disaster relief for our farmers in cases not covered by Federal law.

I am for Bulloch county receiving its just and fair share of all available money from the state for road paving and improvement, and am opposed to so-called toll roads in every form.

I am for a better system of welfare distribution, to assure faster service to the aged, the disabled and dependent children, without delays which deprive the needy of what they justly deserve.

I will work always to obtain better school facilities for our people, and work out harmony on the separate-but-equal basis of segregation of the races that our better element of white and colored people truly want, without doing any injustice to any group.

I am for strict economy in state spending, and will insist that all money spent will be for the good of all, and not for a chosen few.

I am squarely against any increase whatever in taxes.

I am for the establishment of a state authority to provide

10,000 registered in Bulloch County for Sept. 8th primary

Approximately 10,000 citizens of Bulloch county are eligible to vote in the primary on Wednesday, September 8, according to Mrs. Homer Simmons Jr., secretary of the Bulloch County Board of Registrars. She stated that she did not have an exact count this morning, but that it is approximately 10,000 she said.

The polls will be opened from 7 a. m. to 6 p. m. according to Bruce H. Akins, chairman of the Bulloch County Board of Registrars. Members of the Statesboro Junior Chamber of Commerce will operate a motor pool all day during the election and anyone needing transportation may call by dialing 4-2221.

In the June 28, 1950, primary when Herman Talmadge was elected governor, 5,217 citizens of Bulloch county voted. Governor Talmadge received 2,841 votes, and M. E. Thompson received 2,178. In the lieutenant governor's race Marvin Griffin received 3,017 votes to carry the county.

This year there are 41 candidates for the offices of Governor, Prince Preston is without opposition in the first district for congressman. Francis Allen is without opposition in the race for house of representative to fill the vacancy left by Everett Williams, who is not seeking re-election.

Absentee ballots may be obtained in the same manner from Mrs. Simmons or the Board of Registrars, at the same place. The Junior Chamber of Commerce will operate a car pool to furnish transportation to voters who have no rides to the polls. This service will be provided free of charge.

A large field is expected to participate and it is hoped that the field will have at least two flights. Trophies will be awarded to each winner and runner-up in every flight. Consolation winners will receive a trophy. Last year's champion was Joe Robert Tillman, who defeated Jake Hines in the final. Trophies will be on display at an early date.

An average of three eighteen months (34 holes) will be required for qualifying. Entrance fees are payable before person vote, to assure that the wishes of everyone be made known.

Freezing state bread does not restore freshness. However, storing bread at above zero degrees will keep it fresh up to a year. But long-time storage is not recommended because it's not an economical use of freezer space.

Approximately 10,000 citizens of Bulloch county are eligible to vote in the primary on Wednesday, September 8, according to Mrs. Homer Simmons Jr., secretary of the Bulloch County Board of Registrars. She stated that she did not have an exact count this morning, but that it is approximately 10,000 she said.

The polls will be opened from 7 a. m. to 6 p. m. according to Bruce H. Akins, chairman of the Bulloch County Board of Registrars. Members of the Statesboro Junior Chamber of Commerce will operate a motor pool all day during the election and anyone needing transportation may call by dialing 4-2221.

To save or not to save, that is the question

By VIRGINIA RUSSELL

Whether to paint away the last traces of little bodies as they grow up, and up or keep them for memories' sake is a mother's problem. She was telling me how badly she needed to paint a breakfast-nook spot but how she hated to cover up the forms on the wall made by the bodies of her little children who are now grown up and away from home. She went on to describe the loneliness of a house that stayed orderly but very quiet. I listened earnestly and with sympathy because I was in a position to thoroughly understand. Two little children have flown our nest even though they come home to roost on vacations. These times are greatly looked forward to by all of us.

After this conversation with my friend I found myself in an extremely sentimental mood. Never again would I complain about the many evidences of children in our house. Some day I'll find the disarray of our present house, I knew. So it was comparatively simple to accept much that day. I started into the house from the porch but stopped to pick up a dozen or so loops and a weaving loom left scattered about the floor where the youngest recently sat hard at work making pot holders. I knew that proper up-bringing of a child requires that she clean up her own things but the porch had to be swept and the poor child was away at a friend's house. "Just this time I'd pick up for her," I argued.

Completing that task I entered the dining room and viewed the sideboard. There was a hair brush, in the dining room, mind you. There were three Bibles, Huckelberry Finn, a Sunday school books, a doll and her clothes, several tobacco boxes filled with bills from a concession stand, two pairs of clean socks.

