THE BULLOCH HERALD

DEDICATED TO THE PROGRESS OF STATESBORO AND BULLOCH COUNTY

Statesboro, Georgia, Thursday, June 23, 1949

VOLUME IX

Stated by the Board of Trustees of the Statesboro and Bulloch County

NUMBER 31

MISS GWEN WEST, recently selected "Miss Fashion Plate," is shown above in the "Miss America" parade in Atlanta City last fall in the national "Miss America" contest. Miss West was selected as "Miss Bulloch County" and was then selected as "Miss Georgia" and represented this state in the finals at Atlantic City. She was sponsored in the "Miss America" contest by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Gwen West Is Named 'Miss Fashion Plate'

Gwen West does it again! Statesboro's beautiful "Miss Georgia of 1949" has been elected "Miss Fashion Plate of 1949" at the University of Georgia, Athens.

The contest, being conducted by college sales and research in cooperation with Revlon Products Corporation, New York, was held on nine college campuses throughout the nation.

Selection was based on personal grooming, individuality of dress, poise, personality and popularity, and general appearance.

A board of selection composed of students and faculty members on each campus nominated ten outstanding girls for the title and the entire student body voted for the winner.

Miss West, together with Betty Ross, "Miss Georgia" of North Carolina; Wade Tye, University of Oklahoma; Ruth Greene, Syracuse University; Dawn Dagget, University of Nebraska; Nancy Van Arsdale, Bernard College; Ann McKenzie, Salem College; Joan Strauff, Randolph-Macon Woman's College; and Lynn Sorenson, Northwestern University, has submitted a photograph for judgment by a panel of beauty authorities.

The national winner will be determined within the next week or ten days and will receive a one week vacation trip to New York with fashion, style and make-up training at the Revlon Salon on Fifth Avenue, New York. A whirlwind tour of the city, expense free, plus a chance to become a professional model will be part of the winner's reward.

Miss West is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. West of Statesboro.

One-Act Play Shows How Easy It Is To Register in Bulloch County

The scene: The office of the Bulloch County Registrars in the courthouse.

The characters: Mrs. Homer Simmons and the Editor of the Bulloch Herald.

The time: Tuesday morning, June 21.

The Editor: Good morning, Mrs. Simmons.

Mrs. Simmons: Good morning, Editor.

The Editor: I'd like to register, please.

Mrs. Simmons: Fine. Sit there, please.

When the Editor seated, Mrs. Simmons handed him a card on which was printed a two-line section of the Constitution of the United States.

Mrs. Simmons: Read this, please.

The Editor read the section in about three seconds.

Mrs. Simmons: Now write it on this sheet of paper.

The Editor wrote the section on the paper.

Mrs. Simmons: Good. Now your date of birth.

The Editor gave his birthday.

Mrs. Simmons: Now, your mother's maiden name.

The Editor told her.

Mrs. Simmons: Now the oath.

The registrar read to the Editor the oath as required by the registration act.

Mrs. Simmons: Now if you'll sign your name in these two places, you will be qualified to vote.

The Editor signed with a flourish.

The Editor: Thank you, so long.

Mrs. Simmons: Good bye.

Local Officials Stop 5-County Thievery Ring

George Cone, Eddie Jenkins, Donnie Melvin, Eddie Evans, and Walter Holloway, all Negroes, are in Bulloch County jail, being held for the next Superior Court charged with operating a five-county wholesale grocery theft ring.

Sheriff Stothard said he was notified by the sheriff's office of Emanuel County to hold Cone, Jenkins, and Melvin for them. Sheriff Deal and City Police Bill Lott cooperated in breaking up the ring.

These officers say that four of the men were employed by the H. J. Ellis Company, wholesale grocer, and are charged with larceny of the grocery supplies, largely sugar, over a period of about four months. The fifth man, Evans, is charged with receiving some of the stolen goods.

According to the officers about $1,200 worth of sugar, soap powders, canned goods, and other supplies had been stolen.

These were believed to have been sold at about half price to dealers in Metter, Glenville, Swainsboro, Millen, Statesboro, and other places in Bulloch county. All but one of these dealers are Negroes.

The operations were carried on by extra loadings on delivery trucks and shortages on deliveries to firms serviced by the Company.

The "operators" would add a case of milk or a carton of sugar to their load on almost every trip, later hidden, then sold at about half-price.

Suspicion was first directed at Cone by Henry Ellis. He was questioned and implicated the others.

Camp Is Open To Bulloch County Youth

Rev. George Lovell Jr., pastor of the Statesboro Baptist Church, announced yesterday that arrangements have been made for the youth of Bulloch county to attend the Youth Camp at Crawfordsville this summer.

He states that young people of Bulloch county between the ages of 10 and 16 are eligible to attend the summer camp which begins July 11 and extends through July 17.

Only $125.00 covers the entire cost of the camp, including transportation.

Rev. Lovell asks all those who are interested in going to this camp register at the church office before July 1.

Barnes Funeral Home to Open in New Location

The Barnes Funeral Home will officially open its new building to the public on Saturday, June 23, and Sunday, June 26.

E. L. Barnes and his staff invite citizens of this section to attend the opening and inspect the location on Savannah avenue (the old S. L. Moore home).

