Local Draft Board Sends Four to Army

Edgar H. Wynn, chairman of the Bulloch County Selective Service Board, announced today two white registrants and two negro registrants from Bulloch County had been inducted into the U. S. Army under the Selective Service Act.

On December 30, 1948, Russell Hardy Everett Jr., of Statesboro, and Clifford H. Pryor, of Ogeechee, were the first of the Bulloch county registrants to be called for service.

The two negroes are Henry Lincoln Simmons, of Brooklet, and David Chance, of Statesboro.

BROOKLET BANK OFFICERS RE-ELECTED FOR 1949

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Farmers and Merchants' Bank of Brooklet Wednesday evening, December 29, the following directors were re-elected: J. H. Wyatt, H. M. Robertson, F. A. Akins, T. E. Daves, J. L. Minick and W. O. Denmark. T. E. Daves was renamed president, H. M. Robertson executive vice president and cashier, and Mrs. Thelma Robertson, assistant cashier.

Dividend checks were presented to stockholders and a turkey supper was served at the meeting.

Mr. Robertson, cashier, gave a summary of the bank's operations since its opening on February 17, 1948.

New Seats in S.H.S. Gym

By MELBA PROSSER

When the Statesboro High Blue Devils basketball team plays on its home court citizens of Statesboro may watch them in a completely remodeled gymnasium.

Six rows of new seats have been installed on the east side of the building to match the seats on the west side. A timekeeper's and scorer's box has been included, near the center of the court sidelines.

A heating system is being installed to insure comfort for the patrons of the school when they attend games.

Dressing rooms and locker space are under the new seats.

When completed the gym here will be one of the best in the district.

The Junior Red Cross Reports Activities For Latter Months of 1948

The Junior Red Cross of Bulloch county, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Jack Wynn, reported a final quarter of 1948 filled with activity.

In October a Junior Red Cross Council was organized in the Statesboro High School and the Statesboro Elementary School, being the first such organization in the county, and Miss Lila Blitch, of the Atlanta office, came to Statesboro to get the organization started. The Bulloch Chapter Junior Red Cross during October had charge of a group meeting of teachers-sponsors of the First District in a meeting held at Teachers College.

During the month of November all students of every school in the county enrolled in the Junior Red Cross.

In December the Juniors of Statesboro and the College Laboratory School made nut and were sent to the Veterans Hospital, Dublin, and all the county schools packed gift boxes to be sent to schools overseas.

Teacher-sponsors for the Junior Red Cross in Bulloch county are: Statesboro, Miss Leta Gay and Mrs. Carene Deal; Laboratory, Miss Della Jernigan and Miss Vera Richardson; Portal, Miss Bertha Scarborough and Mrs. Harold Hendrix; Register, Mrs. Elijah Akins; Warnock, Mrs. Hershell; Elsa, Mrs. Eloise Cook; Stillson, Mrs. Evelyn Wendzel; Leefield, Miss Ruth Lee; Brooklet, Mrs. Aubrey Brown; West Side, Mrs. Edgar Parrish; Nevils, no sponsor.

The Blue Devils' home schedule includes: Swainsboro, tomorrow night; Lab School at T.C., January 20; Millen, January 21; Brooklet, January 25; Register, January 27; Waynesboro, January 28; Springfield, February, 3 and Claxton, February 10.

Blue Devils Get Letters, Sweaters

By BETTY JEAN HART

"Cheers for the Blue and White" had a particular lusty swing Monday morning as the Statesboro High School student body sang in assembly.

The district co-champion Blue Devils were awarded football letters and sweaters on which are the symbols of the Blue Devil football team.

Coch James Hall gave a brief review of the season's seven victories and one district defeat. They won the following games: ECI, 44 to 0; Baxley 25 to 0; Sylvania, 12 to 7; Metter, 31 to 0; Millen, 31 to 0; Swainsboro, 13 to 12; and Richmond Academy "B" (out of district) 18 to 6. They lost to Vidalia 13 to 12.

