The safety of our school kids at stake

The teen-ager whose leg was broken when he was hit by an auto driver on Grady street last week focuses attention on the great need for sidewalks on the streets being used by the school kids and from their schools.

The boy who was hit, was riding a bicycle and had there been sidewalks there now, it is likely that the accident would have happened anyway.

Residents along Mill street and Jones avenue, and Grady street, have to use the utmost caution when they back their cars out of their drives into one of these streets to make sure they do not hit children on their way to school in the mornings.

Because there are no sidewalks the children are forced to use the streets, and being kids it becomes the responsibility of the adult car drivers to make it safe for the children to use the streets. Residents on the Sallie Zetter-ower elementary school side of town have worried about it for some time. Parents whose children have to walk to and from school are concerned and following the incident last week they are more concerned than ever.

It is hoped that our city officials will find means to provide safe sidewalks on these streets leading to the school.

We know that the city is in the midst of many progressive moves designed for the good of the community and that it takes more funds to keep up with the demands of the community.

We can only hope that they label this a "must" on their progressive program.

It should make the crossing safer

Announcement was made by City Engineer James Bland Monday that "Walk" and "Wait" lights have been ordered to install on the corners at the traffic control light in the center of town.

This action on the part of our city officials is to be commended. With the installation of the new lights there will be no doubt in the minds of pedestrians when to cross the streets at the traffic light. Drivers of autos and trucks will not have to wonder what pedestrians are going to do and can drive through the intersection with assurance that, if the pedestrians and drivers observe the lights the crossing or turning can be made in safety.

We applaud our mayor and council for their action. Announcement was made by City Engineer James Bland Monday that "Walk" and "Wait" lights have been ordered to install on the corners at the traffic control light in the center of town.

We hope he has many sleepless nights

It's a dirty, low-down, stinking trick. We've said so before in these columns and we say it again. And it's one about which nothing can be done but which relieves tempers to say it again.

A lady, whose mother died not too long ago, bought two beautiful containers with shrubbery to place on the grave of her loved one.

Then a few days later she returned to the cemetery to her mother's grave and some low-down stinker had stolen one of the containers with the shrubbery.

We can't thing of anything more meaner. And we hope the thief reads this and that his conscience gives him many sleepless nights.

But then a thief who would do a trick like this has no conscience.

How new families change things

It happens gradually and few are completely aware of it but it's what makes for progress in a community.

Recently we got to wondering what happens in a community like ours when as many as a hundred new families move in to make it their home. We found the answer in a publication called "Changing Times."

We called the local Chamber of Commerce and learned that between eight and twelve new families move into Statesboro each month. That means that an average of 120 new families moved here last year. But for this piece we will use the round figure, one hundred.

To begin with, when a hundred new families make this their home, it means about 450 new people, including calls for 2.2 new rooms in grade school and 1.65 new rooms in high school, which will cost about $120,000. Four new teachers will have to be hired. The 100 families will add about $30,000 a year to the school budget.

Besides teachers, the city will need four fifths of a new employee in the police department and two-thirds of a new fireman, upping the police budget by $4,510 and the fire department budget by $2,820. All sorts of extra jobs will have to be done from collecting taxes to collecting garbage. Add four new city employees at a total price of $12,000 to $15,000.

The water department must pump 10,000 gallons more each day. Traffic will be increased by 140 cars and trucks. And the city may have to add 500 new volumes to the city library, part of a visiting nurse and, yes, a fraction of a cell in the town jail!

Something to think upon, is it not?

The Editor's Uneasy Chair

IT WON'T BE the same around the courthouse come January 1, 1957. It won't be the same around "Franco-Haven" come January 1, 1957.

For you see Mr. Frank Williams is retiring from politics and will not be a candidate to succeed himself as ordinary of Bulloch county in the November 6 primary.

When the new ordinary takes office it will be the first time in many a year that Mr. Frank Williams will not have been a part of the county. Except for the four years between 1941 and 1945 Mr. Frank has served the county well. First as Clerk of the Superior Court from 1933 to 1941. Then as Ordinary since 1945. When his term of office expires on January 1, 1957, he will have served as a county official for 16 years and as a part of the state government for four years.