The renovated building now provides a larger, less crowded and quieter quarters for the Barnes Funeral Home. It includes a larger chapel, which makes special provision for members of the family during a funeral service held there. Family rooms, rooms where members of bereaved families might rest; display rooms; and a modern preparation room are included in the building.

For over 20 years the Barnes Funeral Home was located on West Main Street.

Mr. E. L. Barnes stated that the public will find a welcome at the new location. There will be organ music Saturday and Sunday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock.

Members of the staff include Mr. Barnes; his son, E. W. Barnes; Foy Wilson; and Miss Margaret Martin.

(See "All's Fair" story for a description of the interior of the renovated building.)

Crete Indians' Remains Found Near Statesboro

For more than 400 years—maybe 500 years—they lay buried out there in Bulloch county. And, on Friday, while cutting a new road off Mr. Cone Hall's place off U. S. Route 80, a bulldozer disturbed their bones.

Mr. Fred Hodges, chairman of the county commissioners, was notified and when he arrived on the scene he found that his roadworkers had disturbed the graves of Indians.

Mr. Hodges, interested in Indian lore in Bulloch county, called Atlanta and was advised to call Mr. Charles H. Fairbanks, National Parks Service, Fort Frederica National Monument, at St. Simons near Brunswick.

Mr. Fairbanks came to Statesboro Monday and began work in the area where the bulldozer had uncovered the bones.

Working in the cut, Mr. Fairbanks and Mr. Hodges found the remains of another Indian in a five-foot bank of dirt on the edge of where the bulldozer had cut.

Working with a tiny trowel and a small whisk broom, Mr. Fairbanks removed the dirt away from the skull and the bones of the Indian to reveal that the skull was in good shape but could not stand handling. The leg and thigh bones were drawn up under the chin of the skull in the position characteristic of the Indian custom of burial.

Mr. Fairbanks states that the Indians found here are the direct ancestors of the Crete Indians of the 1400-1700 era. They were farmers, and planted about the same things we now plant, he said, squash, corn, beans.

Turned up by the bulldozer were several "celts" or stone axes, a pipe, several beads, pottery, a conch shell used to drink casino tea, iron arrow points. These are in Mr. Hodges' office in the courthouse.

Mr. Hodges also has in his office the parts of the Indian which was turned up by the bulldozer. The remains of the jaw show the Indian's teeth in good shape. Several of the bones are identified and parts of the skull.

The other Indian was left for a while as he was found by Mr. Fairbanks and Mr. Hodges.

Fat Stock Show Set for April, '50

The Statesboro fat stock show has been scheduled for April 27 in 1950, J. V. Tillman, manager of the Bulloch Stockyards, announces.

Mr. Tillman stated that representatives from all the shows in Georgia met in Macon last week and worked out a schedule for next year. Such a plan will prevent any conflicts.

The local show will be at Mr. Tillman's barn next year. Several 4-H Club boys and girls have already selected their calves for the show and now have the bulldozer had cut.

Max Lockwood, superintendent of recreation of the Statesboro Recreation Department, announced this week that $500 worth of playground equipment will be installed on the East Side playground.

$500 in Equipment Ready for East Side

Purchase of this equipment is made possible by the local grant of the Woodmen of the World.

Plans were made last week to complete the East Side Community Center. Elmer Webb, Clarence Stepien and Grady McCorkle completed plans this week for the purchase of materials to finish the work on the Community Center building.

These three men were selected at a joint meeting of the City Recreation Board and Council and representatives of the East Side community.

All men of the East Side community are invited to be present next Wednesday, June 23, to resume work on the project. They are asked and urged to bring their tools that they might complete the project designed for the young people of their community. "Be there at 9 a.m." is the word.

New Methodist Pastor Now Here

Announcement is made this week that Rev. John S. Lough, newly appointed pastor of the Statesboro Methodist Church, will arrive during the week to begin his work here.

Rev. Lough will succeed the Rev. Charles A. Jackson Jr., who goes to the Methodist Church in Fitzgerald.

Mr. Lough is the son of the late Rev. R. J. Lough of the North Carolina Conference. He has been a member of the South Georgia Conference for 14 years, and comes here from the Montezuma Church.

He received his academic training in North Carolina and Georgia, and his theological training at the Candler School of Theology, Emory University.

Mr. and Mrs. Lough have two children, Willa Kay, 13, and John Robert, 4.

Methodists To Plan New Parsonage

At a call meeting of the Board of Stewards and the Board of Trustees of the Statesboro Methodist held Tuesday night, the building of a new parsonage was approved.

Plans for raising the funds for the new parsonage will be presented at the church service Sunday morning of this week and the stewards and trustees are anxious that all the church members be present.

Junior Ball League Licks Metter, 12-9

The Statesboro Junior Baseball League All-Stars defeated the Metter Juniors in a 12 to 9 fracas in Metter this week. This is the third time the Statesboro junior-size ballplayers have defeated the boys from Metter.

Larry Evans hurled for the Statesboro boys and Bill Fountain caught.

Saturday morning of this week the Metter Juniors will play the Statesboro Juniors in Statesboro on Cone Field.

