SOCIALS

MISS YOUNG'S BECOMES BRIDE OF P. FRANKLIN JR.

LETTER, Ga. - One of the loveliest ceremonies of the early spring social season took place Friday afternoon, March 18, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. K. S. Youngman when their daughter, Miss Anne Adams Youngman, became the bride of Paul G. Franklin Jr. of Statesboro.

Miss Barbara Franklin, sister of the bridegroom, kept the bride's train. A coterie of young girls and maids assisting in serving were Mrs. Kennedy Dekle, Mrs. Harold Hall, Miss Virginia Bird, Mrs. B. E. Collins, Miss Jean Tillman, Miss Mavis Enggett, Mrs. Jeff Newberry, of Valdosta.

Mr. Franklin and his bride left for a wedding trip to Miami and other Florida points, the latter traveling in a toast gabardine suit with green accessories and a white orchid on the lapel of her coat. They will make their home in Statesboro.

Among out-of-town guests were Misses Ethel and Annie Mae Adams, of Moultrie; Mrs. W. E. Adams, of Thomasboro; Mrs. J. W. Adams, of Macon; Dr. and Mrs. Roy Wandek, of Marianna; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hucklebee, of Reidsville; Dr. and Mrs. Paul G. Franklin, of Statesboro; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Benson, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Brannen, of Register; Mr. and Mrs. Worth McDougald, Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Sorrier, Miss Isabel Sorrier, Gus Sorrier, and Dr. and Mrs. David King of Lumberton, N. C.

Following the rehearsal for the Youngman-Franklin nuptials Thursday evening in Metter, the entire wedding party and out-of-town guests were entertained at a buffet dinner at the home of Mrs. Youngman.

Go Out and Vote Next Tuesday

TUESDAY OF next week—April 5—citizens of Georgia will go to the polls and speak their minds.

For weeks they have been bombarded with all sorts of arguments for and against.

And to the average citizen—the ones who will vote—the whole thing is confusing.

But put in a simple statement—if you vote "I favor . . ." you will be giving the General Assembly a free rein to go ahead with a tax program to raise $15,985,000.

If you vote "I favor . . ." it means that Bulloch County will get a total of $292,401.91 for public schools, local roads, and welfare payments under the expanded services called for under the contingent appropriations.

Of this $292,401.91 the schools of the county will receive approximately $206,008 in additional state money. Rural roads will get approximately $60,103.91, in addition to the county's share of the four million dollars for post road construction.

Payments to old-age and other pensioners will be increased by $25,600.

If you vote "I favor . . ." and enough others in the state vote with you to make up a majority to favor the General Assembly providing more taxes for expanded services, then the Governor will call the legislature into extra session to find ways and means of raising the $15,985,000.

The Georgia Congress of Parents and Teachers favors the program. The Georgia Education Association favors the program. The Georgia Farm Bureau favors the program.

And Governor Talmadge has said:

"We must provide adequate education such as outlined in the comprehensive program sponsored by the Georgia Education Association. Last summer, in my campaign speeches, I said that your program is 'good business for Georgia and should be adopted at the earliest possible time.' We should not be content until every school child in Georgia has (1) a competent teacher; (2) a well designed and equipped classroom; (3) safe transportation; and (4) an adequate supply of text books and other instructional aids. . . . I want to see our children in rural Georgia and in urban centers have just as good educational opportunity as is offered in any other section of our nation."

Organized labor is against the program. Merchants' associations in many Georgia cities are against the program.

But, we all agree that the state needs better schools, better roads, and more and better health and welfare services.

And that we must pay for these services also goes without saying.

How?

That's the responsibility you place upon the General Assembly if you vote "I favor . . ."

We have already stated positively in these columns that we shall vote "I favor . . ."

We believe that the progress of Georgia warrants our stand—and accept all the risk that goes with giving our legislature the authority to raise the $15,985,000.

You may not agree with us. That makes no difference to us. But it is important that you VOTE on April 5.

It Belongs to You . . .

THERE WAS no hand there.

