Seven Killed In Two Christmas Holiday Accidents

It was a bloody Christmas for Bulloch county. Seven persons were killed and five injured in two accidents.

It was Christmas Day on the West Side road when two cars hit head-on and five people died as a result.

It was the day after Christmas that a car crashed into a log truck and two died as a result.

The Christmas Day accident occurred about two and a half miles West of Statesboro. Two cars hit head-on. One contained Mr. and Mrs. J. Grady Wilson, Mary Ellen and Jo Ann Wilson, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, and Mrs. O. B. Lewis and her daughter, Bonita Lewis, all of Savannah. They were enroute to visit Mrs. Wilson's sister, Mrs. Carter Deal. The other car contained four negroes, Susie Mae Williams, W. J. Williams, John Henry Hodges, of Bulloch county; Robert Lewis, of Savannah, and three others.

The dead are Mrs. Wilson and the four negroes named. All the others in the two cars were injured in varying degrees.

The day-after-Christmas accident happened about one mile South of Statesboro on the Statesboro - Pembroke highway. Mr. Grady Lee and his wife and 8-year-old son, Dannie, were coming to Statesboro when their car crashed into the rear of a log truck belonging to F. W. Darby Lumber Company. One of the logs on the truck ripped through the windshield of Mr. Lee's car, killing Mrs. Lee and their son. The accident occurred about 5 p. m. last Friday.

Bert Riggs Is Now A Partner in the Statesboro Floral Shop

Bert Riggs is now in the flower business.

Zollie Whitehurst announces this week that Bert Riggs is now a partner with a half interest in the Statesboro Floral Shop.

Mr. Riggs is well known in Bulloch county. He is the son of the late H. R. ("Rat") Riggs and Mrs. Riggs. Since his discharge from the Army paratroopers he has been working with the Ellis Drug Company as a salesman. In 1942 he married Miss Sara Mooney, daughter of the late Dr. A. J. Mooney and Mrs. Mooney.

Bulloch's First 1948 Baby to Get Color Portrait Made

The first 1948 baby in Bulloch county is going to have his or her picture "struck" in color—and for free.

John Gee, of the Statesboro Studio is going to make a color photograph of the first baby born in Bulloch county in the new year. The portrait may be made at any time during the baby's first year.

Miss Warnock is State Winner

Miss Janie Warnock, who lives on a 425-acre farm near here, is the state winner of the 1946-47 kitchen improvement contest sponsored by the Georgia Power Company, in which 2,000 Georgia farm women participated.

Miss Warnock had already been declared district winner at a luncheon held here Tuesday, December 9, when she was awarded an electric washing machine by Mr. T. Gibson, vice-president and division manager of the Augusta Division of the Georgia Power Company.

As state winner Miss Warnock will be awarded an electric home freezer.

Miss Warnock lives with her sister, Miss Ester Warnock, and their two bachelor brothers, Pharis and Frank Warnock. They all gave Miss Janie wholehearted support and aid in the improvement project.

In a story written by Ruth Rebecca Franklin for The Atlanta Journal Sunday, the details of the project are given:

"The 11-room Warnock home (Miss Janie recently repainted the interior herself) is about 85 years old. And the kitchen had not changed much in all that time until Miss Janie and Miss Ester began work on it about a year ago. They used money from pecans to buy materials.

"At that time the kitchen had one light, an electric drop cord in the middle of the room. There was only one small window. There was an old wood stove. Water was brought in from a well on the porch. For storing pots and pans, there was one cabinet and one cupboard. The kitchen was dark, almost completely lacking in modern conveniences.

"But you should see it now. The 15 by 16 room is a gleaming white model of everything a kitchen should be. There are three windows overlooking the centrally-placed sink. New flooring has been covered with inlaid linoleum. The walls have been covered with sheet rock and tile-board. There is a large fluorescent light in the center of the room, and smaller ones under the cabinets.