In the local league the Bulldogs still hold first place.

SENIOR BOYS LEAGUE

With four wins and one loss the Gold Bricks have a slim grip on first place in the Senior Boys' Baseball League.

This week the Dynamites pushed the Gold Bricks into a 7 to 6 defeat—their first of the season. Harry Swicord pitched the winning game to an extra inning. Brooks Waters racked up a 500 average at the bat for the Dynamites. Bobby Newton pitched for the losing Gold Bricks. Joe Ben Cassey caught. Cassey got three hits out of five trips to the bat.

Duroc Jersey Hog Sale Is August 11

A purebred Duroc Jersey hog sale has been arranged for August 11. J. V. Tillman, manager of the Bulloch Stockyards, announces.

Mr. Tillman met with S. H. Young and J. B. Joiner of Tennesse and County Agent S. G. Mercer of Washington county Wednesday to complete arrangements for the sale. Mr. Young and Mr. Joiner promised Mr. Tillman they would enter some 50 to 60 spring pigs and 12 to 15 bred gilts in the August sale.

These breeders brought a group of hogs here last year that have proven satisfactory. Several Bulloch county hog farmers have been to their farms and bought hogs for a number of years. They know the breeding back of these hogs.

They're Digging In For the Future

IT WAS a great day for the Future Farmers of America, Veteran Farm Trainees, the Georgia Power Company and the State of Georgia.

Seventy-two Georgians received nearly $2,000 in prizes in the Georgia Power Company grazing contest for the Future Farmers of America and Veteran Farm Trainees.

These 72 received cash rewards for their labors. But 11,463 of Georgia's youth took part in and were tremendously benefited, by their participating in the contests.

Nine thousand, eight hundred and twenty-four Veteran Farm Trainees planted 81,357 acres in permanent pastures, 47,500 acres of temporary winter grazing, and 25,098 acres in temporary summer grazing for a total of 154,463 acres in a year-round grazing program.

These veterans, who are making Georgia their home, planted 1,082,801 sprigs of bermuda grass, 259,760 crowns of Kudzu, 201,830 pounds of lespedeza, 1,686,782 pounds of oats, together with hundreds of thousands of pounds of peas, white Dutch clover, blue lupine, rape, millet, vetch, etc.

They used 4,378.5 tons of commercial fertilizer, 7,170.5 tons of compost, together with hundreds of tons of other fertilizers.

One thousand, six hundred and twenty-one Future Farmers of America, representing 180 chapters, completed in the winter grazing contest 5,531 acres for grazing 8,788 animals.

These young farmers planted 303,171 pounds of small grain, 35,343 pounds of crimson clover, 12,831 pounds of fescue, 56,734 pounds of rye grass, together with thousands of pounds of other seeds. They used 640 tons of complete fertilizer, 2,013

GOING HOME

I can't wait. I've always been a home-loving gal and got home at least one a month when I worked at the YMCA in Atlanta and for Eastern Air Lines in Hapeville. Even when with a home of my own, which I love and enjoy, I look forward to little visits with Mother and Daddy and the folks 've known for so long in Thomaston.

This time, I'll have three weeks. All vocational teachers in the state are required to go to summer school at Mercer and Ellis, with his brand new degree from GTC has to go, too.

Mother has already written that we'll have to spend one day in Atlanta and visit Miriam and Hooten Jordan in Milledgeville. And we'll have to spend some time with Miss Maggie Pasley, an old friend who has a farm on the edge of town where I've picked blackberries, milked cows and caught crayfish.

For the Atlanta jaunt, I have packed Beth's leash so we won't have to carry and chase her the entire day. Harnesses on children used to appall me, but that was before I took my full-of-energy child to Savannah. I carried her until my arms ached and didn't have an easy moment when I put her down to give them a rest. So the harness goes along.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Zetterer, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Zetterer and children visited Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Anderson Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Zetterer and Myra Jo; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Zetterer and children were Sunday night supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Zetterer.

The Training Union members of Excelsior Baptist Church were honor guests of Hayville Church last Sunday night and rendered an inspiring program under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Waters.

Mrs. D. W. Bragan and Odel are visiting Mrs. Bonnie Lou Arnold and Mr. Arnold in Jacksonville, Fla.

Mrs. Luibert Whitaker and little daughter have returned to their home in Pennsylvania after a month's visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Whitaker, Mr. and Mrs. W. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Willbur Fordham and other relatives here.

Miss Betty Zetterer and Mr. Franklin spent last week at the Rally Round "THE CHAMP"

IF AT first you don't succeed . . . Statesboro is again a candidate for the Champion Home Town in Georgia for 1949, in the 10,000 to 20,000 class.

And this year Brooklet, our neighbor, is a candidate for the champion home town in Georgia for 1949 in the 1,000 population group.

Last year Statesboro was judged number one town in the Augusta Division in the Georgia Power Company's Champion Home Town Contest. In the judging another town was declared a better Home Town.

Of course everyone in Statesboro knows the judging was in honest and sincere error. For we all know that there is no other town in Georgia to touch Statesboro as a "home town."

WE MISS HIM

The Little Man is gone and we miss him.

You remember our friend W.B. Sutherland, the little Scotsman, 80 years old, of whom we wrote in our column?

Our friend whose visits to our office had become to mean so much to us. His bright eyes, his smiling face, his cheerful conversation, his zest for his living—all had become a part of our week. We looked forward to his visits. And now he's not here anymore.

Recently, on a hot day, the weather got the best of him and he was forced to spend a short time in the hospital—just after he had celebrated his 80th birthday.

In order that a release not occur with the advancing summer he went back to Brockton, Mass., so that he might spend the summer in the coolness of the New England section.

He sort of hated to leave. He was beginning to like the people of Statesboro. He liked meeting people. He often wanted to speak to people on the streets—people he didn't know, but whom he wanted to know and whom he might be friendly. But they were all in too big a hurry to stop and exchange greetings with him.

An accomplished musician—organist and singer—the people of the Presbyterian Church knew him and loved him.

And the people of Statesboro

Plans For Safety

You reckon it'll do any good? Won't hurt to try! So, here 'tis.

Be careful on the Fourth of July weekend!

You are already thinking about making a trip for the Fourth comes on Sunday and it is customary that the holiday be observed on the Monday following, July 5. This makes a long weekend.

Just right for a trip to see the home folks, or to be with the children for a while.

It's wonderful to be able to get in the family car with the youngsters a-whooping and a-hollering and you about to go crazy because they have so much energy and it's hot as a fire popper and they won't be still and the car's crowded.

But you're off on a trip and you plan to have fun!

Now in your planning, make allowances for a safe trip.

There'll be many a car on the highways that weekend.

Some of the drivers will be drunk. Many of the drivers will be reckless. Most of the drivers will be driving fast.

You'll have the State Patrol up and down the roads, but there's not enough of these young men to round so as to make double-sure the section of highway you're on is safe.

You've just got to make your own plans for safety.

Be careful.

Use common sense in your driving.

Last year fourteen people lost their lives during the Fourth of July weekend.

And don't let it happen to you.

Don't's for Swimmers

(Taken from The Douglas-Enterprise)

SOMETHING LIKE 6,000 American citizens were drowned last year, many of them because they thought they were perfectly safe.

While the summer bathing season is in full swing, it might be a good idea to remind all persons, including "good swimmers," that the water can be dangerous. There are certain rules to be followed if one wishes to avoid serious caution in the water.

The "don't's" that might save your life include an admonition against swimming alone, swimming in unpatrolled waters or too quickly after eating. In addition, you are urged not to depend on inner tubes as safety belts and to exercise care in boats and canoes.

These simple rules might save the life of some boy and girl in Coconino County (this county, too) this summer if parents will take the time to call them to the attention of their children. In addition, good swimmers should be cautioned against over-confidence which might lead them to over-exertion.

This man is made equal to every event. He can face danger for the right. A poor, tired, painful body, he can run into flame or bullets or pestilence, with duty for his guide. —R. W. Emerson.

Be patient with every one, but above all with yourself. I mean, do not be disturbed because of your imperfections, and always rise up bravely from a fall. I am glad that you make a daily new beginning; there is no better means of progress in the spiritual life than to be continually beginning afresh, and never to think that we have done enough. —St. Francis De Sales.

Let's Help Our Neighbors

LAST YEAR we carried a feature in The Herald called, "It Didn't Happen Here."

It consisted of things other communities were doing for the welfare and development of the communities and their peoples.

Monday of this week Alfred E. Forman in a "hair-letting-down-talk" told Statesboro Rotarians that there are some things happening here about which we are doing nothing.

He called attention to the undeveloped roads and highways leading into Statesboro from communities like Guyton, Rocky Ford, Levelland.

He pointed out that the citizens of those communities and others have certain needs that can be filled here in Statesboro in exchange for cash.

ALL'S FAIR

It floods in West Virginia, it's dry in old New York. There're bugs in Arizona, and weevils in Alabama. But here in Bulloch County there's hacco on the stalk. There's corn with waving tassels, and good old country ham. We can fish in the Ogeechee or at some quiet private pond. Of my county you conjecture that I am mighty fond . . .

And speaking of ponds, one lies Margaret Helen modeled by day just south of Statesboro that I and was a baby sitter at night, plan to visit soon. I have imagined in the picture referred to she around until I have an invitation modelling play clothes. Phil had—on second thought, I believe I accepted a position as professor—can't drop a line in there until I English at Bowdoin College all the bass and bream, now reposing so quietly, have become ancestors, but I can enjoy the scenery with hook, line, and sinker, fish in the creek near by.

A cottage that is simply super overlooks the dam. The two-story structure rests on concrete blocks and the window frames are steel.

In the basement we find a kitchen, dining room, showers, storage room and a bed room. Upstairs are three bed rooms and a bath, and a living room that has the sort of dimension I like—40x20 ft.

In one end, a fireplace that can accommodate logs, sukkert and Lingo Brannen are the proud possessors of this lovely place.

The fish in the pond came from Richmond Hill—the Ford Plantation Hatchery—I'll bet if I went down to fish, the fish would STRIKES!

In the June 6 issue of Life Magazine is an attractive picture of when my husband invited them to Margaret Helen Tillman Booth pool, and they were eleven people in the car.

Since graduation he has been vocational agriculture teacher in the Hilliard High School, Hilliard, Fla.

MISS ANDERSON, MR. BRANNEN WED IN LOVELY CHURCH CEREMONY

The Statesboro Primitive Baptist Church was the scene Saturday afternoon, June 18, of the marriage of Miss Catherine Ann D. Anderson, of Register, to Jack A. Brannen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus G. Brannen, of Statesboro. The double ring ceremony was performed by Elder V. F. Agan in the presence of the immediate families of the bride and groom.

The arch over the rostrum was entwined with ivy and stately palms formed a background for white baskets of gladioli.

The nuptial music was furnished by Mrs. E. L. Barnes, organist, and H. M. Fullbright, soloist, who sang "Because" and "I Love Thee."

Howard Cox and Bobby Martin served as ushers. Miss Bobby Quick, attired in a blue pink suit with navy accessories, and a corsage of light blue carnations, was the bride's maid of honor.

The lovely blonde bride, escorted by her father who gave her in marriage, was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Emory Godbee. She wore a Palm Beach suit with navy accessories threaded orchids.

The bride's mother wore a navy sheer crepe with matching accessories, pink gloves, and a corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother wore blue crepe with matching lace short sleeves. Her corsage was white carnations. Mrs. Arthur McCorkle, grandmother of the bride, wore black crepe and white carnations.

MCCKORKLE HOME SCENE OF RECEPTION

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. H. W. McCorkle entertained the bridal party and wedding guests at a lovely reception at their home on Mikell street. The entire home was beautifully decorated in the bridal motif. Mr. McCorkle greeted the guests and introduced them to the receiving line. A graceful arrangement of Queen Anne's lace and ivy flanked by white candles in low silver holders was used on the mantel in the living room before a wide paneled mirror which extended to the ceiling, reflecting and enhancing the beauty of other decorations and the bridal party.

The brides' table, overlaid with a medallion lace cover, was centered with the three-tiered wedding cake, beautifully enlaced and encircled with greenery and topped with a miniature bride and groom. Silver candelabra with five white tapers were placed at the ends of the table. Mrs. Ella DeLoach, Mrs. J. K. Rogers Sr., and Miss Elena Ruffing supervised the refreshments and were assisted in serving by Misses Marie Jackson, Lillian Parramore, and Mildred Page. Hostesses in the dining room were Mrs. John A. McCorkle and Mrs. Roscoe Anderson of Register. Ginny Lee passed the napkins and Jo Ann McCorkle passed the mints.

Presiding at the bride's book was Miss Norma Cowley. Mrs. Harry Lee and Mrs. Hamp Brannen were in the gift room. Punch was served on the lawn by Misses Loretta Mitchell and Beverly Brannen, sister of the groom.

Among out-of-town guests were Mrs. Arthur McCorkle, Mrs. Wallace Mitchell, Mrs. T. E. Akins, Mrs. Roland Lewis, of Claxton; Mrs. W. E. Callaway, of Belleville; Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Johnson and son; Mrs. L. S. Faircloth, Miss Jean Brown, all of Savannah; Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Schwartz and daughter, Barbara, of Jacksonville; Mrs. R. Lee Brannen of Macon; Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Trappnell and Mrs. B. G. Bowen Sr., of Metter.

The bride attended Georgia Teachers College and the groom graduated this spring from Abraham Baldwin College at Tifton.

Mr. and Mrs. Brannen, after returning from their wedding trip to Daytona Beach, will make their home with his parents near Statesboro.

QUEST PARTY HONORS

Mrs. Salah Bassett, from Henderson, Texas, was honored Tuesday a.m. June 14, with a cocoa party in the attractive new home of Mrs. William Mikell on West Main street.

Blending agreeably with the friendly rise and fall of conversation during the party hours were eye-catching arrangements of roses and dallas used in the living room and bed room.

Pineapple cheese sandwiches, ice box cookies, and mints were served to the following:

Mrs. Bassett, Mrs. Charles Gay, Mrs. Lawrence Brant, Mrs. Chas. Grimes, Mrs. E. A. Smith, Mrs. Bill Lett, Mrs. Kermit Carr, Mrs. C. B. Call Jr., Mrs. Minnie Lee Newton, Mrs. M. A. Lawrence, Mrs. Dewit Thackston, Mrs. Jas. Waters, and the hostess, Mrs. Mikell.

HEARTS HIGH CLUB

Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Buford Knight entertained the Hearts High Club at their lovely new home on North Main street.

Gladioli and other summer flowers were used in the decorations and a dessert course was served.

Ladies' high, a "Cotton Blossom Cook Book," was won by Mrs. Charles Olliff; men's high, a double deck of cards, went to Paul Saue. Mrs. Jake Smith received pecan fudge for floating prize, and a cocanut cake for men's cut went to Jake Smith.

STATESBORO GRADS AT PHARMACY SCHOOL

Billy Johnson, son of Mrs. Brentley Johnson, received his degree in Pharmacy Saturday from the Southern School of Pharmacy, a branch of Emory University. Mr. Johnson has already passed the State Examining Board and has accepted a position with "Jacobs" Pharmacy in Atlanta.

