Your 1961 can be filled with abiding joy

Since time began man has attempted to label life's greatest thing—one has said "It is an idea whose time has come." Another has assured the world that the greatest thing in the world of all time is love. Another declared it to be inspiration.

Since everything is relative, no one can say with finality what the greatest thing is. It's one thing to one, another to his neighbor.

Thinking upon the coming New Year we suggest that Hope is worthy of being considered among the greatest things in life. The Apostle declared it to be one of the abiding three. He lists Faith and Hope and Charity as the three great things. They too are relative. There is little charity without belief at least in the worth of man, and there is little hope without that faith which declares life to be more than a dizzy whirl.

While there is hope there is life. Indeed hope is the mainspring of life. Without expectancy of better days and more prosperous years, mankind long since would have ceased to struggle against the great odds ever besetting him and his kind.

With the advent of 1961 there is no greater thing a man can do than to keep the flame of hope burning on the altars of this world.

Looking beyond the years hope transcends the momentary scene and lifts the heart, borne down heavily by the terrifying happenings of 1960, and allows man to catch glimpses of a finer and more enriching year to come.

Say to yourself, "I will start anew this year with a determination to be a friend to mankind, to begin each day with a song, to catch each hour a holy significance—and making this decision daily, you will find your 1961 to be filled with days of deep and abiding joy.

Happy New Year!

Our 'growth rate'—and taxes

We have heard a great deal about the nation's "growth rate" recently. A good many people feel that we just aren't growing fast enough economically.

Without arguing the pros and cons of that, it should not be forgotten that our tax laws stand solidly in the way of maximum growth. For instance, most other industrial nations give more favorable tax treatment to industries which wish to replace and modernize their plants than we do. Our laws, with their obsolete depreciation provisions, heavily hamper this kind of progress.

A well known economic forecaster, William F. Butler, writes in Nation's Business: "If we are to grow, if we are to compete with other industrial countries whose plants are becoming steadily more modern, we have to provide greater encouragement to saving and investment and encourage a higher rate of replacement so that our plants will become steadily more modern, more efficient. This is the major problem we face."

So Santa Claus brought your son a shotgun, or a BB gun or a Twenty-two. And that ended Santa Claus' part of the gift.

Santa left you a responsibility

As a Santa Claus brought your son a shotgun, or a BB gun or a Twenty-two. And that ended Santa Claus' part of the gift.

But when he left these gifts under the Christmas tree for your son, he left a responsibility to you... the responsibility to instruct your son in the proper handling and use of the gun in order that he might secure the maximum enjoyment from it with the maximum safety.

Have you done that yet? If not, make it your number one New Year's resolution to do so. These things are important.

Help prevent crippling diseases

In our day-to-day fight against illness we seek to cure. But an even greater victory to be won on the day when medical sciences can actually prevent disease.

Every January that day of ultimate victory is brought closer as The National Foundation calls upon us to "Prevent Crippling Dis-ases" by giving to the New March of Dimes.

As a banner for The National Foundation, "Prevent Crippling Diseases" must not be regarded as an empty slogan or vague promise.

Who can ever forget that through this, the world's largest voluntary health organization, we have found the means of preventing paralytic polio with the Salk vaccine?

Who can doubt that with the support of the public this same organization will guide the way to a preventive for crippling birth defects and arthritis?

But the support of the public is vital, because The National Foundation derives all its funds and all its "volunteer workers from a direct appeal to the American people.

Therefore, all of us help prevent crippling diseases when we say YES to the New March of Dimes in January.

You need a set of resolutions?

If you are given to making New Year's resolutions, here is a list which might be given consideration, in the event you are at loss as to what sort of resolutions you should make.

RESOLVE:
To recognize weaknesses in government, but I'll not harp on them.

To do my part to strengthen local, state and federal government.

To give my moral support to those with the needed character and competence who are thinking of making government service a career.

To remind my friends to think more of what they owe their community and less of what it owes them.