From there I went to the living room where newspapers were strewn all over the place. There was a magazine, too, that had been cut out of and the evidence was clear.

"But I was still in a sentimental mood and I could not seem to make out of the fixed sum we allowed, so I set up a 'change jar' into which I put $2 worth of change. I explained to the boy that he could take any or all at any time. I added that we would add change from time to time. The result is quite amazing. He has not even spent his full dollar a week. "It looks too valuable piled in the jar," he says. Any way, I know I can get it if I really need it. That keeps me from worrying.

It's more serious than we think

IT'S A STRANGE paradox—more adults read comic strips in newspapers than children. Comic books are most widely read by children.

There is, of course, an overlap; but the distinction is a valid and important one.

Comic strips in newspapers function under a severe censorship exercised by newspaper editors all over the nation.

For comic books there is no such censorship by an outside agency which has the authority to reject—so it is common to find semi-pornographic stories, gory covers, undesirable reading matter between the covers of comic books.

However, in defense of comic books, there are some, surveys reveal less than one-tenth, which can be rated desirable reading. There are the Walt Disney comics, the animal and related comics, the historical classics in comic book format, and even Biblical stories in colored comic book form.

But the other ninety per cent publish tales of violence, crime, sadism. Their covers appeal to the lowest nature in humans. These present, in detail, how to commit crimes, how to conceal evidence, how to evade detection, how to hurt, maim and kill people. Many describe how to steal from department stores. One graphically describes how to cut through glass and break into a store and how to stop the noise. Covers of these so called books mix blood, sex, violence, which incites fascination in the immature mind.

These lead to temptation and confusion.

 SCHOOL DOORS WILL BE OPENING AGAIN SOON AND THROUGH THEM WILL POUR MILLIONS OF YOUNGSTERS WHO, CONFESSING IT OR NOT, WILL BE JUST AS GLAD. MEANWHILE, MANY ARE COUNTING UP THEIR SUMMER EARNINGS FROM LAWN MOWING AND OTHER ODD JOBS.

CHILDREN TODAY LEARN NOT ONLY THE "THREE R's," BUT ALSO ARE TRAINED IN VOCATIONAL SKILLS AND THE RESPONSIBILITIES OF CITIZENSHIP. THEY GO FOR SCHOOL AS THEY FIND THERE SOME OF THE PREPARATION FOR LIVING AS ADULTS—SAVING, INSURING, BUDGETING, HOME OWNING, FAMILY RAISING AND ALL THE REST. SUCH THINGS LEARNED EARLY OPEN DOORS TO FULLER LIVES LATER ON.

EDITOR'S NOTE—In the absence of Mr. Mabry's column this week we have borrowed a column from the Rotarian Magazine. It is called "Human Nature Put to Work." It proves that there's always a way if you can figure it out. It may even give you some ideas.

The honor system plus a "change jar" solved the perennial problem of allowance for our 11-year-old son. He just could not seem to make out of the fixed sum we allowed, so I set up a "change jar" into which I put $2 worth of change. I explained to the boy that he could take any or all at any time. I added that we would add change from time to time. The result is quite amazing. He has not even spent his full dollar a week. "It looks too valuable piled in the jar," he says.  O GOD, thou hast cast us off, thou hast scattered us, thou hast been displeased; O turn thyself to us again.
 Thou hast made the earth to tremble; thou hast broken it; heal the breaches thereof; for it shaketh.

"BUCKITY - BUCK, HOW MANY FINGERS I GOT UP?" —remember that one?
 We had about forgotten it, a game we used to play when we were in grammar school down on South College street way back when "Bucky-Buck" it was called.
 And it took Josh Lanier, our neighbor over on College Boulevard, to send our thoughts back to those wonderful carefree days when Bucky-Buck was the favorite game during certain seasons of the school year. Josh was having all the kids in our neighborhood at his house—and he was teaching them to play the game.
 Goes like this: Two sides choose up, five or six to the side. The side "down" lines up with the number 1 man grasping a tree or post. Number 2 man bends over, sticks his head between the legs of the "tree-man" and number 3 bends over, sticks his head between the legs of the number 2 man and so on. When the side is down they present a long stretch of backs. Then the boys on the other side back off to a reasonable distance. The "tree-man" takes first turn. He dashes the distance and jumps as far along the backs of the down side and lands as near the "tree-man" as he can. Then the number 2 man follows, trying to jump as close as the length of the backs as he can, and so on until all members of the team are on. Then the "tree-man" holds up a

