of the institution, and served usefully in it.

AA helps those who come seeking help

By Dr. John Mooney ONE OF THE significant phenomena accompanying alcoholism concerns the vast array of diseases with which it is associated. These ailments, having no obvious connection with the indulgence of alcohol, seem to plague the excessive drinker, causing him to live in constant despair of his present state of health and to dread the recurrence of old illnesses or development of new ones.

Actually, many diseases may be brought on by alcoholism and many others aggravated by it. Often, this relationship, though suspected, cannot be proved, for the connection is not evident until the alcoholic recovers.

These alcohol-related diseases seem to fall roughly into two categories: (1) Those due directly to the action of the chemical, alcohol, on the body, such as, cirrhosis of the liver and Korsakoff's Syndrome which is a form of incurable insanity due to brain destruction by alcohol. Usually seen in heavy, steady drinkers, it is said that at least one quart of whiskey per day for fifteen years or more is required to produce the disease.

(2) Those caused by or influenced by the neurotic personality pattern of the alcoholic. This includes just about all of the emotional diseases. Since the disability from any disease is,

the editor's uneasy chair

The editors and production staff of the Bulloch Herald are gradually recovering from two weeks of newspaper production which set some sort of record in local newspaper history.

On Thursday, October 20, we put in the post office a twenty-four page issue. On Friday afternoon we finished a four-page issue of the George-Anne, student newspaper of Georgia Southern College and on Friday night we published a four-page special in which we focused attention on the Chamber of Commerce's Fall Festival of Values and the Auto Show sponsored by the new car dealers of Statesboro.

That made thirty-two pages of newspapers printed in our plant with equipment and personnel which normally puts out twelve and sixteen pages a week.

Then on Monday, October 24, we began working on another twenty-four page issue, the Fall Festival of Values issue, which we printed and put in the post-office at 6 o'clock Thursday morning, October 27, after working all night Wednesday. Then

Friday afternoon we printed another four-page issue of the college newspaper, the George-Anne.

So it is no wonder that page eighteen of last week's issue found where page three was supposed to have been. And it's little wonder that A. M. Seligman's Tili's ad offered "Ladies All WOOD Skirts" for the special price of $6.89.

But despite all the work which went into those two issues of the Herald, the George-Anne and the Special Herald, we all presented by Buddy and Reba Barnes, and the delightful monologue by Dale Jensen and the specialty act put on by James Radcliff at the Miss Statesboro Pageant. It was all high entertainment and reveals the fact that there is a wealth of fine talent in our community.

And on the subject of talent — one seldom finds talent such as that of Miss Amelia Robertson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Hunter Robertson, still in high school, Amelia can play over a song in a delightful and professional manner. She's terrific!

And Randy Simmons suffered a hairline fracture of his right ankle, and will be out at least three weeks. Coach Ernest Teel said Monday night, "If we should get into a playoff, Randy could probably play." Quarterback Jimmy Scarce and line-backer Carroll Clements each suffered sprains that should be all right by Friday, according to Teel.

AN OPEN LETTER TO A FRIEND Hon. Prince H. Preston, M. C. Home Office, Statesboro, Georgia.

It is with mixed emotions that I write this letter. In it I only hope that I can in some way find the words which will express the feeling of affection and gratitude which I have for you.

There is little doubt in my mind but that the vast majority of the people in the First Congressional District feel as I do in wishing to express to you their feeling of appreciation and friendship.

In this expression I would hope that there are none who would interpret my remarks to mean that I question the will of the people. This I do not attempt to do. The people have voted and their voice has been heard. Those who have been with you in your defeat can best understand how magnificently you have accepted the expression of the electorate. I can truthfully say as your friend, I am glad for the many way you have responded to your retirement. In this is found perhaps the best expression of your statesmanship.

It is with much feeling that I take this opportunity to say thank you for so many things. Thank you for your friendship. Thank you for the many personal favors you have rendered, for your friendliness and for your readiness in listening to my hopes and fears.

Thank you, Mr. Congressman for the long years of service to your country, to your state and to your home district. Thank you for all the long hours of study and effort which have gone into the making of your every decision. Decisions made in the best interest of all who have been represented through your outstanding leadership.

Thank you, Prince, for the many personal sacrifices which you have made. For denying of yourself to your children who you felt best could grow into young adulthood away from the environment of the Washington scene. For the long years away from your hometown and your lovely wife, who kept her home as it should be kept for your children and their friends.

