Library Board to Hold Open Meet

The Library Board of the Bulloch County Library announces this week that a meeting will be held in the library room over the Sea Island Bank tomorrow (Friday) evening at 7:30.

According to members of the library board, tentative plans for a new library building are being prepared and will be explained at the meeting.

In a statement accompanying the announcement the library board says: "For more than 25 years there have been various groups who could see and feel the need of a public library for Bulloch county."

"When this move was started it was believed that by raising a certain amount, this would be matched by the federal government. The amount the local group hoped to raise has been reached. Believing those who contributed to this fund, and perhaps those who didn't, would like to know what disposition has been made of this money, a financial report is given here:

"With the First Federal Savings at 3 percent interest, $14,000; Certificate from the county at 3 percent, $3,000; a note bearing interest at 3 percent from South Main street, cost $3,000; bonds maturity value $1,025; and cash in bank, $559.50. Total, $23,069.50."

"If you will read the above matter you will see that the committee believed the federal government would match any amount raised locally. So far, it has not been done, and we have no hopes now of it being done. Therefore, it is our desire, with your help and cooperation, to raise $20,000 more. When this amount is raised we will have enough to build a library that will be a credit to Bulloch county and its people."

"All we need now is your wholehearted support and cooperation. This will assure us of the $20,000 additional necessary to carry out our original plans. A complete list of contributors has been kept and even those who gave the largest amounts will be willing and ready to help us again when they know the facts. Won't you help us NOW? We assure you this will be the last plea from your library workers."

Members of the library board are Mrs. Leodeli Coleman, Mrs. Fred Hodges, Mrs. J. O. Johnston, Mrs. Will Groover, Mrs. F. W. Hughes, Mrs. A. J. Mooney, Mrs. Eunice Lester, Judge J. L. Renfro, Mr. Gilbert Cone, Dr. H. F. Arundel, Mr. Horace Smith, and Mrs. Alfred Dorman.

The average of all guesses turned in was 86 bushels. One check on the actual yield gave slightly more than 98 bushels. Some of the neighbors came in and checked the yield and found it to be 102 bushels.

Resolutions presented called for cooperation with state and national resolutions and urged local officers to continue trying to procure adequate rural telephone and electrical services for all wanting them.

The county officers were hosts to the community and officers and visitors at a luncheon immediately following the meeting, at which H. B. Yandell, director of public relations for the Georgia Farm Bureau, talked on "none too heavy a subject."

Twenty permits were issued for new business buildings, totaling $58,150, together with permits to do $4,200 worth of repairs and remodeling. Home repairs and remodeling accounted for $17,700 more in construction.

Bob Mikell Is Renamed Farm Bureau President

Bob Mikell was renamed president of the Bulloch County Farm Bureau at the annual meeting Saturday at the Teachers College.

Mr. Mikell has served three years as president and it is largely through his efforts that Bulloch county has maintained one of the state's largest Farm Bureaus.

Mr. Lee and Mr. Cowart have made considerable contributions to the organizations of their time and efforts. Those attending the meeting Saturday from other sections of the state pointed out that officers effectively worked to credit to any organization in the state and would insure strong Farm Bureaus in any county.

Mr. Delmas Rushing was elected president of the associated women. Mrs. Henry S. Blitch was a member of vice president and Mrs. Dan C. Cowart secretary. This phase of the Farm Bureau in Bulloch county is not as strong as it will be in a few months, with this kind of leadership to continue the work already begun.

Dr. Milton P. Jarman, head of the annual husbandry division of the College of Agriculture, the speaker of the day, urged local farmers to continue their livestock work. He predicted that income from livestock would double in a few years with the use of more temporary grazing crops and more fertilizer on these grazing crops.

David C. Banks was the best guesser on the corn demonstration tour held here last summer. According to figures returned here this week by E. D. Alexander, extension agronomist, he led the tour.

