The 19th Hole

"FOR WHEN THE ONE GREAT SCORER COMES..."

THE MASTERS TOURNAMENT... April 7-9-10 at record. Augusta, Georgia seems to be on everybody's mind so we figured to fill you in on the things that may be of some interest to you.

SOMETHING NEW HAS BEEN ADDED... to Hole No. 1. And to those of you who have been to the tournament it is good news. The ground leading down to the first tee has been regraded to modify the sharpness of the slope and the mound for spectator use at the far right-hand side of the green has been enlarged.

ALTHOUGH BEN HOGAN won in 1951 and 1953 he "muffed" three other chances to be the champ at Augusta. BYRON NELSON defeated Ben in 1942 in a playoff 69 to 70 and then last year Sam Snead defeated him 70 to 71 in a playoff. The other time was in 1946, Herman Keiser three-putted the 18th green on the final round thereby opening the door for Ben. But Hogan, although he had a good chance to score a birdie that would have given him the championship by a 1 stroke margin, also three-putted—leaving Keiser in sole possession of first place.

JIMMY DEMARET and SAM SNEAD are the only three-time winners of the Masters. But there are at least two "Greats" who have never won. They are Lloyd Mangrum and Cary Middlecoff. In 1940 Mangrum placed second and in 1949, 1951 and 1953 placed third. Middlecoff placed second in 1948.

The leading golf writers over the nation are predicting great things for the "Youngsters" for the Masters but more than likely it will again be one of the old timers who picks up top money.

A GREAT TREAT awaits you in Augusta. Why not take a few days off and see one of the great sports spectacles. Georgia is quite fortunate to be honored with this magnificent golf course where even the President of the United States comes to play. When you go be sure to see the mansion built just for the President.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK: GOD grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change; the courage to change the things I can; and the wisdom to know the difference. —THE OLE DUFFER.

For Natural Gas System

On Tuesday, April 19 registered voters will be called upon to make another sound investment for their city to benefit the present as well as the future generations.

We call your attention to the following paragraph from the legal notice of election:

"The gas system revenue anticipate certificates proposed to be issued for the above stated purpose shall not constitute a debt against the City of Staesboro and the city shall not exercise the power of taxation for the purpose of paying principal and interest of any such certificates so issued and the said principal of and interest on these certificates so issued shall be payable solely from revenues produced by the gas system."

Important facts concerning the proposed system will be made available through press and radio between now and Tuesday, April 19, but a comprehensive brochure supplied by the city's engineers is available for your inspection and study at the City Hall.

Brooklet High plays baseball

The Brooklet High School baseball team played their 1954-55 season game last Tuesday. Having been idle for several weeks, the Brooklet High School baseball team dropped their opening game to a strong Johnson team by a score of 10-0. They won the second game from Soperton 11-6.

Since this is the first season of scheduled baseball for Brooklet, Coach George Cook is well pleased with the enthusiasm and hustle of his team's aggregation.

Brooklet's first home game will be with ECI, Twin City, on Thursday, April 7. The local baseball diamond, this time is 3:30.

The following is the regular schedule:

vs. ECI, home; April 12
vs. Johnson, home; April 19
vs. Soperton, April 21, 22
vs. Johnson, April 26, 27

Woman's Club to promote City Beautiful Month

Mrs. R. S. Bondurant, president of the Statesboro Women's Club, announced today that Mayor W. A. Bowen has proclaimed the month of April as "City Beautiful Month" and that the Statesboro Club is co-operating with Federation's "Keep America Beautiful" program.

Mrs. Bondurant stated that the Georgia Legislature recently passed a bill prohibiting the throwing or depositing of trash, garbage, etc. upon the public roads or public property of the state, and that the objective of the City Beautiful committee is to help implement this legislation.

"No city need be drab, ugly or unclean," Mrs. Durden said. "We have set goals and guidelines to help make our city beautiful, a year-around project and with the help of the people of this community we can make Statesboro one of the section's most beautiful cities."

Statesboro Pilots to open with Vidalia here

With the announcement of the schedule for the Georgia State League, including the Statesboro Pilots, baseball fans are assured of a team for Statesboro this year.

Stockholders of the Statesboro Athletic Association, season ticket holders, contributors, advertisers and holders of box seats, will meet Friday evening, April 8, at 7:30 at the Smith-Tillman Mortuary in Vidalia to elect directors and officers for the 1955 season.