There are so many thoughts which can not, somehow, find their way into words. Thoughts which are bound up in my feeling of friendship for you, at the same time realizing the tremendous contribution you have made toward helping keep our country strong and secure. Thank you for those long and lonely days and nights spent in foreign lands. Days and hours used to help you grasp a better understanding as to how America could better lead the world and for your understanding way those who thought these trips were made in selfishness and luxury.

I am so grateful, too, that in the biggest and warmest of your kind heart there is no room for bitterness but rather is there found a feeling of satisfaction and appreciation that you have been allowed to be a part of something great and fine for so many wonderful years.

How much I hope, my friend, that you will find the time to rest and enjoy the companionship and love of those who hold your welfare high among their cares and it is my prayer that in the days to come you will find returned to full measure your good health and strength.

And so, Prince Preston, welcome home to Statesboro, and in our welcome please recognize the true feeling of friendship which is found in our respect and appreciation for a mission well accomplished and for a job well done. May God Bless you and your home.

Blue Devils whip Swainsboro; to play Groves of Savannah

Statesboro High's Blue Devils, who thought they had been eliminated from the Region 2-A football race earlier in the season, jumped right back into the thick of things here Friday night by overpowering Swainsboro 28-0, before a standing-room-only crowd estimated at 2,500.

The Blue Devils will host a tough region 2-AAA foe Friday night—Groves of Savannah—as they attempt to get the squad back to health after the hard-fought Swainsboro contest. Statesboro must defeat Washington County at Sandersville on November 11 to force a play-off with Dublin.

End Randy Simmons suffered a hairline fracture of his right ankle, and will be out at least three weeks. Coach Ernest Teel said Monday night, "If we should get into a playoff, Randy could probably play." To Beat the Band

By Dale Jensen

EDITOR'S NOTE—Mr. Dale Jensen, director of the Statesboro High School Band, who writes the "To Beat the Band" column for the Herald, has written his thoughts on the death of young Hugh Burke. We believe it belongs here in our editorial columns.

He was one of the finest people of any age, that we ever knew. He was a student of ours, the kind of student that every teacher lives for. His gift was not in music, nor in books, but in love. And out of love, service. His constant service to his school, his fellow students, his teachers, his church, his fellow scouts, bespoke his love for them all. He loved his God, and eventually decided to devote his life to serving God. He lost his life in a tragic accident, while he was about his Heavenly Father's business. He would have had it no other way.

He was strong, with a powerful build. Yet his strength was never used to bully or overpower, but rather to help, to serve. His leadership was quiet, but always felt, in any group. He was always gentle. Yet he died in harsh violence.

In the agony of loss, we cry out, Why, Why oh God must this be? Why one so young, so fine with such promises?

And we reflect on how he influenced us. We, the teacher, the molder, he, the student, the malleable, yet the simple rightness of his love, his service, influenced us as much or more than any of the knowledge or skills that we taught influenced him. And this influence was not on us alone, but on so many of the people whose lives brushed his. And we began to see that perhaps in his short life, having already accomplished so much more than many of his bearded elders, he had completed that task for which he was placed on this earth, and had now returned to sit at the side of his Master.

Whatever the reasons for Hugh Burke's death, we shall never forget him and the influence he had on our lives. We hold his memory dear, as do all that knew him.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NUMBER TEN

The ballot will state that this is an Amendment: "... to provide that the Commissioner of Agriculture shall be ex-official a member of the Board of Regents of the University of Georgia." (The BEA is AGAINST this amendment, which would make the State Commissioner of Agriculture a member of the Board of Regents. There is no need to place an elected politician on this Board, whose membership otherwise consists of appointees by the Governor and confirmed by the Senate. If the advice of the Commissioner is needed for a particular problem dealing with agriculture, he may be called upon, under the present set-up, and his counsel taken into consideration. We consider this sufficient.)

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NUMBER ELEVEN

The ballot will state that this is an Amendment: "... to empower the General Assembly to authorize counties to use public funds for school lunch purposes." (The BEA is FOR this amendment. The school lunch program is necessary, both from educational and from medical viewpoints, and this amendment would allow the lunch program to receive support as do other state agencies.)

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NUMBER FIFTEEN

The ballot will state that this is an Amendment: "... to authorize the establishment of area schools, including vocational trade schools." (The BEA is FOR this amendment. This will make possible for two or more counties to bond themselves to match funds from a State level to have a trade school jointly established. We feel that this would benefit those who would rather go to a trade school and at the same time improve the quality of skills of persons entering the labor market.)

