A Verse For This Week

Blessed be God for His unspeakable gift, Soul, desire Him as the heart panteth after the water brook, He came to the world in fullness of time, e comes at this advent season to us. Today may be for some soul here the fullness of time, Let us open the gates and admit Him, that this Christ may be our Lord forever; that living with Him and dying with Him, we may also be glorified together with Him. —David J. Burrell.

A Man Named John

"Dr. Mooney is dead." That's what you heard it, and it hit us like a blow in the face. "Dr. Mooney is dead." Whatever we were doing—we forget it now, it doesn't matter—we stopped. Had we received the statement simply as, "Your friend is dead," we believe we would have known him. It was Dr. Mooney. For friend of ours he was. A friend to all of us—he was you and you and you. Christian, Gentleman, Physician, Friend—Dr. Mooney was the first citizen of this community. Born seventy three years ago—"There came a man born from God whose name was John." Rev. T. Earl Serson, in saying the last rite for Dr. A. J. Mooney, Sr., selected his text from John 1:16—"There was a man sent as from God, whose name was John." It could have been written especially for Dr. Mooney. Forty one years a member of the church, his living was that of a Christian-like that God must have wanted Dr. Mooney with Him. And God must have wanted a man who and Georgia, mourns the passing of a great man. A great man whose spirit already lives among us, trying to heal the sick and help the broken ones. A man whose ministry of healing was a driving force us, prompting us to move the life within him. A man who, despite God would have us live the passing of time, never let himself get behind the times. A whose name was John.

Good Books Are True Friends

In the best books great men talk to us, give us their most precious thoughts, and pour their souls into our hearts. —Channing.

By Mrs. F. F. Baker

"Green Grass of Wyoming," by ret. Every nation in the world has sworn to defend every other book. Mary O'Hara will probably be the most popular new library book this week. It is a sequel to "My Friend Flicka" and "Thunderhead" containing all the old familiar characters and some new ones. The most important newcomers are Penny, Ken's baby sister, and Carey, her first sweetheart. The story starts when "Thunderhead" steals a famous race horse, Jewel, and takes her to his mountain valley. Ken, now 16, goes in search of her, for her owner, Carey Marsh. Carey is dominated by her grandmother, who does her best to break up the friendship between Ken and Carey. Ken succeeds in bringing Jewel back to his father's ranch, where she is followed by "Thunderhead." His father, Rob, has always insisted that Thunderhead should be destroyed, but after one glorious ride on the wonderful horse, decides to keep him. The book doesn't end as well as it starts—it weakens toward the end. Carey, in a burst of courage, tells her grandmother that she is going away to college for a year or two and eventually intends to marry Ken. The action takes place some time in the 21st century. Bombs and bacteriological warfare have all been outmoded, and a new death ray that will instantly stop the beating of the human heart has been developed. The four great nations all possess the sec-

The Editor's Uneasy Chair

The Almanac Says the Weather This Week On... TODAY, Thursday, December 19, will be colder. FRIDAY, December 20, will be colder. SATURDAY, December 21, will be colder. SUNDAY, December 22, will be colder. MONDAY, December 23, will be cold. TUESDAY, December 24, will be cold. WEDNESDAY, December 25, will be cold. CHRISTMAS DAY.

... But Don't Blame Us If the Almanac Is Wrong!