C. B. McAllister, Pilot president for last year, stated that much work is ahead for the next few days getting the team together. Most of the players will come from the major league training camps. Work on the field and park is already underway and will be in condition before the opening date.

Mr. McAllister stated that it is urgent and necessary that stockholders of the Athletic Association meet so the coming season's operations can be conducted in a legal manner.

Those working with the sale of season tickets report that the sales have been good, however, it is the hope of the association to sell at least 50 more season passes. Advertising space on the fence at the park is available to those interested and good box seats are available on a first come, first serve basis.

The Pilot organization is anxious to contact anyone interested in the concessions operations at the park and wish to settle the matter of concessions within the next few days.

City auto tag deadline set

Chief of Police Captain Allen announced this week that city car owners have until April 12 to secure a city auto registration tag. The tags are free and may be secured at the city office. "All one needs is his regular state auto registration certificate," Capt. Allen said.

He made it plain that all cars without a city registration tag after April 15 will be tagged and cases be made against car owners.

Hooley - Broucek To Give Recital

Professors Jack Broucek and Dan Hooley of the music faculty of Georgia Teachers College will be presented in a duo-piano recital on Wednesday evening, April 27, by the Music Education Club of the college. This will be a benefit performance for the club and will be the third concert presented by these young artists of the keyboard.

All through April, the volunteers serving the Cancer Society funds not only will gather funds, but will carry on a systematic campaign of education, through widespread distribution of literature on the subject.

Mr. Broucek has been on the faculty at GTC for ten years having formerly been connected with the Music Department of the University of Connecticut.

Mr. Hooley, now serving his second year at GTC, was formerly instructor of music in the public schools of Merces, Berg, Pennsylvania.

Bulloch County Annual Fat Cattle Show-Sale is April 29

Sunrise Service to be Easter morning

R. P. (Bob) Mikell, chairman of the Bulloch County Livestock Committee, announced this week that Friday, April 29, has been set for the annual Bulloch County Fat Cattle Show and Sale. It will be held at the Producers Cooperative Livestock Exchange on Livestock Road.

The date was set and approved by the committee at a meeting recently.

Rules and regulations governing the show and sale were adopted and will be the same as those governing the 1954 show and sale. Prizes and ribbons were set.

The judges for the show will be R. O. Williams, Extension Service livestock specialist; W. L. Felt, vocational educational livestock specialist; and W. T. (Tap) Bennett, agricultural agent of the Central of Georgia Railway Company.

R. L. Roberts of Groveiland and R. P. Mikell, chairman of the show and sale, the sales committee is J. Lehman Dekle, John P. Foidles and Carmel Hall Fields. The show committee is A. C. Bradley, chairman; Lester Atkins, John Spence, Gordon Hendrix, R. P. Mikell, John L. Akins, Edgar Hart and Carolyn DeLoach. The finance committee is Wallis Cobb, C. P. Olliff and Ledole Coleman. Arrangements committee is Byron Dyer, Billy Brown, O. E. Gay, William H. Moore and Doris A. Cason.

The committee in cooperation with the three livestock yard operators, J. V. Tillman of the Bulloch Stockyard, P. C. Parker of Parker's Stockyard, and Carmel Hall Fields of the Producers Co-operative Livestock Exchange, put on the Fat Cattle Show and Sale (April 29), the Fat Barrow Show and the Gilt Show.

The committee was asked to combine all livestock shows into one program, with only one solicitation of funds for all shows. This was done and the program is now coordinated with the stockyard operators and the year's program is carried out with only solicitation for funds.

The committee will provide all the funds for the prizes and the putting on of the Fat Cattle Show and Sale on April 29. They will provide additional funds for premiums to be added to the sale price of the grand champion, the reserve champion, and each of the next top three animals.

Winners named were Ann Hendrix, junior fop preparation, Irene Groover, corn meal cooker for the seniors; Peggy Ann Eiland, home improvement; Penny Sue Trappell and Kay Hendrix, in talent for juniors; and Betty Jo Brannen for the seniors; Bonnie Dekle, in junior dress review; Maxine Brunson, senior dress review; Ellen McElveen, muffs; Lafayette Chenier, in biscuit making; Ann Smith, rolls; Marie Dyer, junior public speaking; Jan Futch, senior public speaking; Rommie Williams and Dean Hendley in farm and home electric; Johnny Dekle, tractor maintenance; and Mildred Brannen in food preparation.

