This And That Thru The Us Of Virginia

By VIRGINIA RUSSELL

Who remembers when geography was studied out of a big, thick, interesting book?

History? It was the same type of recitation and most of the pupils went through the ordeal every day.

We don't teach history for thirty minutes and geography for thirty minutes and literature for thirty minutes.

Mr. Lockwood, one of the great exponents of good in our community, is concerned with the problem of juvenile delinquency.

The Lions Club set up a fund with which to study the problem. At an early date a group of the community's citizens will be invited to sit around a table and to see the problem in proper focus.

This problem needs your attention. Look about you and see how you can help.

Mr. Benson began his talk by telling the boys and girls they were the luckiest people on earth. He followed immediately by explaining that little Indian children are just like they are.

Mr. Benson told of the homes, the customs, the religions, the sacred cows in the streets of the third largest city in the world, Calcutta.

This is the final in a series of articles that deal with the subject of juvenile delinquency. I would like for you, the reader, to know that this has been a serious discussion.

If, during this series of articles, I have made you, as a parent, lose some of the faith that you have in that teenage member of your family then I have failed miserably in what I was attempted to do.

The facts are simply this, when all the publicity and glamour have died down concerning some sensational cases that we have had.

When we met together for this discussion last week, we were all in agreement that we should be deeply grateful for the many people who are sincerely concerned with the welfare of all our people.

Heart fund goal set at $1,075

Benjamin B. Hodges, chairman of the Bulloch County Heart Fund Drive being conducted this month, announced this week that a goal of $1,075 has been set up for Bulloch county.

Mr. Hodges said that a major part of all the money contributed will be used to advance the heart program in Georgia. The balance will be used to support nationwide research, education and community heart programs of the American Heart Association.

The Georgia Heart Association sponsors a statewide system of cardiac clinics and supports expanding programs of professional and public education and community services.

Leader training for orcharding

A leader training meeting was held for the orcharding project leaders of the Home Demonstration Clubs, Tuesday, January 25, at 10 in the demonstration kitchen in Statesboro.

The group discussed a method of making out annual reports, planting, pruning and fertilizing of fruit trees and demonstrations they could give to their clubs. Each project leader was given a bag of fertilizer and made plans to use it in their project, each working up an experiment of a different kind of fruit tree.

Attending the training meeting were: Mrs. Huan Allen, West Side club; Mrs. Walton Nesmith, Nevils club; Mrs. Rufus Joiner, Jimps club; Mrs. J. H. Fitch, Eda; Mrs. Carlos McCoy, Eda; Mrs. Gary Debie, Register; Mrs. Esther Hand, Middleground; and Mrs. Dorothy Whitehead and Miss Joyce McDonald.

MISS MARY GRANT WEDS MR. FISCHER
At an afternoon ceremony performed at 4 o'clock yesterday in the Nativity of Our Lord Church, Miss Mary Louise Grant became the bride of John Henry Fischer. The Rev. John A. Morris officiated before an altar banked with baskets of white gladioli, carnations and palms. White tapers in candelabra completed the arrangement. Family pews were marked by bouquets tied with satin ribbon.

Music was presented by Mrs. Jane Morel, organist, and Edward P. Daly, soloist, who sang "Ave Maria," "On This Day," and "Oh, Sacred Music."
Mrs. Fischer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Herbert Grant of Statesboro, formerly of Wilmington, N. C. Mr. Fischer is the son of Mrs. Catherine Gliska Fischer of Wilmington Island and the late John George Fischer of Statesboro.

Bride In Imported Lace
Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gown in imported lace over bright satin styled with a high neckline and a decollete neckline. Lace extended in relief around the satin underbody and long sleeves ended in points over her hands. The full scalloped skirt over crinoline was waist-length. The bridal veil of shoulder-length French illusion fell from a shirred demi-cap of French illusion. She carried a white satin prayer book covered by a white arch and adorned with streamers and tuberoses.

Miss Wilma Grant of Atlanta was her sister's maid of honor and only attendant. Her gown of pale turquoise was fashioned with a bouffant, princess style skirt of waist-length, and fitted bodice embroidered in crystal sequins. She wore a cloche trimmed with crystal sequins and carried a nosegay of pink roses and carnations.

