3 Unions Block Labor Peace—Refuse Wage Boost Already Accepted by 19 Other Railroad Unions!

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers and the Switchmen's Union of North America, representing 125,000 railroad employees, have refused to accept the offer of the Railroads of a wage increase of 15 1/2 cents an hour.

This is the same increase accepted by 1,000,000 non-operating employees by an arbitration board in September, 1947.

This is the same increase accepted by 175,000 conductors, trainmen and switchmen by agreement on November 14, 1947.

Agreements have been made with 1,175,000 employees, represented by nine unions. But these three unions, representing only 125,000 men, are trying to get more. They are demanding also many new working rules not embraced in the settlement with the conductors and trainmen.

Incidentally, the Switchmen's Union of North America represents only about 7% of all railroad workmen, the other 93% being represented by the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and covered by the settlement with that union.

Strike Threat
The leaders of these three unions spread a strike ballot while negotiations were still in progress. This is not a secret vote but is taken by union leaders and votes are signed by the employees in the presence of union representatives.

When direct negotiations failed, the leaders of these three unions refused to join the railroad in asking the National Mediation Board to attempt to settle the dispute, but the Board has jurisdiction at the request of the carriers and has been seriously attempting since November 24, 1947, to bring about a settlement. The Board on January 15, 1948, announced its inability to reach a mediation settlement. The leaders of the unions rejected the request of the Mediation Board to arbitrate. The railroads accepted.

What Now?
The unions having refused to arbitrate, the Railway Labor Act provides for the appointment of a fact-finding board by the President.

The railroads feel it is due shippers, passengers, employees, stockholders, and the general public to know that throughout these negotiations and in mediation, they have not only exerted every effort to reach a fair and reasonable settlement, but they have also met every requirement of the Railway Labor Act respecting the negotiation, mediation, and arbitration of labor disputes.

It seems unthinkable that these three unions representing less than 10 per cent of railroad employees, and those among the highest paid, can successfully maintain the threat of a paralyzing strike against the interest of the entire country—and against 90 per cent of their fellow employees.

The threat of a strike cannot justify granting more favorable conditions to 125,000 employees than have already been put in effect for 1,175,000, nor will it alter the opposition of the railroads to unwarranted wage increases or to changes in working rules which are not justified.

A glance at the box above what employees represented by the Engineers and Firemen make. They are among the highest paid in the ranks of labor in the United States, if not the highest.

City Gets Recreation Set-up
The young people of Statesboro are to get a full time recreational director!

At a meeting of the city council Tuesday night Mr. Max Lockwood, of the Teachers College, was engaged as a full time recreational director to plan and coordinate a recreational program for the city. He will assume his duties on April 15. His salary was set at $3,000 a year.

He is a veteran of World War II.

And so we can now cancel out part of our "It Didn't Happen Here" column of February 5.

Last week we published in our "It Didn't Happen Here" column the full week's recreational program of the North Dalton Playground as announced in the Dalton, Ga., newspaper. We added the comment: "No such recreation program is provided for the youth of Statesboro..."

But "It's Going to Happen Here" now.

We commend the city council for their action and feel sure that the young people of the city will appreciate the consideration.

"IT'S GOING TO HAPPEN HERE"

14 Out of 17 Is TC's Cage Record
It's been a good season for the Georgia Teachers College basketball team.

With 14 wins out of 17 games, Coach J. B. Searee and members of the TC student body have a right to be proud of their cage team.

"We are going to play our remaining five games with our fingers crossed," says Coach Searee, who is not superstitious about his thirteen-man basketball squad, which is fourth in the regular season of the best college basketball record in the state.

The Teachers have scored an average of 55.2 points per game against their opponents' average of 44.2 points.

Tom Dyches leads the squad in points with 233. Jimmy Conner is runner-up with 212 points, and Herbert Reeves has 144.

A review of the Teachers' record is as follows:

They Were Free For 40 Minutes
They almost made it—but they didn't get far after they broke out of the Bulloch county jail Tuesday!

Robert Clark and Buell Beasley, the two Statesboro teenagers who were found guilty last week on five indictments of attempted burglary in Candler county, broke out of the Bulloch county jail Tuesday and were on the loose for 40 minutes.

However, alert Bulloch county authorities quickly located them, headed north on the Dover road near Dr. D. L. Davis' hospital.

