To protect our American way of life

One night last week thitry-four citizens of Statesboro and Bulloch county got together to consider the proposition that education is the bulwark of our American way of life and our economic system.

Meeting at the courthouse were businessmen, bankers, real estate men, farmers, housewives, city officials, county and state officials, teachers—all with one idea uppermost in their minds-an adequate program of education for the children of Statesboro and Bulloch

In 1950 a county-wide group met and organized themselves into a committee to study the needs of the schools of our city and county. Out of that study and survey came the new schools recently completed and now in use. The committee thought that they were making adequate provision for the needs of our schools for some time.

But is proves not so.

According to our county school superintendent next year will find the new facilities we've just provided overflowing and inadequate.

THE JOURNALIST'S CREED

I believe in the profession of journalism. I believe that the public journal is a public trust; that all connected with it are, to the full measure of their responsibility, trustees for the public; that acceptance of lesser service than the public service is betrayal of this trust.

I believe that clear thinking and clear statement, accuracy and fairness, are fundamental to good I believe that a journalist should write only what he holds in his heart to be true. I believe that suppression of the news, for any onsideration other than the welfare of society, is indefensible. I believe that no one should write as a journalist what he would not say as a gentleman; that bribery by one's own pocketbook is as much to be avoided as bribery by the pocketbook of another; that individual responsibility may not be escaped by pleading another's instructions or another's dividends. I believe that advertising, news, and editorial columns should alike serve the best interest of readers; that single standard of helpful truth and cleanness should prevail for all; that the supreme test of good journalism is the measure of its public

I believe that the journalism which succeeds best and best deserves success-fears God and honors man; is stoutly independent, unmoved by pride of opinion or greed of power, constructive, tolerant, but never careless; self-controlled, patient, always respectful of its readers but always unafraid; is quicky indignant at injustice; is unswayed by the appeal of privilege or the clamor of the mob; seeks to give every man a chance and, as far as law and honest wage recognition of human brotherhood can make it so, an equal chance; is profoundly patriotic while sincerely promoting international goodwill and cementing world-comradship; is a journalism of hunanity, of and for today's world.

a continued search must be made to find a better way. Yet as a Georgian, I want to go on the record as one who will support the governor of my state and as one that respects the integrity of the fine men and women who represent us in our legislature. They have gone on record as recommending this step as one for the best interests of the majority of our people. We must now stand and be counted and if necessary drive from our midst those who shout against our sovereignty and who push themselves upon us in our very communities and shout against those we have elected to represent us as they attempt to destroy our Constitution, and thus destroy our liberties. While I am convinced that the private school plan is not the best one, I will take my stand with it and issue a challenge to any Georgian to come forward with a better solution for all of us to support. I believe that our governor is aware of the many flaws in his recommended program and I believe that in his honesty he would welcome any individual, regardless of political background, race or political affiliation, to come forward with a better program and a better program and a better program and a better program and a better plan to preserve our public schedule system in our state.