To remember that "Let George do it" is the motto of those who selfishly expect others to provide good government for them while they do nothing but complain.

To pray for government officials that they may have both the wisdom and courage to think and act on principle, not expediency.

To ask God to give me the wisdom and courage to live up to my civic responsibilities.

Keeping these resolutions will make you a better citizen in our community during the year 1961.

THE ROAD BACK
It was over almost before it began. That's the way Christmas Day seemed to me this year. I think this always happens to us when we develop a sense of expectancy—when we look forward to a certain day or season.

But, this kind of experience is not ours alone. It happened to those lowly shepherds who came to the stable in Bethlehem, but who could not stay. Back from that moment of unqualified joy they had to return to the humdrum, common place duty of tending their sheep.

MANY TIMES the road back is a hard road. It is easy to go with hurried step when a great expectation awaits us. It is difficult to return to our ordinary duties when that experience was great and fleeting, and when we feel the emotional tide beginning to recede. As one has said: "The trouble with so many people... is that they often seem to be walking the road back."

SURELY, there is always a sense of letdown after the Christmas season. But, what is more pathetic is the fact that the real meaning of Christmas is often thrown out with the dead Christmas tree.

THE road back is a hard road to walk when one believes that it is impossible for our world to be made over in the light of the Christmas message. It might have been so with the shepherds, except they took with them on the road back, undimmed and undiminished, the high moments they experienced at Bethlehem.

AND WHAT WERE these high moments? They recognize their source of happiness lay in God. Here is something that every man needs to preserve. Whether he be a coal miner or garbage collector, a production line worker or a farmer, an office employee or a member of one of the professions, we all have had some experience of inspiration whose source is God. The important thing is for us to remember that "touch of the Eternal; that whisper of the Spirit; that urging of the Still, Small Voice."

THE shepherds also found that the source of their happiness lay in something very simple and human. When God wanted to draw near to men He came in the midst of a human family. Perhaps this accounts for the powerful influence of the Christmas story throughout history. It is the story of a family who, in the midst of the world's confusion, found their way to God.

ALL THE LIVING DAY LONG TAXES
HENRY SUBURBAN reaches out at 7 o'clock of a wintry morning to turn off the alarm clock (price: $5; tax, 50c). He pushes down the electric blanket (price: $28; tax, 84c), climbs sleepily out of bed. He walks across the bedroom floor of his house (price: $12,000; annual property tax, $209) and switches on the electricity, lighting a bulb (price: 33c; tax, 2c).

TO music from a bedroom radio (price: $30; tax, $1.80), Henry shaves with his electric razor (price: $12; tax, 36c). A radio newscaster reports that Henry's state is preparing to increase income taxes and impose a general sales tax on everything. Tomorrow, so Henry gets out his own car (price: $2,500; total taxes $518) and rushes downtown. Henry's license: $3 to the railroad station.

HE DRESSES quickly, hurriedly, fastening a cuff link (price: $5; tax, 50c) and the strap (price: $3; tax, 30c), puts on his Swiss wrist watch (price: $60; tax, $9) and rushes down the stairs. Tricked under one arm is a leather brief case (price: $25; tax, $2.50) which carries papers from his real estate office, including one deed (property value, at $3,000 stamp tax, $3.30).

IN THE CITY on his way to the office, Henry stops to buy a roll of camera film (price: 40c; tax, 2c) that he promised his wife (registration of birth: $1), and the postcard (price: $1; tax, 10c) he promised his wife. Because there are friends coming to Henry's house in the evening, he buys a bottle of whiskey (price: $3.40; tax, $2.10).

Arriving eventually at the office, Henry sighs (no tax) and settles to a day's work (annual income: $7,500). Federal and state income tax, $986. If he works hard for the rest of his life he will be able to provide the government with a handsome slice of inheritance tax. And if he dies in a state that is fiscally tolerant, he can take comfort in the thought that his casket—provided it cost less than $100—will be exempt from any sales tax.

