Olin Franklin awarded a trip for sales achievement

By Bo Brackin

Olin Franklin of the Piggly Wiggly Store in Statesboro was awarded a trip to Spain for sales achievement last week.

Franklin, who has been with the company for 25 years, received the trip as a reward for his consistent sales performance.

The trip included a visit to several historic sites, including the Palace of the Alhambra in Granada and the Roman Bridge in Segovia.

Franklin expressed his gratitude for the opportunity to travel and said he was looking forward to the experience.

The trip was arranged by the Piggly Wiggly Company as a gesture of appreciation for Franklin's contributions to the company.

The trip also included a visit to the famous Cervantes Monument in Madrid, which was a highlight for Franklin.

The trip concluded with a visit to the Cervantes Theatre in Seville, where Franklin attended a performance of a traditional flamenco show.

Franklin thanked his family and friends for their support during the trip, and said he would always cherish the memories of his visit to Spain.