Team members receiving their letters were Fuller Hunnicutt and Ashton Cassidy, co-captains; Emory Nessmith, Bobby Olliff, Laurie Price, Jack Upchurch, Harold DeLoach, C. P. Claxton, Tommy Blitch, Charles Sims, Talmadge Rushing, Howard Allen, Tommy Powell, Oscar Hendrix, Charles Hunnicutt, Jimmy Belcher, Dight Spence, Joe Ben Cassidy, and Manager Ulman Swinson.

The Statesboro team shares the district honors with the Glennville team which won seven district games and lost one. The Blue Devils challenged the Glennville team but the district association ruled that such a game could not be played. Each team received a trophy.

The senior cheerleaders, Patsy Odum, Sue Simmons and Ann Nevils, were awarded large letters "S" and miniature megaphones. Cheerleaders Jackie Zetterower, Jean Evans and Melba Prosser received letters.

Congressman and Mrs. Prince Preston and daughters, Anne and Kay left Friday morning for their home in Washington, D. C.

Red Caps Win Legion Trophy

The Red Caps, powerful football team of the City Junior League, defeated the Cardinals 13 to 6 on New Year's Day in the first Turpentine Bowl game to win the American Legion trophy and the league championship.

Red Cap Robert Waters, playing halfback, scored in the first period with Jimmy Jones adding the extra point over the line. The underdog Cardinals scored in the second frame when Gene Newton passed 15 yards to L. M. Nessmith who had moved into the end zone to receive the ball and score. The try for the extra point failed and the score at the half was 7 to 6 in favor of the Red Caps.

In the third quarter seat-back Jimmy Jones of the Red Caps hit pay dirt and ran the score up to 13 points. The try for extra point failed and the game ended 13 to 6, with the Red Caps as league champions.

The winners were champions for the entire season. Their position at the top of the league was never seriously challenged.

In the playoff the Red Caps ran into trouble and, with only one point to spare, nosed out the second place Bull Dogs to win the right to play in the finals for the American Legion trophy on New Year's Day.

Ceremonies at which the trophy will be awarded is to be arranged later.

Jaycees Back to Work on 'Hole In The Ground' Ask No Help

According to Emory Allen, president of the Statesboro Junior Chamber of Commerce, members of that organization are going to do something about "That Hole in the Ground."

He stated that more than $2,000 worth of materials are now on hand and is being put on the site of the swimming pool in Memorial Park.

"We are not asking anybody to help us this time," he said. "We are going to do it right by ourselves. No one is going to contribute one dime."

The work to be done consists of pouring the concrete slab over the housing for the filter system, moving dirt, etc.

With this work completed, the swimming pool will be ready for use except for the filter system.

There are fifty members of this young men's civic organization.

W.H. Aldred Says 'Watch Statesboro Climb in '49'

President Walter Aldred, who took over the helm of the Statesboro Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday, is all pepped up over activity in Statesboro in 1949 and has already launched a program for the organization for the new year.

County Schools Now Debt-Free

With the New Year the Bulloch County Board of Education is out of debt and has a balance of $25,353.26 in the bank.

The statement is made by W. E. McElveen, retiring superintendent of the Bulloch County Schools.

Mr. McElveen in making his statement pointed out that the county school board has to anticipate certain expenditures, including about $5,000, in a revolving fund to operate the veterans training courses, carried on by 11 white veterans and three negro veterans in vocational agriculture, which comes under the county school system.

According to Mr. McElveen, the county school board has not had to borrow money in the past 12 months.

The county now owns 40 school buses valued at $48,000, 41 steel bus bodies valued at $45,000, and a school bus garage with equipment and supplies valued at $10,000, for a total valuation of $103,000.

The ten schools in the county (excluding the Statesboro High School) have a balance of $31,000 due on bond accounts, and one school has an outstanding loan of $18,000. These ten schools have balances in banks totaling $29,464.52.