At the University of Georgia School of Pharmacy, Mrs. Jo Ann Trappell Adams is listed among the graduates. Mrs. Adams is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Trappell. Mrs. Adams has passed the State Board and is now a full-fledged pharmacist.

MISS SMITH MARRIED TO DR. JACKSON

HAWKINSVILLE, Ga. — Miss Nell Walker Smith became the bride of Dr. Hiram Madison Jackson, of Statesboro, June 18, at the First Baptist Church. The doubling ceremony was performed by the Rev. John Greer.

Dr. John L. Jackson served as the brother's best man and the groomsmen included Fred McLendon, of Dawson; Dr. O. L. Hanes of Madison, Fla.; Dr. Roger Holland, Statesboro; Jack McElroe, Lumpkin Smith and Dr. Richard Smith.

The combination lobby, office and living room is spacious. Leaf design carpet, mist gray walls and panels of Mount Vernon wallpaper, with the Victorian ceiling and casements are used with modern chrome and leather furnishings.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, R. B. Smith. She wore a wedding gown of ivory satin with a fingertip veil of illusion caught to a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of calla lilies.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, after which the couple left for a wedding trip to Florida. Upon their return they will reside in Statesboro on South Main street.

Democracy in Action

"Fraternity in Action" as practiced by the Woodmen of the World is Democracy in Action. This will be evidenced at the Society's Sovereign Camp (National) Convention at San Antonio, June 27 to July 1. There the delegates, chosen earlier at Head Camp meetings, will adopt recommendations for the Society's activities, legislation governing its operations, and elect the officers to administer its affairs.

Ask the local Woodmen representative to explain the protection and fraternal benefits you will enjoy by becoming a member of the Woodmen of the World... world's financially strongest fraternal society.

FARM BUREAU

DENMARK AND WARNOCK

Methods of using the new sulfa drugs on livestock were discussed at the Denmark and Warnock Farm Bureau meetings last week.

After a short discussion on numerous diseases hogs, cattle, poultry and other livestock have that can be controlled with these new wonder drugs, a 40-minute color motion picture on the subject was shown.

These new drugs can now be procured in tablet, powder or injectable forms so that they may be given as a pill, or drench or injected as serums are given.

They are extremely effective on septicemia, pneumonia, diptheria, mastitis and many other hard-to-cure diseases.

SNKHOLE The Sinkhole Farm Bureau went for a discussion on insect control on cotton, peanuts, and tobacco.

Denmark had a picnic supper, Warnock a ham supper, and the Sinkhole a barbecued chicken supper.

For the social hour for each of the three chapters a full-length motion picture featuring Bob Burns on his Arkansas farm was shown.

Boll Weevil At Work In County

What with the boll weevil and the pear leaf spot, farmers in Bulloch county are having a rough time, according to Byron Dyer, county agent.

The boll weevil infestation reached 14 per cent in Bulloch county Saturday. However, some of the fields checked ran as high as 28 per cent.

This means that those cotton farmers planning to dust for weevil control this year needs to keep after them each week now.

Dr. P. M. Glycer, entomologist, Georgia Coastal Plain Experiment Station, says:

Most of the cotton growers are already using BHC or Toxaphene on their cotton.

The station found in its tests last year that Toxaphene stayed on longer and gave a better kill over a long period but that during rainy weather or early in the season BHC was desirable.

With from three to eight hours of open weather after BHC is ap-

Dorman Addresses Statesboro Rotary

In a challenging talk to the Statesboro Rotary Club Monday, Alfred Dorman charged the business people of the city to do something to help the people in the small communities in this and surrounding counties secure better roads into Statesboro.

He suggested that if we do not, other business men in other cities would help these communities secure paved roads into their cities and then "court" them for their trade.

He related some of the things he had seen recently in other sections of the nation on an extended trip he made. On his "visits to Cincinnati, Dayton, Ohio, I saw 25,000 to 30,000 people idle, walking the streets, on strikes," he said.

In Michigan, he said there were 90,000 men people on strike "out of work."

And "brought on by themselves," he explained.

At the University of Alabama, 10,700 went home for summer vacation and Tuscaloosa's cash register quit ringing.

He urged the citizens of Statesboro to become more aware of our own college and realize what it means to this community.

And in closing he challenged the business men who are crying "poor business" to do something about it.

Statesboro Junior Chamber Of Commerce

Members of the Statesboro Junior Chamber of Commerce yesterday received a report on activities at the National Jaycee Convention which took place recently in Colorado Springs, Colorado.

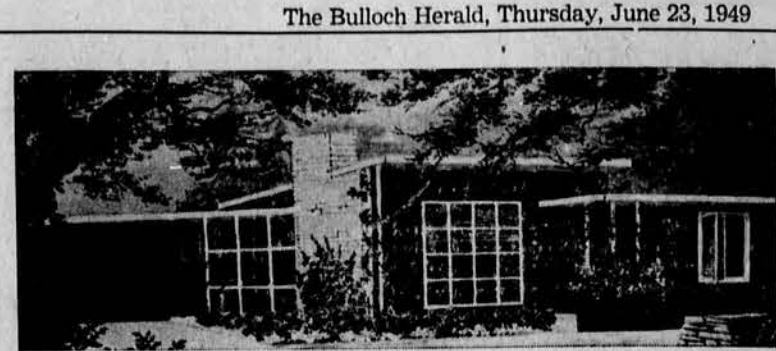

Horace McDougald, who attended the national assembly with State President Price of Swainsboro and Bob Mann and Heymans Oliver of Savannah, reported on activities and accomplishments of the convention. A former Governor of Georgia, Ellis Arnall, made the keynote address at the convention.