Clark and Beasley escaped from the jail by tearing out the side of a brick wall in the jail and scaling down a drain pipe. When county authorities saw the two youths on the side of the road near the "dog hospital" and demanded that they halt, young Beasley made a run for it, but Clark rode in his tracks and did not move. Beasley was chased and overtaken and the boys were returned to the jail.

Both boys are now awaiting another trial in Bulloch county for the theft of two automobiles stolen in Statesboro two weeks ago.

Dr. Ward Becomes Asst. Chancellor Of University System Of Georgia
The election of Dr. Judson C. Ward, Jr., president of Georgia Teachers College, as assistant chancellor of the University System of Georgia, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Dr. Hollis Edens as vice-chancellor, was announced yesterday by the board of regents of the University System, and the Bulloch Herald over radio station WWNS.

The board of regents also revealed that Zach S. Henderson, dean at Georgia Teachers College and for 21 years a member of the college faculty, will succeed Dr. Ward as president of Teachers College.

During a special called meeting of the Georgia Teachers College faculty, Dr. Ward made the first announcement in Statesboro of his election during the regular February meeting of the board of regents in Atlanta yesterday. He also announced to the faculty members that Dean Henderson had been named as the new president of the college.

"Naturally I am very happy to move up into a new position where I shall have an opportunity to widen my influence in the cause of education in Georgia; however, my elation over a promotion is qualified by a reluctance to leave such a pleasant situation as I have enjoyed as president of Georgia Teachers College," Dr. Ward declared.

Continuing, Dr. Ward said, "It was not easy to learn the details of a new and responsible position, but I have enjoyed the first loyalty and cooperation of every student and faculty member. The result is that I am now confident that all our problems can be solved in time and that the future of the Teachers College has never been brighter. The entire community has accepted Mrs. Ward and me so warmly and generously that we have to think of leaving."

"It is a consolation, however, to know that the leadership of the college passes to such capable hands. No one can work long with Dean Zach Henderson without realizing his many fine qualities. His long service to public education and teacher training in Georgia, his devotion to Teachers College, and his modest Christian character assure T. C. that her fine traditions will be carried on."

"Like other faculty members, Dean Henderson and I serve on the larger team of the University System of Georgia. The Chancellor has seen fit to rearrange his personnel. It is our hope and prayer—as I am sure it is of all friends of the college—that T. C. as well as the University System will be better served as a result of the change."

Dr. Ward revealed that he will probably not leave Teachers College until April 1.

Miss Julia Carmichael Awarded Pin for 15 Year's Service
Mrs. Julia Carmichael, 302 Savannah Avenue, recently was awarded a jeweled gold pin for fifteen years of service at the Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.

The awards were presented at a family night meeting of 500 Institute employees, to all who have served for five years or more. The historic Bible School now in its eighty-second year, annually trains hundreds of young people for Christian work.

First District Class B and C Basketball Tournament To Begin At Portal Feb. 17
The first District Class B and C basketball tournament of the Southeastern division will begin Tuesday night, February 17, at 7:30 when Nevils and Garfield will play at Portal for the first game in the Class C division.

The first game in the Class B division will be played between Brooklet and Sylvania at Portal on Wednesday night, February 18 at 7:30.

Class B and C winners in the Portal tournament will go to Swainsboro for the semi-finals on Friday night, February 20. Class C schools will play at 7:30 and Class B schools will play at 8:30 in the semi-finals.

The Class B and C winners of the Swainsboro tournament will move to Ludwell on Saturday night, February 21, where they will play the semi-final winners of the Western division tournament which will be held in Ludwell on Friday night.

In the final games at Ludwell the class C schools will meet at 8:30 p. m. and Class B games will follow at 9:00 p. m.

The pairings for Class C teams in the Southeastern division are as follows: Nevils vs. Garfield on Tuesday, Feb. 17, at 7:30; Springfield drew a bye in the first round; Georgia Teachers High vs. Portal Tuesday, Feb. 17, at 9:30.

The winner of the G.T.C.H.S.-Portal match will play Springfield on Wednesday night at 8:30 and the winner of this game will meet the winner of the Nevils-Garfield game Thursday night at 7:30.

