The safety of our school kids at stake

The parents whose kids were involved in the accident that occurred last week at the intersection of Mill street and South Main street are to be commended for taking time out and out the School Board and the Mayor. Parents have long been asking for a crossing guard at this intersection. It should make the school board give it serious consideration.

It should make the crossing safer

The traffic at this particular intersection is heavy in the mornings and afternoons. Parents have long been asking for a crossing guard at this intersection. It should make the school board give it serious consideration.