Editor's note: This week's Uneasy Chair is occupied by Mr. Marvin Cox, secretary to the late Homer C. Parker, while Mr. Parker was in our national Congress. At present Mr. Cox is with the War Assets Administration in Savannah. Recently he returned to Bulloch County and is in Statesboro for a short while. He writes for the Uneasy Chair some of the impressions of this community while here. Returning to Bulloch county for a few weeks stay after an absence of some 12 years naturally stimulates memories and underscores the changes that the years have wrought in people, places and attitudes. There is a sameness, and yet a difference; a subtle change in attitudes toward the altered situations of today's living, but still the hard core of conviction about the matters of life that the years do not change. The returning visitor perceives a more acute awareness that tomorrow's world is not yesterday's world; that the complexities of modern living are undeniably reaching out toward the more remote farm settlements of solid old Bulloch as well as to the more populous centers of the nation. The Semi-Centennial celebration of Bulloch county's founding demonstrates this awareness dramatically. Proudly displayed were the heirlooms, treasures and relics of the ancestors who had transformed the bare fields into a modern, progressive agricultural center. The feeling of pride which moved Bulloch counties in showing to the world the progress of their ancestors was unmistakable. But just as distinct was the feeling and confidence and assurance with which they displayed the tools, implements and utensils the present generation will use meeting the vastly competitive challenge of the future tomorrow. The pony express feature of the Sesqui-Centennial Exposition, carried by horseback was a romantic, nostalgic note, abundantly in keeping with the celebration. Flying the mail by private plane from Savannah to the airport recently acquired by the city and county underscores two facts: that the community realizes the needs for the future in obtaining the land-use field, and that Statesboro is NOT on a regular airline as are some of its sister cities of commensurate size. Viewing at the Sesqui-Centennial Exposition the crude and almost primitive tools and equipment with which the early Bulloch counties battled so well the foundation for today's modern community, a visitor senses an unspoken challenge from the past. With contemporary Bulloch counties do as well—relatively speaking, with their scientific and mechanical implements and devices of their forefathers did with their bare hands and hand-wrought tools? The Exposition demonstrated that early day Bulloch counties not only raised and produced what they needed but, in a literally homespun manner, processed their raw products for their own consumption. Mexico Detectives—The Abbots. "Punch With Care," by Phoebe Taylor. The detective is Asy Mays (Who seems to be getting just a little too homespun lately) and the scene is Cape Cod. A fine book for boys is "The She Blow" by Everett Proctor. An exciting tale of wailing days.

VETERANS CORNER

How can I get a certificate of eligibility for a GI loan? May a veteran make larger payments of his loan than his regular installment when he is able? Here are the answers to some of the questions frequently asked of the Veterans Administration: Q. If I take a part-time job, will the Veterans Administration cut the amount of subsistence I receive while in school under the GI bill? A. No, as long as your subsistence allowance and your wages together do not equal more than $200 a month or $175 per month if you are not dependent. Your subsistence allowance may be reduced as much as necessary to meet this limitation. Q. Does the fact that I receive other income have any bearing on the amount of compensation I get as a veteran with a service-connected disability? A. No. Q. I have been receiving unemployment allowance. Will this bar me from taking an educational course or on-the-job training and receiving subsistence at some future date? A. No. Receipt of readjustment allowance does not take any of county 150 years from now will answer that question for posterity. The vision, determination and action of the present generation will answer that question for most of those who are alive today.

IS YOUR LIVER CRYING FOR HELP

because of constipation or faulty digestion? If you feel bilious, your bloated with gas, headachy, blue, you may be putting too big a burden on your liver. Retained undigested food becomes putrefactive, causes toxins, which overload the liver, keeping it from working properly. Then is the time to relieve your liver by letting Calotabs help nature sweep the putrefactive and partially digested matter from your stomach and intestines. Nothing acts just like good old Calotabs. Use as directed, 10c and 20c at your druggist. Take CALOTABS

FEWER HORSES, MULES

Georgia farmers who have good pastures would do well to give serious thought to producing horses as a stimulus for annual replacement needs. This is the opinion of Livestock Specialists of the State Extension Service. At present no section of the country is producing enough work stock to latest replacement. According to latest reports, Georgia farmers have 286,000 mules and 40,000 horses. This compares with 350,000 mules and 37,000 horses on farms in the State in 1930.

TREATING FOR BLOAT

If a cow grazes too fast on lush growths of clover or grasses and bloat results, G. D. Duice, animal husbandman for the Georgia Mountain Experiment Station, Blairsville, recommends giving the animal one ounce of turpentine as soon as possible after bloat is discovered. He warns that reaching the sick animal as soon as possible after bloat occurs is of first importance. Bloat is caused by fermentation of feed in the animal's stomach and turpentine checks the fermentation process. Cows treated with the turpentine at the mountain station responded to the treatment and were normal two to three hours after it was given.