The pairings of the Class B teams is as follows: Brooklet vs. Sylvania, Wednesday night, Feb. 18, at 7:30; Statesboro and Way-

Spring's In The Air...It's Soon Baseball Time

It was winter outside, but to the more than 50 men in the lounge room of the Veterans Club at Lakeside, near Metter, spring was in the air!

It was a baseball meeting.

The board of directors of the Ogeechee Amateur Baseball League of Georgia was in session and more than 50 supporters of the various teams were along for the sheer love of baseball.

Ray Smith, league president, presided at the meeting. League directors present included Herbert Kingery, Statesboro; Merrill Johnson, Metter; John Spivey, Swainsboro; Clyde Hollingsworth, Sylvania; K. A. Knox, Thomson; Emory Daniel, Waynesboro; Danie Kieckhefer, Greenville; O. Grady Hulsey, Metter; W. T. Parry, Sylvania; and R. A. Fullmer, Wrightsville. E. J. Daniel, immediate past secretary, and J. M. Padgett, Greenville, new secretary, were at the meeting.

The directors adopted a schedule for the ten-team league with each team playing 36 games. Statesboro opens the season here on May 13, playing Swainsboro. Metter opens the same day, playing in Greenville; Waynesboro opens in Thomson; Wrightsville opens at Vidalia; and Millen opens at Sylvania.

The directors of the league authorized President Smith to negotiate with an umpire school to furnish the league with ten umpires to call the games during the 1948 season.

The directors also set $4.35 as the uniform starting time for all games in the league, to be effective until June 1 when the league president will set a new hour to conform with the change of the season. The uniform admission price of 75 cents and 35 cents was adopted, and a uniform baseball was selected and adopted.

Thomson and Waynesboro were admitted and welcomed into the league.

President Smith told the league directors that he was going to run the Ogeechee League "by the Blue Book." The directors pledged their wholehearted support to the new president and the league.

Before the meeting the representatives from the ten cities had a chicken and shrimp supper at the Lakeside Club.

Frieda Gernant At PTA Meeting
More than 60 members of the Statesboro P. T. A. met last Thursday to participate in the year's program theme, "The Kind of School I Want and How to Get It."

Miss Frieda Gernant gave a lecture on "Art in School." She displayed works of students in the first grade up through the senior college year. She emphasized the need of public school art in every program for progressive work.

Miss Betty McLemore and Mrs. Waldo Floyd presented a musical program.

The P. T. A. gave $100 to the grammar school library with which to purchase new books. A new curtain for the grammar school stage was discussed, and a new slide for the playground, and funds have been set aside to take care of these.

A similar fund was given to the high school to be used as necessary.

Mrs. George Hagnis, president, paid tribute to the founders of the P. T. A. She offered her resignation to be effective at the end of the year. A nominating committee was named as follows:

B. B. Morris Named to First Masonic District Welfare Committee
Announcement is made here this week that Mr. B. B. Morris has been appointed as a committee member from the first Masonic District on the General Welfare Committee of the Grand Lodge of Georgia.

The appointment was made by Grand Master of Georgia Masons, J. Clayton Perry.

The appointment is made in recognition of usefulness to the progress and teaching of the Craft, and their willingness to serve their fellowman.

Mrs. Percy Averitt, Mrs. George Johnston, and Mrs. Gordon Franklin.

The next meeting is March 4.

"World Day of Prayer" At Baptist Church On February 13th
Tomorrow, Friday, February 13, the citizens of Statesboro will join the citizens of the world in an annual "World Day of Prayer."

This is an annual day of prayer and will be held this year at the First Baptist Church, and will be in charge of the Christian Women's Union. Services will be at 3:30 p. m.

4 Master Farm Families Named
Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Gay, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Brannen, and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hodges, all of Bulloch county, have been declared "Master Farm Families" of the Progressive Farmer.

They are invited to attend a Master Farmers banquet at the Henry Grady Hotel on Thursday, February 19, where they will be joined by other Master Farm Families.

Seven Georgia farm families are named and four of them live and farm in Bulloch county.

Awards will be presented each family by Miss Sallie Hottel and Altona E. Nunn, editors of the Progressive Farmer.

Master Farmer selections were started in 1927. The Progressive Farmer, farm magazine, sponsors the project in cooperation with the State Agricultural Service.