DRINKING COFFEE at the coffee club this morning a friend of mine came up with a pretty good definition of a pessimist and an optimist. The pessimist, according to him, gets up early in the morning, walks out the front door, looks up and says, "Good Morning, Lord." The optimist gets up early, walks to the front door, looks out at the sky and says, "Good Lord, Morning."

THE EISENHOWER Administration has succeeded in one important field. How sad it is that the success must be determined as detrimental to the American way of life.

By executive decree and Supreme Court order, the Eisenhower Administration has destroyed the harmony which has existed between the races in the South in many areas, has placed in jeopardy the future education of our children in the southern region, instigated strikes and civil disobedience among our negro youth, and developed a sense of mistrust in our judicial processes by a very large area of our nation.

BILLIONS OF DOLLARS have been squandered in a defense program which is constantly being reorganized, revised and reconstituted to the extent that our defense establishment faces internal collapse. A multi-million dollar air craft industry has been almost completely destroyed by fire because the government could not afford metal scaffolding rather than wood scaffolding, a cruel example of this policy.

American soldiers in foreign prisons is another crude example with American soldiers being tried in Japanese courts is another.

The years ahead will be good years for America. John Kennedy will lead a brand new party forward and these will be years when American will once again stand up and be counted.

Mrs. Zack Smith entertained the No Trump bridge at its annual Christmas party Monday night, Dec. 19, at her home on E. Grady Street with their husbands as guests.

Each club member brought her own very special dish and when combined with other culinary triumphs supper was a gourmet's delight.

Wives and husbands present were Mr. and Mrs. Inman Foy Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Trapnell, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Spiers, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Curry, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Sorrier, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Franklin Jr., Dr. and Mrs. Curtis Lane, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Jones Jr., Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Anderson Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Bill Keith, and Mr. and Mrs. Zack Smith.

Number of tractors on Georgia farms increased more than 50 percent from 1949 to 1959, according to S. J. Brannen, Extension economist.

Pittman Park Methodist WMS has Christmas party

The WMS of the Pittman Park Methodist Church held their annual Christmas social in the church parlor on December 12, honoring their new members. A good number of visitors were present. A lovely carnation was pinned on each new member and visitor.

Mrs. A. B. Daniel was in charge of the program. A dramatic presentation of "The Other Wise Man" by Henry Van Dyke was given by Miss Cheryl Wheeler.

Special membership pins were presented by the pastor, the Rev. L. E. Houston Jr., to Mrs. Annie R. Davis, given by Mrs. Otis Hollingsworth; Mrs. John W. Davis, given by Mrs. Annie R. Davis; Honorary baby membership certificates were presented to Tina Macon, given by her grandmother, Mrs. H. H. Macon and Bill Thompson, given by Mrs. W. M. Adams.

Fruit cake, cheese straws and nuts were served on silver trays from the beautifully decorated tea tables. Mrs. L. E. Houston Jr., the pastor's wife, served coffee from one end of the table. Mrs. Houston was given a waffle iron and grill as a love gift from the society.

A love offering was taken and sent to their missionaries, Dorothy and David Walker.

The new members are Mrs. Tommy Heaton, Mrs. Warren Oliver, Mrs. Leon Moses, Mrs. Stanley Scott, Mrs. Winnie Smith, Mrs. E. R. McCannell, Mrs. Peter Dawson, Mrs. Joe Warren, Mrs. Ben Haley, Mrs. J. C. Wilber and Mrs. Robert Denon.

Mrs. Virgil Donaldson hostess to Girl Scout leaders

Mrs. Virgil Donaldson was hostess to the volunteer Girl Scout leaders at a Tuesday morning coffee on Tuesday, December 13.

The Christmas spirit prevailed throughout her home which was artistically decorated with original Christmas decorations which Becky herself had created. A beautiful white tree stood in the living room. Under it were individual gifts of many sizes and shapes, each wrapped most attractively in a different manner, but with no names on them. As the guests were admiring these pretty packages, they did not realize that they contained gifts for each of them. Later each of them was told to go to the tree and select the gift that to her was the most appealing. In this way each leader received a surprise gift of appreciation from the Statesboro Girl Scout organization.