Farmers who grow their own tobacco plants usually have the most successful crops.

FARM LEASES

The length of the farm lease has an important influence on the welfare of the tenant farmer, the landlord and the land itself. All will benefit if the agreement is made with a view toward giving advantages to both parties by continuing the lease for a number of years.

LAND USE PRACTICES

Georgia farmers need to decrease the acreage devoted to cultivate crops and increase the acreage of perennial hays, pasture and wildlife areas and abolish the wasteful practice of allowing more than 1,000,000 acres to remain idle each year.

COTTON VARIETIES

Coker's 100 Wilt and Wannamaker's Stonewall are high-yielding, wilt-resistant cotton varieties that are well adapted to both north and south Georgia soils.

MINERAL MIXTURE

A good mineral mixture for pigs may be made by mixing 40 pounds of steamed bone meal, 40 pounds of ground limestone and 20 pounds of salt.

LIVESTOCK FEED

Permanent pastures and temporary grazing crops will furnish the best and cheapest feed for livestock. Georgia farmers should provide year-round grazing for their livestock.

TET'S AND JTT'S MEET

A joint meeting of the TET's and JTT's was held at the home of Mike McDougald Tuesday night. There were twenty present. Soft drinks and cookies were served.

FIVE O'CLOCK TEA

Mrs. S. Dew Groover entertained a few of her friends with a five o'clock tea at the Sewell House Monday afternoon.

The Sewell House was beautiful with Christmas decorations. The dining room was very pretty with the green and red Christmas color. The table was covered with a lovely lace cloth and the huge red candles burning in the center. At each end of the table was silver service and coffee was poured by Mrs. B. H. Ramsey and Mrs. Jim Donaldson, sisters of Mrs. Groover. Mrs. Waldo Floyd rendered selections of Christmas carols during the afternoon.

A very enjoyable guessing contest game was conducted by Mrs. Groover. A wrapped gift was put up and described mildly by Mrs. Groover and the person guessing what the gift was, received the gift.

A variety of sandwiches, cakes, sauted nuts and coffee was served.

MRS. CLAUDE HOWARD ENTERTAINS

Mrs. Claude Howard entertained with four tables of bridge Tuesday afternoon at her home on Donaldson Street. She used for her decorations the Christmas motif of green and red.

For high Mrs. Olliff Boyd was given towels; for cut, Mrs. Cohen Anderson, a double deck of cards; and for low, Mrs. F. C. Parker Jr. was given tea rings. The hostess served her guests a salad course.

DOUBLE DECK HAVE PARTY

Mrs. Jim Donaldson entertained bridge club, Double Deck, at her home Tuesday afternoon, and a few invited guests with three tables playing.

Her house was decorated with narcissi, roses and camellias.

For club high, Mrs. Devane Watson received a hostess apron, for visitors high, Mrs. B. B. Morris received a set of Lucien Lelong lipstick, and for cut, Mrs. D. L. Davis received a bracelet.

Mrs. Donaldson served her guests cranberry salad, shopped into tiny Christmas trees, chicken salad sandwiches, pound cake, topped with whipped cream and coffee.

MASON'S HAVE ANNUAL BANQUET

The Masonic Lodge held their annual Christmas Banquet in the Statesboro high school lunch room Monday night for the members and their wives and a few out-of-town guests.

The guest speaker of the evening was Rev. Henry J. Collins, past grand master of the state and now pastor of the First Methodist Church, of Walterboro, S. C., who was introduced by Mr. B. B. Morris.

Mr. Dave Turner gave the address of welcome and Mrs. W. W. DeLoach gave the response for the ladies.

Other out of town guests were Mr. John L. Travis and E. D. Wells, past grand masters of the state, Mr. Carey W. Anderson, grand treasurer of the state and Mrs. Anderson of Savannah, and Mr. Dan Lochlin, grand secretary of the state and Mrs. Lochlin, of Macon.

