I Want To Die While You Love Me

I want to die while you love me,
While yet you hold me fair,
While laughter lies upon my lips
And lights are in my hair.

I want to die while you love me,
I could not bear to see,
The glory of this perfect day,
Grow dim—or cease to be.

I want to die while you love me,
Oh! who would care to live
'Till love has nothing more to ask,
And nothing more to give.

I want to die while you love me,
And bear to that still bed
Your kisses, turbulent, unspent,
To warm me when I'm dead.

To Our Friends . . .

In this, our hour of sadness and grief, we wish to acknowledge with deepest gratitude the out pouring of sympathy and consolation we have received from our friends throughout the community, you have made our weight of sadness much easier to bear and have shown us that friends are always nearby.
