The voters of Statesboro and Bulloch County will vote to go to the polls on Wednesday, September 12, for the Democratic Primary election. Ballots will be delivered for county, state and United States offices and candidates of our Democratic party. Many important issues and the future of our state and country will be decided by the voters of Statesboro and Bulloch County.

The Bullock County elections will be held on the same day. Voters will have a chance to make their voices heard on issues ranging from local school boards to national security. This election is an opportunity for the citizens of our county to shape the future of our community.

Bulloch County voters are encouraged to cast their ballots on September 12. Polling places will be open from 7:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. on election day. It is important that every eligible voter participates in this election to ensure that their voices are heard.

In order to vote, citizens must be registered to vote in Bulloch County. If you are not registered to vote, you can register in person at the Bulloch County Board of Registrars or online at the Georgia Secretary of State's website.

In addition to the political candidates running for office, many local issues will also be decided by the voters of Bulloch County. Propositions include funding for public schools, property tax increases, and bond issues for new infrastructure. These decisions will have a significant impact on the future of our community.

It is crucial that local issues are considered in addition to the national political climate. By voting in this election, local residents have a chance to shape the policies that affect their daily lives. Whether it is funding for public schools or bond issues for new infrastructure, every vote counts.

The importance of this election cannot be overstated. As a community, we must come together to ensure that our voices are heard. By voting on September 12, we can make a positive impact on the future of our community.

In conclusion, the Democratic Primary election on September 12 is an opportunity for the citizens of Bulloch County to shape the future of our community. By voting, we can have a say in the issues that affect our daily lives. Let us come together as a community to ensure that our voices are heard on September 12.

Sept. 12 is the day

Wednesday, September 12, the day

Elective day, that is, before the vote will be made up your mind for whom we are going to vote, you and your ballot box will be allowed to be a part of the election. It is the day of the election.

And it is only in the last few days that the election has begun.

It is only in the last few weeks that the election has ended.

It is only in the last few hours that the election has begun.

And it is only in the last few minutes that the election has begun.

A Message To The Voters Of The First District

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Smith, voters of the first district, I am writing this letter to express my support for your reelection. I have always believed that a Congressmen is a public servant, and that every vote counts. I have always been a strong supporter of his policies, and I am confident that he will continue to represent the best interests of the district.

I urge you to vote for Mr. C. H. Smith, as he has always been a strong supporter of the people. His dedication to the people of the district is unparalleled.