There are other demonstrations to be run off later for several boys.

The farm and home agents, along with the adult leaders, will help these boys and girls to improve on their demonstrations prior to the Tifton contest.

Announcement was made this week at the University of Georgia that Deborah Prather, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Prather, and Bette Womack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Womack, had made the dean's list for the winter quarter. Miss Prather and Miss Womack are students in the School of Home Economics.

Editorials

The sign on Jones at Park means Stop!

So you think that "Stop" sign on Jones Avenue at Park Avenue is a mistake or the result of delay on the part of the city in changing, and you go bowling merrily through it.

Let's not wait to do something about it

Spring is here and our birds are busy going about the business of building nests and fulfilling their obligation to make people happy with their song.

And little boys with BB guns and 22 rifles figure "hunting season" is open and go about taking pot shots at birds without thinking of the great harm they are doing or the tragedy that might come from their innocent playing at being hunters.

Little Calvin Lee Bryan, seven-year-old son of N. B. Bryan of Savannah, is a patient at St. Joseph's Hospital with a serious eye wound inflicted by a BB shot. The doctors give little hope for saving the boy's eye.

Recognizing it as a major problem and as necessary for the safety of its citizens the town of Darien, at the regular March meeting of the city alderman, passed an ordinance prohibiting the firing of any firearms or BB gun within the city limits except in case of emergency. The action followed numerous complaints from citizens of Darien concerning the dangerous shooting of 22 caliber rifles and BB guns in the city.

We plead with our civic organizations, organizations made up of mothers and fathers—the PTA, the Woman's Club, the Junior Woman's Club, the Jaycees, the Rotary, the Lions Club—anyone or all together—begin now. Recommend that our city fathers follow the action taken by the city fathers of the town of Darien.

Don't wait until some kid here in Statesboro becomes another Calvin Lee Bryan and the doctors have to work to try to save his eye.

We plead with parents to take preventative action now—if there's a 22 rifle in the family used by a kid, take time out and give him instructions in how to use it and the rules of safety connected with it.

We suggest that a rifle club be organized under the sponsorship and direction of the National Guard and that a rifle range be set up in the National Guard Army area so that boys' natural instinct to shoot a rifle might be properly channeled and directed to good, rather than to destruction and tragedy.

If there's a kid in your family with a BB gun—install in him the important fact that it's not a toy, but can be a dangerous weapon. Or sell him on the idea that it would be better to wait until he's

Good news for our county businessmen

This week the Bulloch County Livestock Committee announced the date for the Bulloch County Fat Cattle Show and Sale.

The announcement is of particular interest to the businessmen of the county who have been making contributions to finance the various livestock shows staged during the year.

This year there will be only one request for contributions to finance three shows scheduled for 1955. Heretofore there have been requests for funds before each show and an additional solicitation for funds to increase the sale price of the Fat Cattle Show champions.

Now the Bulloch County Livestock Committee will make just one solicitation for the entire year.

This will please those who have been called upon time after time to help finance these shows.

We commend those who adopted the policy and those who cooperated with setting it up, and urge the business people who are to be called upon to make their contributions to these events which are designed to improve and enlarge our county's livestock industry.

Vote as you please but please vote

The City Council of Statesboro is conducting an extensive campaign to acquaint the citizens of this community with the facts surrounding the election, which if successful will give them the go-ahead signal to build a municipal natural gas system.

The city cannot install pipe lines and other facilities to make natural gas available until the citizens of Statesboro authorize it by the approval of the sale of $775,000 worth of Natural Gas System Revenue Anticipation Certificates, now being advertised as required by law.

A majority of the registered voters of the city most go to the polls and a majority of those voting must vote "for" the certificates if the city is to build the system.

The objective of the City Council's campaign is to get out the vote—to induce as many as possible of the registered voters to go to the polls on April 19 and vote. They say "vote as you please, but please vote in this election."

Few people rarely escape the desire to be a gardener. There is something akin to God that makes us want to plant and watch our plants grow.

As a child I remember some "rag boys" in a closet under the staircase in my home. My mother kept all the scraps, from our clothes, dresses, shirts, and the like, there.

But this was another year, 1955. I had dreamed all winter about my garden. It was going to be very exciting and proper about this garden. It was to be a long range affair. This year we'd afford a few roses, next year we'd start a hedge here with two plants. Next year I'd buy two more. Down through the years it'd grow more beautiful.