While visiting pastures and corn demonstration in the county last summer, the 116 on the tour were asked to make a guess at the yield of C. J. Hendrix's demonstration, Mr. Banks placed the estimated yield at 101 1/2 bushels per acre. The figures returned here this week gave Mr. Hendrix's yield at 102 bushels per acre.

Ben Grady Nesmitt's guess was 105 bushels. Lloyd Motes 106, Leroy Williams 100 1/2 bushels, Wyley C. Wilson 100 1/2 bushels, and John H. Brannen 90 bushels. Mr. Hendrix's guess was 88 bushels on his own patch.

Regular meetings will be held the first and third Thursdays in each month. Members of the AAUW are asked to bring an apron. Hostesses for the meeting will be Miss Adeline Dumasway, Miss Gernert, Mrs. Buford Knight and Miss Freeman.

Whiskey Flows Freely On Statesboro Streets

Whiskey flowed freely in the streets of Statesboro on Monday morning of this week. And its aromatic "moonshine" quality remained in the air nearly all day.

In a traffic-jamming operation, the personnel of the sheriff's office and county police destroyed 235 gallons of illegally manufactured and untaxed whiskey in front of the court house.

In a joint raid made by C. L. Stockland and James Warren, of the state revenue department, and Edgar Hart and Mose Sewell, of the county police, the 235 gallons of illegal whiskey was taken, together with a 400-gallon capacity still, in the head of Mallards Phillips pond in the Middleground community.

Albert Shuman (not the son of Mr. L. J. Shuman) is out on bond and the sheriff's office is holding a warrant for the arrest of Frank Phillips "for business."

Still later, the state revenue representative returned and advised effectively proved that the people of Bulloch county and the state "meant business" when they "dried up the county." They confiscated Mr. Ellis' entire stock of liquor.

On motion made and seconded the same opening and closing schedule used in 1947 were adopted for 1948. The schedule is as follows: Dry goods, furniture and jewelry stores will open at 8:00 a. m. and close at 5:30 p. m. Hardware, feed and grocery stores will open at 7:00 a. m. and close at 6:00 p. m.

Wednesday afternoon closings will be observed as in 1947 until tobacco season, during which time stores will remain open until their regular closing times. However, from the Wednesday afternoon before Thanksgiving, November 25, the stores will remain open and will remain open through the remainder of the year.

Holidays to be observed are: November 11, Armistice Day; November 25, Thanksgiving; December 25, Christmas; and December 26, the day after Christmas. January 1, 1948 will be observed. No decision was made on July 4th, which comes on Sunday in 1948. If the government should declare a holiday during 1948 the merchants of Statesboro will join in its observance.

AAUW to Meet at College Art Studio Tuesday P. M., Jan 13 The Statesboro branch of the American Association of University Women will meet Tuesday evening, January 13, at 8:00 o'clock at the Art Studio of the Teachers College.

Your Child Is Younger Than You Think

A time for young people, "mother of the dead girl" and "the state patrolman" are our go to a party, ride around, waiting for the New-Year-In-Out-Year-Out, when they love to blow auto horns and fire "fire-poppers."

"It was a grisly accident, increasing the number of holiday deaths in this county from seven to nine."

"Two cars collided on U.S. 550 near here, resulting in the death of Miss Carolyn Azure, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Azure, and Jim Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Smith, both county of this city."

The accident was reported shortly before midnight on New Year's Eve. Ambulances were at the scene of the wreck within 20 minutes and emergency first aid was administered to Bill Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Brown; Jack Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Green; Mary Cloud, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Cloud; and Jane Rainy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Rainy, all of this city; and Mr. C. R. Farr of North Georgia.

"Not one of the injured was in a condition to make a statement regarding the cause of the accident."

"At the local hospital the parents of the dead boy and girl related how happy the young people were early in the evening. They had left the homes to go to a New Year's Eve party, dressed in their new Christmas dresses and corsages, the boys looking very mature in their first tuxedos. They had promised to be so careful and look what happened," sobbed the mother of the dead girl. "Oh, why did we let them have the car?"

