"B.J., My Brother"

I love him so much, he is my brother. When my brother was laughing and smiling... I made him laugh. I love his face. I washed him in the shower, clothed him, and played with him in his room. He loved listening to music. I was a blessing to him and he was a blessing to me—God loves him.

Love Always,

Sharelle

“My Bubba”

On February 22, 1993, an angel came to walk on this earth by the name of Willie Lee Moody, Jr. most fondly known as “BJ.” or “Bubba.”

BJ. was the “Pride and Joy” of his grandmother, Hattie Gordon, who cared for him night and day. They sang together every morning, “My baby boy, my pride and joy, no one can ever take the place of my Bubba.” BJ. slept late every Sunday because he knew it was time for church! Sometimes he would get fully dressed and then have an “accident” like only Bubba could do.*

All weekend he passed the time playing with his sister, Sharelle, who loves to make him listen to music, or O’Shea trying to get his attention or Josiah trying to ride his Hoya lili.

He lived a wonderful life surrounded by family especially bunches of noisy cousins that made him scream and go to his room.

Later in life, he met and instantly fell in love with his “white girlfriend,” a nurse, Carla Burke. She has been the greatest girl a boy like Bubba could find. She cared for him, fed him, washed him, and loved him as much as he loved her until the end.

On November 2, 2009, early in the morning, the angels came to reclaim one of their own. He was loved, so he will be greatly missed by all.

He leaves to miss him:
