BRILLIANT VALENTINE SOCIAL GIVEN HONORING BRIDE AND GROOM-ELECT

Miss Frieda Gernant honored Miss Addie Dunaway and Mr. Jack Averitt with a Valentine party Saturday night. Miss Betty McLemore was in charge of the hand-painted guest register which the guests signed and at which time each one guessed the number of candy hearts in a ribbon-and-face trimmed container.

Mrs. Howell Sewell seated the guests in small groups suitable for informal games. Miss Gernant passed out red contest folders with red pencils attached. She directed a slogan contest and each guest wrote down the product identifying each slogan. Following this, everyone wrote an original verse in honor of the bride and groom-elect. These were well interpreted by Mrs. Ronald Nell, Miss Julie Turner and Mrs. Bernard Morris displayed "Addie's Going-away Bag" and "Jack's Going-away Bag", each of which contained twenty articles which the guests attempted to guess.

Mrs. Curtis Lane won a prize-shaped box of candy as the high scorer in the contests. The hostess' gift to Miss Dunaway was a sterling silver bread and butter plate in her chosen pattern.

The Queen and King of Hearts led the procession into the dining room. The table was covered with a lovely madiera cloth. The centerpiece, designed by Miss Gernant, consisted of a large, upright, heart-shaped valentine, which had a photograph of the Queen and King and was elaborately trimmed in gold and red and white lace. This was flanked by Mrs. Grover Brannen wearing a dresser set for high score; for low score, Mrs. J. H. Brett was given. L. Akins, winning cut, received red carnations.

Other players were Mrs. Mathew McCroan, Mrs. Jim Moore, Mrs. Grady Attaway, Mrs. Percy Averitt, Mrs. Jack Carlton, Mrs. D. L. Davis, Mrs. Perry Kennedy, Mrs. Jack Murray and Mrs. Hugh F. Arnold. Mrs. Winton Dixon assisted Mrs. Brannen in serving.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sanders, of Augusta spent the week end with Mrs. Sanders' mother, Mrs. J. P. Foy.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Pitt visited his parents in Savannah Sunday. Sgt. Orren Brannen, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Brannen, will arrive in Statesboro early this week after receiving his discharge from the Marine paratroops.

The Proper Solution To The Clark Hill Controversy

THE HERALD BELIEVES a happy solution of the Clark Hill controversy has been proposed by Rep. George A. Dondoro, of Michigan, in a bill (H.R. 3826) now pending in Congress. Under the Dondoro bill, the Army Engineers would acquire the reservoir lands and construct the hydroelectric dam, with ownership vested in the U. S. Government. The Savannah River Electric Company, an affiliate of the Georgia Power Company, would construct and own the power house and distribute the power over the lines of associated companies to consumers in Georgia and adjacent states.

In the never-ending debate over the relative merits of public as opposed to private ownership of the electrical facilities, too often the partisans lose sight of the fact that the purpose of either method should be to provide the most dependable service to the greatest possible number of people at the lowest possible cost. Ample power at reasonable rates for home and farm, for business and industry is the real goal.

Congratulations, Rushing Family

A DISTINCT HONOR was bestowed on a Bulloch county family and Bulloch county last week in Atlanta. The Delmas Rushing family was declared a Master Farm Family, which is the highest award that can be bestowed on a Georgia farm family. It was won by the Delmas Rushing family on a record of production, high standard of living, and cooperation in making his community a better place in which to live.

A Strong Bank In A Strong Community

THEY'VE GOT WHAT IT TAKES down in Brooklet, Georgia! When the citizens of Brooklet and citizens of the community make up their minds to do something, they do it! The people of Brooklet wanted a bank in their city. They got it. Last week they opened their bank amid a flurry of congratulations, messages

Did You Forget The Library?

Take time out and read this letter. You may have received one or you may not have received one. It was mailed out several weeks ago. Many answered it together with a contribution to the Library. Did you?

Read and re-read it. Then visualize what it means to this community. And make your contribution as liberal as you can. "Dear Mr. ..."