"The condition of all those admitted to the hospital is considered grave."

"Later, a state patrolman, in investigating the accident, stated, 'The driver, Jim Smith, did not have a driver's license. He was just fifteen years old.'"

"It is a dreamed up story. The names of our dead are on monuments of our heads and are entirely fictitious. The accident did not happen. The highway number mentioned is no known highway. The names given the 'parents' are pulled from the air. The statements attributed to the rest of the folks say 'let 'em do it.'"

The Enterprise is not interested in the mudslinging and hate engendering campaigns and doings of the past few years. Most of the people in the public eye are honest, intelligent, and want to do the right thing; their ideas of what is right differ, but we could stand a change of names in the political public eye.—Claxton Enterprise.

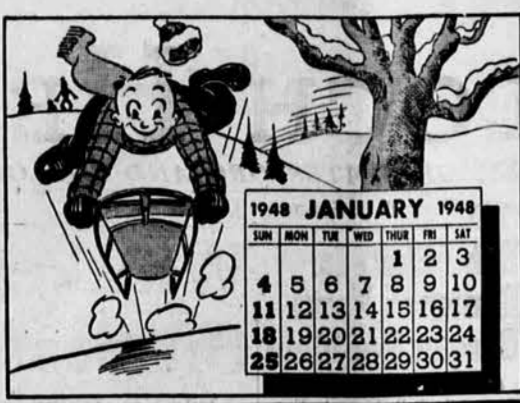

Amen, Brother Bob Majors. We agree with you wholeheartedly.

Why do the people in the state of Georgia from year to year, leave to put up with the Tamadge side or an opposite side?

Editors of the Bulloch Herald think that the people of the state of Georgia should change both sides entirely and vote for, and elect, a man who really has the interest of his state at heart—and not politically at heart either. It could be done if the people in the state really wanted to.

It is not conceivable that if both of these gentlemen were moved outside the state of Georgia, but that Georgia would travel along just as well or better than it has in the past and not say that Thompson or Tamadge are the only available men in putting both on a pedestal higher than either deserves.

Perhaps a truth nearer home is that the two men mentioned are the only ones who will take the time and go through the mud-facts are that all of us have allowed prejudice and bias to ob-

The Almanac Says the Weather This Week On...

TODAY, Thursday, January 8, will be fair.
TOMORROW, Friday, January 9, will be windy. Blue Devils cage team plays Claxton tonight at 7:30.
SATURDAY, January 10, will be windy. Moon at its lowest.
SUNDAY, January 11, will still be windy.
MONDAY, January 12, will be rainy.
TUESDAY, January 13, will be rainy. Blue Devils play Waynesboro here.
WEDNESDAY, January 14, will be windy again.

... But Don't Blame Us If the Almanac Is Wrong!

Getting over the Christmas and New Year season is a slow process, but by the time this week's Herald is out we will have settled down into the routine of seeing that you get your Herald each week.

Picked up during our Christmas reading: We call this little bit "The Lament of an Installment Buyer."

"I bought this dress on installment plan. The reason, of course, to please a man. But the blamed installments go on and on."

And these pages from a teenager's diary, written just before a high school dance party:

MONDAY
Wanted: one boy Tall and dark. Must own a jalopy. In dress never sloppy. A bid to the prom.

TUESDAY
An orchid corsage. And some new Persiflage.

WEDNESDAY
Would like: Any male driver's license—are operating automobiles with no license, but with the permission and apparent approval of their parents.

It's dangerous to the young driver.

It's dangerous to those who ride with him or her.

It's dangerous to the licensed operators driving other cars.

It's dangerous for the pedestrians.

It's just dangerous!

We are among the most enthusiastic allies the young people have in Statesboro. We have been going to bat for them.

It is with the gravest concern that we now plead with the parents of children who are driving automobiles outside the law to steel themselves to telling their boy or girl: "I'm sorry, but you'll have to give up driving the car until you are sixteen years old and can get a driver's license."