To the Voters of Bulloch County

I wish to announce that I am a candidate for the office of sheriff in the General Election which is being held on November 8, 1960.

I am running as an Independent Candidate and not as a Republican or any other political party. I have never voted any other than the Democratic Ticket.

I am native of Bulloch County and am married to Anna Rea Hodges DeLoach. I served eight years in the U. S. Navy and have had 13 years experience as a peace officer both as a city police and county police.

I feel that my experience in this field qualifies me for the office of Sheriff, and if elected I will endeavor to conduct the office fairly and impartially with consideration for all who shall have business with the sheriff's office.

To cast a vote for me it is necessary to cross out my opponents name and place a cross mark in the box opposite my name.

Your vote and influence will be greatly appreciated.

PLANT TRIMMINGS BUILD EXCELLENT SOIL

Grass and shrubby trimmings can be turned into excellent soil builders with little expense or effort. Extension Horticulturist Gerald Smith says. Trimmings are cheaper than buying other organic matter such as peat moss. Trimmings make soils that are black with humus.

59 school year. The local tax collected for school purposes should be a little more than twice the charge back for the M. F. P. E. program. If this were true, Bulloch County should have $186,744.00, which is $46,854.00 less than is now collected. This points out the need for a revaluation of the property so that Bulloch County would receive nearly equal the state average in supporting the schools at the local level.

Bulloch County receives approximately $34,000.00 per year State Capital Outlay Funds, which are being applied to retire bonds in lieu of levying local bond tax.

CUSTODIAL AND MAINTENANCE PROGRAM: The Custodial services in the Bulloch County System are above the State average. In most of the schools the committee found the buildings clean and the rest rooms in good condition.

The number of janitors furnished the different school centers is adequate. There could be some improvement in the quality of their work at some of the centers by the principal giving more supervision and attention.

It is generally recommended that one janitor or maid be provided for every 8 teachers employed at any given center, or major fraction thereof. When more than one custodian is employed, the second should be a maid. She can check on and keep the girls' rest rooms clean, and do much of the dusting and sweeping; thus relieving the janitor of those duties leaving him more time for heavier and more complicated duties such as keeping of the grounds and doing many minor repair jobs in preventive maintenance.

It is considered to be good business for systems the size of Bulloch County to have a good central maintenance department. If this department functions properly it can set up a systematic painting program and perform all of the duties in preventive maintenance, as well as the maintenance duties. The system has such a program.

The standards recommended for the school lunch program for employing workers is as follows:
1. Manager-Worker be employed when 60 - 150 are fed daily.
2. Manager and 2 Workers be employed when 150 - 250 are fed daily.
3. Manager and 3 Workers be employed when 250 - 350 are fed daily.
4. Manager and 4 Workers be employed when 350 - 450 are fed daily.
5. Manager and 5 Workers be employed when 450 - 550 are fed daily.

When over 450 are fed daily, power equipment should be used in order to replace the hiring of control devices such as valves and regulators; measuring devices such as petroleum, gas and water meters, taximeters, parking meters and voting machines, and power tools for industry, schools and home craftsman.

Explaining the dividend program, Willard F. Rockwell, Jr., president, said: "Our policy of quarterly cash dividends is, of course, well established - this is our 57th consecutive. In addition, it is our directors' intention to give consideration annually to supplementary stock dividends as evidence of our stockholders' growing equity."

He urges that all support the work of the Chamber with their ideas, their energies and their finances. "If you do not do these things, you are not working for the future of our community. . . the Chamber of Commerce needs your support!" he said.

With a goal of 300 members set, the Statesboro and Bulloch County Chamber of Commerce now has 235 members—45 short of the goal.

"Occasionally we hear, 'We want a new factory' or 'we need to build up our business' or 'we need more retail promotions' . . . the executive secretary pointed out, 'But unless the business professional and industrial community of this city and county is not united through its Chamber of Commerce, how can we accomplish these goals?'

Your Chamber of Commerce is the team which can accomplish these goals. It is the only strong, active and have the united support of all the community," he added.

He urges that all support the work of the Chamber with their ideas, their energies and their finances. "If you do not do these things, you are not working for the future of our community. . . the Chamber of Commerce needs your support!" he said.