The guests entertained themselves by singing from the new Girl Scout Songbooks which had just arrived.

Delicious refreshments consisting of fruit cake, toasted nuts, party sandwiches, and coffee were served.

Ann Johnston celebrates her third birthday

Little Anne Dekle Johnston may not remember the lovely party honoring her on her third birthday, though she was quite animated and thrilled over her birthday cake, her mother, Mrs. Joe P. Johnston had for her, a cake as requested by Anne. She saw a pretty chocolate cake on television and she wanted one like it and that wish was carried out.

Guests were her grandmothers, Mrs. Inman Dekle, Mrs. J. O. Johnston, Inman Dekle and her uncle John Dekle and her great-aunt Mrs. Anne Oliver. She received many lovely gifts.

They were served birthday cake and coffee.

Shirley Meyers has pajama party

Monday night, December 19 Mrs. John Meyers cooperated with her daughter, Shirley, in preparations for a pajama party at their home on Donebo St.

The over night guests were Jo Mikell, Carlye Rushing, Linda Coleman, Clisly Hayes and Jeanette Riggs. They were served cookies, potato, chips, candies, corn cheese and Coke. They played records until the wee hours. For breakfast they were wide awake and enjoyed cheese and egg omelet, fried ham, grits and toast.

SOCIALS

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Callaway had as guests for Christmas, Mrs. R. N. Starr of Greensboro, Ga., and Dr. Richard C. Starr of Indiana University in Bloomington, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Smith and daughter, Helen, spent the holiday weekend with another daughter, Miss Martha Sue Smith in Atlanta. While there they will also visit Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hodges.

Mrs. Le Roy Hayes has returned from Newport, Rhode Island where she attended graduation exercises of her son Roy Harris, from Officer Candidate School. Mrs. Hayes was accompanied by Miss Virginia Ann Smith of Covington, Ga., Ensign Hayes' date for the Grand Ball daughter, Miss Martha Sue Smith in Atlanta. While there they will also visit Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hodges.

Christmas party at Ogeechee HD club

The Ogeechee Home Demonstration Club had their Christmas party Thursday night, December 15, at the club room with husbands as guests. Decorations of Christmas greenery, holly, pine cones featuring lollipop—all aglow with red candles.

Games were played. Those winning prizes were Bird Henry, Emmitt Lee and Willie Zetterover.

A Christmas supper was served which included turkey and dressing, string beans, congealed salad, pickles, cranberry sauce, pound cake, ambrosia and coffee.

Gifts were exchanged from the beautifully lighted Christmas tree.

REBELS BATTLE TO 14 TO 4 OVER BEARS

The Tigers came back in grand style in the second half of ball game with the Bears to defeat them 14 to 4. Neither the Tigers nor the Bears were able to get started in the first half. The Tigers collected only two points while the Bears scored none. But the second half was a different story, at least for the Tigers. They came back with 12 important points while the Bears could only get four.

Greg Sikes was the big stand out for the Tigers in their fifth straight win of the season with ten of the total fourteen points. Johnny Deal got into the scoring picture with his four points. For the losers, Charlie Lockwood, Capt. and Tommy Renfro scored two points each.

MAINTAINING EGG QUALITY

Maintaining egg quality on the farm is more important today than ever before, according to Extension Poultryman Dewey McNeice at the University of Georgia College of Agriculture.

Some point important in maintaining egg quality are cleaning eggs, cooling eggs quickly, and maintaining storage room temperature of 55-60 degrees and a relative humidity of 70-80 per cent, he says.

CENSUS SHOWS FARM TREND

Fewer but larger farms is a trend in Georgia revealed by the 1959 Census of Agriculture, reported Extension Economist S. J. Brannen of the University of Georgia College of Agriculture.