It'll be hard to do. And the young people will set up a howl. But remember—of every accident that happens in Statesboro, Bulloch county and Georgia—you can say, "It might have happened to my child."

Your child, not yet 16 years old, operating an automobile, if involved in an accident is a lot younger than you think!

BRADY-GODBEE NUPTIALS MARKED BY BEAUTIFUL EVENING CEREMONY

At a beautiful evening ceremony Miss Laura Margaret Brady, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Remer Brady, became the bride of John Francis Godbee, of Sardis and Statesboro, at the First Methodist Church, Dr. C. A. Jackson, Jr., performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of a host of relatives and friends.

The altar design with fan-shaped background of plumosa tendrils projected at the top to form a bridal arch. Artistic arrangements of white gladiol interspersed with trees of white flocked grass and many lighted tapers in tiered candelabra cast soft candlelight over the beautiful green and white setting. A single row of cathedral candles framed the scene at the base and as the bridal party assumed their places gave the effect of a lovely portrait.

The wedding music was presented by Mrs. Roger Holland, organist; Bill and Bob Holland, who sang an original arrangement of "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer"; and Mrs. Harry Godbee, Jr., of Sardis, who sang "O, Promise Me."

Mrs. Roy Rabun, sister of the groom, served as maid of honor and Miss Julie Turner, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Misses Nona Hodges, Virginia Durden, Lila Brady and Betty Gunter.

The dresses of the bridesmaids were fashioned like American Beauty taffeta with sweetheart necklines, sculptured bodices, and panniers with clusters of matching flowers underneath, giving importance to the hips.

The groom was attended by his father, Harry Godbee, Sr., of Sardis, as best man. Usher-groomsman Harry Godbee, Jr., Pat Hatton (Gibson), Charles Remer Snyder (Mason), Remer Brady, Jr., and Wycliffe Hillis, Sardis.

Escorted by her father, who gave her in marriage, the lovely bride wore an exquisite gown of white duchess satin with fitted bodice buttoned down the back with tiny covered buttons. An inset of duchess lace was used at the softly rounded neckline, and peplums of duchess lace accented the slender waistline flaring slightly over voluminous folds of the satin skirt which ended in a full court train. Her bouquet was of white gladiolus with garlands of feathered carnations showered with white satin ribbons. Her only ornament was an antique chain worn by her grandmother, Mrs. D. B. Turner, at her wedding fifty-four years ago.

The bride's mother wore an aqua crepe, made along straight lines and featuring a wide gold belt. Her corsage was of orchids. The groom's mother, Mrs. Harry Godbee, Sr., chose for the occasion a stunning gown of sapphire blue. The waist was fashioned with a design of sequins and her black mittens were sequin trimmed. An orchid adorned her shoulder. Mrs. D. B. Turner, grandmother of the bride, was handsomely gowned in black velvet, worn with red carnations.

Mrs. Lilla Brady, paternal grandmother of the bride, wore black crepe with red carnations.

The wedding party and guests were entertained with a reception by the bride's parents at their lovely home on North Main street. A profusion of cut flowers adorned the entire lower floor. The beautifully embossed three-tiered wedding cake occupied one corner of the table; on the opposite corner was a silver basket filled with white flowers. Tied to the silver handle was a lustrous bow of satin, the ends of which extended to the center of the table where a silver candelabra with lighted tapers enhanced the beauty of the table appointments.

Mrs. D. B. Turner greeted the guests at the door and they were introduced to the line by Mrs. Arthur Turner. The receiving line was composed of the bride and groom and their parents and the wedding attendants. Assisted of refreshments, and Mrs. Joe Robert Tillman and Mrs. W. R. Lovett arranged the dance cards. The guests were served raspberry iced cream, cakes, nuts, and coffee.