15 STORAGE CABINETS
"Incidentally, the new kitchen has 15 base and top cabinets—enough storage room for everything.

"Water is piped in from a new deep well. Miss Janie also added an electric stove, electric dishwasher, and a washing machine. They already owned an electric refrigerator.

"Total cost was approximately

Dr. Jarnigan Is F B Speaker

The annual Farm Bureau speaker for Saturday will be Dr. Milton P. Jarnigan, chief of the division of animal husbandry at the College of Agriculture. Mr. Walter S. Brown, director of the Extension Service will introduce Dr. Jarnigan. R. P. Mikell, president of the Farm Bureau, announces.

H. L. Wingate, president of the Georgia Farm Bureau, will give a report on state activities. Mrs. Joe S. Ray, president of the associated women of the state organization, will outline their program for 1948.

The annual meeting will be held at 10:30 a. m. at the Georgia Teachers College. Following the routine business of the meeting, the program will be broadcast over WWNS from 11 a. m. to 12 noon. Mrs. Marcus D. May and the Nevils high school glee club will have charge of the music.

The nominating committee met Tuesday to make recommendations for officers for the county chapter for 1948 and to form resolutions as a working guide for the organization.

Serving on the committee were W. H. Smith, Fred G. Blitch, W. H. Smith, Jr., L. G. Banks, Henry S. Blitch, R. G. Dekle, Cecil Kennedy, Delmas Rushing, J. V. Anderson, V. J. Rowe, B. F. Deal, J. I. Wynn, J. M. Creasy, J. H. Ginn, H. U. Knight, Dan Lee, Dese Brown, J. A. Hart, Clate Mikell, John H. Olliff, C. M. Cowart, C. W. Bracka Mrs. R. L. Roberts, Mrs. Cliff Bundage, Mrs. C. M. Cowart and Mrs. Dan Lee.

Farm Bureau officers working with Mr. Mikell this year were Mrs. Lee as vice-president and Mr. Cowart as secretary. Associated women officers are Mrs. Roberts, as president, and Miss Leta Gay as secretary.

Congressman Steve Pace is ill with flu and will not be able to attend this meeting.

$800-$200 for materials and $600 for equipment. They didn't have to spend much for labor. A nephew, Wallace Parker, helped with the cabinets. Another nephew, Ray Warnock, gave a hand with the flooring. A cousin, Harley Warnock, did the wiring and plumbing.

"We do love this place," Miss Janie said.

"The children took over the farm after the death of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Warnock. The two girls were teachers at one time. Now they keep house, tend the chickens, raise many beautiful flowers, and cultivate a year-round garden.

"Miss Irma Spears, home demonstration agent of Bulloch county, assisted the Warnocks in planning the kitchen."

Liquor, Wine, Beer Now Illegal in Bulloch County

In an election held in Bulloch county on December 19, the people placed the county back under the provisions of the "Bone Dry Law" of Georgia.

150-Gallon Moonshine Still Captured in Bulloch County

One man is in jail and two are out on bond for manufacturing moonshine liquor in Bulloch county.

On Saturday of last week, C. L. Strickland and James Warren, State Revenue Agents, found a 100-gallon capacity still on the "Old Rogers Place" between Groveland and Nevils. The county sheriff's office is holding one 1946 Chevrolet, one 1940 Chevrolet, one pair of mules and 250 pounds of sugar, plus miscellaneous items used in the manufacture of moonshine. The revenue department representatives destroyed 137 gallons of liquor and 12 sixty-gallon barrels of beer.

Archie Garrison is still in jail and Leland Garrison and Ezekiel Baker are out on bond awaiting trial.

MISS MATTIE'S PLAYHOUSE WILL RE-OPEN JANUARY 5

Miss Mattie Lively announces this week that "Miss Mattie's Playhouse" will re-open on January 5, following the two weeks Christmas holiday.

P.T.A. REGULAR MEETING TO BE HELD JANUARY 8

The regular meeting of the Statesboro P. T. A. will be held in the high school auditorium on January 8 at 2:45 p. m. Mrs. George M. Johnston and Mrs. Percy Averitt will have charge of the program. The subject will be "Studies in the School." All parents of the school are urged to attend this meeting.