Number of farms in Georgia declined 86 per cent from 1949 to 1959. This decline came in spite of the fact that the number of farms grossing more than $2,500 increased by 19 per cent, he says.

State agricultural outlook for 1961

"More of the same" is the outlook for 1961, according to Extension Economist S. J. Brannen, head of the Georgia Extension Service.

Trends which have been affecting agriculture are likely to continue during the coming year, Mr. Brannen said in a statement.

Except for the change in basic crop prices, most major farm crops are virtually unchanged from 1960.

Cotton acreage allotments are larger than for 1960, and because of the smaller cotton supply for 1960-61, price supports are not likely to be much lower despite the change in basic crop prices.

Prospects for livestock are somewhat less promising, particularly if the larger supply indicates materialize.

Smaller production of pork and eggs during the first half of 1961 are likely to hold prices above levels of early 1960. The better prices should stimulate production for the latter half of the year, so prices should drop later in the year to levels below those of late 1960.

Larger beef and poultry supplies are expected to keep prices at or below 1960 levels for most months during the year.

People of the United States spend only about 20 per cent of their disposable income for food, compared to 25 per cent during the 1940s, reports Extension Economist Stephen J. Brannen.

Higher production costs and more or less steady gross increase in food prices have kept farm income low. During the last decade net income of Georgia farmers has remained remarkably steady while cash receipts from marketings rose by 55 per cent.

Although this outlook for the agricultural economy as a whole suggests fairly stable price and income prospects, such will not be the case for individual farmers or individual commodities.

New Castle HD club has meeting

By MRS. D. D. ANDERSON

The high light of the New Castle H. D. Club was the Christmas party Tuesday afternoon at the club house which was beautifully decorated for the holiday season.

Mrs. Gear and Miss Judy Webb were with us. Mrs. Delmas Rushing gave the devotional reading from Luke 8th through 15th verses. The meaning was, "Keeping Christ in Christmas," followed by The Lord's Prayer.

Mrs. Gear presided with the installing of officers for New Year president, Mrs. G. B. Bowen, vice president, Mrs. H. H. Godbee; secretary, Mrs. Delmas Rushing, Jr.; treasurer, Mrs. Jim H. Strickland; reporter, Mrs. D. D. Anderson.

The project leaders are: Mrs. J. R. Bowen, Mrs. Wilton Rushing, Mrs. Leon Anderson, Mrs. Delmas Rushing, Sr., Mrs. A. C. Anderson, Mrs. Hubert Waters, Mrs. J. V. Anderson, Mrs. Colon Akins, Mrs. Annie Bowen and Mrs. Geo. Strickland.

Exchanging of gifts and games were enjoyed by the group. Guests for this meeting were Mrs. Delmas Rushing, Jr.'s mother, Mrs. J. J. Shealy from Shelman, Ga., and a sister, Mrs. G. W. Norman of Tifton, Miss Deloris Bowen and Tommy Anderson.

During the social hour club members served an assortment of Christmas goodies with hot coffee.

Miss Mamie Lou Anderson of Atlanta arrived here last Thursday to spend the Christmas holidays with her mother, Mrs. A. C. Anderson.

Truman Anderson of Savannah has been visiting several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Anderson.

Christmas dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Delmas Rushing were Rev. and Mrs. C. K. Everette and family of Dublin and Mr. and Mrs. Delmas Rushing, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo Creasey and daughter, Jackie, and Cindy of Augusta, Ga., have been visiting here this week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Anderson, and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Creasey.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. McCorkle and family in Swainsboro, visited last week with Mr. and Mrs. Lamond McCorkle and family in Swainsboro.

Henry Garland Anderson of Columbus, Ga., is here visiting for two weeks with his parents,

By MRS. JOHN A. ROBERTSON

Last Wednesday night the members of the Arcola-Brooklet Home Demonstration Club held their annual Family Night Supper at the Community House with 75 in attendance.