It seemed to me... Max Lockwood
 He smiled and it was the smile of youth, but on his shoulders he carried the real responsibilities of a man. It was his first time home after he had gone away to the Army. Gone away at 18 to take on the call to arms issued by his country. Gone away from family, friends and those who loved him. Gone away in answer to the call of honor.
 He wore the clean, cool work-suit that is issued by the army. He wore it clean and starched as was his pride. He walked with a smart step and his eyes were clear and sharp, and as he stood there it seemed to me a dream.
 Could this be the little boy with a cow-blick I had known, the boy with dirty feet and quick laughter, a mouth full of bubble gum, and a complete disregard for the cares of the world. Could this be the boy that only yesterday carried the football for a touchdown, or tossed the mud-games that made him a hero to his friends, who awoke one day and realized he had a girl friend. Could this be him?
 As he looked up and saw me, a broad grin stretched across his face and as I grasped his hand in friendship it was with pride I called his name. As we talked, old times and future plans he told me of his work and of his new friends.
 Then he went his way, but long after he had gone the image of that smile lingered on. I thought then of the thousands and thousands of them across our land, away from home, old friends and loved ones. Thousands of young men, tens of thousands of them, who had answered the call to duty. Answered the call of country to serve wherever stationed and to serve with honor, this call to arms.
 Somehow as the image of his face lingered on in my memory I couldn't help but feel that we, in this respect, had failed our youth of today. We have failed to help him plan his future and we have left unanswered his question as to what his country will expect from him.
 As he nears his 18th birthday he does so with an uncertainty as to when the military call will come. There is no established program or plan that he can fit into his life so

MISS GULLEDGE HONORS BRIDESMAIDS
Miss Shirley Ann Gullede, bride elect, entertained in honor of her bridal attendants at a luncheon at Mrs. Bryant's Kitchen on Saturday, August 28.

An arrangement of pink asters, carnation, white tuberoses and lace fern formed the table centerpiece.
On each place card a tiny bouquet of orange blossoms was tied with a satin bow.

Miss Gullede presented each bridesmaid with a gift case containing compact, lipstick and perfume container.
Places were set for Misses Beverly Bargeron, Nancy Hall, Thelma Fordham, Frances Rackley, Donell Thompson, Joan Griffin, Maxine Smith, Mrs. Richard Gullede, Mrs. Truman Foy, Roger Holland, Sr. and Mrs. A. Gullede.

SHIRLEY GULLEDGE IS MARRIED TO BOB RICHARDSON
Miss Shirley Ann Gullede, daughter of Commander and Mrs. A. M. Gullede, and Charles Robert Richardson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Zuma B. Richardson of Lafayette, were married Sunday afternoon, August 29, at five o'clock in a double ring ceremony at the Statesboro Methodist Church with the pastor, the Rev. J. Frederick Wilson performing the rites against a background of classic beauty.

Countess palms outlined the arch over the choir. The choir loft was banked with palms. A pyramid of lighted cathedral tapers accented the beauty of a sunburst arrangement of white gladioli, white asters, and large white chrysanthemums flanked by similar flowers in oval arrangements in white fluted columns. Fern balls on each side completed the altar design. A more intimate circle for the bride and groom was suggested in the use of white asters and white satin ribbons. The chancel rail was covered with countess palms with white chrysanthemums interspersed.

The wedding music was presented by Mrs. Roger Holland, organist, and Miss Joanne Griffin and Dr. Roger Holland, vocalists. Miss Griffin sang "Yours is My Heart Alone" and Holland sang "Thine Alone." At the close of the rites Dr. Holland sang the "Lord's Prayer."
Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in her wedding gown of hand-clipped Rose Point lace over gleaming satin and nylon net. The gracefully modeled bodice featured a turn down collar, long tapering sleeves, ending in points over the hands and fastened down the back with white net buttons. The lace over-skirt was waist-length in front and extended in lavish fullness to a point in the cathedral train. The rippling nylon double ruffles of the traditional length were made more bouffant over underskirt of white satin. Her four-tiered veil of silk illusion flowed from a filigree princess crown of lace, pearls and sequins. She carried a bouquet of carnations, flowers D'Amour and trailing tube roses tied with embossed lace-edged ribbon, centered with a white orchid. For sentiment, the bride carried a coin handed down by her great grandfather.