Miss Julia Carmichael Awarded Pin for 15 Year's Service
Mrs. Julia Carmichael, 302 Savannah Avenue, recently was awarded a jeweled gold pin for fifteen years of service at the Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.

The awards were presented at a family night meeting of 500 Institute employees, to all who have served for five years or more. The historic Bible School now in its eighty-second year, annually trains hundreds of young people for Christian work.

I HEARD that Marjorie Olliff (and this isn't funny) slipped on the pavement in Savannah and

All's Fair

If the weather keeps on I'll have to change the name of this "column" to "Home on the Range." I've showed over the biscuit and crawled inside.

FOR SHIRERS and chills I can't abide. IF THERE IS A YARN or an amusing story in this town it has escaped me completely. I did hear that Bernard Morris claims he went to Cuba during the week and came back with a sun tan and blistered nose . . . I did hear that a certain man in town whose doctor told him to lay off cigarettes got it back on the medico this week. The doctor got sick, and the man who didn't want to give up his cigarettes sent word to the doctor, "If you don't quit smoking so many blankety-blank cigarettes, you'll kill yourself." . . . I did hear that Mary Jones Williams and husband, Baker Williams, are attending the Mardi Gras this week in New Orleans. That's one poor, belabored weatherman trying to escape his own predictions. I heard that when Edna Mae Jones wrote her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ziegler, in Nashville that "Little Chick" was fast losing his baby ways, that Mr. Ziegler couldn't stand it and had to come down before the little fellow got a hair cut . . . I heard that Malvina Trussell, Dr. Trussell, that is, when she hurriedly left her home, where an abundant repast was all laid out for the gentleman of the Whiteside-Maxwell wedding party, and sat down at her place for the luncheon at Sewell House, she was heard to gasp, "Oh, I forgot to put out the cream!" Again she muttered, "I didn't put out the nuts." Now we plead guilty. We forget to put out milk bottles and the cat . . . We also heard that Ed Kennedy's baby girl, named Sue Lynn, weighs six pounds, has black hair, blue eyes, and the cutest dimple. We also heard that Maggie Lou Kennedy, when she heard the description from the proud father, said, "Seems to me I can remember a little boy that once looked just like that" . . . I have also heard that this column wields a powerful influence—Jack Averitt has bought his first hat, a rain repellent model! . . . I HEARD that Marjorie Olliff (and this isn't funny) slipped on the pavement in Savannah and broke her ankle. Not a serious break, but certainly painful. Now before you go talking about women and their high-heeled shoes, let me hasten to assure you that Marjorie had on low-heeled walking shoes . . .

Teachers Still In Winning Streak
Continuing their winning streak the Georgia Teachers College basketball team have run their record up to 16 wins and 3 defeats.
Tonight at 8 o'clock they will meet the Seminoles from Florida State University and will try to push their wins up to 17 games.
In a previous engagement with the Seminoles the Teachers won a 90 to 56 victory when they piled up 19 points in the last five minutes of the game while holding the boys from Florida to one field goal and two free throws.
The 16th win for the Teachers was added to their record Monday night when they defeated the Cadets from North Georgia College by the score of 86 to 46.
Leading the Teachers in scoring is their mild-mannered captain, Tom Dykes, of Cochran, Ga., with 283 points. Jimmy Conroy, with 232 points, and Herb Reeves of Rockhold, Ky., has 165.
The Seminoles, who boast of a starting line-up of freshmen, are led by two men, Bill Kratzer, 6 foot, one inch forward, and Larry Dickson, 6 foot, 2 inch forward.

Paul Carol Named Dean at College
The selection of Paul F. Carol, professor of education and acting superintendent of the laboratory schools of G.S.C.W., as dean of Georgia Teachers College was announced Tuesday.
Prof. Carol's election to the Teachers College Post was recommended by Zach H. Henderson, recently elected president of the Statesboro institution, following the election of President J. C. Ward to the position of assistant chancellor of the Georgia University System.

Sheriff Takes Clark And Beasley to Milledgeville School
Sheriff Stothard Deal took Robert Clark and Buel Beasley to Milledgeville yesterday where they were admitted to the Georgia Training School for Boys.
After pleading guilty to charges of stealing two automobiles here, Judge J. L. Renfro sentenced them to the school for five years, until they are 21 years old. They are now near 16 years of age.
The two youths have been in the Bulloch county jail since the first week in February, where they were placed following their trial in the Candler Superior Court in which they pled guilty to five indictments of burglary in Metter.

