STATESBORO - Georgia Southern and Louisiana have rescheduled their Sun Belt Conference series initially postponed from March 13-14.

The Eagles and the Ragin' Cajuns will now play on Sunday, March 28, and Monday, March 29, in Lafayette. Sunday will be a single game at 5 p.m. ET, while Monday will be a doubleheader beginning at 5 p.m. ET.

To accommodate the series, Georgia Southern will not play its non-conference contest against FIU scheduled for Saturday, March 27. The Eagles and the Golden Panthers will still play their non-conference doubleheader on Friday, March 26, beginning at 3 p.m. ET.

Also announced today is that Georgia Southern's game on Wednesday at No. 19 Georgia has been postponed. The two teams are working towards a rescheduled date.
