*"Peacefully sleeping, resting at last.....
The world's weary troubles and sorrows are past.
In silence you suffered in patience you bore,
Til God called you home to suffer no more"*

OBITUARY

1 waited patiently for the Lord; and he inclined unto me, and heard my cry.

Psalms 39:1

JC Miller, the son of the late Joseph and Maggie Miller, quietly departed this life on Friday, January 13, 1995 in his home. He was born on December 25, 1919 in Metter, GA (Candler County).

JC received his formal education in the Metter, GA school system. At a very early age, he began working on the farm.

He united in holy matrimony to Marie Donaldson on February 19, 1939. They were blessed with one son, Fabian.

Always a faithful provider for his family, JC moved to Penns grove, New jersey in 1957. He felt that there he could better provide for his family. JC in fact did do this and more.

JC was a lover of children. His home became the home of many children. This was evident in the fact that he helped raise many of his nieces and nephews (Roy, Valerie, Arthur, Sceola, Latrelle and Towan).

JC was a member of the Dixin Grove Church in Metter, GA. He served faithfully as a deacon until relocating to New Jersey. In NJ, JC became a member of the Holy Temple Church of the Living God under the leadership of Bishop L. Colene Williams in 1961. He served faithfully as a Trustee, Senior Choir Member and was a compassionate and liberal giver to the ministry of the church until his health began to fail. Even then, he was always still concerned about Bishop Williams and the Holy Temple Church and still helped financially. JC was always found helping where it was needed. Many young school children and college students will never forget his generosity.

His employment history included farming. He was later employed as a construction worker in Delaware and the Standard Drudge Company. His most recent employer was the American Drudge Company in which he was employed from 1963 to 1988 when he retired. He was a manager for Shell Gas Station from 1967 to 1969.

His love was shared with his family as well as with God's earth. JC loved outside and could be found at any time working on an automobile or just tinkering in his "pride and joy" the garden. He loved farming and brought the farming with him to New Jersey.

He leaves to cherish fond memories, a devoted and faithful wife, Marie; one devoted son, Fabian; one sister, Agnes Barber; one brother, Mitchell Miller, a devoted friend, whom he called his son, Elder John Holloway; one sister-in-law, Sanella Miller, many nieces, nephews and other family and friends,