There was no fanfare.

And only a few in the trade knew that here in Statesboro a new industry had been born.

For breakfast this week many of you had sausage.

We guess that not one in Statesboro knew that the sausage you were having with your eggs or hot cakes may have been all Bulloch county sausage.

For it was last week that the Robbins Packing Company, Statesboro, Georgia, placed its products on the market in Statesboro and Southeast Georgia.

It was one day the week before that the Robbins Packing Company completed their first day's slaughter consisting of 121 hogs and 37 cattle.

Several months ago the Statesboro Chamber of Commerce, County Agent Byron Dyer, Livestock Auctioneer F. C. Parker Jr. and Julian Tillman, and citizens of Statesboro sold the idea of establishing a packing plant here to Charles H. Robbins Sr., Charles Robbins Jr., E. L. Swicord, and W. P. Henry, all of Savannah.

These people all came to Statesboro with some 15 to 27 years experience in the packing business.

These people are moving their families here. They are making homes here. They will attend church here, send their children to school here, and spend their earnings here.

These people will give employment to 35 people for average production.

These people have spent a lot of money on a modern packing plant.

And they are giving the consumer a product that is "as good as any on the market," according to several meat market operators here.

Robbins Packing Company trucks will be seen from Brunswick to Augusta.

These people have faith in this community. They are buying products produced in this community.

They are using people of this community in their manufacturing processes.

They are proving that Statesboro can have an industry and it be all Bulloch County.

As shown by a recent survey by the Georgia Power Company, Bulloch county's industrial future is tied up in just this sort of industry—processing of local products.

It now becomes the duty of every citizen in this section to support this enterprise.

It belongs to you and you, and you.

Promote it.

An Idea . . . Plus

THE BEGINNING operations of the Robbins Packing Company here last week focuses attention on another local industry which deserves the cheers and support of every person in the county.

In 1947 young Albert Braswell built a canning plant out on Zetterover avenue. He puts up fresh fruits, pickles,—using fruits and vegetables raised by Bulloch County people.

His production is seasonal, but he told us this week he plans for the future, year-round production.

Young Braswell had a rough time getting in operation. He found hurdles in his way which he had to fight.

Hurdles which should not have been there. At times it seemed that Lady Luck frowned upon him and his efforts.

And the community seemed indifferent. We complain about the loss of young people to other and larger centers.

Half the gossip of society would perish if the books that are truly worth reading were but read.—George Dawson.

High honor is not only gotten and born by pain and danger, but must be nursed by the like, else it vanishes as soon as it appears to the world.—Sir P. Sidney.

A Verse for This Week

THERE is a voice, "a still, small voice" of love. Heard from above, when we seem to abandon our young people as they venture into something that requires community cooperation.

We scream for industry. We are willing to make liberal tax concessions. We offer a score of attractive inducements.

But it seems these concessions and inducements are reserved for those who come from up

Some People Just Won't Stay on the Road

The Editor's Uneasy Chair

Life is wonderful to this little man.

He celebrated his 80th birthday recently, and last Sunday he sang at the Sumter, S. C. Presbyterian Church.

W. B. Sutherland, father of Mr. Sutherland of McEllison store here, has found the formula for living.

He's in love with living. He's loves people.

Be gentle and good and you'll live a long time.

Be interested in things and people.

Say nice things to people. Build them up.

And you'll live a long time . . . And he is living proof of his formula.

He's a small man. And a gentleman.

We've never known a man so gentle. His voice is soft, pleasing; he uses his hands with such grace that they are a part of his conversation. He leaves his sentences floating over an untanned palm.

Dundes, Scotland, is his home . . . and he's as proud of it as can be.

His name, "Willie," fits him to a "T." Letters from friends in Scotland begin, "Dear Willie . . ."

Scotland is written all over him. We're still picking up the "Rs" rolling around from his talking with us Monday morning of this week.

This "Hole In the Ground" represents the unfinished Swimming Pool in Memorial Park.