It is needless to mention what the freeze did to what had been planted.

But worse than the freeze was, well, let me tell you. One day I decided to stroll in my garden and dream of what would go here and what would go there. I noticed to my utter amazement that bricks had been put in the various spots all around as though someone had planted something. I called to the lord of the manor to look if he knew what goes on.

LAST SUNDAY at church we counted 33 children under ten years of age sitting on the first five rows of seats. They were well behaved. They listened to the preacher and conducted themselves in a manner expected of adults. We remember the days of our extreme youth when a preacher's metal was being tested constantly by the children during the sermon.

MONDAY AFTERNOON Olin Franklin came in to see us. Olin had returned from the Bulloch county to work and live after many years in other sections of Georgia. He and John Ed Brannen are operating the Tri-County Liquid Fertilizer Company and their plant is located on the new street between U. S. 80 and Livestock Road near the new William James High School. It was good talking to Olin and we welcome him and his family back to Bulloch county. (He's Sam and Chalmer's brother).

TO MAKE RAIN or not to make rain... that's the big question right now. Farmers and businessmen of Bulloch county are concerned about the proposition of "weather modification." Some call it "tampering with God's handwork."

The idea is intriguing to all those of us who have had a few days now the world will lose its weather. It's the world's greatest living citizen. At eighty years of age Sir Winston Churchill has reached a place in life where he has given all he has to give. God has been good to us in providing through this man leadership such as the world has never before known.

It Seems To Me

By Max Lockwood

He is great or small in the eyes of his fellowmen. These things Churchill had along with many other attributes which have made him a great statesman and a great world citizen.

When I think of Winston Churchill I think of a man who has given his life to service. I think of the man who never let the world forget that victory was the only course to follow. I think of the man who has known defeat at the hands of those he had sacrificed most for, and then had proved that his leadership was sound and honorable.

I think of Winston Churchill as a man who loves friendship and one who expresses great feeling in his relationship with others. I think of him as he stood in his room that early spring morning when his personal body guard awakened to find him pacing the room and pausing to look best out the window at the grey dawn.

A few months ago Winston Churchill reached his 80th birthday. An American country boy sat down and wrote him a letter expressing deep appreciation for all that his life had meant to the world. A short time ago how do I know it because I am that American, he just plain John Doe.

How great a man is he? How can one measure the accomplishments of one who has given of his life to service?

There is no living without learning. Life indeed is a learning process, and printed words are ever the indispensable instruments of education. What we say and do to a large extent determined by the words and pictures we read and see throughout life.

Parents, if you want your children to honor God, and respect His church, and believe on His Son Jesus Christ; then you must encourage them to read literature that honors God and respects His church.

Parents, if you want your children to direct the course of their lives, and to improve the literature in your home, we are deferring our purpose if we send our children to church and Sunday school, and then let our homes get cluttered up with literature that flouts the word and picture we read and see throughout life.

With Our Youth

By Kemp Mabry

We were in Dalton for a recent performance of the Christian Life Conference stage here recently, when we saw a group of people who were our good friends for many years.

We had a hotel reservation but they insisted that we stay in their home during the conference.

The young fellow and his wife were an inspiration. Many times we had sat at his father's and mother's table and admired their saintliness.

His brother had married a young girl who was on our staff in Sunday school in Marietta. We were a regular visitor in that home until her untimely death a few years ago.

ASON FRANKLIN PALM SUNDAY, APRIL 3, 1955

The blessed rain settled the dust and brought refreshment to the earth to the relief of the weary and many guests, for the annual reunion on Sunday, April 3, Automobiles, filled with the aged, the middle-aged, and the young, began arriving at the old home, now being managed by H. V. Franklin and his young wife.

H. V. received much praise for his improvements on the old home, especially in the kitchen, and if it were asked him he would be glad to give his country a man who loves friendship and one who expresses great feeling in his relationship with others.

Successful Season Is Started by Professors

GTC SPLITS WITH AMHERST COLLEGE

The Georgia Teachers College baseball team opened the season by splitting a two game series with Amherst College, from Mass. The "Profs" won the first game, 4 to 1, and lost the second game by a score of 7 to 6.

In the first game, Ace Little started on the mound and was relieved by Roy Alewine in the first inning.

Kelly Powell hit a home run and a double to drive across four runs; Jimmy Ford hit a pair of doubles and drove in three runs.

The second game started off with Amherst scoring three runs in the top of the first. GTC came right back in the bottom of the first and scored six runs.