"We believe you are interested in everything that means progress for our county and its people. Bulloch county has many assets in which we all take a great pride—our churches, our fine schools, our culture, our rich farming lands, and our PUBLIC LIBRARY.

"Our Library has made great progress since it was organized twelve years ago. Through our Parkmobile its influence is being felt over the entire county. "During the years since its organization, rent-free quarters have been furnished. Now, for continued growth, more adequate quarters are necessary.

"For several years your Library board members have been trying to accumulate enough funds for a Library building. At present we have a suitable lot that was given to us. We have $20,000 in cash and bonds. However, it is going to take an additional $20,000 to build the type of library that Bulloch county needs and deserves.

More Hybrid Corn Will Be Planted

Indications are that more hybrid corn will be planted in Bulloch county this year than ever before. Local seed dealers report not only more bushels of hybrids will be planted, but also more varieties will be tried.

Griffith's hybrid, was known as Lowenthal, will be planted extensively for early hog feed. It matures around July 1 and can be grazed off before another crop comes on. Hogs don't care for it when dry, which means that only enclosed, self-addressed envelope and mail us a check? Make your contribution as liberal as you can. Every dollar you give is the best investment you can make for our present generation and for our future generations.

"Sincerely,
"MRS. ALFRED DORMAN, Chmn., Building Committee."

The Almanac Says the Weather This Week On ...

TODAY, February 26, will be cold, windy; near freezing.
FRIDAY, February 27, will be cold and clear.
SATURDAY, February 28, will be fair and warmer.
SUNDAY, February 29, will be fair and pleasant.
MONDAY, March 1, will be windy and cold.
TUESDAY, March 2, will be cool and clear.
WEDNESDAY, March 3, will be fair.

... But Don't Blame Us If the Almanac Is Wrong

He only is great who has the habits of greatness; who, after performing what none in ten thousand could accomplish, passes on like Samson, and "tells neither father nor mother of it."—Lavater.
It was a great day for us when we were in high school. It's a great day for those who are in high school today.
Remember how we became excited over "Who's Who's?" For as long as the senior class at Statesboro has been publishing the Criterion there has been "Who's Who's?" Who's the prettiest? Who's the most intellectual? Recently, the 1948 seniors asked these same questions, and here are the answers: Louise Simmons, according to his schoolmates, is "Mr. S.H.S." Charlotte Clements is "Miss S.H.S." And it's not unusual that "Miss S.H.S." should be the "Prettiest Girl" and it's not unusual that "Mr. S.H.S." is the "Best Looking Boy."

IT DIDN'T HAPPEN HERE!

EDITOR'S NOTE: This column is designed to create dissatisfaction with the present status of Statesboro. It will consist of stories of what other communities like ours are doing, with the hope that Statesboro might realize that we must be continually alert to maintain the classification of "A Progressive City."

This week our "It Didn't Happen Here" column presents a new slant. We have been depending on the newspapers from other sections of the state for our material. Last week we received a letter from a man who travels over all Southeast Georgia. He is familiar with our column. He writes of a community which doesn't talk much but does things. Here is his letter:

"Mr. Coleman,
"Bulloch Herald,
"Statesboro, Ga.
"Mr. McClung, local manager (of the Georgia Power Company at Wadley), just told me a story that I thought might fit into your column. "It Didn't Happen Here." Seems as though the people of Wadley decided there was a need for a gymnasium here, and, with that in mind, called a mass meeting of the people ten days ago.

"After the talk, the mayor, Mr. Roy Foster, said if they wanted one he would donate the site and a considerable sum of money. Others, taking a cue from that, pledged either money, services or material, and at the end of the meeting they had pledged half on the amount needed. The lumber interests pledged the lumber needed, another the concrete foundation, another the wiring supplies, etc. Construction will be commenced within thirty days. Cost of the gymnasium will be between $15,000 and $20,000.

Two Negro Youths Practice Farming in Bulloch County

During this month two Negro youths, Alton W. Spells and Robert Henley, seniors at the Georgia State College studying agriculture, are doing practice work in Bulloch county under County Agent Martin.