This Is Your County

(Editor's Note: This is the sixth in the series of articles, "This is Your County," based on facts compiled by the Georgia Power Company in an industrial survey made on Bulloch County last year. This week we discuss the proportion of workers in terms of population as of 1940.)

In the Continental U. S. in 1940 there were 130,482,282 people. Of this number, 45,166,083 were employed or 34.01 per cent. In Georgia there were 3,099,471, with 1,107,412 employed or 35.73 per cent. In Bulloch County there were 25,978 with 8,489 employed or 32.6 per cent.

The employment ratio for Bulloch County is below the state and national average. Of course, this loss of population could result if the lower percentage of employment at that time grew out of lack of opportunity.

Assuming that for 1948 the population is about 24,000 and employed workers is 8,438, the ratio would now be 36.16 per cent which closely approaches the 1940 average, but of these laborers some 383 or 4.5 per cent are seasonally employed.

Here is the per cent of labor force employed industrially in 1940.

State (entire)—White male, 90.8; negro female, 91.7.

State (urban)—White male, 89.7; white female, 87.9; negro male, 81.0; negro female, 89.4.

State (farm)—White male, 93.7; white female, 86.6; negro male, 82.2; negro female, 98.1.

Bulloch County—White males, 93.0; white female, 74.3; negro male, 97.1; negro female, 94.1.

The 1940 population to Bulloch County was made up as follows: Urban, 5,028 (Statesboro only); rural (non farm), 3,276; rural (farm), 17,706. Total—28,010.

For our purposes we consider 1940 population characteristics to be as follows:

Total for the county—26,010. Urban—6,787. Farm—19,223.

For consistency, therefore, with state conditions, employment ought to lie closer to the farm proportions than to those for urban citizens. Based on these 1940 ratios,

Bulloch County employment, to match state averages, should have been 92.7, 86.9, 93.7 and 89.3 per cent respectively for white men and women and for colored men and women.

On this basis colored men were more than amply supplied work opportunities, and since there was such a decided drift toward farm-ville from 1940 to 1945 on the part of negroes the entire negro male force ought to now be well occupied.

If conditions have not changed much, work opportunities for which men and colored women correspond to state averages, but for white women opportunities in 1940 were entirely too low. It appears that through trade and service employment opportunities for white women are now more numerous than when they were in 1940, but in the manufacturers most of the recent opportunities are short season jobs.

Bulloch County, because of the character of its industries, has a fairly high seasonal employment, and this condition should always be considered with particular care in the planning of a better economy for the community.

TB AND CHILDREN

Although tuberculosis is primarily a disease of adults, nearly 1,300 children under five years of age die of it annually.

Many people believe that pulmonary tuberculosis, or TB of the lungs, is the rarest type among small children. Yet of the total number of deaths from tuberculosis in the pre-school group, more than a third are caused directly by the pulmonary form. And the remaining deaths are due to two kinds of tuberculosis that are usually complications of the pulmonary form—tuberculous meningitis, an infection of the covering of the brain by tuberculosis germs, and miliary tuberculosis, which is the result of scattering tuberculous germs throughout all organs of the body through the bloodstream.

A few decades ago, many young children suffered from tuberculosis of the joints and bones, a form of the disease that wasn't always cured but that distorted and crippled its victims, often for life. Children usually got this kind of tuberculosis from drinking raw milk from diseased cows. Now that every state requires the tuberculin testing of cows whose milk is offered for sale, relatively few children suffer from tuberculosis of the bovine type.

Until very recently, with miliary tuberculosis or tuberculous meningitis struck, it was almost invariably fatal. Today, the drug streptomycin is being used with some success in treating these two types of tuberculosis. Streptomycin cannot be considered a cure-all for tuberculosis, but is often an aid in treating TB, particularly these types. It is always used in conjunction with other forms of treatment.

Babies are not born with tuberculosis, and the small child who gets it contracts it from his parents or from others with whom he comes in contact. We all want to protect our children from illness and disease. Any adult would be horrified at the suggestion that he might be giving some child tuberculosis germs. But people can be spreading the disease without knowing that they are doing so.