Parking Meters Cough Up Strange Coin Collection

If Statesboro's parking meters could talk! The stories they could tell—of how some people who park on the streets of Statesboro "gyp" the city. They could sum it up in the old saying, "It's a shame!"

An examination of the things some people put in the parking meters reveal that there are many who will always try to "beat" their way.

One parker used a button for a nickle and must have felt right proud of himself in getting an hour's parking for a button.

Eighty steel washers in two sizes—the "penny size" and the "nickle size"—were coughed up by the meters. Nineteen slot machine slugs were used since the meters were installed. Some of the slugs read, "Awarded for Skill."

Five parkers found their street car tokens good for parking time for the meters contained five Savannah Electric Power Company tokens and one Georgia Power Company of Atlanta token.

A study of foreign coins taken from the meters indicate that many people parking here have traveled all over the world. The city's collection includes one Chinese coin, one Panama Republic coin, one Nederl Indie coin, two Indian coins, one English six-pence coin, one Belgian coin, two Canadian coins, five German

Dry Goods Stores Select New Hours

The dry goods stores in Statesboro have adopted new opening and closing hours.

The new hours were set at a recent meeting of the merchants who sell dry goods. They have announced the new hours as follows: Week days (except Wednesdays and Saturdays), they will open at 8:30 a. m. and close at 6:00 p. m. On Wednesdays they will open at 8:30 a. m. and close at 12:30 p. m. On Saturdays they will open at 8:30 a. m. and close at 7:30 p. m.

The stores will be closed today in observance of New Year's Day. Other holidays in the year will be announced later.

Merchants participating in the schedule of opening and closing hours are: Brady's Department Store, Donaldson-Smith, The Fair Store, Fashion Shop, Favorite Shoe Store, Henry's, Hubson DuBose Men's Store, Mary Dell Shop, McLellan's, Men's and Boys' Store, H. Minkovitz & Sons Department Store, Rosenberg & Sons, and United Five and Ten.

County Sets Up New Police Force

Fred W. Hodges, chairman of the county commissioners, announced this week the appointment of Edgar Hart as chief of the county police.

Mr. Mose Sowell, former city policeman, has been named to the county police force.

Chief Hart and policeman Sowell will work closely with Sheriff Stothard Deal and his office.

A new patrol car has been purchased and will be equipped with two-way radio equipment to tie in the city-county radio network now in operation.

Mr. Hart served nineteen years on the police force of the City of Statesboro until his resignation the first of 1947.

Carolyn DeLoach, Ex-Navy Man, Now On City Police Force

The City of Statesboro has a new policeman.

He is Carolyn DeLoach, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Z. T. DeLoach of the Denmark community.

Officer DeLoach served eight years in the Navy, with more than a year's experience as a military policeman.

reichspfennig coins, one Tunisian coin, two Mexican coins, and an unidentified coin marked "15 Kon."

Miscellaneous U. S. coins include over 200 pennies in various stages of abuse—one beaten square and one burned beyond recognition.

Parkers continue putting dimes in the meters in spite of the fact that the meters will not operate on them. The collection of dimes during Christmas week totaled 17.

Otis Hollingsworth, who counts and packages the pennies and nickles the meters collect week after week, states: "We're never surprised anymore at what we find in the meters—not after finding that button."

1250 POLICE IN STATE GIVEN FBI TRAINING

Some 1250 Georgia policemen have gone to school this year to learn how to do a better job. Their teacher is the FBI. This year (1947) the FBI has held 225 schools in various parts of the state. These schools have been attended by about 1250 peace officers. Students include state highway patrolmen, sheriffs' deputies and local police officers.

The police school program is part of a nationwide effort by the FBI to improve the caliber of law enforcement. Schools are provided free to any community that asks for them.

In these schools, which last from one to 12 weeks, policemen learn every phase of their job. Some schools are for recruits. Others are attended by men who have been in police work nearly all their lives.