A breakdown of the balances due on bond accounts and bank balances are as follows: Brooklet, $4,000 at 6 percent, with last bond to mature in 1952, with $4,339.31 in Farmers and Merchants Bank of Brooklet; Elsa, no bonds and $119.59 in Sea Island Bank; Lenmark, $500 at 6 percent, with last bond to mature in 1949, with $651.32 in the Sea Island Bank; Leefield, $1,500 at 6 percent, last bond to mature in 1951, with $1,714.75 in Farmers and Merchants Bank of Brooklet; Middleground, $5,000 at 6 percent, last bond to mature in 1958, with $3,916.55 in Sea Island Bank; Nevils, $8,000, some at 6 percent and some at 4 percent, with last to mature in 1956, with $5,523.68 in Sea Island Bank; Portal, $12,000 at 6 percent and 4 percent and loan of $18,000 at Bulloch County Bank, last bond maturing in 1961, with $2,903.21 in Sea Island Bank; Register, $3,500 at 6 percent and 4 percent, last to mature in 1950, with $2,551.46 in the Sea Island Bank; Stilson, $5,500 at 5 percent, last to mature in 1959, with $5,441.87 in Farmers and Merchants Bank of Brooklet; West Side, $2,000 at 6 percent, maturing in 1950, with $2,368.08 in Sea Island Bank.

The county school board carries $270,000 worth of insurance

The new Chamber of Commerce president predicted a good year for Bulloch county and Statesboro and coined the expression "Watch Statesboro Climb in '49." Among suggestions made by President Aldred at the first meeting of the year, was a suggestion that both local papers carry a column each week on "It Did Happen in Statesboro," and this is the first such column. Another idea suggested by Mr. Aldred was the recognition of members at each meeting who are contributing to the community's progress from time to time.

President Aldred named L. A. Waters chairman of the 1949 membership committee. Hoke S. Brunson was named to head the finance committee and Robert Donaldson was named to head publicity. Other committees will be named when the membership drive is completed.

An interesting feature of Tuesday's meeting was the ideas suggested by various members for activities during 1949. Among the suggestions were increased advertising for U. S. highways in this section, in an effort to procure a mainline railroad for the community, provide lumination for certain highway signs, sell the Chamber of Commerce to local people, get the name "Statesboro" placed in spots on main streets so that passing tourists will know where they are when they get here.

President Aldred expressed the hope that each of the committees named for the new year would present one or more programs at the regular meeting; so that other members may know what the committees are doing.

Mayor's Court Hears Seven Cases Monday At Regular Session

Mayor's court on Monday mornings is becoming a center of interest for citizens of Statesboro as many gather to hear Mayor Cone hold weekly police court.

On Monday of this week seven cases were heard and one postponed until next Monday. The seven cases were all for disorderly conduct and drinking and fighting.

Mayor Cone levied fines totaling $132.50.

Chief of Police Bill Lott reported only five parking violations during the week and only two accidents involving automobiles. "And both of these were just little fender bumps," he said.

Play to Be Resumed This Week In Morris Trophy Tournament

A. W. Stockdale, of the Forest Heights Country Club golf committee, announced this week that the tournament for the President's Trophy will be resumed this week.

Because of bad weather and the holidays many matches are still unplayed. "We hope to complete the tournament," he said. He urges all participants to complete their matches immediately.

on its school buildings and properties at a cost of $20,692.38 for five years. The premiums were financed at the Bulloch County Bank. A down payment of $5,242.38 was made in February, 1948, and four additional payments of $3,862.50 each are due in 1949, 1950, 1951 and 1952. This five-year plan saved the county approximately the cost of one year's insurance.

Businessmen Asked To Keep Night Light Burning in Businesses

Chief of Police Bill Lott is asking businessmen in the city to leave a small light burning in each place of business at night.