Tuberculosis has no outward, obvious symptoms when it first strikes, but it is communicable even in the early stage. However, there is a way to detect tuberculosis, even in an early stage—that is, by a chest X-ray that shows damage done to the lungs by tuberculosis.

Every adult should have a periodic chest X-rays as well as a physical examination, to protect his own health, the health of the community, and the health of the children with whom he comes in contact.

ATLANTA IS whooping up its dogwoods again this year.

A two-page spread in the magazine section of one of the papers Sunday glorifies that most beautiful tree.

Atlanta makes a great-to-do about what we here in Statesboro just take for granted.

When one builds a new home here the first tree that graces the front yard is a dogwood.

A drive along South Main street and Zetterover avenue this week would make a citizen of Atlanta wonder why we here in Statesboro don't promote our dogwood.

In a few years College boulevard will be one of the show streets in this section.

Every day hundreds of tourists drive through Statesboro and see only the dogwood along South Main street.

Proper promotion could keep more of these people following the sun here overnight or over the weekend.

It's an idea.

IT'S A boy for the Jack Norries. He will be called "John" . . .

U. Anne Attaway, who is altar boy, is thrilled to know that Beverly Coburn, her former date, will be singing for her wedding at June's wedding.

Mr. Coburn assured Beverly that she had come on the scene of the wedding, and that the college on down, and that Beverly was getting excited for the wedding.

Mr. Coburn and Beverly must be married at school Thursday night.

At 5:30 a.m. in the morning Mrs. Billy Jones gave us a radio message.

BULLOCH COUNTY had a most noted and interesting visitor last week in the person of Dan Gay, of Philadelphia.

Mr. Gay, accompanied by his wife and children and visited his mother, Mrs. John R. Gay, and other relatives in Statesboro.

Mr. Gay is administrator of the Lankeau Hospital in Philadelphia, an endowed hospital, one of the most outstanding in the United States.

While on his visit here Mr. Gay sent a telegram announcing an additional endowment of three million dollars. They are in the process of expanding the facilities. Mr. Gay admits that among his pet dreams is to have a penthouse on top of one of the lovely buildings . . .

WE HAVE our feelings all hurt this week because Alan Loy slipped off and married on Sunday afternoon and never one time let us in on the important event . . .

IN THE selection of Who's Who among Statesboro High school students we want to congratulate Mama Agnes Blitch for having both of her children nominated as Miss S.H.S. and Mr. S.H.S. Agnes Jr. received the coveted honor about two years ago when she graduated and now Daniel Blitch comes up with the title of Mr. S.H.S. in the senior class this year . . .

WE THOUGHT we were really running into something one afternoon last week. We spotted quite a number of cars and two mules and plows in front of the R. W. Mundy's. We thought possibly it might be some dedication ceremony of the lot owned by the La-Fice Collinses. It so happened that Joy Mundy was having a bridge party and her small son, Ward, had parked his stroller in the driveway and the cars had to be left on the street. The mules and plows were part of the plan for a community gardening effort in which Merle Collins says that Joy and Rubie will work a garden and that she and Bud will garden the vegetables . . .

MASKED BANDITS were running loose Friday afternoon and under the influence of so many mystery yarns we traced them to their hide-out in behind the B. V. Collins home. In this group who promptly held me up but didn't do so well on the money side—were Bill Eastland (who wanted to know if I was writing for the Atlanta paper), Robert Franklin, Lehman Franklin, Dennis DeLoach, Pete Johnson, Al McDougald and Bobby Bland . . .

PATSY HAGAN, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Logan Hagan and Shirley Helms, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Helms, though missing spring holidays at home, had the time of their young lives as they sang in Washington, D. C. and New York City and sang over the NBC network from Radio

SOCIETY

ANNE ATTAWAY'S PATH TO ALTAR MARKED BY NUMEROUS PARTIES

Miss Janice Arundel was hostess on Wednesday morning of last week at a coa-cola party complimenting Miss Attaway. The rooms were attractively decorated with potted plants and golden iris. Open-faced sandwiches, cheese puffs, clam dips, pickles, olives, potato chips, cookies, and salted nuts were enjoyed with coa-cola.