There are special courses in scientific investigation, traffic control, photography, fingerprint classification, laws of arrest and evidence, preservation of evidence, and other fields of police work.

Edwin Foltz, special agent in charge of the Atlanta FBI office, says that during 1946 the FBI hopes to hold schools in many more Georgia cities and counties.

Brooklet

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Barnes, of Savannah, were holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Shuman, Mr. and Mrs. Demsey Ward, of Savannah, visited relatives here Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leeland Iler and Miss Cora Carnes, of Winnsboro, S. C., visited relatives here during Christmas.

Mrs. Chapel Goodman and children, of Savannah, spent the week end here with Mrs. George P. Grooms.

ELLINGTON-BRIDGES
Of interest to their friends is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Thelma Ellington daughter of Mrs. Arthur Crouch and L. J. Bridges, of Brooklet and Savannah, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bridges, of Washington county, and brother of T. L. Bridges, of this place, with whom he made his home before moving to Savannah.

The marriage took place Wednesday afternoon, December 24, at the Brooklet Methodist parsonage, Rev. J. B. Hutchinson performing the ceremony.

The bride was dressed in a blue suit with brown accessories. She is a graduate of Brooklet high school and has been employed for last week end.

HOLIDAY BRIEFS: You can always bet on a woman calling the score. The Paul Franklins weren't looking for Annette until after Christmas. David, Sr., had stated firmly that David, Jr., must be at home for Santa in Lumberton, N. C., but Annette out-talked him. Little David King hung up his stocking at Grandma and Grandpa Franklins' down on Savannah Avenue.

OLIVIA LANIER BEGAN Christmas Day all wrong. She failed to get a gift from Sidney. The alarm clock failed to go off because Sidney purposely forgot to set it. They missed the bus to Metter. All the time Sidney was on pins and needles. A car dealer was to deliver a new auto early Christmas morning. There was no Christmas dinner because they were to eat that in Metter. Too late for the bus, no car. But the obliging dealer sent up his car and upon their return on Christmas afternoon the new red car had been delivered—Sidney's gift to Olivia.

ALFRED MERLE SAUVE included among her yuletide decorations a musical Christmas tree which in old music box fashion played "Silent Night" . . .

LITTLE BILL LOVETT (Dad's and Joyce's) broke his foot while playing with his daddy but had recovered before Christmas. Since it hurt him when he tried to walk on it, he hadn't progressed as much as he should and still limped—but when Bill found a tricycle under the tree that had the trick. Bill is the girl that foot plenty of exercise . . .

WILLIE COLEMAN told G. C. that if she wasn't able to find the lamps SHE WANTED, he wouldn't get a Christmas present for her. Just in time Willie located a pair of Paul Hanson table models which were exactly what she wanted for her new home. G. C. had his wife equally confused. He told her his gift was a dozen of something SHE WANTED. On Christmas morning there they were, a dozen heavy mugs in the familiar G.I. pattern, for their outdoor kitchen.

JANE THRILLED by Carolers on Christmas Eve. Young boys and girls with sweet treble voices led by Margie Henderson and her accordian, assisted by Brother Charlie Jackson and other young men of his church, crowded onto the porch and overflowed into the yard as they sang carols. A clear, crisp night and carols—like something right out of Dickens.

RAYMOND POSS visited relatives in Athens and Union Point during the week end.

Dr. Summerlin, of Athens, spent several days here with Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Summerlin.

Miss Doris Parrish is spending this week in Winchester, Ky., with Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Parrish, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Randall Wheeler and baby, of Hinesville, visited relatives here over the week end.

H. M. Mallard, Jr., of Jacksonville, Fla., visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Mallard, during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Lenwood McElveen are visiting relatives in Macon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Giles and son, of Washington, D. C., have returned to their home after spending two weeks with Mrs. J. W. Forbes.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Wyatt, of Mrs. Acquilla Warnock.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Morris are spending two weeks with relatives in Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ansley visited Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Snipes during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Buie entertained Christmas Day with a turkey dinner at their home. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Lehmon Zetterower and Sylvia Anne, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McElveen and children of Statesboro, Mr. and Mrs. Inman Buie, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Buie, Edsel Zetterower, Mrs. J. E. Anderson, Ernest Buie, and others.

