23 Psalms

The Lord is my shepherd:
I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil, my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy
shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Obituary

Victor Robert Howard, better known as "Boo", was born on August 23, 1957 to the late William R. Howard Jr. and Carrie D. Howard. He was the grandson of the late William Howard Sr., and Clara G. Howard.

Victor attended the school systems of Statesboro and was a member of the class of 1975. Victor took Barbara Nunnally as his wife on May 2, 1987 and they were the proud parents of two sons, Quentin J. Howard and Christopher L. Howard.

Victor departed this life on August 25, 2007. He leaves to cherish his memories; his wife, Barbbra N. Howard, sons Quentin J. Howard (Oneica) and Christopher L. Howard; a loving mother, Carrie D. Howard; one sister Caroll L. (Julius) Hunter; a brother William R. III (Terri) Howard; five grandchildren, Alececia, Quiniah, Olivia, Christopher and Quentin William Howard; mother-in-law, Sophie Nunnally, brothers-in-law, sisters-in-law, several aunts, uncles, a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

" I am leaving you a gift of mind and heart! And the peace I give isn't fragile like the peace the world gives. So don't be troubled or afraid. Remember what I told you - I am going away, but I will come back to you again. If you really love me, you will be very happy for me, for now I can go to the Father, who is greater than I am. I have told you these things before they happen so that when they do, you will believe in me.

St. John 14: 27-30 LB