Miss Arundel's gift to the bride-elect was a piece of crystal in her pattern.

Mrs. Ray Darley and Miss Lois Stockdale had a lovely bridge party for Miss Attaway Wednesday evening at Pretorius Hall. Double white spica and white iris were used in the decorations. Their gifts to the honoree were two pieces of her crystal. Miss Helen Johnson, with top score, received a double deck of cards; for low, Miss Gwen West received soap, and for cut Mrs. Jack Tillman was given a sachet.

The guests were served cherry pie with whipped cream, and ice cream in ginger ale. Candies and nuts were placed on the tables. Others present were Mrs. Zack Smith, Miss Lila Brady, Mrs. Hal Macon Jr. and Mrs. E. W. Barnes.

Mrs. Glenn Jennings, Mrs. Cliff Bradley and Mrs. Inman Dekle entertained for Miss Attaway Thursday morning at a delightful informal party. Iris and King Alfred daffodils combined beautifully in the decorations. Gingerbread with whipped cream was served with Russian tea and roasted nuts.

Miss Attaway was presented a madra roll cover. In a contest Mrs. Carl Sanders of Augusta was awarded a handpainted bridge bell. Mrs. Sanders was also remembered with a guest towel. Others present were Miss Lois Stockdale, Jane Hodges, Helen

PRE-NUPTIAL PARTIES BEGIN FOR ANNE ATTAWAY

Miss Anne Attaway, whose marriage to Ben Ray Turner will take place April 7 at a quiet home ceremony, is the center of social interest. Many parties have been planned for her.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Bernard Morris entertained for Miss Attaway at her home on Bulloch street. Spring flowers attractively arranged were used in the decorations. Her refreshments were ribbon sandwiches, date nut bars with cream cheese, potato chips, pickles, olives, mints and Russian tea.

A kitchen snowder came as a surprise to the honoree and many useful and lovely gifts were presented to the bride-elect.

Among the guests were Misses Lois Stockdale, Virginia Darden, Hazel Nevils, Barbara Franklin, Inez Stephens; Mesdames Worth McDougald, Billy Tillman, Buddy Barnes, Ray Darley, Bill Peck; Joe Trappnell, Fred Darley, John Godbee, and Inman Fy Jr.

BRIDGE PARTY AT SEWELL HOUSE

On Tuesday evening of last week Miss Lila Brady honored Miss Attaway at a lovely bridge party at Sewell House. Cut flowers and spring flowers were combined in the decorations. Congealed shrimp salad, assorted open-faced sandwiches, hot cinnamon rolls, finger fingers, brownies and Shamrock lemonade were served.

Miss Brady presented her guest with a fork in her silver pattern. At bridge Miss Lois Stockdale won a potted plant for high. For men's high Bernard Morris won a double deck of cards. Miss Attaway won the cut prize, a box of candy. Those present were Miss Attaway, Mr. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tillman, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Morris, Miss Lois Stockdale, Miss Louise Wilson, Herman Deal, Miss Jane Hodges, Eddie Rushing, Miss Trudy Pittman of Atlanta, Remer Brady Jr., Kimball Johnson, Miss Patsy O'Neal of Valdosta, LaGrange, and Miss Lila Brady.

MISS YOUMANS FETED AT SERIES OF PRE-NUPTIAL PARTIES IN MEET

On Saturday, March 5, Mrs. S. C. Kingery, Mrs. J. C. Habbitt and Miss Joyce Kingery entertained for Miss Anne Youmans whose marriage was an important social event of Friday, March 18, at a bridge party.

Mrs. George M. Bird and Miss Virginia Bird complimented Miss Youmans at a bridge party on Saturday, March 12. On March 15 Miss Youmans was the central figure at a bridge party with Mrs. T. H. Kirkland and Mrs. George Lane as hostesses. A luncheon and kitchen shower on Thursday was given by Mrs. L. E. Tillman, Mrs. Kenneth Trappnell, Mrs. Clifford Baggett and Mrs. Carl Eason.