James T. Douglas Jr. served as the groom's best man. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Grant selected navy antique taffeta trimmed with navy lace. Her accessories were navy and pink and she wore a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Fischer, mother of the groom, was attired in navy print dress of silk with which she used blue accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

Reception Follows
Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Fischer on Arden Avenue, Savannah, where vases of gladioli and carnations were featured in the decor. The bride's table, overlaid with an imported Irish linen cutwork cloth, was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. Three branched crystal candelabra holding white tapers and tied with tuberoses and carnations completed the table appointments. Miss Maxine Collier of Wilmington, N. C., presided at the punch bowl, and assisting in serving were Miss Sandra Jarrott, cousin of the bride, of Decatur, Miss Josie Bullard and Mrs. N. J. Fischer. Miss Carolyn Smith, registered bridesmaid in the bride's book.

When Mr. and Mrs. Fischer left on a wedding trip to Miami, Fla., and other points of interest, the bride wore a gold and colored suit of light wool. Brown accessories and the orchid from her prayer book completed her ensemble. Upon their return, they will reside on East Victory Drive.

Out-of-town guests were Miss Collier, Wilmington, N. C.; Miss Sandra Jarrott, Mrs. T. H. Haynie, Decatur; Miss Wilma Grant, Atlanta; Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Haynie, Tampa, Fla.; and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Collins, Statesboro.

HALF HIGH BRIDGE CLUB
Mrs. Tiny Hill was hostess Friday afternoon at her home to the Half High Bridge Club. Nuptials and flowering quince were used in the decorations. Assorted party sandwiches, cookies, and Coca-Colas were served before game time. Later on Valentine candles were placed on the tables.

Mrs. Bernard Morris received a smoking set, cigarette holder and ash trays for high score. Mr. W. R. Lovett received a hamburger press for high high. Mrs. Earl Allen won cut prizes, a bottle of hand lotion. Mrs. Zack Smith received a package of guest napkins for low.

Others playing were Mrs. G. C. Coleman, Mrs. Betty Lanier, Miss Maxine Foy, Mrs. Albert Davis, Mrs. Ed Olliff, Mrs. Elloway Forbes, Mrs. Humshitt Marsh and Mrs. Robert Morris.

DEBORAH BRANNEN CELEBRATED HER FIFTH BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Neil was assisted by Mrs. Ralph Howard, Mrs. Frank Mikell, and Mrs. J. P. Folds.

MRS. HACKETT HOSTESS TO NO TRUMP CLUB
On Thursday, February 3, Mrs. Don Hackett entertained the No Trump Club at her home on Donebois Street.

Pantries and white narcissi in attractive arrangements marked the party scene. A salad plate and coffee were served.
Mrs. J. P. Spier, winning top score, received a pair of white gloves. Mrs. Bill Keith received a powder for the No Trump prize. Mrs. Zack Smith won an engagement calendar for cut. A box of all occasion cards went to Mrs. Ed Olliff for low.

Other guests were Mrs. H. P. Jones Jr., Mrs. Curtis Lane, Mrs. Josh Lanier, Mrs. E. L. Anderson Jr., Mrs. Gene Curry, Mrs. Paul Franklin Jr., Mrs. Gus Sorrier, Mrs. Frank Hook, Mrs. C. C. Coleman Jr., Mrs. Johnny Deal, Mrs. Jake Smith and Miss Maxine Foy.

ELKS AIDMORE FETED OUT-OF-TOWN GUESTS
On Tuesday, February 1, the Statesboro Elks Aidmore Auxiliary had a buffet luncheon at the Elks Lodge with nineteen members of the Savannah Aidmore Club and nine members of Aidmore from Milledgeville joining with the local Aidmore Auxiliary members here. The state chairman, Mrs. Bailey, of Decatur made an interesting and inspirational lecture to the group.

Mrs. E. B. Stubbs, local president, presided at the meeting before the luncheon. Aid had with it a delightful entertainment. Mrs. Bernard Morris presented three of her speech pupils from the seventh grade, Hugh Burke, Margaret Wilson, and Sara Adams. They were special guests for the luncheon.

DONNA NEWTON FETED ON HER THIRD BIRTHDAY
Donna Newton, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Newton, was honored Monday afternoon, January 31, with a birthday party at the Recreation Center. Donna wore for her party a charcoal and pink nylon dress over a stand-out petticoat.

Mrs. Bob Tanner and Mrs. George Bryan assisted in serving ice cream, cookies, and punch. Balloons, blow-out whistles, and lollipops were the favors.