Recently he went through the Duke Clinic in North Carolina, and following the dictates of his physician being he has decided to retire from active politics.

And so come January 1, 1957, we'll not be seeing him around the courthouse—not as an official, anyway—and come January 1, 1957, "Miss Cora" is going to be seeing him around "Franco-Haven" a lot more. We are sure that she will find plenty for him to do to keep him active.

We sort of regret Mr. Frank's decision. He saw us go into the newspaper business and he was on our side. He encouraged us and did all he could to help us.

During his long service to the county he has made many friends. Going about his business in a quiet, easy manner he has run his part of the county's affairs smoothly and well.

We got the word of Mr. Frank's retirement after he had written our editorial which accounts for your finding our comments on him in our "Uneasy Chair."

THE SUNKEN TERRACE in our back yard we began last spring as our "spring project" was unfinished as summer came on. It then became our "summer project" and here "his well into fall and it has become our "fall project." And if there are any better among our readers it's an even bet that come winter it will become our "winter project" and we might even relish the idea of making it our next "spring project." But we're a stubborn soul and we're going to finish that sunken terrace or else.

HAVE YOU EVER noticed the sad state of the pianos used by civic clubs, veterans clubs, country clubs, and other public places? The one at the Rotary Club has a key missing. The one at the Legion Club sounds like an imitation harmonica. The one at the Country Club is a fugitive from a 20-year-old halfback on the Midget football team. The condition of such pianos came into focus this week when a fine pianist was a guest of the Rotary Club and the Community Concert group at the American Legion Club and tried to play some fine music.

THRU THE F's of Virginia Russell

"When I'm born again I hope I never learn to read or write," is a statement a brother-in-law of mine jokingly makes when "learning" seems to make life a little difficult. Sometimes I agree with him wholeheartedly.

Several articles have been written about the necessity of "blowing off steam." In one article I read several years ago wives were urged to be sweet and patient with their husbands when they "blew off" after a strenuous day at the office. This, it seems, was supposed to relieve the poor dears' tension and prevent their having nervous breakdowns, and also to prevent their loss of jobs. Wives were supposed to be mature enough to listen to the husbands blowing off steam without becoming upset—like water running off the duck's back, you know. Of course husbands were supposed to acquire maturity long enough on occasions to listen to the wives rid themselves of tensions that had been built up all day by children, cats and dogs, pots and pans and the like.

Then there have been many articles written on "maturity." The various ones dealing with reasons for our immaturity. So many things have been written, in fact, that some of us have reached the point of analyzing our every action. Worse than that we begin to analyze our friends and neighbors and acquaintances. Before maturity has been fully acquired along comes Dr. Alvarez last week and declares a good rule is "Thou Shalt Not Fuss." He was quoting from

It Seems To Me

By Max Lockwood

I read a story the other day. It had a date line from Chicago. The Chicago chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People had called upon the President of the United States to declare the offices of the elected officials of the sovereign state of Mississippi vacant by Executive order. It called upon the President of the United States to send federal troops to Mississippi, to declare the laws of that state null and void, and to enact martial law to gain complete control of the people of Mississippi. All this has come about as a result of the acquittal of two men who had been accused of murder. An honest jury, patiently selected, had rendered a decision saying that there was not sufficient evidence to sentence these suspected men to death. In these United States a man is innocent until he is proven guilty. In this now infamous Till Murder trial no such evidence was submitted to the court.

THE NAACP, with its triumph following the recent decision of the Supreme Court in which the laws of the states which had stood before this same court for a hundred years were declared null and void for political reasons, called their groups together in Chicago and in New York and other cities advocated revolt and called for a "New" march on Dixie.

IN THIS SAME Chicago today there came another news item. A Chicago policeman had shot and wounded a citizen who had refused arrest and a mob of more than 1,000 persons quickly assembled and stoned the policeman and the hundreds of other officers who had rushed to the scene of the violence.