On Tuesday of last week they escaped from the jail here but were caught and returned to confinement after only 40 minutes of freedom.

Sheriff's Office Destroys Another Still in Bulloch
The sheriff's office added another moonshine still to their credit on Sunday of last week when they found and destroyed 150-gallon still on Black Creek about two miles from where Halcombe Burns was murdered.

Joe Bachelor, Billiard Expert to Give Exhibition Here
John Darley announced this week that his new billiard room is sponsoring one of the nation's top flight billiard players, Joe Bachelor, of Brooklyn, N. Y. Bachelor is a specialist in trick and fancy billiard shots. He will give an exhibition at Mr. Darley's billiard room at 18 South Main Street on Monday afternoon, February 23 at 5:00 o'clock. The public is invited to see this unique type of exhibition.

Delmas Rushing Family Honored
The Delmas Rushing family of Bulloch county was declared a Master Farm Family in appropriate ceremonies in Atlanta today.
The Master Farm Family award is the highest award that can be bestowed on a Georgia farm family. It was won by Delmas Rushing and his family on a record of production, high standard of living, and cooperation in making his community and county a better place in which to live.
Mr. Rushing comes from a long line of Rushings who have good farming records.
The Rushing family's farm is made up of some 300 acres of land. He moves 20 to 40 cows each year, 150 to 200 hogs, grows around a half of cotton to the acre and produces above 1,200 pounds of tobacco and peanuts per acre.
Mr. Rushing is the local co-op president, on the Bulloch County Hospital board, president of his local farm bureau, a leader in the county singing association, and takes an active part in many other local organizations.
Mrs. Rushing is the county president of the Associated Women of the Farm Bureau, she was president of the first home demonstration club in the county, a past home demonstration club president, and a leader in the activities of her church.
Delmas Rushing, Jr., is now a sophomore at Abraham Baldwin College, was a leader in major school activities while in high school. He specialized in 4-H club work in which he won Georgia's highest award in leadership and a trip to the national camp in Washington.
The Progressive Farmer and the Georgia Extension Service selected seven of Georgia's better farmers on whom they bestow this award in Atlanta today. The group assembled at the Henry Grady at noon and will be formally presented at a banquet to be given at the University System of Georgia will be the speaker.
Four other Bulloch county families have been winners in this high farm award. One other Georgia county, Hart, has had three and one county, Texas has three. The W. H. Smith family was named in 1928. In the

Preston Asks For More Fuel Oil For Farming Tractors In Georgia
The real reason for the shortage of (of fuel oil) is the increased demand for oil products," Congressman Prince H. Preston, Jr., told the House of Representatives in Washington on Thursday, February 9.
To back up his statement, Congressman Preston compared the present demand with that of 1941, the biggest pre-war year, stating that the demand was 20,000,000-000 gallons more than the biggest pre-war year. (For his other figures see the chart on this page.)
In his speech, Representative Preston called the House's attention to the serious shortage of tractor fuel oil in Georgia. He pointed out that farming operations commence much earlier than in other sections of the United States and requested the Congressional Committee investigating the fuel oil shortage to request the industry to increase the allotment for Georgia, in view of the early farming season.

The real reason for the shortage of oil products is the increased demand for those products. The following chart will reveal interesting figures in this connection:

District F. B. Meets Here

More than 300 farmers and farm leaders of the First District Farm Bureau met here Tuesday of this week for the first district-wide meeting in the state. Bulloch county accounted for more than 35 members.
Following the meeting of the farm leaders, Mr. W. H. Smith, Jr., a member of the board of directors of the Georgia Farm Bureau, stated, "Membership in the Farm Bureau is of such vital importance to the future of agriculture that it should demand the interest of every farmer in the First District."
Continuing, he emphasized the importance of membership in the Farm Bureau. His statement was endorsed by A. M. Norman, of Dover, also a member of the state board of directors.
Mr. Bob Mikell, of the Bulloch county organization, told members how the county and community organizations operated in Bulloch county and the emphasis each community club puts upon active participation. He read a resolution adopted by the county organization outlining its 1948 aims and objectives. He suggested that they