Her guests were Patti McCullough, Teresa and Kay Crowley, Ann Hackett, Johnny Sumner, Amanda Come, Susan Whitte, Tracy Lanier, Sims Lanier, Brooks and Cherry Mikell, R. B. C of C adopts resolution on the death of Alfred Dorman

STATESBORO—BULLOCH CHAMBER OF COMMERCE RESOLUTIONS—FEB. 1, 1955

Death never strikes gently; but sometimes comes with such extraordinary suddenness and surprise that those associates find it difficult to comprehend its finality. Particularly is this true when the victim is a man of unusual vitality and spirit.

Alfred Dorman was a dynamic, tireless, inspired person who presented the structure of every organization he entered with such strength and energy that he seemed to be indestructible. Only after a period of almost diabolical silence did the significance of his passing settle in his group upon this community.

Immediately after opening business in Statesboro he began an active participation in civic work which increased in momentum without abatement throughout the year. The great achievements of the Chamber of Commerce, including the Statesboro Tobacco Market, United States Highway 301, and the General Instrument Company electronics plant, which have brought prosperity to our city and county rarely equaled in this nation, were due in the greatest part to his unceasing endeavor and devotion, and to his unselfish concern for the welfare of the people. Travel, expense and time meant nothing to him when he was engaged in an industrial or community enterprise which would result in civic progress. In his final days, as president of the United States Wholesale Grocers' Association, in addition to the multiplicity of tasks required by that office, he was also an ambassador of good will for the South, Georgia, Bulloch county, and Statesboro, carrying with his incomparable enthusiasm, courage, and wit a message of hope and progress from Dixie to the nation from coast to coast. Alfred Dorman demonstrated by every act of his conviction that unselfish service will bring business and prosperity to all.

Therefore it is resolved that the Statesboro-Bulloch County Chamber of Commerce at a regular meeting at 7 p. m. February 1, 1955, at the Friendly Cafe, Statesboro, Georgia, extend to his wife, Mrs. Alfred Dorman, and daughter, Mrs. Paul Sauve, our heartfelt sympathy. We in the Chamber of Commerce, those who at close hand have watched him at work through the years, realize that this organization has lost its mightiest force. There is no way that we can pay adequate tribute to the life-long service rendered by this great Christian man.

HD Clubs meet in Swainsboro

A large number of Home Demonstration Club members from Bulloch county will attend the southern district council meeting in Swainsboro, February 8, at 9:30 a. m., at the new 4-H Club building on U. S. Highway 1.

Mrs. Whitehead said that new district leaders will be recommended, a theme for the year selected, and a review of work accomplished in 1954 will be presented. Mrs. Emmett Scott, council president, will tell of three outstanding accomplishments made in 1954 and discuss goals which Bulloch county has selected to work on in 1955.

The three suggested themes for the year are: Improved Standards for Better Living, Building a Stronger Nation Through Better Education, and Working Together for Better World Understanding.

Last year a total of 2,300 club members attended the meetings in the six Agricultural Extension Service districts. 125 from Bulloch county attended the meetings last year. This year we hope to surpass that number.

Art Meet Slates Student Exhibits

Plans are now being completed for the Statesboro Regional Student Art Exhibit and Conference at the Lab School, February 23-26.

Miss Emma Moore, Savannah, art supervisor for Chatham county schools, is general chairman for the conference which will attract art teachers and general elementary and high school teachers from the Statesboro region of the state. The exhibit will feature entries of representative art work from students of elementary and high schools in 15 different counties participated, showing approximately 800 exhibits.

Miss Moore reports that the conference this year will include demonstrations in various art media such as enameling, clay modeling, and mobiles, and will feature an address by an outstanding speaker in the field of art education.

Miss Roxie Remley, assistant professor of fine arts, is assisting Miss Moore with the program. All entries from the various schools should be sent to Miss Remley, she announced, and must be received by Feb. 18.

Homecoming Events Scheduled February 12

Homecoming Day at GTC is scheduled next Saturday, February 12, and the full day of activities is expected to bring a large number of alumni and their families to the GTC campus for the occasion, according to Dr. Georgia Watson, who is directing the activities.

Festivities really begin Friday night, February 11, with the annual Beauty Revue to select Miss TC of 1955. Under the direction of the Art Club, the revue will be held in the auditorium at 8:15. Nineteen girls all GTC students, will compete for the "Miss TC" title.