Miss Beverly Bargeron of Sardis, was maid of honor; Mrs. Richard Gullede of Atlanta, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor.
The bridesmaids were Misses Donell Thompson, Frances Rackley, Nancy Hall of Beaufort, S. C.; and Thelma Fordham. Their dresses were identical in design. Some wore dusty rose; others wore mint green in de-luxed satin over tiers of frothy nylon tulle with nylon net detachable fichus. They wore nylon net mitts and demihats of matching satin and net. They carried bouquets of baby bonnet asters, calladium leaves, tuberoses, and fern fashioned in basket shapes.

The attendants wearing mint green, used rose asters. Those wearing rose carried green asters. The matron of honor had mixed bouquets.
Mary Frances Waters, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl. Her dress was rose, similar to the dresses worn by the other attendants. She carried a white basket lined with white satin, trimmed with flowers and cascading ribbons.

Randy Waters Carr, Beaufort, S. C., served as ring bearer and was dressed like the ushers.
Leon Richardson served as his brother's best man. Ushers-groomsman were Richard Gullede, brother of the bride, Atlanta; Earl Comer, Brunswick; Jimmy Clawson, Lafayette;

Kenneth Parker and Palmadge Rushing, Statesboro; and Billy Shaw Abney, Lafayette, Ga.

Mrs. Gullede, mother of the bride, wore a mauve chiffon gown, lace trimmed. Her hat was made of mauve chiffon with veil and rhinestone trim. Roy Kelly, sister of the groom, wore mauve nylon net over taffeta with off-shoulder neckline, with hequin and pearl trim. Both wore rose-carnation corsages.

RECEPTION
Immediately following the wedding ceremony, Commander and Mrs. Gullede entertained with a reception in the social room of the church.
Centering the bride's table, which was overlaid with an embroidered Madetta cloth, was the beautiful three-tiered wedding cake, the base of which was square with other tiers round. It was decorated in the beautiful shades of pink and green with wedding bells at each corner of the lower tier interspersed with smaller bells and topped by a miniature bride and groom. The cake, on a lacemat, surrounded with soft net, and encircled with soft net, carnations, gladioli and tuberoses, was flanked by three-branched silver candelabras, entwined with lacy fern. There were other arrangements of gladioli, asters and chrysanthemums about the room.

The bride's book was kept by Mrs. Bucky Akins and Mrs. Roy Ottwell. Serving were the Misses Betty Womack, Caroline Blackburn, Jane Beavler, Ailene Stockdale, Maxine Smith, Lafayette, Ga.; Petrey, Barwick; Anne Noel, Atlanta; Melba Prosser and Lila Ann Camette. Misses Marcia Shealy and Patricia Harvey passed the napkins.
Mrs. R. S. Bondurant greeted the guests at the door and Mrs. Allen Lanier introduced them to the receiving line. Others assisting in serving and entertaining were Mrs. Inman Foy, Mrs. A. L. Waller, Mrs. Joseph Hagin, Mrs. Harry Fletcher, Mrs. LeRoy Shealy, Mrs. George Lee, Mrs. H. V. Harvey, Mrs. Rock Waters, Mrs. Darwin Bohler and Mrs. Vernon Hall. Those in charge of the gift rooms in the home were Mrs. Roy Parker, Mrs. D. P. Waters, Howard, Dick Curry, Bobby Howard, Bill Lane, Charlotte

MARVIN GRIFFIN IS THE ONLY CANDIDATE WE CAN TRUST TO PRESERVE AND MAINTAIN SEGREGATION IN OUR SCHOOLS

FOR OUR CHILDREN'S SAKE, ALL MY FRIENDS ARE VOTING FOR MARVIN GRIFFIN

MARVIN'S PLATFORM WILL PRESERVE GEORGIA'S TRADITIONAL WAY OF LIFE

- Hard-surfacing Rural Roads
- No Toll Roads or Toll Bridges
- Increased Old-Age Pensions
- Aid for the Handicapped
- Increased Industrial, Tourist and Waterways Development
- Furtherance of Present Administration's Fine Achievements

ELECT MARVIN GRIFFIN

GEORGIA'S NEXT GOVERNOR

BULLOCH COUNTY

Will Join The THOMPSON VICTORY PARADE

BECAUSE

He has run a clean race without slinging mud and has not disgraced the great State of Georgia.

