It's a worthy project

If you have a son who is a member of a football team, you may be interested to learn that the local Booster Club has already worked out plans for a football banquet for the boys. The banquet is to be held next week, and it is expected that a large number of the boys will be present. The banquet will be held at the Masonic Temple, and it is expected that a large number of the community will be present to show their support. The boys will be entertained with music and speeches, and a dinner will be served. The banquet is to be held next week, and it is expected that a large number of the community will be present to show their support.

Thanks to the Bryants

Monday of this week the Statesboro Booster Club moved into its new quarters in the old Statesboro Public School. Mrs. Bryant, the club's president, has been doing some fine work for the club, and the new quarters will be a great improvement. The new quarters are located on the third floor of the school, and they are well-equipped with all the necessary equipment. The club has been doing some fine work for the community, and it is expected that the new quarters will be a great improvement. Mrs. Bryant has been doing some fine work for the club, and she is expected to continue her service in the future.

Go, Blue Devils!

The Broome High School Blue Devils went into the state football finals last week, and they are to be congratulated on their fine record. The team is to be congratulated on their fine record, and it is expected that they will continue their good work in the future. Mr. and Mrs. Groover, children of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Rood and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rozier, both of Tybee Island, are enjoying a week's vacation of their own at their home in Augusta, Georgia. The Roods have been in Augusta for a while now, as Mr. Rood is working on the new county courthouse project and Mr. Rozier is attending meetings of the city council. They are looking forward to spending some time with their families after their work is done.