In making a report of their work here, Spells, speaking for himself and Henley, says: "Our first study of the county was with some of the farm organizations which include the various community 4-H clubs and Farm Bureau organizations. We find that there are 24 4-H clubs and six farm clubs. These have a membership of 958 boys and girls and 700 men and women. We feel the farm people of this county are to be commended for the splendid spirit, interest and cooperation that exists within these organizations. Here, these members seem to enjoy taking advantage of the opportunity to broaden their knowledge in the pursuits of agriculture, in moral character, and in the higher qualities of citizenship.

"We wish to thank the county officials, state officials, and the county at large for all that is offered us in preparing us for our work. We will be here until March 1, and we pledge our untiring efforts in serving in any capacity you might need us."

From where I sit... by Joe Marshall

Andy's Careful of the Company He Keeps! When Andy Botkin, owner of the Garden Tavern, heard that a place in Avon County sold beer after hours, he was quick to report it to the Brewer's Foundation. Folks might figure it was none of Andy's business—but not Andy! He wants all taverns selling beer to be a credit to the business that he's chosen and believes in. Needless to say, the brewers investigated Andy's complaint. And when they found that he was right, they named the offending tavern to get back in line, or answer to the proper authorities. And that got the desired results—but quick!

From where I sit, it's anybody's business—the kind of company he keeps. That's why the Brewer's Foundation of "Self Regulation" by which they guard against malpractice among places selling beer—has such wholehearted support from tavern keepers themselves, as well as from folks who like to enjoy beer in pleasant company.

Last Wednesday night, February 18, in East Hall on the Georgia Teachers College campus, the Faculty Dames entertained the Veterans' Wives Club with a most enjoyable informal party.

All's Fair

I'm on the spot—not the one marked "X"—But all comfy in a room clearly marked "C-4." I know doctors and nurses I manage to vex. But that's not good tactics I've been told before. Just take things as they come, and never complain—For there's so many others who have more pain. Now, by this time you know "B.C.H." is my address. And I like it here, I must confess. Supt. Joe Brannen gets around with dignity and calm; Is everywhere at once and wins the palm. For her gentle presence insures a sense of well-being—And some of these nurses are really worth seeing.

NOW STAY WHERE YOU ARE boys for most of them are Mrs. S-and-So. Frinstance, there is dainty Jean Coleman, who like Anne Attaway's twin than June, Jean was nurse at T.C. last year, but she really rates at B.C.H. Her husband is Don Coleman, of Fitzgerald, and is attending T.C. Another luscious brunette, quite young and attractive, is an X-ray technician. She is Mary Lou Newberry, of Augusta. Mary Lou is charming in uniform, but let her do an off-shoulder, full-skirted formal and the stag line would soon have her dizzy on the dance floor. By the way, she adores dancing.

Escorted by Mrs. Albert Morris, of Brooklet, I visited the nursery, where I met Baby Bowen (remember his arrival on a stretcher, much to the dismay of Jake Smith?) Baby Bowen is known out here as Pee Wee. He enjoys the privacy of an incubator and Mrs. Morris announced proudly that he had gained a whole pound, his present weight being 4 pounds and 3 ounces. The adorable infants had one thing in common when I saw them. Their fists were clenched tightly as if already they knew they were wharred into a fighting world.

I'VE ABOUT DECIDED it's really educational to spend some time in a hospital at intervals. When I was here before, teenagers had not become extinct. Now I have learned quickly that most medicine comes in ampules and is measured in c.c.'s and is administered in vicious-looking needles slightly resembling Bob Burns' bazooka. And girls that are tiny and apparently harmless stab you in the back and you realize that the sweet young thing probably pulled wings off flies and caught mice and chopped off their tails during their play period.

Red Cross Drive To Begin Tuesday Morning To Raise $4,500 Quota

County Red Cross leaders will open "Red Cross Week" Tuesday with a campaign drive headed by Chairman Howard Christian to fill Bulloch's quota of $4,500.