Mrs. Carrie Griffin and Mr. Hoyt Griffin have returned from a visit to relatives in Tampa.

Members of Harville Sunday School and church and other guests enjoyed the Christmas tree at the church Tuesday night, December 22.

Christmas carols were sung. Devotional was led by Mr. J. H. Ginn. Two selections were given by Miss Sarah Anne May, after which the presents were given from the tree by Santa Claus.

The children were served fruit and candy.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Zetterower and children were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Zetterower Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Strickland, of Savannah, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Denmark during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ginn visited Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Ginn in Statesboro during the week.

Mr. Chas. Zetterower flew up from Brunswick and spent the Christmas holidays with Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Zetterower, Mr. and Mrs. Lehmon Zetterower, Mr. and Mrs. Colen Rushing and other relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Zetterower spent Christmas Day with Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Zetterower, Mr. and Mrs. Lehmon Zetterower, Mr. and Mrs. Colen Rushing and other relatives here.

Those visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Zetterower during the week were Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Tarte and little daughter, Diane, Mr. and Mrs. Colen Rushing and children of Statesboro, Mr. and Mrs. Lehmon Zetterower and daughter, Sylvia, Charles Zetterower and wife, Edsel Zetterower, of Keesler, Miss.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Bragan's guests during the week were Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hane and C. H. Hane, Jr., of Metter; Mr. and Mrs. John Aycock and Mr. Julian Aycock.

Henry Zetterower spent a few days during the week with Bill Zetterower.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Jones and daughter, Billie Jean, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller and family at Miami Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. James Denmark visited relatives at Register during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Lamb visited Mr. and Mrs. Milton Hendricks and daughter, Mary Weldon, and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard McDougald and children, Ann and Al, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. McDougald in Claxton.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack DeLoach, of Savannah, spent a few days during the week with Mr. and Mrs. C. C. DeLoach.

P. S.: Have just received a copy of "Pioneer Days", by Clyde Hollingsworth, a history of the early years in Screven county. Naturally, I found it most interesting, and believe that many of the older families in Bulloch county would enjoy reading early historical documents and accounts contained in the history, which appears in pamphlet form.

To the strains of music furnished by Henry Applewhite's Orchestra, from Savannah, members of the Dutch Dance Club enjoyed their annual Christmas dance on Friday evening at the Woman's Club. A lovely white linen banquet cloth was an exquisite background for the table decorations of red carnations, holly, and red candles in effective arrangement. The entire mantel was banked with evergreens, with red tapers placed at intervals. A small Christmas tree held fifty Santa Claus cards used for the special dances. A large lighted Christmas tree was at one end of the club room.

The Christmas motif was repeated in the delicious refreshment consisting of ice cream molded into Santa Claus figures, cakes decorated with holly sprigs, toasted nuts and coffee.

Hosts for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Lannie Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Averitt, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Averitt, Jack Averitt, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Leavelle, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. George Prather, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Parker, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Grady Simmons, and Mrs. Edna Neville.

MISS MATTIE'S PLAYHOUSE PRESENTS CHRISTMAS PLAYS
Quite colorful and pretty was the Christmas program at "Miss Mattie's Playhouse" on Friday, December 19.

The main feature of the program was a dramatization of the birth of Christ, the children taking the parts of Joseph and Mary, the angels, shepherds and wise men, King Herod and his attendants, and the priests at the temple.

The children were beautifully and appropriately costumed and gave the Christmas story under a large illuminated star which was most effective in the darkened room.

Gifts were distributed from the beautifully decorated Christmas tree.

RUFFET SUPPER
The Christmas theme predominated in decorations used in the lovely Akins home as Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Akins entertained members of the immediate family at a buffet supper on Tuesday evening during Christmas week. Gifts were exchanged under the beautifully lighted tree in the living room.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Deal, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Trapnell, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Carpenter, of Putney; Mr. and Mrs. Nattie Allen, Mr. and Mrs. James Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Howard King, Misses Sallie and Pennie Allen, and Zack Allen.