He points out that this is a safety precaution to help members of the city police as they make their nightly rounds checking front and back doors to make sure they are closed and locked. "A light somewhere in the building will help the police determine if all is well," he said.

He also asks that a small card be posted in the front door giving the building owner's name, address, and phone number, so that some member of the firm might be called in case of an emergency. He would like also for this information to be mailed to his office as a permanent file.

"This information is for the protection of our business places," he said.

Director Reports On Recreation

In the third of a series of "Know Your City and County" programs, the Statesboro Rotary Club on Monday heard Max Lockwood, director of the Statesboro Recreation Department, make a report of the first year's progress.

Beginning with the organization of the department last April, Mr. Lockwood reviewed the work done with the young people here. The city council provides the director's salary and the civic organizations of the city accepted the responsibility of the program.

Since its establishment the program has provided recreation for more than 2,400 young people monthly, according to Mr. Lockwood.

The program is set up on a year-round basis, with the winter months the least active "because of inadequate indoor recreational facilities."

The outdoor programs include football, baseball and basketball. "The Community Center (formerly the Woman's Club building) is open six days a week with Saturday devoted principally to the rural children who come to Statesboro," Mr. Lockwood said.

"Our activities include Girl Scouts and the Brownies, a pre-school nursery program, area community clubs, the Knot Hole Club, the American Legion baseball team—all in addition to the football, baseball and basketball activities," he added.

The department works with the East Side Community Club which provides recreational facilities for the youth and adults in that section. Mr. Lockwood stated that they are planning clubs in every area of the city.

"Right now we need badly a 60- by 100-foot concrete surface outdoors to provide for basketball courts, tennis courts, badminton, shuffleboard, and a score of other games," he added. He pointed out that where recreation is so concentrated it is easier to supervise.

He stated that the program has earned state-wide recognition.

All's Fair

IT SEEMS to me that the holidays this year offered everything in the book for the normally inclined, and Santa Claus was generous to the nth degree. On the Bill Brannen's Christmas tree Diane was the sharp-eyed youngster who spied car keys before Mama Lois found them. Sure nuff, a bright red car was in the garage—a complete surprise. Among the really super gifts was a 24-carat gold billfold—gold that would really fold—and inside this lovely gift was a check for 100 dollars. 'Twas Jennings was the lucky recipient, and, of course, Glenn was the donor. Another pill dispenser with the Midas touch placed a bee-yoo-tiful diamond on the third finger, left hand, of a sylvan-like blonde of many talents. She sings, she plays, she cooks, she sews. . . . Now, stay where you are boys—she's wearing that ring! . . . And simply out of this world, the Western part, at any rate, came a hand-hammered brass tray, made in Damascus and coming from far away Iran—a gift from Barney and Eubie Douglas to Donald and Betty Brannen McDougald. The supper tray is so large that they plan to convert it into a table. . . . From Japan for the Roy Beavers from Betty Williams Quinn came a box containing Japanese gifts. A complete set of color books (the printing in Japanese), which "Johnny alone is able to read; a Japanese doll for Ann; a complete tea set in miniature for Jane; and a real silk kerchief for Ruth and a hand-carved letter opener for Roy. . . . Jean Smith Mathews received two breathtaking hand-painted urns for her marital room to matching lamps—and Harry Smith gave Cora a Boston cupboard (the kind antique dealers drool over) for her dining room, which has been remodeled with a picture window overlooking her garden. . . . And dear Eloise, who overlooked the parade and many of the Statesboro folks gathered there Friday evening and enjoyed the spectacular view with them. Later, they went in to Key West and returned to Statesboro Monday night. . . . Eloise Morris is also numbered among those who received lovely furs for Christmas. Hers are marten—sable and marten are related. Eloise had been looking at furs and had really selected over the four or five magnificent furs. Her wishful looking off when Thad handed them over for her Christmas gift. . . . A brilliant social event of the season was the Girl's Cotillion at the Country Club. Against a beautiful Christmas background our matrons and young women were clad in creations that really set papa back and made mama put her gayest foot forward. Evelyn Pound's blonde beauty was accentuated by a white crepe with white necktie, over the front of which beads in many colors in sunburst effect, formed a yoke. The pencil-slim skirt, softly draped at the waist and split in front, was intricately criss-crossed in back. Silver slippers and rhinestone bracelet and ear loops completed the stunning appearance. . . . Jean Mathews was striking looking in forest green faille with wing-like lapels in front and cut very low in back, worn with gold accessories. . . . Jewel Parker's dress evoked admiration—and it was a little number she whipped up for herself. The skirt was of lace and the strapless top was of pink satin, the girle of which extended to form a bustle in the back. Pastel beads topped the low necktie. With this Jeweled wore a purple-throwed tulle. The dance floor of F. C.'s and Jewell's ninth anniversary and the orchid was a gorgeous way of remembering the occasion. . . . Lavinia Floyd's frock was smart and sophisticated—brown marquisette over aqua taffeta with brown marquisette stole. Vari-colored sequins added elegance and the billow skirt had a ruffle around the bottom. . . . But Brannen wore tanned red chiffer. . . . Honey Bowen wore green taffeta and Cecile Brannen's new frock was of blue satin. Ellen Kennedy was gowned in lavender satin. . . .

