Fine for our future

The young men of Statesboro, Georgia, who are serving in the United States armed forces, have a fine opportunity for cultural advancement and rehabilitation. The program they arranged to give the opportunity to view the ballet in Statesboro, Georgia, was held on Wednesday evening, November 28th, at the Farkas Auditorium. The program began with the presentation of a symphony by the Statesboro Symphony Orchestra, followed by the performance of the ballet. The ballet dancers were representatives of the United States Army and Navy. The program was sponsored by the United States Army and Navy. The program was well received by the audience, who were impressed by the talent and skill of the dancers. The program was a success and was enjoyed by all who attended.

Mrs. Hedges

November meeting of W.M.S. is held at home of Miss Clemit Lee

By MRS. J. D. MCONNELL

Mrs. Hedges, widow of Mr. W. H. Hedges, was honored recently by the W. M. S.

A charter meeting was held at the home of Miss Clemit Lee. Mrs. Hedges was presented with a souvenir by the members of the group.

Mrs. Hedges was born in Statesboro, Ga. and has lived in the area since.

She has been an active member of the group for several years and has contributed greatly to its success.

The meeting was well attended and the group is looking forward to a successful year.

The group plans to continue its work in the community and to continue to help those in need.

The meeting concluded with a social hour and refreshments were served.

The group is always looking for new members and is open to all interested individuals.

For more information, please contact Mrs. Hedges at 4-3210.