At this point, a big lefthander started pitching for Amherst and held the "Profs" scoreless for the rest of the game. Von-GTC hit the distance for GTC, allowing thirteen hits, while striking out three and walking three.

PREPARING MEALS FOR FREEZING

Meats should be prepared for cooking before freezing, by cutting up fryers, deboning roasts, grinding hamburgers and seasoning sausage. It is best to thaw meats completely before cooking, especially the larger steaks, cuts. This will prevent the outside over-cooking before the center is thawed.

ALL'S FAIR

Now comes happy days... Sunshine and showers. Lacy blue and flowers. Romances start... Weddings in June... Love songs fill the air... At night, there's the moon.

These are rare days... wonderful days... Let your song be of praise... For that one who has lifted up that we might live... High on a hill come Easter morn... Your heart should be in time... With the souls of those around us and with the Lord Commune.

FRIENDS OF Mrs. Cliff Bradley are happy that she is convalescing at her home on Savannah avenue. Her daughter, Sara Alice (Mrs. Bob) Darcy of Jacksonville, has returned to her home in Jacksonville after spending a week with Wilfred.

NEWS COMES to us from Helen Bowen, who for several years taught in the grammar school in Statesboro. Helen is making a fabulous trip to ancient Egypt and the fascinating Near East and will spend Easter Sunday on the road from Damascus to Jerusalem where she will attend the Easter mass, sightseeing to St. Anne's Church, the pool of Bethesda, the Wailing Wall, Pilatus Judgement, The Holy Sepulchre, and The Golden Gate. After lunch in Jerusalem she will visit the Moslem part of the city. Private cars will take the members of the party to the Garden of Gethsemane, and the Mount of Olives. The next day Miss Bowen will visit the Dead Sea, ancient and new Jericho, where she will have lunch. Then to Bethlehem. Enroute she will visit Lazarus' Tomb at Bethany, the House of Mary and Martha, the Good Samaritan Inn and thence to the shepherd fields. Traveling by plane she will visit the capital of ancient Europe, the giant statues of Rameses and the Sphinx. Her party will sail down the Nile in boats that could very well be like those used by Cleopatra. In April, Hilda and Billy are tying the knot. There will be the marriage license, veil and rings. But later the need is for other things.

Her next stop is Cairo, to the Citadel from where a panoramic view of Cairo with the pyramids of Gizeh in the background is enjoyed. She will ride on a camel's back for a closer view of the Sphinx, the symbol of Egypt. It's April 15 evening that Helen arrives in Greece. At Athens awaiting her will be the Royal Palace University, Stadium, the Theatre of Dionysius and to the Acropolis with many famous classic ruins and back from the starting point, Frankfurt, Germany, by April 17. Ten wonderful days Helen has been in teaching in Badreuzbach for several months. She is expected to return to her home with her sister, Mrs. Otis Holloway, in July.

MRS. CHARLES ROGERS (Martha Jean Nesmith) was hostess at a very unusual and attractive party honoring Miss Hilda Grogan of Albany and Lake City, whose engagement has been announced to Billy Rushing, the boy who lived across the street from Martha Jean, before she married. Invitations were very original. On pink notepaper a ring and a wisp of veiling furnished a clue as to the type of party.

Have you heard the wonderful news? Peep inside for additional clues. If all your brainwork is to no avail, And solving this mystery you fail, Don't hire a sleuth or send out a spy. Just take the marriage license and untie. You will find no clues were concealed. And the entire plot will be revealed!

You untie the license and here's what you find. Stumped? OK. Here's the entire plot. In April, Hilda and Billy are tying the knot. There will be the marriage license, veil and rings. But later the need is for other things.

So help feather their little nest. Hilda Grogan will be the honored guest. At a party, the theme is a kitchen shower. Wednesday the 23rd is the date, eight the hour. Articles for the kitchen are what we request. Anything to help complete the bride's Hope Chest. Gadgets, towels, everyday things or whatever you choose. Will, without a doubt, we know, be sure to entice. At 11:15 Gillespie, you'll be welcomed with a smile. So please come and linger with us a while. The door will be open—you'll not need a key. Don't forget now, or you'll disappoint Hilda and me. —JEAN ROGERS

The games were all explained in verse and oh, what Elsa Maxwell would give for the entire party with such fun flavored with Malarky. As ever, JANE.