The Parade of Floats begins at 10 o'clock Saturday, and will terminate in downtown Statesboro. Eleven student clubs have entered themes from "Scenes from U. S. History" in competition for the first, second, and third places in the parade contest. Deadline for entrance of themes is 10:30 Saturday, February 6.

Clubs entering themes are Industrial Arts, "Old Ironsides"; Home Economics, "Betsey Ross-Flag Making"; Wesley Foundation, "The Circuit Rider"; Veterans, "Toomb of Unknown Soldier"; PBYE, "Pilgrims on Sunday"; PBLA, "Casting of Liberty Bell"; BBU, "Washington at Valley Forge"; FTA, "Oldest School House in U. S."; Music Education, "Star Spangled Banner"; Franklin County, "Benjamin Franklin Electricity"; Masques, "Foundation of United Nations."

Heart Fund Slogan help your HEART FUND help your HEART

1955 HEART FUND CAMPAIGN to fight heart disease is being conducted nationally throughout the month of February.

A new approach is being made in 1955 in working with farm families through county and home demonstration agents, according to W. A. Sutton, associate director of the University of Georgia Agricultural Extension Service. With present personnel each agent works with an average of 1,200 rural families in a county. Plans for the future call for one agent for each 300 families.

Soybeans will grow on most types of soil in Georgia, but give best yields on fertile loams to sandy loams, according to J. R. Johnson, agronomist, Agricultural Extension Service. Light sandy soils of south Georgia are not as well adapted to soybeans as the heavier types in the state.

'Bo' Ginn On Governor's Staff

Ronald "Bo" Ginn, senior, Morgan, has been appointed to the position of lieutenant colonel on Governor Marvin Griffin's staff, according to a letter received by Ginn last week.

The letter of appointment came from B. D. Murphy, chief of staff, and contained Murphy's congratulations on Ginn's position.

Ginn will serve as a non-paid aide and advisor to Governor Griffin, and will campaign among young people for issues endorsed by Griffin.

At the age of twenty, Ginn is the youngest member of a governor's staff in Georgia. His formal commission will be issued by Governor Griffin sometime in the near future.

Bulloch County Farm Bureau

All FB's urge farmers to turn in surplus 1955 cotton allotments

Turn in any cotton acreage allotment that you do not intend to plant in 1955 for registration was the first item of business at all Farm Bureau meetings last week.

Bulloch county did not materialize in getting the 1954 cotton acreage allotted to the county planted. Only 5.9 per cent of the acreage was planted. But Georgia failed to plant a much larger percentage of the acreage was lost for 1955.

Everyone that knows about this seems to be interested in making an effort to see that it does not happen again.

Miles Frank Deal, ASC administrative officer, says that the cotton must be turned in during February so that the county committee can allocate it to growers that will plant it. He also pledged the ASC cooperation in pre-measuring the intended acreage this year. The charge will be $3.50 for the pre-measure and then 50 cents per acre for measuring the cotton acreage. They will also pre-measure the tobacco acreage for 75 cents per acre.

The groups were also warned to apply for any emergency allotment they might need prior to February 15. This program is supposed to close out after that date. Bill Zetterow, county manager, said that Mrs. E. L. McDonald drew the chapter door prize and H. Zetterow drew the turkey prize offered by Lester Waters.

C. J. Knott, USDA tobacco marketing specialist, Oxford, N. C., discussed the preparation of marketing orders of tobacco at a Brooklet meeting Tuesday night. Mr. Knott asked that tobacco growers separate the

Your Family And God

YOUR HOME AND YOUR MONEY

Our topic today is "Your Home and Your Money." But oh, my, hear the cry! What does money have to do with a Christian home? Well, perhaps nothing. If when you came to Christ, you were converted—all but your pocketbook—in fact, be sure, your money has to do with making your home a Christian home. But if when you got converted, your pocketbook was converted too, if you said and meant "ALL to Jesus I surrender, ALL to Him I freely give," then what your family does with its money has everything to do with making your home a Christian home.

Or if your life is divided into religious and non-religious, or spiritual and secular areas, and if you consider your money part of your non-religious or secular life, then it is true that your money has nothing to do with making your home a Christian home. But, on the other hand, if there are no non-religious or secular areas in your life, if ALL your life belongs to God, then how you spend your money will have much to do with how Christian is your home.