SEPARATE PUBLIC SCHOOLS

I am for separate public schools. The Supreme Court ruling has caused much concern regarding the future of our schools. Let me make my position on this subject clear to all of you. I am for separate public schools. I am opposed to the mixing of the races in our schools.

FREE ROADS

I am for free roads. We will build four-lane highways where four-lane highways are needed. We will build farm-to-market roads where farm-to-market roads are needed. Every improvement will be pushed to the limit of our resources. Every improvement will be pushed to the limit of our resources, and I promise you that these roads will be free roads. DON'T BE MISLED by my opponent who now, at this late date says he too, is for free roads.

AUTOMOBILE LICENSE TAGS

There is a silly law now that requires you to tell someone in Atlanta how much you owe on your automobile. We will repeal that law and in the interest of convenience, economy, and efficiency we will change the law so that you can buy your car, bus, or truck tag at your county courthouse instead of at the State Capitol in Atlanta.

COUNTY UNIT

I am for the County Unit System just as it is today. While I am your Governor for the next four years the County Unit System will remain in the Primary just as it is now. While I am your Governor the County Unit System will not be extended to the general election where it has never been before. The County Unit System will not be tampered with or modified in any way while I am your Governor for the next four years.

TAXES

I am opposed to any new taxes on the people of Georgia, and while I am your Governor there will be no new taxes. We can and we will meet the demand for public services without imposing new taxes upon our people. There will be no new taxes while I am your Governor for the next four years.

(Political Ad Paid For by the Bulloch County Thompson for Governor Committee.)

IT'S THOMPSON TIME

"The people of Georgia will not look at a man's clothes to see if somebody has thrown mud on him; they will look at the candidate's hands to see if they are clean or if they are soiled with mudslinging. We are going to win. We are going to win right. We are going to win clean... M.E.T."

Our platform must be good. Our opponent is now trying to adopt it. DON'T BE MISLED!

ELECT H. E. NICHOLS To Succeed Himself As JUDGE COURT OF APPEALS OF GEORGIA

TO THE PEOPLE OF BULLOCH COUNTY:

Having announced the candidacy for representative in the Georgia Legislature for the place left vacant by the late A. J. Trapnell, the primary being held September 8, I hereby give notice of my platform for that office.

If elected I will cooperate and work diligently with the people from all sectors of our county, both rural and city, to improve the social, economic and educational standards of our county.

My experience, working with the public and for the public and in the various fields of endeavor has given me a broad understanding of the problems and needs of our citizens.

In my present position, I have acquired a knowledge of the state situations; their needs and workings; I believe when you choose me to represent you, I can save you, the taxpayer, of Bulloch county, and the state of Georgia from over taxation.

I am opposed to any increase in taxes that are not beneficial to every Bulloch county citizen. It is my opinion that the tax burden is high enough at the present time.

With a steady plea and demand for more taxes from the federal government, our national debt is 267 Billion dollars and 80 Billion has already been spent on foreign aid.

I feel that no taxpayer should be unduly taxed. Any increase in taxes should be made in the best interests of all taxpayers and not for the benefit of a special few.

If you choose me to be your representative, I will cooperate with the county commissioners and will go all out for increased improvements in "Farm to Market" roads.

THIS TRUCK was born for tough jobs. It clambers over brushy slopes and churns out of shallow creeks.

Here you see it carting heavy reels of wire over a hill-country pass. A power line is being built there, and when the construction crew needs the wire, it will be there, waiting.

Unusual equipment, such as this dependable six-wheel drive truck, helps us to make sure that our work is done on time.