Also at yesterday's meeting, the club discussed plans for sponsoring the coming beauty revue to pick "Miss Statesboro" and "Miss Bulloch County."

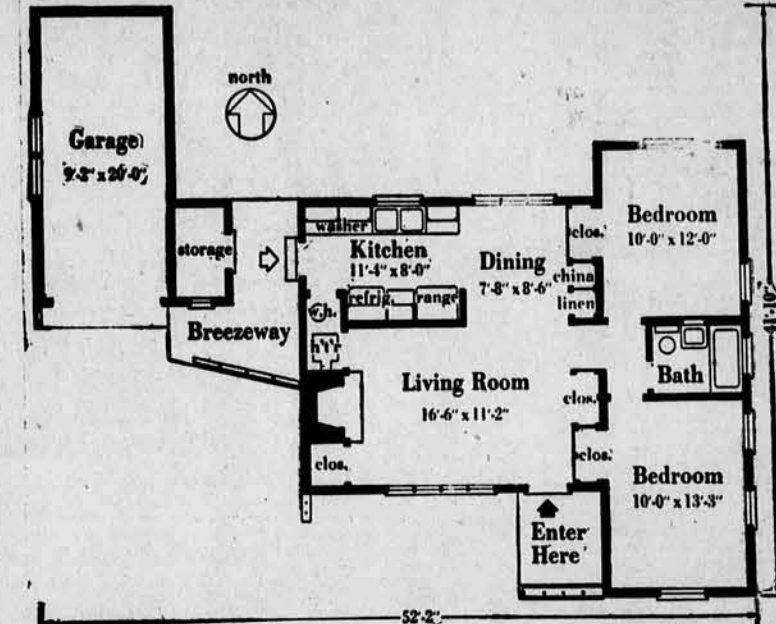

Members of the Statesboro Jaycees will be held two weeks from yesterday—July 6—at 12:30. Place of the meeting is Forest Heights Country Club. Visiting Jaycees are welcome and all local Jaycees are urged to be present.

This column will not be able to continue unless Jaycees themselves, their business activities, or current Jaycee activities. If you'd like to see this column continue please see that you personally submit at least one news item each week.

SOUND SIMPLICITY at rock-bottom cost is the keynote of this new model home recently opened by the Montak Beach Camp, Inc. on Long Island, N. Y. Designed after the suggestions of Douglas Tuomey, building consultant for Good Housekeeping magazine, the architect kept expenses down by: (1) Elimination of basement; (2) Simple frame and roof; (3) Dry Wall construction; (4) Simplified windows and trim; (5) Use of closets for partitions. Although the house embodies the latest principles and advancements in moderate-priced design and construction, it's so simple to build that the tool-free amateur can do much of the work. The Montak House lends itself to any seashore terrain and can be used for a summer or year round home. It is featured in the June issue of the magazine.

Church News

PRIMITIVE BAPTIST CHURCH
Hours of worship—11:30 a.m. and 8 p.m. Sunday, June 28; Bible Study for all ages 10:15 a.m., and Youth Fellowship 7 p.m. The Christian individual needs gospel food regularly just as the body needs natural food. If you wish to grow in development as normal Christians should, see to it that you get regular gospel food. Attend the services of your church and assist us in giving a whole welcome to every friend and visitor.

V. F. Agan, pastor.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

7:45 p.m. Baptist Training Union.
8 p.m. Evangelistic Hour—Rev. Lovell.

All young people between the ages of 16-25 are requested to meet with the pastor for a "Get Acquainted Hour" at 6 p.m., Sunday evening at the church. Come and bring a friend so that the pastor may know who the young people in our church are.

Statesboro Junior Chamber Of Commerce

Members of the Statesboro Junior Chamber of Commerce yesterday received a report on activities at the National Jaycee Convention which took place recently in Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Horace McDougald, who attended the national assembly with State President Price of Swainsboro and Bob Mann and Heymans Oliver of Savannah, reported on activities and accomplishments of the convention. A former Governor of Georgia, Ellis Arnall, made the keynote address at the convention.

Also at yesterday's meeting, the club discussed plans for sponsoring the coming beauty revue to pick "Miss Statesboro" and "Miss Bulloch County."

Members of the Statesboro Jaycees will be held two weeks from yesterday—July 6—at 12:30. Place of the meeting is Forest Heights Country Club. Visiting Jaycees are welcome and all local Jaycees are urged to be present.

'Pid' Deal Takes C of C On Word-Tour of Europe

Elizabeth "Pid" Deal took the members of the Statesboro Chamber of Commerce on a word-tour of Europe, including France, Belgium, Spain, Switzerland, Holland, Italy, and the Island of Capri. She was the guest of the club at its regular meeting Tuesday of last week.

