Life's Weaving

My life is but a weaving
Between my God and me;
I may not choose the colors,
He knows what they should be
For He can view the pattern
Upon the upper side,
While I can see it only
On this, the under side.

Sometimes He weaveth sorrow,
Which seemeth strange to me;
But I will trust His judgement,
And work on faithfully;
'Tis He who fills the shuttle
He knows just what is best;
So I shall eave in earnest
And leave with Him the rest.

At last, when life is ended,
With Him I shall abide,
Then I may view the pattern
Upon the upper side;
Then I shall know the reason
Why pain with joy entwined,
Was woven in the fabric
Of life that God designed

The Morning:

On July 7, 1910, Frank Moffitt was born to the late Elliott and Annie Moffitt in Screven County Sylvania, Georgia.

The Mid-day:

Frank met Willie Alver Boston and through this courtship the couple was united in holy matrimony. This marriage lasted a lifetime of over 50 years. From this union, two beautiful children were born: Annie W. Moffitt Elliott (deceased) and Carl E. Moffitt and two children from a previous marriage: Willie Frank Moffitt (deceased) and Larfate (Louis) Moffitt Jackson (deceased).

Frank was one of the best dad's in the world. He farmed the land in and around Metter, Georgia for many years. He also owned and managed his Barber Shop in Metter on the weekends. He was known for his gentle ways, his kind loving spirit and his giving nature. It seems that he has always put others first. He gave his last dime to help someone else. The people in Metter that knew him would say, "Mr. Frank is the best man I know."

The Evening:

Frank's health began to fail after he became the care-giver for his wife, the late Willie Alver Moffitt. Frank was a man who loves God and his family. He just celebrated 94 years of being on this earth. He was the oldest living relative of Sam Moffitt. He enjoyed attending church and going to the Senior Citizens' Center when he was able. He was a sharp dresser and loved to look and smell good. He spent his remaining time with his son, Carl. Frank would quickly tell you what he wanted you to know. He was also a lover of eating good, tasty food, especially sweets. He was tired and was ready to take his eternal rest on Tuesday afternoon January 18, 2005.

Missing Him:

His loyal, devoted, caring son, Carl (Evelyn) Moffitt, Earl (Grace) Williams, his grandchildren: Kimberly, G.W. (Michelle), Angela (Nicholas), Morris III (Catina), Myrna, Dionne, Troy, Michael, Darrien, Cheryl, Tracy, Jacquelynne, Jasper, Daughter-in-Law Virginia Moffitt, Son-in-Law, Morris Elliott, Jr. and many nieces, nephews, cousins, great-grandchildren, friends and loved ones are left appreciating and remembering his life.
