The eternal Christmas story told by Luke

The story of Jesus Christ is taken from Luke 2:1-16. It is a simple, direct narrative of how the Word became flesh and dwelt among us by the grace of God.

And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be taxed. (Luke 2:1)

And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; (for he was of the house and lineage of David;)

To register himself with Mary his espoused wife, being with child of the Holy Ghost. (Luke 2:5-6)

And David turned aside unto the face of the field to see the company of men coming and going by the field. And he saw a virgin going and coming by herself. (1 Samuel 16:20)

But the angel of the Lord stood in a汉子's path, and said unto him, What seeches thou here? (1 Samuel 22:11)

And David answered and said, Here am I; for thou hast called me. (1 Samuel 22:17)

Others might live

Christmas is a time when life begins. The birth of Jesus Christ is a new beginning for all who believe in the power of love and peace.

And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. (Luke 2:10-11)
