OBITUARY

Mrs. Eula Pearl Miller, the daughter of Mary Lou and the late Nathan Gilbert, was born in Thomaston, Georgia, and departed this life on Wednesday, June 18, 1969, at 2:30 A. M. at the Peach County Hospital in Fort Valley, Georgia.

At an early age, she joined the Midway Baptist Church in Thomaston under the pastorage of Rev. Nathan Gilbert, her father. She later joined Rhodes Chapel Primitive Church in Fort Valley where she was a faithful and active member. She was a servant of God and a friend to all.

On May 4, 1919, Eula Pearl and Henry Miller were joined in holy matrimony. To this union three children were born, one girl and two boys.

A devoted wife and mother, Mrs. Miller as a responsible citizen, entered heartily into a variety of community activities, believing that by doing she was contributing to the improvement of her town, county, state and nation. A lover of mankind, she helped greatly in molding the lives of many young people attending Fort Valley State College. She helped the needy, aided the distressed, and supported everything that was fine and noble.

She leaves to mourn her passing one daughter, Mrs. Anne M. Lawton, Atlanta, Ga.; two sons: Henry Miller, Brooklyn, N. Y. and Frank Miller, Atlanta, Ga.; a devoted mother, Mrs. Mary Lou Gilbert, Atlanta, Ga.; four sisters: Mrs. Trudie Ann Character, Mrs. Gertrude Harris and Mrs. Bessie Canady, Atlanta, Ga., and Mrs. Jessie Mae Reed, Warren, Ohio; two brothers: Douglas Gilbert and Nathan Gilbert, Detroit, Michigan; two daughters-in-law: Mrs. Patricia Miller, Brooklyn, N. Y. and Mrs. Shedricka Miller, Atlanta, Ga.; one son-in-law, John Lawton, Atlanta, Ga.; two grandchildren: James Henry Miller, III, U. S. Army and Angela Miller, Brooklyn; one step-daughter; two sisters-in-law; two brothers-in-law; numerous nieces and nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.