IN THE YOUNGER SET, Virginia Floyd's frock was smart and sophisticated—brown marquisette over aqua taffeta with brown marquisette stole. Vari-colored sequins added elegance and the billow skirt had a ruffle around the bottom. . . . But Brannen wore tanned red chiffer. . . . Honey Bowen wore green taffeta and Cecile Brannen's new frock was of blue satin. Ellen Kennedy was gowned in lavender satin. . . .

AS CHARLOTTE and WORTH McDUGALD had the Jack Averitts and Lewell Akins and Parrish Blitch drop in to welcome the New Year, a former chiffer, friend of Worth's, Coleman Jackson, and his fiancée, Betty Mann, of Greenville, S. C., and another couple, Marian Leaks and W. I. Strickland 'enroute to the Cloister at Sea Island, had car trouble on Route 80 near town. They called Worth and soon were part of the merry party. They had such a good time in Statesboro that even the Cloister was forgotten. Isabel says Charlotte is a wonderful cook, and it could be that that swanky hotel chef couldn't come up to her refreshments. . . .

BUT PLEASE take time out to be sorry for poor little Agnes Blitch Jr., home from the University for a gala red carpet. Lot she has the mumps—and that means we should feel sorry for Billy Kennedy, too. Dances and parties, and his best girl spending Christmas in the environs of her flower-filled bedroom. . . .

MISS ANNE PRESTON, who was engaged to Lamar Trapnell is announced this week, is the lucky one. Her dad gave her a lot just back of the Rushing home facing Oak street and a 5-room house is going up like magic. I quote Virginia: "Miami says I am building it as close to her kitchen door as I can get it."

ALICE COLEMAN, just back from Fayetteville, where

"DOTTIE HARGROVE"

Beg Pardon, Please, And Thank You Very Much

When our school holidays began on the 18th of December, we packed our jeep full and headed for Waycross to visit Et's brother, Zeb, and his family.

Since we last saw them, there has been an addition to the family—little girl named Sandra, who was three weeks old when we got there, so we had a good time watching the children. Their other offspring, John, is a real boy, four months younger than our Beth—and the two of them sized each other up for about half an hour before they started fighting over the toys.

After we had the young 'uns tucked in that first night, we ate spaghetti. Olga is a genius with that dish because she knows how to use garlic. She even mixed butter in a bowl which had been rubbed with garlic and the poppy seed rolls were wonderful with it.

After the meal, none of us felt right enough for bridge, so we sat around and talked and, somehow, we got on the subject of politeness in our present day world.