More than thirty-five couples danced to the strains of Applewhite's Orchestra.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Pickett and sons, Albert and Tom, left Friday evening for their home in Vidalia, after spending a few days with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Deal.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Denham and sons, Nick and Bill, of Charleston, S. C., visited relatives here during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Green B. Everett, of Savannah, spent New Year's Day with his brother, Mr. R. H. Everett, and Mrs. Everett.

Lewell Akins has as his overnight guests for the Sigma Chi Dance Friday Len Neal, of Augusta; Cole Carr and Dan Smith, of Thomasville.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gross had as guests during the holidays Mr. Gross' mother, Mrs. J. H. Gross, of Vienna, and his brother, Lt. Robert Gross, of Norfolk, Va.

Mrs. Aubert Brannen had as her guests Friday her sister, Mrs. Ralph Henderson, of Port Wentworth, and Mrs. Veda Gibson, of Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. William Deal left Friday for their home in LaGrange, after spending the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Deal.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Cobb, of Rocky Mount, N. C., were at their home for the holidays.

All's Fair

Another Christmas Day has come and gone; left us so broke we're eatin' corn pone.

By the Fourth of July if things don't get better, I'm gonna sit down and write myself a letter: "Dear Jane," I'll say, just as sober as a judge. "What's the reason your budget won't budge? You go without milk and instead drink water, and pass up steak when you know you hadn't oughter; The necessities of life are no longer in your reach. It's time you got a soap box and began to preach.

If all the little people would use their little brains, we wouldn't need an atom bomb or any "Friendship" trains.

Now this is not restricted to folks in Dixie or the Western Hemisphere, it's meant for little people everywhere—A sort of "One World" policy of good neighbors and love. We need to work together, all of one accord, and push around the Big Boys whose aim in life is SHOVE."

JERRY HOWARD didn't have anything else to do on Christmas Day, so he went out and shot a deer. No hunt clubs for Jerry—just a gun and a dog—and whatever kind of shells it takes to kill a squirrel. His big brother, Ralph, and Robert Nesmith went along for the walk. They were practically electrified when in response to excited yells from Jerry they found him standing with his foot on the neck of an honest to goodness deer. All of Jerry's friends had to come over to his home afterwards and view the kill.

It was Jerry's first experience. Who said you never kill the first deer you see? Now take Loy Walters. He has been hunting deer for fifteen years and only this season did he bring down a deer.

THE RADIO AND NEWSPAPERS have sorter scooped me on Albert Deal's trip to his old Alma Mater, Washington and Lee University, in Lexington, Va. Col. Deal, who celebrated his 80th birthday on January 2, made the trip with son William and William's wife, Mattie Mae, driving up in a new Studebaker (Mattie Mae's Christmas present). Col. Deal was more fortunate than Silas Marner when he returned to earlier scenes of life. The Colonel went to the old Presbyterian church he attended and stood in the exact spot where he was baptized. He found the old house still standing which had been his home away from home, and furthermore, its present tenant was one of his old professors, now retired. He contacted an old schoolmate who is now editor of break down and add further information. The lucky boy and his fiancee and another couple were in the Sapphire Room at the DeSoto Hotel and the orchestra leader announced that there was a newly engaged couple present and, calling them by name, introduced them on the dance floor. And, of all tunes, the orchestra played "Heartache" while they were dancing. Both girls in the party attended Wesleyan College.

Another of our home town boys who served in some of the hottest spots in World War II has picked out one of the prettiest girls not too far from town and evidently intends to make her "A Farmer Wife" for he has placed a lovely ring on the proper finger.

FRIDAY NIGHT was a great night for the local alumni of Sigma Chi. For at their annual Christmas dance they enjoyed the greatest honor that could be done their way.

There, all dressed up in a royal gown of black velvet—off-the-shoulder and very full hoopskirt—and carrying a diminutive muff with wax-melissa parading across the valley background, was lovely Margaret Sherman, Sweetheart of Sigma Chi. It was the first time that an alumni chapter in Georgia had thus feted as the Sweetheart a home town girl. Rufus Cone, the Sigma Chi president, got quite a kick out of presenting to Margaret a lovely silver

COTILLION CLUB HOLDS NEW YEAR'S DANCE

Royal blue and silver furnished the color motif for the annual New Year's Eve Cotillion Club Dance. Elaborate decorations, special dance numbers, spirited or swony music, seventy-six dancing couples, and glamorous new evening frocks placed this holiday social in the extravaganza class.