Miss Vivian Anderson, of Savannah, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Williams, Mrs. Willie White and daughter, Willis Jean, Mr. and Mrs. Lehman DeKle and children, of Register were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Williams Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Coy Sikes dinner guests Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. Layton Sikes and son, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Strickland and son, Devoese Martin and Mrs. C. J. Martin.

Mrs. W. T. Groover and son, Billy, are home after spending sometime in Bulloch County Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Martin were visitors in Savannah Tuesday.

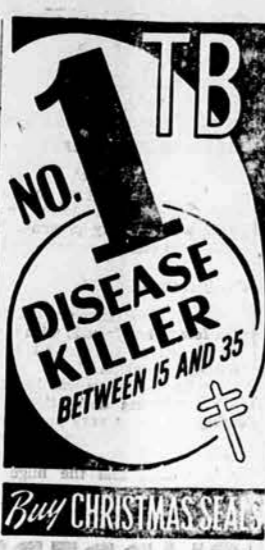

Mrs. H. A. Prather, of Jacksonville Beach, visited her parents last week, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Proctor.

January 15 Is AAA Deadline

"Come in and avoid the last minute rush" was the advice given by Mr. J. A. Banks, Chairman of the Bulloch county AAA committee. Producers who have completed all the soil-building practices they intend to carry out this year should report such practices to the County AAA Office as soon as possible. January 15, 1947 is the deadline for reporting all soil-building practices carried out through December 31, 1946. No AAA payment can be made for practices reported after January 15.

Applications for payment will be submitted to the state office in the order that they are filled which means that producers who have completed all the soil-building practices they intend to carry out and report these practices now can be paid much sooner than those who wait until the last minute.

Mr. Banks called attention to the following practices for which assistance is in an acreage basis. The acreage in these practices should be measured and reported to the county office. Sales receipts must be furnished for all purchased seed used in carrying out the practices. (1) Good growth annual lespedeza seeded in 1946 and not cut for hay. (2) Good growth clover seeded solid in 1946. (3) Good growth small grain not cut for grain or hay. (4) Good growth summer legumes planted solid and left on land or turned under. (5) Good growth kudzu or lespedeza sericea established in 1946. (6) Harvesting legume or grass seed. (7) Clearing, mowing, or sodding pasture to bermuda grass. (8) Seeding of winter legumes and pasture grasses and legumes is paid for on a poundage of seed basis. If seed was purchased, sales receipts should be shown. Credit for applying materials AAA on purchase order should such as phosphate, lime, potash also be reported said Mr. Banks.

Bulloch County Gins 7,163 Bales of Cotton From 1946 Crop

The Department of Commerce Bureau of the Census, Washington, D. C., announced this week that Bulloch County ginned 7,163 bales of cotton of the 1946 crop, prior to December 1. For the same period of 1945 the county ginned 7,266.

and mixed fertilizer to pasture and legumes is on a poundage basis. Sales receipts are needed for purchased materials. Producers who received prior approval and have constructed terraces, dams, or ditching should notify the county office in order that a representative may be sent to check these practices. Practices carried out with seed, materials, or services furnished by AAA on purchase order should such as phosphate, lime, potash also be reported said Mr. Banks.

Medals Go To Bulloch 4-Hers

Medals were awarded to the Bulloch county 4-H club members doing the best work in 1946 in the various projects at the county council meeting Saturday.

Miss Iris Lee, Stillson, received the medal for the girl doing the best all-around club work. Jean Anderson, Register, won the coveted gold key award for being the county most animal champion; Curtis Southwell, Warnock, a medal for soil conservation work; Avant Edfield, Stillson, the field crops medal (he produced 75 bushel of corn per acre on his project); Jack Bryan, Brooklet, frozen foods; Irwin McAllister and Eugent Bryant, Stillson, poultry; Bobby Martin, Nevils, and Murray Mobley, Warnock, forestry; and Emerson McElveen, Stillson, and Archie Ennis, Elsa, medals for gardening.