Well, what about your money? Do you give any to God? To his work? How much do you give Him? The gospel says "God so loved you that He gave His only son..." But what is the gospel according to

New 1955 GULF NO-NOX

It's super-refined... to burn clean!

The '55 gasoline for all high-compression engines

H. P. Jones and Son —DISTRIBUTOR—

Statesboro, Georgia

Always remember: Octane alone is not enough. Only a gasoline that burns clean can make its full octane power really work for you mile after mile.

That's why, instead of trying to fight harmful deposits with so-called "miracle additives"—inside your engine—Gulf believes in preventing them from forming in the first place; removes the cause—the "dirty-burning tail-end" of gasoline, at the refinery, to bring you new NO-NOX.

This is GULF'S PLEDGE to the motoring public

- We at Gulf make this promise to America's motorists. We will not permit a single competitor — no, not a single one — to offer a gasoline superior to our own superb No-Nox.
- It is our sincere belief that No-Nox is the finest gasoline on the market today, and no matter what others do or say we will keep it the finest — in power, in performance, in engine protection.
- This is not a boast, not a claim. It is a pledge to you, the motoring public—a pledge backed by the resources—and the integrity—of the Gulf Oil Corporation.

J. H. Wyatt Urges farmers to turn in surplus cotton allotments

By Mrs. John A. Robertson

The February meeting of the Farm Bureau was held last Wednesday night in the community room with the president, J. H. Wyatt, presiding.

A steak supper was served to the group by the hospitality committee.

Mr. Wyatt urged the farmers to plant their cotton acreage or else turn it in to Miles Frank Deal, so that Bulloch county farmers would not lose any allotment.

John F. Spence of the program committee introduced the guest speaker, C. T. Knott of South Carolina, who is with the United States Department of Agriculture in the tobacco grading division.

The business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Bob Mikell.

Mrs. A. C. Watts presented to the group the suggestion that the Associated Women's organization assist with a child in the health program, and the members voted to do this.

Out-of-town guests at the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Williams of Statesboro, and Mrs. C. T. Knott of South Carolina.

Miss Henrietta Hall, chairman of the February program committee, presented the guest speaker, the Rev. Leslie Williams, pastor of the Statesboro Baptist Church, who gave an address on "Cultivating Our Social Habits."

The next meeting will be held Wednesday night, March 2, with Mrs. Olan Lanier, chairman of the supper committee, and Mrs. John A. Robertson, chairman of the program committee.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Mikell went to Atlanta last week to meet their son, Jerry, who reached California Tuesday, after serving in the United States service for six months.

Teacher shortage gets attention here today

By Mrs. John A. Robertson

The critical teacher shortage in Georgia will be the topic for discussion when state elementary and high school officials meet in a conference at GTC Thursday (today).

County school superintendents, elementary and high school principals, and PTA representatives have been called together by Dr. J. D. Park, chairman of the division of education at GTC.

Speakers include William A. Early, superintendent of Chatham county schools who will talk on "A National Crisis in Teacher Supply"; L. L. Lester, director of instruction, state department of education, who will speak on "Teacher Preparation and Certification in Georgia"; and Dr. Park, who will speak on "The Teacher Supply Situation in Georgia."

The conference opens at 10 a. m. with a general session to be presided over by J. J. Cordell, president of the Georgia School Administrators Association, President Zach S. Henderson will officially welcome the group to Georgia Teachers College and will be host to the college dining hall.

The group will be broken into small discussion groups before lunch. The groups will report and discuss their findings in another general session in the afternoon. Presiding at the afternoon session will be W. P. Blackmon, president of the Georgia High School Principals Association.

"Although the teacher shortage is of national concern," Dr. Park said, "it is even more critical here in Georgia where our college graduation classes this year are smaller than ever."

All small classes, he pointed out, are due to the fact that four years ago the twelve-year system was started in Georgia high schools.

Christian Life Conference here

By ANN McDOUGALD

The Statesboro Hi-Y and Hi-Y Clubs will host the Christian Life Conference on March 11-13.

The Christian Life Conference is designed to help the youth workers of the district. The theme for the conference is "Forward with Youth."

The conference will close on Sunday, March 13, with a luncheon at the Laboratory High School cafeteria.

Plans are under way to provide housing for the delegates in the homes in Statesboro.

The division finals will be played Friday night and the elimination games will be played at Douglas Saturday night.