A large wheel in the center of the ceiling with royal blue and silver streamers swirling continuously, and festoons which reached every point in the club room. The stone fireplace was banked with blue and silver magnolia leaves and branches. On the mantel in the midst of this blue and silver foliage was a clock with blue and silver flowers instead of numerals, proclaiming "Happy New Year."

A lovely banquet cloth with deep ruffle touching the floor was used on the table. Silver and blue magnolia leaves were used in flat arrangement and silver services graced each end of the table. Mrs. Howell Sewell and Miss Ailine Whiteside poured coffee.

The dance cards with the clock

1948 Chevrolet is Massive

The over-all simplicity and massiveness of the new 1948 Chevrolet is well shown in this three-quarter view of the Fleetmaster Sport Sedan. Fenders, hood, body and door panels all blend; and the crease moulding, below the windows, is wider than that used in previous models. Note the new T-shaped chrome center bar on the radiator grille.

Friday evening, January 2. Decorations employed the Sigma Chi emblem and colors, blue and gold, in a most effective manner. Bill and Bob Holland drew the large emblem which was used over the mantel. Before the first place blue Greek letters, against a white background made an imposing screen. Streamers of blue and gold crepe paper extended from the center light to the corners of the club room and bordered the ceiling.

The table focused attention with its white banquet cloth with ruffled skirt on which gold Greek letters were displayed. The table was centered with a crystal bowl filled with tallinn roses, around which gold brocaded satin lay in soft folds with blue and gold crystal balls placed at intervals. Tall brass five-branched candelabra holding blue candles adorned the ends of the table.

The local Sigma Chi chapter, composed of about twenty members, invited all the college boys who are members of Sigma Chi and extended invitations to members in surrounding towns. Those responding to the invitations were from Savannah, Brunswick,

NUMEROUS SOCIAL AFFAIRS COMPLETING COUPLE
Mrs. Emmett Akins and sister, Mrs. George King, and Miss Penny Allen were hostesses Wednesday evening at a lovely dinner party complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Anderson.

The table had for its central decoration white carnations in a silver bowl placed on a reflector. Paper white narcissi and other cut flowers were used in other rooms.

The dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Lovett, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Culbreath (Augusta), Lowell Akins and Vivian Waters, Parrish Blitch and Julie Turner, Belton Braswell and Frances Martin, Bobby Joe Anderson and Joan Jackson, Zach Smith, John Olliff Groover, Worth McDougald, and Bobby Duden, of Graymont.

LUNCHEON ENJOYED THURSDAY EVENING

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Anderson, who are enjoying the hospitality of many friends here, were honored guests Thursday at a luncheon at the Jaekel Hotel, with Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Morris and Mrs. Robert Morris as hosts.

The long table adhered to a bridal motif. Picardy gladioli formed an exquisite centerpiece and trailing the length of the table were ferns interspersed with dainty clusters of white flowers and six miniature bridesmaids attired in pink, yellow, and blue frocks with matching picture hats, were placed at intervals. Small cellophane bags of rice were tied to the place cards with white satin ribbon.

Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Arnold Anderson, Sr., Lowell Akins and Vivian Waters, Belton Braswell and Julie Turner, John Ford Mays and Joyce Denmark, Parrish Blitch, Worth McDougald, Dan Groover, John Groover, John Olliff Groover, Bobby Joe Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Culbreath (Augusta), Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Morris and Mrs. Robert Morris.