On Wednesday afternoon of last week Mrs. J. L. Neville, Mrs. W. E. Simmons and Mrs. P. V. Stripling entertained at an elaborate tea at the Neville home. A massed arrangement of pink carnations was used on the mirrored mantle in the living room and carnations and gladioli in artistic arrangements were used in other rooms. The table in the dining room was overlaid with a cover of Point de Venise lace. The intricately designed and elaborate centerpiece presented a nuptial scene with the aisles and wedding arch of flowers with the miniature bride and groom at the altar. Wax gardenias framed the exquisite arrangement. The Houghton sideboard was banked with white carnations. Miss Youmans was lovely in a forest green taffeta with a corsage of Tillman roses.

In the line with Miss Youmans were Mrs. K. S. Youmans, Mrs. P. G. Franklin, and Miss Barbara Franklin.

Three hundred guests called during the afternoon.

MRS. R. W. MUNDY HOSTESS AT BRIDGE

On Friday afternoon Mrs. R. W. Mundy was hostess at a lovely bridge party. Daffodils and lilies were used in decorating the attractive home. A dessert course was served.

Prizes at bridge were won by Mrs. Albert Braswell who received aluminum ice bucket and tongs for high; Mrs. Josh Lanier, a lip stick for low; Mrs. George Hitt, a plastic bowl covers for floating, and Mrs. G. C. Coleman Jr., crocheted table mats for cuts.

Others playing were Mrs. Frank Mikell, Mrs. A. B. Green Jr., Mrs. Jim Watson, Mrs. Earl Allen, Mrs. Curtis Lane, Mrs. Gene Curry, Mrs. Frank Hook, and Mrs. Leffice Collins.

Capitalists?...

you don't mean us?

Yes, indeed, we do mean you!
As a Gulf Life policyowner,
You ARE a Capitalist. Here's why:

The money you pay in as premiums on your Gulf Life policy is invested in many business and community enterprises. As a Gulf Life policyowner, you have a share in these investments.

PROTECTION AND SECURITY COME FIRST!

Nearly half a BILLION dollars are now behind the million folks like you who are Gulf Life policyowners. On December 31, 1948, the total was $441,798,285. And to guarantee your insurance plans there were reserves of $45,261,143.51. In addition, Gulf Life, at the end of the year had an additional $6,147,973.56 available.

HOUSING AND BUSINESS BUILDINGS

You have a share, too, in first mortgages on hundreds of homes and businesses. On December 31st $24,249,005.00 of these Gulf Life investments were solving homes and business problems for many, and helping to keep Southeastern progress at a high level. Stores, and other business buildings are included in these "Build the South" investments.

GOVERNMENT FINANCING

Gulf Life has $7,023,214.39 in U. S. government obligations. These bonds facilitate operation of our government, help in the fight to maintain our free enterprise system, and stabilize our economy.

GROUP INSURANCE

In addition to the great strides made by Gulf Life in expanding its service to individual policyowners, last year our Group Insurance Department also made great progress. The number of groups insured increased 125%; group volume showed a gain of 50%; casualty insurance and hospitalization premiums reflected an increase of 67% and overall group premiums increased by 70%. The years ahead will show even larger sales of this important service to employees.

Talmadge Tells Farm Bureau To Stay Strong

Farmers need to build a farm organization strong enough to prevent other groups from setting the price on the things they produce and buy, Governor Herman Talmadge said at the annual Bulloch County Farm Bureau meeting Saturday.

Farmers have all these years had to take whatever they were offered for the products they grew and then in turn had to pay the price demanded of them for the goods necessary to produce these crops, the Governor observed.

He did not say he was going to advise the people how to vote on the referendum April 5, but he said that if they were to vote that election would be his guide in action on these expanded services. He very strongly pointed out the need for these services.