Miss Deal taught in a school maintained for the children of the delegates to the United Nations, and employees of the Marshall Plan in Paris, France.

Included in her first, second, and third grades were princesses and princesses, and of the "aristocracy of the world" according to Colonel A. M. Deal, who presented her to the club.

Miss Deal told of her travels during her holidays. She found Switzerland beautiful, with the people healthy and living in communities with no evidence of World War II. Her experiences in Belgium gave her an unfavorable impression.

In Spain she experienced the close surveillance that is characteristic of totalitarian states. It was while in this country that she was robbed of her purse, including all her funds, and her passport. It was only after considerable trouble and help from the American Consulate that she was able to secure enough funds and a new passport to enable her to return to Paris. It was during this experience that she learned she had been under constant watch by the Spanish police. "It was a strange feeling," she said.

She told of seeing the Italian hard at work rebuilding communities ruined by the war. "The people were cheerful," she said. Before coming home she visited

50 Bulloch 4-Hers Go To Camp Fulton

Some 50 Bulloch County 4-H clubsters and farm and home agents and advisors were in attendance at Camp Fulton last week.

The group plans to leave Statesboro at 7 a.m. Monday and meet clubsters from Bryan, Effingham, Screven, Evans, and Candler counties at Indian Springs for a picnic lunch. The some 225 clubsters will then go on to camp together. The camp organization meeting will be held Monday night. Tuesday will find the clubsters divided into activity groups in health and nutrition, wildlife conservation, recreation, forestry, and hiking. 4-H Club organization and handicraft.

Outdoor recreation will carry through organized rifle shooting, swimming, and tours of Atlanta. The camp is located some 15 miles south of Atlanta. Wednesday and Thursday schedules will call for a rotation of the program used on Tuesday.

Folk games are on the program for Tuesday night, Cracker ball on Wednesday night and stunts on Thursday night. The group plans to tour a steel plant and meat packing plants Tuesday afternoon. Thursday they will visit the capitol and Grant's park.

They will return home Friday. Robert A. Wynn, local assistant county agent, was named camp director and has made plans for a private swimming pool stop in Macon Friday morning and from there will take the Bulloch group to lunch at a cafeteria where arrangements have already been made. Mr. Wynn thinks the group should reach Statesboro by 6 p.m. Friday.

Woman's Club Report For 48-49

As President of the Woman's Club of Statesboro, I wish to submit the following report from April 1948, through May 1949.

The keynote of friendliness was sounded at the first meeting in September at which time stock was taken of yourself as a club member. You will find I hope, that your profits amount to a big sum. Are you not a better woman for these associations? Are you not a better member of your community? Are you not a better home maker, more intelligent and efficient? Are you not a better friend?

The affirmative answer to these questions has been of great value to me; and I do thank all the many kind things you've said and for your cooperation in the work.

Our theme—Action for World Order and Peace—was given us by our beloved State President, Mrs. Gertrude Harris. Also the motto, whatever your hand findeth to do, do it with thy might. We have tried to keep both before us throughout the year.

All club meetings with exception of one, have been presided over by your president, Mrs. Ed Pretorius for such a timely gift.

The yearbooks show the outline of programs have been most interesting and informative, thanks to Mrs. E. B. Rushing and her committee. Mrs. Rushing has always presided most graciously and we have had some outstanding speakers, Miss McAlpin, Mr. Jack Averitt, Dr. Neil, Miss Sue Snipes, Miss Spears, Mrs. Maud Edge, Mrs. Carroll, and others.

The Educational Committee, of which Mrs. Weaver is chairman, has had a very important role in the affairs of the club. Highlights of news has been given by some of her committee at most of the regular meetings. The club received special mention at the State Conference for educational work done the past year. They've held discussion groups which included men as well as women, and the topic this year centered around democratic documents and our government. Through their constant reminding us of Tallulah

School and its support, we accepted, the responsibility and voted to make our club 100 per cent for Tallulah by raising our dues one dollar.

The Fine Arts Committee, with Mrs. Waldo Floyd as chairman, has furnished music for the meetings. The Committee is 100 per cent musical, each an artist. We have held monthly meetings and each member was given an assignment at the first meeting. They studied and worked. Parliamentary rules was one of the subjects studied and, of course, flower arrangement. They've been instrumental in getting grass and shrubbery planted in the double streets and parks. They held a very successful Camellia Show in January. The money made from the show will be used in beautifying the library grounds. Two of the committee acted as judges of Decorated Doors and Windows in Sylvania in December. At the April meeting they sponsored a flower show and Mrs. Arthur Howard won the beautiful pot plant. Two your president's desire that flowers and flower arrangements be displayed at each meeting but it took the garden committee to really put that over when they were hostess to the club.

The Membership Committee, with Mrs. Ed Pretorius heading it, certainly did their part. They were active most all the year and many new members were added to the roll and some few once-upon-a-time members were brought back into the fold.

Each Committee has acted as hostess to the club and, my, how we have enjoyed the socials. All was carried out so well and pretty and nice.

"I would have been too good if all the visions could have been reached, with this resume before you, I'm sure you agree that we have had a most successful year and from the bottom of my heart I wish to say to each one, "Thank You."