LAWN BACK OF CLAUD HOWARD'S PERFECT FOR CHILDREN'S PARTY
Mrs. Claud Howard entertained a party with a party on Thursday afternoon honoring her son, Cecil, on his sixth birthday. The spacious lawn at the rear of the home was chosen for the occasion where they helped Cecil celebrate his old-fashioned-to-go school birthday. Favors were remaining latins, held in filled baskets. POLO VICTIMS NEED HELP NOW
The Bulloch Herald, Statesboro, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 1954
Get to know what your blood program means to the community
BY REV. PAUL STRICKLER
Many questions concerning the blood program are discussed over the back yard fence. Therefore, there are many answers, whether correct or in error remains to be settled. In an effort to inform the people of Bulloch county I will attempt to answer some of these questions.
I. WHAT IS THE BLOOD PROGRAM?
Answer—It is an effort of the Red Cross to collect blood with which to build up a blood bank sufficient to meet the demands of all hospitals participating in the program. Also, the number of people who enter a hospital which is not in the program; so a transfer can be made thus saving an enormous blood bill where a commercial blood bank is operated. The blood is collected and deposited in the Savannah Blood Bank and as blood is needed it is drawn from the bank, eliminating the burden of searching for donors with the same type of blood as that of the person involved in the emergency.
A person from Bulloch county may enter a hospital that is not participating in this program and may be charged as much as $50 per pint for blood but if said hospital is so informed the blood can be replaced from the Red Cross blood bank at the present time.
II. IF I DONATE BLOOD TO THIS PROGRAM, WILL I NOT BE REQUIRED TO PAY FOR THE BLOOD RECEIVED FROM THE CENTER?
Answer—No. Blood from the Red Cross is free. But someone said, "When I was in the hospital and needed blood, I received by bill and there was a charge for blood. You are not getting blood from the Red Cross, you are getting it from the hospital. The Red Cross blood is free, but the hospital charges for the administration and laboratory fees which ordinarily do not exceed $7.50 per pint. The Red Cross blood is free, but the hospital charges for the administration and laboratory fees which ordinarily do not exceed $7.50 per pint. The Red Cross blood is free, but the hospital charges for the administration and laboratory fees which ordinarily do not exceed $7.50 per pint."
III. "I GAVE BLOOD TO THE PROGRAM DURING ONE OF THE MOBILE VISITS TO MY FARM. WILL I BE REQUIRED TO PAY FOR THE BLOOD RECEIVED FROM THE CENTER?"
Answer—Occasionally that does happen, yet there is a reason for it. It is that following the last mobile visit such an occurrence took place. A young man donated blood and in a few days his sister needed blood and the bank's supply of this particular type was exhausted. You may ask, "but why?" The reason for such an occurrence is we are not collecting enough blood to meet the demands of the people participating in the program. This same problem, no doubt has arisen elsewhere before it reached us. We are using the blood from the program. This same problem, no doubt has arisen elsewhere before it reached us. We are using the blood from the program. This same problem, no doubt has arisen elsewhere before it reached us. We are using the blood from the program.

Bulloch County Farm Bureau
Two things farmers of this section are faced with for immediate action are how to do a wise job of irrigating the more remunerative crops grown here and a better job of public relations with the consumers of farm products. Alexander Nunn, editor of the Progressive Farmer, Birmingham, stated to the West side Farm Bureau Tuesday night.
Miles Frank Deal, ASC administrative officer, pleaded for the hands being removed from controlled crops to be planted to winter cover crops and held off of production next year so the ACP program could be worked with the financing. Mr. Deal stated that these areas could be grazed and should be planted to winter cover crops. He predicted that the irrigation system is not needed, local farmers could still produce them for the insurance. Crops could be planted thicker, getting more plants per acre on the land, use more fertilizer, all pointing to higher yields, and then if ample rainfall did not come to produce the abundant crop they could then be irrigated.
Mr. Nunn pleaded for study of the systems and engineering advice from extension service specialist before buying a system.
The city consumer of farm products has been told too often that if the prices of farm products were lowered to the farmer, the cost of living would be reduced. Mr. Nunn cited numerous figures where the cost of living has declined and the farmer, yet the cost of the products to the consumer had remained relatively high and in some instances even higher than before because of the increased cost of processing, transporting and retailing. He cited what was an example. Last year, wheat dropped 80 cents per bushel, yet the cost of a loaf of bread increased a cent. This year, wheat has declined 20 cents per bushel and bread again advanced a cent per loaf. The amount of cotton in a shirt, or even a sheet, is so small that the decline in price of cotton by 15 per cent would only reduce the price of a shirt one cent, a dress five cents, a bed sheet 10 cents if the consumer received the entire reduction in the purchase price of these items.
Miss Sallie Hill, home editor for the Progressive Farmer, lauded the county as a whole for the many well planned and spaced farm homes and for six Master Farmers, the most of any county in the United States. She also predicted another year of good crops. She said that the county had a good crop of cotton by 15 per cent would only reduce the price of a shirt one cent, a dress five cents, a bed sheet 10 cents if the consumer received the entire reduction in the purchase price of these items.
