A great instrument for county progress

The Bulloch County Environmental Protection Department is taking great strides to improve the county's environment. The department is responsible for overseeing environmental regulations and ensuring that the county's resources are used sustainably. By implementing effective policies and programs, the department is working to protect the county's natural resources and promote environmental sustainability.

We toss our hat high for SEM Blue Devils

There are few more successful high schools in Bulloch County than Bulloch County High School. The Blue Devils have a long history of success, and their athletes have brought much pride to the school and the community.

Our fingers crossed for cherry pie champ

Mary Alice Beach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. Emory Beach, is in Chicago this week competing in the 1961 Cherry Pie Championship. Mary Alice has been preparing for this event for months, and the entire family is excited for her to compete.