DINNER PARTY GIVEN FOR BRIDE AND GROOM
On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Anderson were honor guests at a lovely dinner party which gave the bride an opportunity to become acquainted with every member of the groom's mother's family. Hosts for this family dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Akins and the dinner was held at their lovely home near Statesboro.

Providing impromptu amusement for all ages were games, directed by Etta Ann and Jappie Akins.

Dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Anderson, Sr., Bobby Joe Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Mallard, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mallard and daughter; Harriett, Mr. and Mrs. Olan Stubbs and children, Nancy and Bill, Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis Durden, their son, Lewis, and their daughter, Mrs. Ray Schenks, and their daughter, Pennie, of Savannah; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Mallard and sons, Larry and Robert, and Mr. and Mrs. Schenks, of Houston, Texas.

MRS. LOWELL MALLARD AND DAUGHTERS FETE BRIDE AND GROOM
A lovely dinner party of Tuesday evening, complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Anderson, was given at the home of Mrs. Lowell Mallard, with her daughters, Mrs. Joe Hamilton, Mrs. Olan Stubbs and Mrs. Lawrence Mallard, serving as hostesses with her.

An exceptionally beautiful arrangement of white carnations and narcissi was used as a centerpiece. A three-course dinner was served.

The dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Arnold Anderson, Miss Vivian Waters, Lewell Akins, Miss Julie Turner, Parsh Blitch, Miss Frances Martz, Julian Quattlebaum, Miss Gwen West, Bobby Joe Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Robert Tillman, Mr. and Mrs. Walley Hill, Mr. and Mrs. W. LOVELY BRIDE INTRODUCED TO STATESBORO SOCIETY AT BRILLIANT RECEPTION
The spacious Woman's Club room with elaborate decorations combining white carnations and other white flowers with ferns and native greenery, formed a lovely setting for the reception Sunday afternoon given by Mrs. Arnold Anderson in honor of her son and his bride, the former Mary Lawrence, whose marriage was an event of December 20 in Atlanta.

The mantel was banked with ferns interspersed with myriads of burning white candles. Small pines flanked the fireplace where large logs burned. The bride's table, overlaid with an exquisitely embroidered cutwork cloth, centered with white carnations in a large silver bowl placed on a reflector. Silver services at each end added elegance.

The guests were greeted by Mrs. Emil Akins and introduced to the receiving line by Mrs. George Groover. In the receiving line were Mrs. Arnold B. Anderson, the bride and groom, and Bobby Joe Anderson. The lovely brunette bride wore her wedding gown and her nosegay was of white flowers and mallow.

Mrs. W. E. McDougald and Mrs. J. P. Foy stood at the end of the receiving line. Mrs. Bradice Smith and Mrs. Cliff Hodges directed the guests to be served. Mrs. Lowell Mallard and Mrs. J. L. Durden, Mrs. Hicks Cowart and Mrs. Joe Tillman poured coffee.

The ushers were Alan Smith, August; Robert Lanier, Statesboro; T. P. Lawrence and W. T. Lawrence, Atlanta.

Groomsman were Lewell Akins, Belton Braswell, Worth McDougald, Statesboro, and Edward Andrews, Atlanta.

Bobby Joe Anderson was his brother's best man. They were met at the altar by the bride and her father, Thomas Franklin Lawrence, who gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride wore a gown of candlelight slipper satin. The deep yoke was traced with tiny satin calla lilies centered with seed pearls. The full skirt was fashioned into a fan-shaped train. Her veil was of rose point lace and bridal illusion fashioned in three tiers. Her bouquet was of white bride's roses.

Mrs. Lawrence chose for her daughter's wedding a dinner gown of forest green crepe trimmed with silver sequins. She wore a purple-theros orchid.