Shopping for Christmas had a tiring ordeal for all of us, and it had been made unpleasant at times because of inconsiderate and discourteous salespeople.

El had gotten the idea that women take men's civility 'too much for granted. He said he doesn't mind opening doors for them, but he likes to be thanked—and he gets peeved as all get-out when a woman nonchalantly wheels a buggy full of groceries into the checking line when she should "go foot" and wait her turn like everyone else.

Olga's good disposition had been dealt a terrible blow by a clerk in the post office. She went in, all smiles, one day to get three 3's and "the idiot" back of the bars made her stand there while he sorted some mail and then gave her one 3 and seven cents change.

She told him again that she wanted three 3's and he grudgingly pulled out two more stamps.

ROBBINS—BIRD

ZION, Ill., Jan. 4.—Miss Catherine Muriel Robbins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. W. Robbins, Zion, Ill., became the bride of Ensign Hugh Bird, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Comer Bird, of Port St. Joe, Friday, December 17, 1948, at 8 o'clock at a candle-light ceremony in Zion Chapel.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Elder A. A. Wright. The chapel was beautifully decorated with traditional Christmas colors. Candelabra holding white burning tapers lined both sides of the center aisle and were beautifully set off with holly and pine boughs, tied with red satin ribbons. The altar was decorated with two seven-branched candelabra holding white burning tapers banked on either side with red poinsettias.

A program of music was rendered before the ceremony by Miss Kathel Hire, a cousin of the bride. Immediately before the bride party entered the Miffin Trio sang "Because" and during the ceremony sang "O Promise Me" and "Thanks Be to God."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white slinger satin, featuring peplum on each hip, a softly beaded V-neckline, long pointed sleeves and a full skirt extending into a long train. The bridal veil which was worn by the bride's sister was full length with a long train edged with three rows of chantilly lace and attached to a tiara of net, satin and seed pearls. Her flowers were a shower bouquet of white roses.

Of forest green velvet was the gown worn by the matron of honor, Mrs. L. L. Davis, sister of the bride, with which she wore a

Forestry Notes
By J. W. R. BRITS

Bulloch County Protective Unit

With more hunters in Georgia fields and woods this season than ever before, Louis H. Edmondson, director of "Keep Georgia Green," has issued a special plea to all sportsmen to be extra careful on dry days with their matches and cigarettes so that the number of forest fires may be held to a minimum.

"If smokers, including hunters, start as many fires during the fall season, which closes February 25, as Georgia has had during December, January and February over a five-year period, it would be a record."

Edmondson also urges hunters who build fires on cold days to use water to be sure their fires are "dead out" when they leave their campfire sites.

Slow cooking on low heat keeps bacon and sausage from becoming dry, hard or soiled, and also keeps the fat from reaching the smoking point where it becomes less digestible and changes in flavor.

Join this army and see the World!

HERE'S one army you'll be tickled to death to sign up with—and for a good, long hitch at that.

It's the growing band of happy folks who are stepping out in tidy new 1949 Buicks—and they've got plenty to sound off about.

Mobility for instance. All the life and zing of big Fireball power plants, cradled to velvet smoothness on Hi-Poised engine mountings.

Silk-smooth operation on city street or open highway through the near-magic of Dynaflow Drive,† available now on the Buick SUPER as well as the ROADMASTER.

Easy-going ground coverage from soft coil springs and pillow big tires on oversize rims. And what a wonderful outlook you find here! Through broad, high, full-curving windshields that really let you see.

Through deep, airy side windows that send the whole countryside passing in review—through wide, one-piece rear windows that make parking and backing much easier.

Statistically, the fact is that 4-door Sedans have 22% more glass area than before. Practically, the thing to do is sit in one of these beauties—and note how beautifully you can see the world.

Note, while you're at it, the figures on your dealer's price tags. Even they are part of a mighty happy picture that makes it advisable to get your order in without delay.