HOW THE BODY DEFENDS ITSELF AGAINST DISEASE

Investigations have shown beyond any shadow of a doubt that the bacteria of diphtheria, pneumonia, tuberculosis and many other infectious diseases are found in the tissues and body fluids of healthy persons. But don't be alarmed. You may have the germs—but they won't get you! And they won't either—so long as your body is in good condition to defend itself.

In order to get an infectious disease, more is needed than mere exposure to the germs. The germs are widespread yet they affect only certain people. Even in disease "epidemics," only a relatively small part of the population is ever affected. In other words, the germ isn't the only cause. Other factors besides germs play the important role.

Most attention should be directed to the resistance of the body for it must be noted that so long as the body and all its parts are in a state of health there is nothing to fear from microbes. Germs are harmless in healthy tissue. However, if resistance of the tissue is lowered it provides what is known as "suitable soil" for bacterial growth and activity. The bacteria then begin to multiply and manufacture toxins which are harmful to the body. As a result, the body reacts to those with fever and other changes to destroy bacterial activity.

The body has a special internal defense mechanism to inhibit bacterial activity. This consists in not only the production of fever but bringing certain changes about in the blood stream such as increased production of white cells and antibodies to combat the germs.

The internal defense mechanism is directly dependent upon the undisturbed activity of the nerve system. It is clear that by establishing normal pathways for the nerve impulses there lies an effective method not only to cure infectious diseases but also to prevent them.

Your body employs a wonderful, complex system for combating disease the natural way. Maintaining a normal medium for transmission of essential nerve energy aids your body in this wonderful function.

THE MOST IMPORTANT DATE for the local golfers should be April 17, the date of our third Southeastern Golf Tournament. There are only 80 berths and the out-of-town boys are fast filling up. Better get your pencil sharp and sign up with Mr. D. R. Terry out at the Forest Heights, P. S. Better get your games sharp too. We have the competition will be back this year.

THE MASTERS WILL HAVE BEGIN by the time you read this but it still will not be too late to run over to Augusta and see the boys in action for a day or two. Golf is a game of a lifetime and the MASTERS is the tournament of tournaments. All who play at this tournament are there by invitation only, consequently the name "Masters."

With Hogan and Snead dominating the scene for five of the past six years, we would like to predict that a "dark horse" will sneak out with top money in 1955. Practically unknown until they won the Masters, Herman Keiser won in 1946 and Chuck Harmon won in 1948. An amateur has never won, but Billy Joe Patton almost won last year, scoring 290 to Snead's and Hogan's 289.

BILLIE JOE PATTON will be back again this year. Here is what the officials of the national have to say about the young amateur: "All of golfers and we of the Augusta National especially, are greatly indebted to this young North Carolinian who made the most sensational showing of any amateur in the Masters Tournament history. With his carefree manner, he introduced an atmosphere of congeniality between the contestant and the spectators to quite a remarkable degree. He also brought us a splendid example of fine sportsmanship."

There's a Better Way to Lend Luster to a Name

ONE WAY to add luster to a name is to polish the letters of a bronze plaque. A better way is to make the name stand for something. Some stormy night you may see one of our trouble-shooting linemen at the top of a power pole. His companions are rain, lightning, thunder and a howling wind. His objective: to keep your electric service flowing along as usual. He is making the name of his company stand for good service. Thousands of other employes are adding luster in other ways. They are making the name of the Georgia Power Company stand for fair treatment, good citizenship, courtesy and friendliness. You can't create that kind of luster with a cloth and can of polish. You have to earn it—every day.

Soil Conservation
BY E. T. MULLIS

Mr. J. L. Deal of Middle-Georgia has recently constructed some unusual terraces on his farm. He had a field which was too steep and fairly uniform in slope which needed terracing. He was not too satisfied with the regular terracing system, so the Soil Conservation Service tried the experimental parallel terracing system on the field and they learned a big lesson from the field. Mr. Deal, needless to say, is highly pleased with the parallel terracing system, which he hopes to use on other fields. The system, which he hopes to use on other fields, is a big improvement over the old terracing system which are in the way.

Mr. J. T. McAllister, engineer with the Soil Conservation Service, laid out Mr. Deal's terracing system in cooperation with the Ogeechee River Soil Conservation District. Parallel terraces are now in the experimental stage, but shows great promise in this section of gentle uniform slopes, and mechanized farming. It will make possible more land protected by terraces because a lot of our land with mild slopes is being terraced because of objectional short rows. The parallel terracing system will eliminate most of the short rows and thereby make such mechanized farming in terraced land.