SOME OF THE CHILDREN who have been coming to "Miss Mattie's Play-house" are moving from town. So I shall have room for a few more. If your child is not attending kindergarten, I shall be glad to have it come to mine. Individual attention is given to each child. MATTIE LIVELY.

LOVELY TEA FOR MR. AND MRS. BRANNEN

On Friday evening between the hours of eight and nine-thirty, Mr. and Mrs. B. Floyd Brannen entertained with a tea for Mr. and Mrs. Emmerson Brannen, who were recently married and who had returned from their wedding trip.

Their home was beautiful with the colors of green and white used throughout the house, consisting of white chrysanthemums and white narcissi with the lighted white candles.

The mantel in the living room was banked with green magnolia leaves and the lighted white taper in silver holders in front of a large mirror.

The guests were met at the door by Mrs. Frank Richardson and were introduced to the receiving line by Mrs. Don Brannen. In the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Brannen and Mr. and Mrs. Emmerson Brannen.

Mrs. Lloyd Brannen directed the guests to the dining room. The dining table was covered with a beautiful pointed Venice cloth, centered with a background of silver candelabra, with the white tapers and silver service at each end. The buffet also held lighted tapers and a lovely arrangement of white flowers.

Jane Richardson handed the napkins and Mrs. Percy Bland and Mrs. Grady Artway poured coffee. Mrs. Chatham Alderman, Mrs. Finney Lanier and Mrs. Arthur Brannen, Mrs. Hazel Smallwood, Mrs. Leroy Kennedy and Mrs. Edis DeLoach assisted in the dining room. Miss Virginia Akins and Miss Inez Stephens served cake, while Betty and Barbara Brannen served the guests mints and nuts.

Mrs. Dedrick Waters directed the guests to the register which was kept by Miss Helen Brannen. Mrs. Allen Lanier then directed them to the gift room where Mrs. B. C. Brannen and Mrs. Charlie Simmons were in charge. Mrs. Kermit Carr had charge of the music which consisted of recorded selections. One hundred-fifty guests called during the evening.

On Wednesday evening, December 11, the ATP Club of Teachers College enjoyed a party at the home of Mrs. Ralph Lyons, with Mrs. John Erickson as co-hostess. The home of Mrs. Lyons was beautifully decorated with the Christmas motif.

In the dining room the cake, beautifully decorated and en-played. In an interesting contest Mrs. Bob Moye won a prize for pinning the pack on Santa Claus's back. Fruit cake, topped with whipped cream and with a lighted green candle in the center and hot coffee was served each guest.

Those enjoying the party were Mesdames Bill Hershel, James Hall, Ernest Veal, Walter Ches-bire, Corky Johnson, C. H. McMillan, Charles Wyman, Eugene Murphy and Bob Moye.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS TO HAVE PARTY AT HOME OF MRS. JOHNSON

Mrs. J. Brantley Johnson will entertain her Sunday School class with a Christmas party at her home Thursday night. Fifteen girls will enjoy the party. They will attend the picture "Cleopatra and Caesar" at the Georgia and then come to the home of Mrs. Johnson, where games will be played and refreshments served. The program for the following Sunday will be rehearsed, this class presenting the program Sunday morning to the Junior Department.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Monday afternoon of last week Mrs. C. H. McMillan gave a delightful party for her little daughter, Elizabeth, who will be one year old on Christmas Eve. The party was given at the suburban home of the little girl's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Neville. The guests were six of the very young set and their mothers who live in the same apartment house with Mr. and Mrs. McMillan at Teachers College, and who will not be here on December 24th.

MR. AND MRS. NESMITH OBSERVE GOLDEN WEDDING

On Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Nesmith, who have been married fifty years, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Nesmith of Statesboro. The house was decorated with beautiful flowers for the occasion. Mrs. Arnett Nesmith met the guests at the door and introduced them to the receiving line. Two hundred people called from receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Nesmith, Mr. and Mrs.