"If they are voted down, the issue will be dead," he declared. But if they are voted in, he pledged the best efforts to those working out the details to get the services in operation.

R. P. Mikell was again named president of the county Farm Bureau. Mr. Mikell served in this capacity for the past three years and has seen the organization school facilities being curtailed before under his leadership to the extent of January 1.

VOLUME IX Junior Baseballs Now Under Way; Bull Dogs Win

Spring is here. The kids have started playing baseball, beating the Pilots baseball team to the gun by more than five games.

In the first game of the season, the Bull Dogs, 1948 trophy winners, defeated the Pilots (junior size) to the score of 14 to 3. Larry Evans pitched for the Bull Dogs, and Underwood and Newton hurled for the Pilots. Evans gave up eight hits and struck out 13.

The Junior Boys League is operated by a board of officials made up of the managers and the captains of each team. The board handles all disputes arising from league play and has full authority in disciplining the team members.

Larry Evans is manager of the Bull Dogs; Robert Stokick, acting manager of the Pilots; Dock Jennings is manager of the Red Caps, and Bobby Donaldson is manager of the Cardinals. Larry Evans is acting chairman of the boys of officials.

A captain may be relieved of his place by a majority of any team members voting, but a manager may be relieved of his duties only by the board of officials, requiring a unanimous vote.

Commerce to Meet Homemakers Attend

Mr. Sydney Katz, band director, and S. H. Sherman, superintendent of the High School, accompanied the group of musicians.

ATTENTION BASEBALL FANS!

When you look at the Ogechee League Baseball Schedule for 1949 on page 7, to read the correct schedule for Statesboro move the "STATESBORO" column at the extreme right down one space which gives the correct dates. For instance, Mett plays "AT STATESBORO" on May 18, June 8, July 1, and July 27; Glennville plays "AT STATESBORO" on June 6, June 30, July 26 and August 1.

Next week we will reprint the schedule in correct form.

Cucumbers to Be Bigger Money Crop

Cucumbers will be a bigger money crop this year, Fred E. Gerald, manager of the Statesboro Pickle Company, thinks.

He stated that some 750 acres had been contracted for the largest acreage ever signed up for the local plant. If weather conditions are favorable, the production should be ample to encourage the owners of the local plant to expand into a processing unit, Mr. Gerald says.

Planting conditions have been ideal and the contractors are getting off to a much better start than in recent years, according to Mr. Gerald. Maybe these conditions will help them get ahead in the many pests that have bothered all crops during the last two years and add to the production of cucumbers as well as other crops.

Kids' Day A Sure Sign Of Spring's Arrival Here

It's a sure sign of spring. When dignified seniors of the Statesboro High School through their dignity to the four winds and play at being kids again.

It was Kids' Day at the high school on April Fool day. There was the time when a large portion of the student body in the high school played "hokey" on April Fool Day. And there was not much could be done about it.

"Kids will be kids" was the explanation.

The 252 war veterans enrolled for the spring quarter also represented a record number for their group, Dr. Henderson disclosed.

F.F.A. Pure Breed Hog Show Set For Thursday, Apr. 14

The Future Farmers of America will hold their second annual Pure Breed Hog Show here Thursday, April 14.

The 1949 show will be held at the Bulloch Stockyards.

Fifty members of the five FFA chapters in Bulloch county are readying a pure-bred gilt for the show. The entrants in the show are growing out these gilts as a part of their project in Vocational Agriculture.

The pig chain was started and the show made possible when the Sears Roebuck and Company foundation gave five pigs to each of the five school chapters. The Bulloch County Bank, the Sea Island Bank, S. W. Lewis, Inc., Bulloch Stockyards, and Statesboro Livestock Commission Company each gave purebred gilts to each of the five chapters.

V. D. Johnson, manager of the Sears Roebuck store in Savannah and L. N. Collier, of Swainsboro will award the prizes at the show.

The show will begin at 10 o'clock Thursday morning. Dr. R. J. Kennedy Sr., president of the Bulloch County Bank, will address the members of the farm youth organization.

