To Beat the Band

By Dale Jensen EDITOR'S NOTE-Mr. Dale ensen, director of the Statesboro High School Band, who writes the "To Beat The Band" column for the Herald, has written his thoughts on the death of young Hugh Burke. We believe it belongs here in our editorial columns.

He was one of the finest per of any age, that we ever new. He was a student of ours, the kind of student that every teacher lives for. His gift was not in music, nor in books, but in love. And out of love, service His constant service to his school, his fellow students, his teachers, his church, his fellow scouts, be spoke his love for them all. He oved his God, and eventually decided to devote his life to serving God. He lost his life in a tragic accident, while he was about his Heavenly Father's business, He would have had it no other way.

He was strong, with a powerful ouild. Yet his strength was never used to bully or overpower, but rather to help, to serve. His leadership was quiet, but always felt, in any group. He was always gentle. Yet he died in harsh violence.

In the agony of loss, we cry out, Why, Why oh God must this be? Why one so young, so fine with such promises?

And we reflect on how he influenced us. We, the teacher, the molder, he, the student, the malleable, yet the simple rightness of his love, his service, influenced us as much or more than any of the knowledge on skills that we taught influenced him. And this influence was not on us alone, but on so many of the people whose lives brushed his. And we began to see that perhaps in his short life, having already accomplished so much more than many of his bearded elders, he had com pleted that task for which he was placed on this earth, and had now irned to sit at the side of his Whatever the reasons for Hugh Burke's death, we shall never forget him and the influence he had on our lives. We hold his memory dear, as do all that knew him.

THAT IS IF YOU VOTE!

Nevertheless, important as a man's right to vote is, he also has the right not to vote if he doesn't want to, or is just too lazy or lacking in civic consciousness to do so. If he isn't interested, doesn't want to take the time, finds it inconvenient, or just plain doesn't care about how his dollars are spent, the kind of community he will live in, the kind of nation and world his children will grow up in-that's his business.

But if you are tempted to give away your voice in your government by not voting on November 8, first weigh the consequences. History shows that when people throw away their right to vote, they are inviting despotism, tyranny, and dictatorship. Without the right to free elec tion you lose all of your rights.

To the Voters of Bulloch County

I wish to announce that I am a candidate for the office of sheriff in the General Election which is being held on November 8, 1960.

I am running as an Independent Candidate and not as a Republican or any other political party. I have never voted any other than the Democrtic Ticket.

I am native of Bulloch County and am married to Anna Rea Hodges DeLoach. I served eight years in the U.S. Navy and have had 13 years experience as a peace officer both as a city police and county police.

I feel that my experience in this field qualifies me for the office of Sheriff, and if elected I will endeavor to conduct the office fairly and impartially with consideration for all who shall have business with the sheriff's office.

To cast a vote for me it is necessary to cross out my opponents name and place a cross mark in the box opposite my name.

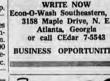

Your vote and influence will be greatly appreciated.
