Ballock County Bank makes expansion, remodeling plans

With the completion of an extensive remodeling and expansion project this week the bank building here will be the site of the opening ceremony for the 29th annual tobacco season. The bank will make available a number of new services, including more teller windows, a drive-in window, and a vault to hold the tobacco payments received from farmers.

Editorials

Let them screen... We must admit to Governor Griffin and Ga. Gov. W. L. J. Lee, director of the Georgia State Park system, the prerogative of screening the parks.

With that in mind, Governor Griffin and other state officials are deliberating over the most appropriate way to handle the situation. A point of contention is the possible impact on the state's economy.

The Editor's Uneasy Chair

In his speech at Atlanta last week, the Governor emphasized the need for unity in the face of economic challenges.

It is crucial that we work together to overcome these challenges and ensure a better future for our state.

Still Accepting Job Applications

Rockwell Manufacturing Company is still receiving applications for employment in its new plant.

Although men and women applicants will be considered, job classifications to be filled are mainly for men, and include such positions as set-up men, machinists, tool makers, machine operators, material handlers and testers.

Interested applicants should file a Rockwell application with the Georgia State Employment Service on North Main Street between the hours of 8:30 and 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. No applications should be filled at the plant.
