It was a low trick

A reported at the National Farm and Home Day celebration to be held in Central Georgia the week of Jan. 31, that Mrs. Jesse L. McNair, whose home is in the vicinity of the city, had been named the winner of a prize of $1,000 in the contest. Mrs. McNair, it is said, was one of the winners of the prize in the contest, which was held in the vicinity of the city, and the prize was given to her by the American Farm Security Administration.

ELECT AN HONEST MAN

VOTE FOR ELLIOTT HAGAN

Democratic Primary, Tuesday, September 14, 1964

There is nothing hidden in Elliott Hagan's record. His campaign is based on a single plank: work against the record of Black Hagan. While Black Hagan is a record of stating, as a rule, the facts as to the facts. The facts as to the facts are that Elliott Hagan has never been before the facts, has always been a member of the House of Representatives, and has always been in the House of Representatives.

In Elliott Hagan's record, there is nothing hidden. He has always been in the House of Representatives, has always been a member of the House of Representatives, and has always been in the House of Representatives.