Inman Hood is president of the county FFA organization.

Dog Owners Urged to Have Dogs Vaccinated

Two dogs in Bulloch county have been found to be "mad" or rabid this year, according to Dr. W. D. Lundquist. Seven foxes have been found "mad" during the same period.

Two persons have received treatment for rabies during the first three months of the year.

Because of the menace to the health of the community a "Vaccinate Your Dog Week" has been suggested to Georgia dog owners.

This is the season when every dog owner should have his pet immunized against rabies or "hydrophobia," Dr. Lundquist explained.

He stated that vaccination for rabies will prevent the disease in almost every instance. "If all counties would promote county-wide dog vaccination, rabies would almost disappear within two or three years."

He explained that rabies vaccination is not a permanent protection against hydrophobia, but will protect the dog for at least a year. "Immunization should be repeated each spring or early summer," he said.

Eight out of ten rabid dogs examined in the state health department laboratories are strays, he said. "These dogs roam at large and are never vaccinated," he explained. "And they should be impounded or destroyed."

HOUSE TO HOUSE CHECK TO BE MADE TO LOCATE DOGS WITHOUT LICENSE TAGS

Chief of Police Bill Lott stated this week that dog owners will be given until May 1 to have their dogs vaccinated for rabies and to secure their city dog license tag.

On Monday, April 18, the city police will begin a house-to-house check to determine whose dogs have not been properly licensed.

These cases will be made against all dog-owners who have not had their dogs vaccinated and who have not purchased their dog license tag by May 1.

He urges dog-owners to have their dogs vaccinated now. There is a vaccination fee of $1.00, and the dog license tag is 50 cents.

Lucile Purser made a little speech Monday at 3:30 from the Register Baptist Church, with the Rev. C. Everett officiating. Burial was in Lower Lotts Creek cemetery. Barnes Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

The Coastal Empire Chamber of Commerce will meet on Tuesday, April 12, at Claxton, according to J. Gilbert Cone, of Statesboro, president.

The meeting will be held at 10 o'clock p. m. in the American Legion Hall. Luncheon will be served on a Dutch treat basis at $1.50 a plate.

The Senior Class of Portal High School will present the class play, "Hilarity House," at the Portal gymnasium auditorium tomorrow (Friday) evening at 8 o'clock. The play is a farce-comedy relating the shenanigans of a crusty old bachelor who is shocked at

Bulloch County Votes Against New Taxes For Expanded State Services

Bulloch County voters Tuesday expressed their unwillingness to authorize the General Assembly to levy $45,985,000 in additional taxes to improve schools, roads, health, and other state services as set forth in the contingent appropriation bill.

The total vote in the county showed 1,184 against the legislation raising additional taxes for expanded services and 1,068 in favor of the new taxes for the expanded services.

The count by militia districts in the county was as follows:

Rites Held For Mrs. J. E. Doneho Saturday

Mrs. J. E. Doneho, beloved Statesboro woman, died in the local hospital early Friday morning of last week following an illness of several weeks.

Mrs. Doneho, daughter of the late William Olliff and America Kennedy Olliff, pioneer developers of Bulloch County, was widely known throughout the section for her gentleness and kindness.

She has a large family connection. Her first husband, the late Manassas Foy, was an outstanding leader in the community. Until recently she was active in the affairs of the First Baptist Church.

She is survived by her husband, Dr. J. E. Doneho; two sons, Inman M. Foy Sr. of Statesboro and Edwin Doneho of Charleston, S. C.; three daughters, Mrs. Bruce Olliff of Mrs. Frank Simms of Statesboro and Mrs. Clara Morgan of Savannah; two sisters, Mrs. Cecil W. Brannen of Statesboro and Mrs. Eugene K. DeLoach of Columbia, S. C.; 12 grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren, and a niece.

Funerary services were held at the First Baptist Church Saturday afternoon at 3:30, with Rev. C. M. Coakley officiating. Burial was in the East Side Cemetery.