Mrs. William Cronley and Mrs. Joe Ingram arranged the program. The lovely Christmas Story was the devotional given by a group of children, followed by a prayer given by Mrs. Walter Hendrix. Due to illness, the president, Mrs. C. S. Proctor, could not be present, so the vice-president, Mrs. William Cronley, presided. The group sang carols, exchanged gifts and drew names for the 1961 "Secret Sisters." A lovely Christmas dinner was enjoyed by the group.

By DALE JENSEN

As the time for Making Resolutions for the New Year draws nigh, we'd like to suggest that all parents make a Resolution to give their children a fair chance in school. By this I do not mean adopt a "hands off" policy in regards to their school work. To the contrary, we urge that each parent take a stronger interest in his child's work, for only through whole-hearted participation will the child have a fair chance to get what the schools offer him.

To explain further, many children do not like to study. In fact, the child who will willingly attend to all his homework and show avid interest in all his classes is rare indeed. To some students, the latter classification is a lot like taste as food. Many children shun foods which have the vitamins that they need to grow strong, but as parents, we must encourage them, and if necessary, even force them to eat these foods which they need. Offer a child some food which he likes, and when a forced acquaintance with a new food, will be a happy one.

There was a lot of weather in Bulloch County during 1960

It's no great news that there was a lot of weather in Statesboro and Bulloch County during 1960. It's a subject which rates high in the conversation and the thinking of everybody. And that figures—for the weather is important to a lot of people. To farmers and merchants in Statesboro and Bulloch County the weather is the barometer by which they determine most of their activities.

The farmer, plants, cultivates, gathers his crops, by the weather. His hopes, his despair is controlled by the weather. Merchants buy and sell according to the weather. Families let the weather control what they do, what they wear, what they eat, and where they go.

The records reveal that there was a lot of weather in our community during the year 1960. As we approach the New Year 1961, the editors of the Bulloch Herald present their annual weather review for Bulloch County. Our authority is Mr. W. C. Cromley of Brooklet, official weather observer for the U. S. Weather Bureau. His weather station is located near Brooklet and all our data is based upon his records and weekly reports to the Herald's Thermometer Up and Downs Columns which is on the newspaper's front page every week.

RAINFALL FOR 1960
The recorded rainfall on the county for the year of 1960, through December 18, was 43.38 inches. Normal annual rainfall for the county is 47.55 inches. The month by month rainfall is as follows:
January, 1960, 4.33 inches; February, 4.02; March, 3.31; April, 4.36; May 1.99; June, 2.22; July, 12.22; August, 3.98; September, 3.15; October, 1.27; November, 1.87; December, through December 18, '66.

Rainfall on the county during 1959 was 50.68 inches. Other years: 1958, 43.23; 1957, 54.23 inches; 1956, 43.67; 1955, 34.91; 1954, 26.74; 1953, 46.57; 1952, 46.57; 1951, 36.54; 1950, 43.57.

Bulloch County's greatest rainfall in any one month since 1908, according to the records we keep, was in 1929 when 23.34 inches fell during the month of September. The greatest rainfall in any one day was on September 26, 1929, when 12.75 inches were officially recorded. The day before, September 25, 1929, 4.06 inches fell. Total rain fall for the year, 1929, was 71.35 inches. Normal is 47.55 inches. Another wet year was 1912 when 70.04 inches were recorded.

The county's driest spell came in November, 1931, when there was not a single drop of rain recorded as having fallen on the county. During the three-month period, September, October and November, 1931, there was not a single cloudy day and only .97 inches of rain was recorded. 1954 was the driest year since 1908. That year the total rainfall was only 26.74 inches, 20.81 inches less than normal. In June, 1954, only .99 inches were recorded. This was the driest month of that year. However in March, 1955, only .17 inches were recorded.

