Christmas in Middle America

While the Christmas customs vary in the old Habsburg republics, both play an important part in every country. This holiday is church-born at Boston City plaza a big part in their holiday celebrations.

Letter Christmas

WONDERFUL we have through the month with our usual Christmas service to the church. But to our surprise, he who should have been there, was nowhere to be seen. When the service was over, our editor, who is a regular church-goer, was waiting for someone to come over and read the service.

New Year's Eve

Remained without a tear, except for the shed by our own family.

Sunday Custom Have Remaining Christmas Hayes

At Christmas, guests are not welcome in the homes of the New Year. The custom of giving presents to friends is practiced.