Basically the system calls for getting the most uniform slope, running one terrace on the contour and making all the other

Bulloch students on TC dean's list

Eleven Bulloch county students at Georgia Teachers College made the dean's list for the winter quarter. Students must maintain a B-plus or better average on all subjects to be eligible for the list. Those on the honor roll from Statesboro are:

Joseph Allen Axelson, Charlotte Blitch, Ray Dudley, June Hodges, Phylene Sturgis, Sue Ann Whaley, and Ruby Ann Wilson. Others in the county are Hamilton Grant, Andersonville; Clarence A. Miller, Porterdale; Kathleen Felts, Collegeboro; Donald James Sparks, Porterdale; Albert Franklin Coleman, Rocky Ford.

Traces run parallel to it. Natural draws and depressions will of necessity have to be sodded, and more terraces built to keep down great accumulations of water. But the terraces are low and wide so that rows can easily be planted on front and back sides of ridges as if it were a small hump in the field.

In producing a bale of cotton per acre, the cotton plant will take up about 75 pounds of nitrogen, 25 pounds of phosphorus, 75 pounds of potash, 75 pounds of calcium and 25 pounds of magnesium.

Tuesday, April 19th The Day of Opportunity

Our fellow citizens of Statesboro are urged to go to the polls TUESDAY, April 19, and vote on a natural gas distribution system to serve their city and its environs.

- FACTS YOU SHOULD KNOW
- (1) This will create no debt against our city.
 - (2) No tax money will ever be applied against paying the principal or interest for this system.
 - (3) Only by this municipal system will natural gas become available to the citizens of Statesboro.
 - (4) Gas lines will be run to the meter placed nearest your kitchen, without cost to you, if installed during the construction period on your street.
 - (5) We will have an ample supply of gas to serve our homes, places of business, and our present industries, and also a reserve supply for future growth in homes, business and industry.
 - (6) In order to insure safe installations and operation, the system will be installed and operated under the supervision of the most competent engineering and technical staff available.

(7) The election Tuesday, April 19, has been called in strict accordance with all laws governing such elections.

(8) All citizens of Statesboro will become stockholders in this distribution system and will enjoy all the benefits from such a system. Your public servants, the mayor and councilmen, are the directors ELECTED BY YOU for a term of two years. They are your policy-making board and are responsible to you for the operation and expansion of this system.

(9) From the date of installation, the citizens, as stockholders of this gas system, will own a distribution system worth well over a million dollars.

(10) This is the first opportunity the people of Statesboro have ever had to secure natural gas. It has required several years of hard work to make this election possible.

At 5 o'clock Tuesday evening, April 19, citizens of Statesboro will either be the proud owners of a gas distribution system or we will have lost a golden opportunity for this generation.

There were 12 members and three visitors at the meeting. Mrs. Dorothy Whitehead and Miss Joyce McDonald announced that the Jimps Club will present a radio program May 14. Plans were discussed for the trip to the lovely gardens near Charleston, S. C., traveling by chartered buses and taking their lunch with them.

The Rev. J. W. Grooms yesterday announced his resignation as pastor of the First Baptist Church at Port Wentworth, effective May 9, to accept a call to the Calvary Baptist Church of Statesboro.

He has served as pastor of the Port Wentworth church for nearly 12 years, having accepted the pastorate in June, 1943. He had previously served as pastor of the churches in Decatur county, the Habardville Baptist Church in Waycross and the Homeville Baptist Church. A native of Bulloch county, he taught in the Bulloch public schools for eight years before entering the ministry.

During his service at Port Wentworth the First Baptist Church has had an unusual ministerial mix in 1948. He has served as moderator of the Savannah Baptist Association for the last two years.

Parents of children who aren't in the first and second grades will be able to obtain shots from private physicians, according to a statement issued by the State Health Department and reported in the Atlanta Journal on Wednesday.

The third Southeastern Golf Tournament gets underway on Sunday at the local Forest Heights golf course. It is expected that 80 golfers from southeast Georgia will be on hand to participate in this tournament.

The winner of the championship fight last year, Arthur Almar, of Savannah, is expected to be on hand to defend his title. Duke Retrow, the runner-up, is expected to enter the quest of his first championship on the local course.