TEMPERATURE RECORDS
1960 came in a wave of mild weather with the first freeze recorded on January 20 when the thermometer dipped to 29 degrees. Then King Winter took over and from January 20 until March 22, there were nineteen days when the thermometer daily low was below 30 degrees. January 24 it dropped to 19. The day before, on the 18th, it drop-

Usher, on the left, was sworn in by Effingham County Ordinary, J. R. Conaway. Judge Usher was appointed to fill the unexpired term of Judge J. L. Renfroe, who retired, effective Dec. 15. Usher was elected to the post of judge in the recent state elections and will begin a regular four year term as Judge on January 1. Cohen Anderson, City Court Judge of Statesboro, was appointed to fill Usher's unexpired term as Solicitor of the Circuit. Anderson was elected to the post and will begin a four year term as solicitor on January 1.

ped to 20. And on the second day of Spring, March 22, 1960, the thermometer registered 30 degrees.

The coldest day in Bulloch County was on February 3, 1917, when the temperature dropped to 10 degrees. During the big freeze of 1950 the thermometer officially recorded a low of 13 degrees on Fri., Nov. 24, the day after Thanksgiving. That was the big freeze when nearly 400 tractors and approximately 100 automobiles in the county were put out of commission with cracked or busted cylinder heads, blocks or radiators. Sixty-five water pumps busted during that one.

And summer moved into Bulloch County early, for on March 27, with spring just a squirt, the thermometer rose to 80 degrees and on April 17 it moved on up to 91 degrees. During the period from April 17, through September 21, there were sixty-six days when the temperature was above 90. It was on October 19 that it rose to 90 degrees for the last time in 1960. The thermometer did not get to -100 degrees a single day during the year, though it did hit 99 on June 16. In 1959 there were three days, June 29, June 30 and July 1, when the official thermometer reading was 100 degrees.

The two hottest days recorded in Bulloch County since 1908 was on August 20, 1925, when the thermometer rose to 107 degrees. It hit 108 degrees again on Sept. 4. In April of that year there were nine days when the thermometer was above 90 degrees. In June of that year there were seven days above 100 degrees. In July it was above 100 degrees on ten days and in August there were seven days when the temperature was above 100 degrees. And in September, 1925, there were nineteen days when the thermometer rose above 100 degrees.

The heaviest snow recorded in Bulloch County since 1908, was on February 24, 1914, when four inches fell on the county. Another "big snow" was in 1925. And on December 15, 1943, approximately three to four inches of snow fell on the county. Snow fell in the county three days in 1958. The first was on February 11. It snowed again on February 13. And on Thursday afternoon, December 11, two inches of snow were recorded by Mr. Cromley at his Weather Station near Brooklet. Statesboro was covered by a snow blanket estimated at two inches.

Rockwell's annual Christmas party features Santa Claus

Rockwell Manufacturing Company held their annual Christmas Party for employees and their kiddies December 17, 1960 at the plant.

The party featured a visit by Santa Claus who had gifts for all the kiddies through 16 years of age.

Jack Savage acted as master of ceremonies and the program opened with the invocation by Clyde Hendrix, a Christmas carol by the audience lead by the Chorallers comprised of Steve Pollak, Joe Woodcock, Louis Dupree, N. W. Rowand, Clem Raith, Tom Newsome, Elmer Cullen, Wilbur Semmel, Ray Barge, Andy McClain, Nels McCormick, Wes Krissinger, Bill Taylor, and Henry Appel with Al Alessandri at the piano.

N. W. Rowand welcomed everybody and extended Christmas greetings to all. Service pins were awarded by N. W. Rowand to Steve Pollak for 30 years service, Clem Raith for 20 years service and Tom Nesbit for 15 years service - a total of 65 years experience. The program continued with Christmas songs by the group until the arrival of Santa Claus who passed out candy among the kiddies while gifts were distributed to the various age groups.

Following the distribution of the gifts to the kiddies, door prizes were awarded the following: Kermit Newman, Mildred Harris, Jack Anderson, Penny Hudson, Tom Nesbit, Howard Helmuth, James Akins, Horace Bird, Billy Turner, Don Vestal, Anthony Stozzo and Barney Williams.

After the awarding of the door prizes, the program was concluded with a tasty luncheon served by John Myers.