Smith Golden Wedding celebration were Ed Walker, of Vidalia, Mrs. Lehman Nesmith of Savannah, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Nesmith, Janelle and Arthur Jean Nesmith, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Herrington of Sylvania and En-harris Harry Smith of New Orleans and Ira Frosser of Oklahoma.

TENTH GRADE MOTHERS THANK PUBLIC

The mothers of the tenth grade wish to thank the public for their cooperation in putting on their play "The Old Maids Convention" at the High School. Proceeds from the play totalled $150.50 after expenses were paid. This money will be used for the annual Junior-Senior Banquet.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

I Won't Let Our Town Be Slandered!

I've a lot of civic pride! I like our town like you like yours! I respect housewives, farmers, merchants, children. I can't see them pushed around, insulted!

And when somebody talks Prohibition to us, it's like a slap in the face to every law abiding citizen and business in the community!

It's telling us we haven't got the character or law enforcement agencies to see that beer, yes, even a moderate beverage like beer, is sold in legal, decent places, open to inspection!

It's telling us we've got to submit, for our own good—to bootleg booze and hip-flask drinking, gangsterism, juvenile delinquency—and all the other evils you see today in so-called "dry" counties!

From where I sit, any group that tries to impose these evils on a town—and claims they're an improvement over conditions as they are—is being downright slanderous to the community!

"A steady market for PULPWOOD makes Tree Growing more profitable than ever..." —Says R. F. BURCH, Former Commissioner of Natural Resources of Georgia

"Because of the steady market for pine for pulpwood, I can now count on regular harvests from my woods as well as from my fields," says Mr. Burch, whose holdings in Dodge County (Eastman, Ga.) are all productive.

Continues Mr. Burch, "Because it uses a raw material which can be easily grown on land that may not support profitable field crops, the pulp and paper industry gives me and other landowners in the Southeast an opportunity to cash in on acres which were once unproductive."

Thinning his trees for pulpwood at regular intervals adds to Mr. Burch's income. As the growth of worked-out turpentine trees is negligible, good forestry calls for their removal. Remaining trees grow faster which results in further increased income when they are turpented or sold as sawmill timber.

Would you like to know how pine becomes paper? Send for this short pictorial description. It is free. Address: Woodlands Division, Union Bag & Paper Corporation, Savannah, Georgia.

FARM AGENT GIVES TIPS ON SEEDING OF TOBACCO BEDS
December 20 through the first week in January is a desirable time to sow seed in tobacco beds which have not been treated with chemicals for weed control, according to County Agent Byron Dyer. Beds which have been treated with chemicals for weed control should be sowed ten days later than untreated beds, Mr. Dyer said.

Tobacco beds, sown with formaldehyde solum on two days before seed is sown to prevent loss of plants from damping off, may be raked lightly to loosen the soil and make it easier to press the seed in with a roller.

Use one well-rounded tablespoon of good clean seed per 100 square yards of bed. If more seed is used, plants will be spindly, more subject to blue mold injury and will not live as well when set in the field.

Mix seed with enough fertilizer to make it possible to distribute them uniformly over the bed. A more even stand can be obtained if one half of the seed is sowed in one direction and the other half as sowed at right angles to the first direction.

After sowing seed, pack the bed by running a heavy concrete or iron roller over it, tamping it with a board fastened to a short pole or with the feet.

Mr. Dyer recommended boxing tobacco beds with eight-inch poles and dirt to make it tight. Drainage ditches around the bed will assure good drainage and keep out surface water. Galvanized wire stretched over the bed will support the planted cover.

Compost, which is valuable in the garden and on shrubs, flowers and lawns, can be made from materials which would otherwise be wasted. Refuse from the garden, such as leaves, pine straw and leaf mold may be used in making the compost pile.

Cost of feed bought for livestock and poultry in Georgia have climbed sharply since 1939.

A farm building burns on an average of every 15 minutes in this country.

Worth its wait in Golden Moments

The first big moment comes, of course, when you step out of your door, and there's your very own Buick, all ready and waiting.

