STATESBORO – The Georgia Southern volleyball team will play just one match this weekend, a road contest at USC Upstate with first serve scheduled for 4 p.m. Saturday.

The Eagles were slated to travel to the Bash at the Beach in Daytona Beach, Florida, and play three matches, but that tournament has been canceled because of Hurricane Dorian.

Georgia Southern went 1-2 on opening weekend at the Mercer Bears Classic, while USC Upstate lost three matches at the Miami (Ohio) Best Western Sycamore Inn Invitational.

Saturday's contest will be the home opener for the Spartans, and the first time the Eagles have played at USC Upstate. GS owns a 2-0 all-time record in the series and defeated the Spartans 3-1 in the Eagles' home tournament last year.

The Eagles are scheduled to host their annual home tournament, the Georgia Southern Invitational, Sept. 13-14 in Hanner Fieldhouse.