A reception immediately following the ceremony was given

The Bulloch Herald, Thursday, January 1, 1947

Assisting in serving were Mrs. Joe Robert Tillman, Mrs. W. R. Lovett, Mrs. Bernard Morris, Mrs. Bob Niver, Mrs. Jim Watson, Miss Frances Martin, Miss Vivian Waters, Etta Ann Akins and Betty Joe Woodward.

Others assisting in entertaining were Mrs. W. H. Blitch, Mrs. Julian Tillman, Mrs. W. R. Lovett, Sr., Miss Irene Kingery, Miss Penny Allen, Mrs. Jessie Akins, Mrs. Hinton Remington, Mrs. Lawrence Mallard, Mrs. Bruce Akins, Mrs. Joe Hamilton and Mrs. Frank Simmons.

Delightful music was furnished by Mrs. Waldo Floyd, Miss Melrose Kennedy and Mrs. C. B. Mathews.

The December meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club was held at the Jaekel Hotel. The officer's table was decorated in a blue and white motif using white carnations, white tapers, white reindeer and sleigh and a profusion of blue translucent balls. The other table followed the traditional Christmas colors of red and green in the use of holly, poinsettia berries and red tapers.

The News Committee was in charge of the program. The College Quartette, composed of Eddie Smith, H. M. Fulbright, Eddie Rush and Ezra Gay, furnished Christmas music and Mrs. Howell's presentation of the Christmas Story was most impressive. Each of the fifty-two members present received a Christmas gift.

MISS BETTY THOMPSON HONOR GUEST AT PARTY

Miss Betty Thompson, of Lowell, the attractive guest of Alwyn Akins, and her roommate, Miss Jackie Bowen, were complimented Saturday evening at an informal party given by Lowell Akins at the home of his parents. Mrs. Akins, assisted by Miss Penny Allen, served a Christmas salad course, chicken salad sandwiches, open-faced brown bread sandwiches with olives and cream cheese, and home made cookies and coffee.

These present were Miss Betty Thompson and Lowell Akins, Miss Jackie Bowen and Inman Fay, Miss Vivian Waters and Belton Braswell, Miss Charlotte Ballenger, of Summerville, and Worth McDougald, Miss Frances Martin and Julian Quattlebaum, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Lovett, Parrish Blitch and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Morris.

CHILDREN HONOR PARENTS ON GOLDEN WEDDING

The eight children of Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Cason were hosts on Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Cason at a lovely reception in observance of their parents' fiftieth wedding anniversary. The home was decorated throughout with white carnations, yellow chrysanthemums and yellow gladioli in varied and artistic arrangements.

Mrs. Wilbur Cason and her son, Wilbur, Jr., met the guests as they arrived. In the receiving line with the honor guests were Mrs. Solie Allen, Thomaville; Mrs. P. P. Darby, Augusta; Wilbur Cason, Mrs. Evelyn Deal, Mrs. Marion O. Stringer, Augusta; Charles Jim and Homer Cason. Mrs. Cason and her four daughters wore black crepe dresses with corsages of yellow carnations.

Mrs. Homer Cason directed the guests to the dining room. The table, overlaid with hand-made lace cover, was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake embossed in white and gold, topped with a miniature bride and groom and imbedded in waxy white carnations on a reflector. Yellow candles encircled this arrangement. Linda Cason passed out the gold monogrammed napkins and Caroline Deal served the decorated meats. Serving gold ice cream and individual wedding cakes and coffee were other granddaughters: Miss Dorothy Allen, Miss Sara Ann Stringer, Mrs. John Edward Stringer and Mrs. G. R. Lee. Mrs. Jim Cason presided at the register and Mrs. Charles Cason and son, Charlie, were in the gift room. On the mantel in the gift room was a picture of Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Cason, made fifty years ago on their wedding day, encircled with white carnations, and nearby a gold vase held a graceful arrangement of yellow gladioli and yellow chrysanthemums.

Others assisting were Mrs. Doris Cason, Mrs. D. J. Dornier, Mrs. John Akins and Mrs. Willie Waters. About a hundred and fifty guests called between the hours of three and five.