BOWL GAMES ATTRACT STATESBORO FANS

Gator Bowl, Jacksonville, Fla.: Deke Banks and guest, H. R. Gober; Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Jennings and son, Glenn, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Jim Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Allen, Mr. and Mrs. John Thayer, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Albert Green, Paul Franklin, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Aubert Brannen, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Blitch, Mr. and Mrs. Lehman Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. Talmadge Ramsey, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Thomason, Frank Simmons, Jr., Dight and Foy Olliff.

Orange Bowl, Miami: Mr. and Mrs. Everett Williams and son, Frank; Tiny Ramsey, Brannon Panser, Bucky Akins, Chatham Alderman, Horace McDougald, Walter Aldred, Joe Robert Tillman, Harry Sack.

Sugar Bowl, New Orleans: Jimmy Morris, John Franklin, A. M. Seligman.

DINNER PARTY

On Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Morris and Mrs. Robert Morris were hosts at a lovely dinner party, including members of Hele's family.

Picardy gladioli were used in the decorations and individual decorative candles were used beside each place card. A three-dinner was served.

After dinner an evening of delightful music was enjoyed. Miss Carolyn Proctor, a talented vocalist now studying in New York, where she makes her home, and Mr. Lewis, a graduate in piano from Juillard School of Music, responded to numerous requests for classical and popular tunes.

Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Claud Proctor, of Summit; Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Flannagan;

PHIL MORRIS BECOMES A TEEN-AGER

The Woman's Club buzzed with activity Tuesday evening, December 30, as Phil Morris, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Morris, was honored by his parents at a lovely party which offered dancing, games, proms, and delicious refreshments.

The club room was gaily decorated with Christmas scenes and vari-colored balloons which, along with cellophane hats, were given as favors. The table, overlaid with a Christmas cover, had for its centerpiece a dreamed-up birthday cake, a three-tiered affair, differing from a bride's cake only in its color motif. Phil's three-story cake was white with artistic effects achieved in pale green and red. Red candles were anchored in dainty green swirls. White poinsettias and small Christmas lights completed the lovely ensemble.

The dancing began with the grand march. George Bean and Datus Akins called figures for the square dances and music was furnished by Mike McDougald and his record player. About fifty-teen-agers celebrated with Phil.

JANE BEAVER IS HOSTESS AT NEW YEAR'S EVE PARTY

Among the lovely parties ushering in the New Year was one given by Jane Beaver, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Beaver. The hostess planned her party, games and refreshments in a manner highly satisfactory to the guests. The attractive party plates offered tuna fish sandwiches, olives, pickles, potato chips, pimiento cheese sandwiches, brownies, party mints, and coconuts. Top hats were given as favors.

Later in the evening the party progressed to the theater where they attended a midnight show, the last word in sophistication for this group.

THE BULLOCH HERALD

DEDICATED TO THE PROGRESS OF STATESBORO AND BULLOCH COUNTY
Statesboro, Georgia, Thursday, January 15, 1948
Number 9

Barbara Jean Brown, and Lois Stoddard just take it in their high stride as majorettes of the Teachers College band.

3 In Race For 2 Court Offices

Unless someone else announces their candidacy for the judgeship and for solicitor general of the Ogeechee Judicial Circuit it will be an all-Bulloch show and race.

Last week Fred T. Lanier, of Statesboro, present solicitor of the Ogeechee Circuit, announced he would be a candidate to succeed himself.

The Ogeechee Circuit is composed of Bulloch, Screven, Jenkins and Effingham counties and Judge J. L. Renfro is now the presiding judge.

14 T.C. Students Make Dean's List

A total of 67 Georgia Teachers College students qualified for the Dean's List, scholastic honor roll during the fall quarter, according to a report prepared by Miss Viola Perry, Teachers College registrar.

Five students included on the honor roll attained maximum grades with an "A", or 6 quality point ratio average. The five top students were: Grace Bowen, Portia; Sheldon L. Chapman, Waycross; James Gunter, Statesboro; Jay Sarritt, Tifton; and Martha Tootle, Manassas.

Portal City Council Votes To Issue Beer Licenses

The City of Portal will issue beer licenses to sell beer within the city limits for the year 1948.