THE NAACP has openly advocated the overthrow of the government of the state of Mississippi. The NAACP has openly advocated and openly sought to use its influence to send to Mississippi federal troops, many of whom would be men called to arms to defend their country whose homes would be found within the borders of the state which they would be asked to destroy.

ALL OF THIS has come about and no Southern voice has been heard. The members of the Congress, the officials of the states, all have been silent. For a long time now our leaders have been silent. At home they tell us what they believe. At home we know that they stand for the South.

How do they stand in Washington? What do they say in the Halls of Congress? How often do they speak for the South?

I do not believe that the NAACP has the best interests of the Negroes of America at heart. I do not believe that the NAACP has the best interests of the people of America as paramount in its program.

I BELIEVE THE time is now when the citizens of the South must stand and speak. I believe that as a citizen I have the privilege.

I believe that the Governor of the State of Georgia should call a special session of the Legislature and declare the NAACP a subversive organization dedicated to the overthrow of the laws of the state of Georgia and its leaders should be banished from the borders of our state.

I believe that all employees of the state of Georgia who openly or secretly support such an organization should have their names made public and should be removed from the payroll of the state.

I believe that every voter should look at the record of every elected representative and refuse to return to office any official who is afraid to stand and be heard on the issue of segregation either at home or in the nation's Capital.

IF YOU DO NOT believe that the NAACP has its objective the overthrow of all our social, customs and our civil laws then you are one of many millions of Southerners who still believe that this can never happen here.

I say to you that it can happen here. I say to you that it has happened here.

You have watched segregation and in the border states, you have watched segregation end in the armed forces of our country. You have watched segregation end in the military establishments located in our Southern cities. You have watched segregation end in the graduate schools of some of the Southern states.

HOW CAN YOU continue to say it can't happen here? There are Southerners in responsible positions of leadership in the government which have supported these changes in the military and who have allowed this to happen without so much as raising their voice.

The Southern Negro should review his record of achievement in the South and he should realize that he has thrown aside the friendship he has found in the Southern white in exchange for the friendship of organizations and people who would exploit him for selfish personal gain.

He should look again to the South which has given the Negro the first hospital in the nation, the first hospital in the nation, the first orphanage for the care of his children and many other advantages that he cannot find elsewhere in his country.

I AM NOT concerned with what the Russians think about segregation or about what they think of any other phase of our life in America. I would point to them and say that the Negroes in America own more passenger cars for pleasure than all the peoples of the Soviet Union and of the English Isles combined. I would say to them that we have more colleges in America than does any other country in which the Negro lives.

We in the South are concerned with the welfare of the Negro who still believe that this can never happen here.

I believe that the Governor of the State of Georgia should call a special session of the Legislature and declare the NAACP a subversive organization dedicated to the overthrow of the laws of the state of Georgia and its leaders should be banished from the borders of our state.

I believe that the Governor of the State of Georgia should call a special session of the Legislature and declare the NAACP a subversive organization dedicated to the overthrow of the laws of the state of Georgia and its leaders should be banished from the borders of our state.

I believe that all employees of the state of Georgia who openly or secretly support such an organization should have their names made public and should be removed from the payroll of the state.

I believe that every voter should look at the record of every elected representative and refuse to return to office any official who is afraid to stand and be heard on the issue of segregation either at home or in the nation's Capital.

IF YOU DO NOT believe that the NAACP has its objective the overthrow of all our social, customs and our civil laws then you are one of many millions of Southerners who still believe that this can never happen here.

The safer car wins... and Chevrolet's the winning car

Let's translate these Chevrolet victories into your kind of driving. You've got to have faster acceleration to win on the tracks. And that means safer passing on the highways. You've got to have better springing and suspension. Again, safer and happier motoring for you. You've got to have big brakes that act fast and smooth... and easy, accurate steering. More things that make your driving safer. But it's more fun to try these things out than just to talk about them. So come in and let's take a ride.

Now's the time to buy! Low prices - big deals! Enjoy a new Chevrolet