They've done it! Young Dr. Jonas E. Salk, together with a host of technicians, doctors, scientists, and others, has developed a polio vaccine that works—a vaccine that is from 80 to 90 per cent effective in preventing paralytic polio—and it is called "Salk vaccine."

The announcement was made Tuesday of this week and parents of children in Statesboro and Bulloch county and Georgia and all the nation were made happy. They feel a great relief in the knowledge that the vaccine has been officially declared effective in preventing polio from crippling their children.

Bulloch county children will begin getting the new Salk polio vaccine here Monday morning of next week, according to a statement made yesterday morning by Dr. W. D. Lundquist, director of public health, Bulloch county health department, just before he left for Atlanta. He added that he hopes to bring Bulloch's supply of the new vaccine back with him tomorrow.

He pointed out that the polio shots will be given only to children of parents who have signed request forms supplied by the schools and health departments.

The Salk and National Foundation advise that giving two shots in a two-week period produces essentially same immunity obtained by dosage schedule recommended in manual. Salk states gain in immunity from third injection within 5 week period very insignificant. Rise in immunity from third booster injection seven months later produced optimum results. Following is therefore to be the schedule: First injection, September 15. Second injection three weeks later. Third injection December, 1955.

Lions club to present results of recreation study April 20

Today the Statesboro Lions Club issued invitations to all interested citizens and to all civic and other organizations' leaders to meet at the Recreation Center on Fair Road on Wednesday night, April 20.

The meeting is scheduled for 8 o'clock when a special committee of the Lions, working in conjunction with the Statesboro Recreation Department will present the results of an exhaustive study made over a period of a year on the needs to increase and improve the facilities for Statesboro and Bulloch county.

DeWitt Banks, president of the Lions Club, in making the announcement, pointed out that the meeting has as its purpose the presentation of facts gathered and prepared by a special committee which has studied the program to be presented to the group to be known as the Citizens Committee.

During the meeting the Citizens Committee will decide how this program can be carried out and will have the opportunity to adopt plans to that end.

Mr. Banks stated that the Lions in Statesboro realize that this is a project that must have the backing of the people of the county and that the Lions have taken on the business of working up the facts and making the presentation as part of their responsibility to the community in which they live.

He added that if and when the Citizens Committee should adopt the report the program will no longer be a Lions Club project, but will become a program of the Citizens Committee and the community.

Statesboro Music Club will meet Tuesday evening, April 19, at 8 o'clock at the First Baptist Church. Mrs. Percy Averitt is in charge of the program. Members are urged to attend.

WMU Rally at Elmer Church
On Thursday, April 21, the Statesboro district WMU rally of the Ogeechee River Baptist Association will be held at the Elmer Baptist Church. Mrs. Annie Mae Cluff DeLoach, the state adjutant general, will be on hand to give the information and inspiration for those who attend. The theme of the program will be "The Word of God" and the main speaker of the day will be Mrs. Leslie Williams of the First Baptist Church, Statesboro. Other churches in the district will be participating in the program for the day. Lunch will be served at 12:30 by the Elmer Church.

Statesboro High School placed third with only one point behind Jimmie Hill in the first place in the speech contest. Bill Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Adams, won second place in vocal solo. Evelyn Jones, fourth in short-hand; Emma Bitch, fourth in typing; Linda Bean, third in typing; and Pat Alderman, first in home economics.

Changes in tobacco marketing quota regulation are amended

Recent changes in tobacco marketing quota regulations have been further amended, according to Miles P. Deal, County ASC Office Manager.

Under the new regulation, each field or subdivision of tobacco planted will be recorded in acres and hundredths of acres, dropping all thousands. The total acreage of 2.79 acres become 2.79 acres. The total acreage of tobacco shall be computed in hundredths, dropping all thousands. That 2.03 acres planted, the acreage would be .03 acres.

Announcement has also been made concerning provisions in the recently enacted Public Law 21, of the 84th Congress. This new law provides that the acreage of any kind of tobacco planted in excess of the farm acreage allotment for 1955 or any subsequent year shall not be taken into account in establishing State and farm acreage allotments.

This law also provides for increasing the penalty on the marketing of any kind of tobacco harvested in excess of individual farm marketing quotas from 50 to 75 per cent of the average market price for such tobacco for the preceding marketing year. This increased penalty becomes effective for the 1955 crops.

Provision has also been made for a reduction in the following year's farm acreage allotment for any kind of tobacco if the produced five or aids or