Mayor Gilbert Cone has proclaimed March 8-13 as official "Red Cross Week" in Statesboro. The drive gets underway Tuesday morning when the county committee meets at the annual "kick-off" breakfast at the Norris Hotel.

Following the breakfast, the "teams" will begin their drive in the business sections of the city.

The residential section of Statesboro will be organized with Mrs. E. L. Barnes and Mrs. B. H. Ramsey as chairmen.

The rural areas of the county will be organized according to farm communities and an opportunity will be given every family in the county to have a part in the drive.

Last year $4,691.89 were spent in Bulloch county for aiding needy families, with a large part being spent on hospitalization of indigent people in the county.

The local organization of the Red Cross consists of a full-time Red Cross worker, Mrs. Joe Fletcher, B. H. Ramsey, chairman, and C. B. McAllister, treasurer.

In WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto signed my name officially and caused the Seal of the City of Statesboro to be affixed, this 1st day of March, 1948.

Signed: J. GILBERT CONE, Mayor.

Rites Held For W. C. Akins

Mrs. Webb C. Akins, 78, well-known Bulloch county farmer and merchant, died suddenly at his home near Statesboro on Tuesday of this week.

A native of Bulloch county, he was the son of the late Robert and Fannie Akins. For many years he was an outstanding merchant in Statesboro, operating W. C. Akins and Son, hardware business. The business for the past few years has been operated by his son, E. L. Akins. For 44 years he was a representative of the Southern States Fertilizer Company.

He is survived by his wife; two daughters, Mrs. Boyce Deal of Statesboro, and Mrs. Durwood Fulford of Swainsboro; E. L. Akins, son of Robert E. Akins, both of Statesboro; one brother, Robert W. Akins of Statesboro; one sister, Mrs. Henry A. Brown of Baxley; five grandchildren, Lowell Akins and Buckley Akins of Statesboro, Durwood Fulford of Swainsboro, and Beverly Fulford of Swainsboro.

Dorita-Valero To Dance March 10

Dorita and Valero, colorful Spanish dance team, will be seen here Wednesday evening, March 10, at 8:30 in the Teachers College auditorium.

They are presented as the fourth attraction of the Civic College Art Series.

Although their programs contain many dances of the traditional classic Spanish school, their interpretation of Flamenco dancing is so vivid that when they appeared in Havana critics called them "the handsomest young Spanish Flamenco team we have ever seen."

Flamenco dancing originated with the gypsies who lived in Spain, particularly in Andalusia, in the Middle Ages, and is a particular dance form by itself. All dance elements enter into it—the feet, the head, the waist and a clearly defined rhythm. The "hey" sound of rapid hand clapping, the snapping of fingers, and the staccato stamp of heels takes the place of castanets, and accents the tempo of the dance.

With its whirling, whip-like movements it is tempestuous and dynamic, a dance full of contradictions, at one moment abandon and violence, the next full of grace and tenderness.

The inspired interpretation and perfect technique of Dorita and Valero raise Flamenco dancing to the realm of high art. Dorita, who learned to play the guitar with her grandmother as a child in her native Valencia, varies her dancing with guitar accompaniments for Valero's solo numbers.

Buy Easter Seals For Crippled Kids

The sale of Easter Seals for the benefit of Georgia's crippled children, sponsored by the Crippled Children League of Georgia, has begun in Bulloch county. Kermit K. Carr, local chairman for the campaign here, announced today.

The funds raised by the sale of the Easter Seals are used to maintain a hospital and defray the expense of clinics operated throughout the state and is sponsored through the Crippled Children League by the various Elks Clubs in the state.

The local chairman explained that "Aidmore" is the hospital maintained in Atlanta for the treatment of Georgia's crippled and handicapped children, and pointed out that 78 per cent of all funds received by the League is used in the actual care and treatment of the children. Only the remaining small per cent is used for the general repair and maintenance of hospital facilities, and small administrative costs.

In addition to operating Aidmore, a convalescent hospital that is approved by the American Medical Association, the League provides direct medical care for crippled children throughout the state through the Crippled Children League of Georgia.
