Wesleyan Guild's Christmas party

by Mrs. H. E. Johnson

The annual Christmas party for the Wesleyan Guild on Dec. 26 was a grand success. The Guild members were busy preparing for it well in advance of the day. The final arrangements were left entirely in the hands of Mrs. washing, who took a large share of the work herself. The decorations were most attractive, and the program was well rounded. The music was furnished by Mrs. Woodruff, who sang several songs, and Mrs. Thomas, who also participated. The refreshments were of the best variety, and the food was served with great care. The guests were very much entertained, and the party was a great success.