The announcement followed a meeting of the Portal city council Tuesday night. The vote, taken on a secret ballot, was three to two in favor of issuing beer licenses.

The cost of the initial license was not revealed, but it was stated that five cents will be collected on each bottle of beer sold.

Members of the city council are W. Wood, Ellis McElrath, Leroy Bird, C. J. Wynn and Ernest Carter. H. W. Rucker is Mayor.

When the county voted to "dry up" Bulloch county the question of the licensing and sale of beer was being considered. With the vote two to one in favor of drying up the county, the county board of commissioners and the city council of Statesboro voted not to issue licenses for the sale of beer in the City of Statesboro and the county.

It was pointed out that incorporated municipalities in Georgia have the discretionary power to issue licenses for the sale of beer. It was under this power that the City of Portal voted to issue beer licenses.

County Library Needs $20,000

Twenty-two thousand five hundred and seventeen books in the Bulloch County Library were used for a total circulation of 2,960 during a one year period, ending June 30, 1947, according to Librarian Isabel Sorrier, at an open meeting of the Library Board last Friday evening in the library room in the Sealand Bank building.

Miss Sorrier stated that the library now has a lot on South Main street, and $20,000 in cash. The drive will be made to raise an additional $20,000, which will provide a $40,000 library building.

At the meeting plans were made for a drive to raise additional funds to provide for a library building. Mrs. Alfred Dorman, chairman of the building committee, reported that the library now has a lot on South Main street, and $20,000 in cash. The drive will be made to raise an additional $20,000, which will provide a $40,000 library building.

Dr. Pittman Is Student Counselor

Dr. Marvin S. Pittman, president emeritus of Georgia Teachers College, has been appointed alumni and student counselor of the college, effective January 1, 1948.

Dr. Pittman's duties as alumni counselor will provide him an opportunity to serve as an additional field representative of the college to the public schools. President Ward declared in making the announcement.

According to Dr. Ward, "Dr. Pittman's long experience in the field of teacher education and his high professional competency give every assurance that the college's relations with the public schools will be enhanced at this important time."

Following a visit to Germany in the spring and a program of activities bringing his administration as president of Teachers College to a close and preparing for the inauguration of his successor, Dr. Pittman was granted a leave of absence from active duty at the college until January 1, by Dr. Raymond Paty, chancellor of the university system.

SHS Parents-Teachers Hear Jack Averitt at January Meeting

Members of the Statesboro T. A. last Thursday heard Jack Averitt, associate professor of history at Teachers College, speak on "Studies of the School."

Mrs. Percy Averitt, co-chairman of the program committee, had charge of the program. H. M. Fullbright, of the Teachers College, sang two selections.

A committee composed of Mrs. Bill Adams, Mrs. James Bland and Miss Elizabeth Sorrier, was named to plan for collecting costumes to be used by the high school in presenting plays.

It was announced that the pictures for attendance awards had arrived and will be ready for distribution at the next meeting. Miss Dorothy Brannen's room and Miss Bertha Hagins' room won the awards last week.

Mrs. Percy Bland and Mrs. Bill Adams will represent Statesboro T. A. at the County Council meeting in Register January 10.

County Police Get Another Still

Bulloch county revenue officers continued busy last week tracking down bootleggers selling moonshine and illegal whiskey.

Last Saturday officers Hart and Sowell made a raid at the lower end of the county and caught G. W. Floyd with a gallon can of moonshine. The still was located on the Bryan-Bulloch line on the Pembroke highway.

Saturday night Hart and Sowell caught Grady Johnson red-handed, selling one-half pints of Florida gin at his store on Fairground Road. Johnson plead guilty and was fined $100.

And John Paul Ellis, who reopened his whiskey store after the county went dry December 31, 1947, plead guilty and was fined $250.

Monday at 11:00 a. m. Hart and Sowell picked up two drunks on the Brooklet-Statesboro highway and slapped them in jail. Officer Hart said one