The next one comes when you roll down the street in this handsome creation—and practically feel the eyes of the passers-by following.

You get another lift the first time you meet a hill, and the voice of your Fireball straight-eight engine drops from baritone to bass as it meets the challenge—and tramps the grade down into easy levelness.

Then some night you'll find yourself alone on a quiet moonlit country road—and the whisper of your engine, the soft tread of your coil-sprung wheels, your gentle, cradled, easy stride, will fill your soul with a peace you wouldn't trade for worlds.

The simple truth is that it's not only an automobile you wait for when you wait for a Buick—it's an endless series of sweet satisfactions.

It's not just a matter of size and room and Fireball power and all-coil springing, as any Buick owner will tell you—it's the wonderful way all these add up to make a constant flow of golden moments.

You'd like those moments to start coming soon. So would the whole, hard-hitting crew that's waging relentless war against delays and shortages to produce Buicks for you—and fast.

But the most important thing—when you think it out—is what you get rather than when you get it—and what you really want is found nowhere else but in Buick.

Why not settle your mind on that and be done with it? You can place your order now for future delivery, with or without a car to turn in—though we like to get trade-ins for our used-car buyers.

Land Owners Warned Against White-Fringed Beetle, Insect Pest

The White-Fringed Beetle, a serious economic insect pest of agriculture, has been found in Statesboro and at one other isolated location in the county. The property owners concerned at the isolated infestation have been contacted regarding the pest. Therefore, it is necessary to contact authorized White-Fringed Beetle inspectors before moving soil, farm produce, plants and shrubbery, in order that arrangements may be made for treatment or proper methods of handling the articles to prevent further spread of the insect.

FB to Hear Lady At Annual Meet

Dr. Pauline Parks Wilson, dean of the school of home economics at the University of Georgia, will be the lady speaker at the Bulloch county Farm Bureau's annual meeting, R. P. Mikell, president, announces. Mr. Mikell stated that a program of music and talks by some outstanding women and men, along with the usual business of the annual meeting, will be worked out for the January 4 meeting.

Dr. Wilson is regarded as perhaps the outstanding authority on family relationships in the country and is an excellent speaker. Mr. Mikell feels that such a discussion has a definite place in the Farm Bureau program, as the organization is a family affair and not merely an individual membership.

The Bulloch county chapter has for sometime used the annual meeting as a celebration for achievements in the past year as well as planning a definite program for the coming year. The resolutions committee has worked for some 30 days now preparing a program.

The insect spends a large part of its life cycle in the soil, in a dormant stage; therefore, the movement of soil in any form or quantity is especially hazardous. Consequently, restrictions have been placed on the movement of soil from any regulated area whether moved independently of, in connection with, or attached to nursery stock, plants, produce, articles, or things.

All persons were requested to cooperate in the program to prevent further spread of this economic insect pest.

PEACE ON EARTH. CHRISTMAS 1946

The Song of Christmas

THE long journey from Nazareth to Bethlehem... a new Star in the sky... heavenly music above the hills of Judea... the flutter of angel wings... the swift journeying of the Shepherds... Mary and Joseph and the new-born Child... the coming of the Wise Men, with their gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh...

From these inspiring things the Song of Christmas was fashioned more than twenty centuries ago. The years have added new notes of happiness. Carols and song upon the air... candles gleaming into the night... secret whisperings and laughter in the home... greetings going from friend to friend... deeds of love and mercy done in the name of a Child.

No great symphony or composition can match the Song of Christmas. It rises above the clatter and roar of the city; it throbs through the scattered town and hamlet; it sings through the sunlit islands of the South; it permeates the frozen wastes of the Northland. In ever-widening volume its strains echo around the world.

Before its magic the hosts of darkness take flight. It touches the slumbering chords of memory; it heals old hurts and scars; it binds loved ones in a closer and deeper tie. There are no friendless or forsaken within its sound; under its influence the strong reach out to help the weak. Peace and Love and Joy, these are its loudest notes, and they are for all men. For the Song of Christmas is the greatest of all songs because it is understood by every heart.
