Doctors to Operate On Barbara June Sept. 7

"Of all the sights which can soften and humanize the heart of men, there is none that ought so surely to reach it as that of innocent children, rejoicing in the happiness which is their proper and natural portion.—SOUTHEY.

The hearts of the people of Statesboro, Bulloch county, and southeast Georgia turned to little three-year-old "Blue Baby" Barbara June, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Josh Smith Jr.

Chief of Police W. J. Lett announced the resignation in a letter dated August 4.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith and Barbara June will leave Statesboro Monday morning, September 5, and will drive to Baltimore.

An unknown contributor wrote, "I say a prayer each night that God will let the goal be reached and the child be made well."

When told of the generosity of the people of this community, Barbara June's father and mother, Barbara June's father and mother, looked through tears and trembling lips to say, "Thank everybody for us."

Mr. W. G. Cobb, at the Bulloch County Bank, and Mrs. Kermit R. Carr, at the Sea Island Bank, will continue accepting contributions through Saturday of this week.

They are living in the apartment recently occupied by Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Ellis.

Register Schools To Open September 5

Charles A. Cates, principal of the Register High School, announces today that the school at Statesboro will open Monday morning, September 5, at 9 a. m.

At the last meeting of the board of recreation Mrs. W. A. Bowen was named secretary of the board.

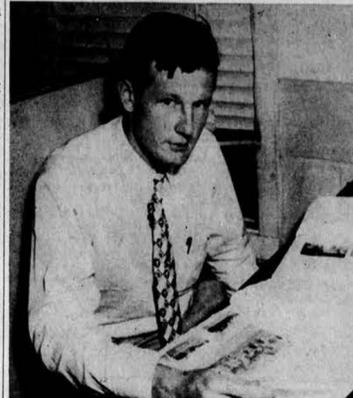

Make A Date For The Greatest Show of Year

Get out your lorgnette, put some sparklers in your hair. Step out with the thoroughbreds. Look those horses in the eye and become over-balanced and fell in the tracks of the tractor which pulled him under the fender.

He was rushed immediately to the Bulloch County Hospital, where he was given four blood transfusions and additional blood plasma.

He suffered intensely Tuesday night. Wednesday morning he was resting "fairly well."

The accident happened at the home of Mr. David C. Banks.

ARNOLD B. ANDERSON, Statesboro attorney, and member of the Statesboro Public Schools, seen at a meeting of civic leaders of 16 communities in the eastern section of Georgia held in Louisville on Wednesday last week to compare notes on their progress in the 1949 "Champion Schools" contest, sponsored by the Georgia Power Company.

Statesboro Schools to Open Monday, Sept. 5

It's back to school for Statesboro's youth Monday morning, September 5.

Superintendent S. H. Sherman announced this week that the Statesboro Public Schools will open for the 1949-50 session at 9 o'clock that day.

With the completion of registration each grade in the Elementary School and the High School may be dismissed at the discretion of the principal.

Mr. Sherman stated that rural pupils will be accepted in the Statesboro schools under the terms of an agreement between the County School Superintendent and the City School Superintendent.

Mr. Sherman said the lunchroom would not be in operation for several weeks and until it opens the following week.

Private lessons in piano or speech will be payable to the respective teachers at the rate of $6 per month for those students enrolled for music or speech.

No THIRD-YEAR HIGH SCHOOL AT SHS THIS YEAR

This year there will be no "third year high school" at the Statesboro High School.

Superintendent Sherman explained that the state recognized the "12-grade" system when it was made a law two years ago.

The Statesboro school installed the new system immediately. The first year there was no "first year high school"; last year there will be no "second year high school"; and this year there will be no "third year high school"; and next year there will be no graduation class.

After next year the schools here will be on the full twelve-grade basis.

Local five-gaited. All entries under 13 years of age. (Competition will be keen).

Friday Night Events

The showings on Friday night will be championship showings. All horses will be stripped of saddle and will be judged on conformation.

Babytantes

Mr. and Mrs. Creighton Perry of Augusta announce the birth of a son, Creighton Irving Jr., August 22 at the University Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tillman announce the birth of a son, Jack Brunson Tillman Jr., August 19 at the Bulloch County Hospital.

Police Chief and Mrs. W. J. Lett announce the birth of a son, George William, August 21 at the Bulloch County Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Crouse announce the birth of a daughter, Miss Thelma Blaise, of Savannah.

It is hereby ordered that the same be abated as a nuisance and the Sheriff of Bulloch County, Georgia, is hereby directed to close the same and keep it closed until the further order of this court and until the trial of this case.

The defendants are hereby temporarily enjoined from using said property, with exception as shown above, or permitting the same to be used in any way whatsoever.

It is further ordered that the defendant, S. A. Allen, has until the 29th day of August, 1949, to dispose of and remove any and all property which he has in said building.

(Signed) J. L. RENFROE, Judge, Bulloch Superior Court.

will be at least a month and will have to stay in Baltimore for check-ups at least three additional weeks. Her mother will stay with her. Let's hope to gather his crop. There will be travel expenses and medicine and clothes—a thousand things you and I don't know about.

In view of all this the Herald is establishing a "Barbara June Fund." Two outstanding men of this city have volunteered to take charge of handling the contributions. They are W. G. Cobb of the Bulloch County Bank and Kermit Carr of the Sea Island. You know them both.

Checks should be made payable to "The Barbara June Fund" and delivered to either of the above men. Your contribution, whether it be large or small, is urgently needed. This is not something that can be put off.

We believe a goal of $1,500 is what should be set. We feel that this amount will be sufficient. We are counting on the people of Bulloch county. We are counting on you. Barbara June is counting on you.

Don't let her down. Take, send, or mail your contribution, in cash or by check, to either bank. The success of this important campaign depends on you. Don't put it off.

But this tiny child will be hospitalized for at least a month, and will have to stay in Baltimore for check-ups at least three additional weeks. Her mother will stay with her. Let's hope to gather his crop. There will be travel expenses and medicine and clothes—a thousand things you and I don't know about.

Now, the day is at hand when the doctors say she must have the operation within the very near future. It might be next week—or it might be three weeks—but the day isn't far off.

We feel that these fine people have borne this burden, alone, long enough. We believe, you, and the other people of Bulloch county will want to help. If tiny, blond Barbara June is ever to be normal this operation must be performed by the one doctor who can do it. It's not his fee that the money will be needed for. He is willing to give most of his time and his talent.

"I'M GOING TO GIVE something to help Barbara June," you say to yourself. And you go on about your housework...

your Red Cross contribution... It's right here in your own community. It's people you know and see. The suffering is before you.

New Status for Jay-Walkers

A RULING handed down by Traffic Judge Luke Arnold of Atlanta, last week says that pedestrians crossing streets at any place other than officially designated crosswalks assume liability for accidents.

Send your check to W. Jace Cobb at the Bulloch County Bank... It's already addressed for you.

The judge dismissed charges of reckless driving and accident and leaving the scene of an accident against J. M. Turner, 24-year-old sailor of Atlanta.

Then come January 1, 1950, you may begin to expect your check. However, it will be at least June 30, 1950, before all the checks will be released.

He imposed fines of $12 each, suspended against Miss Barbara West and Angel Chaufoin, both of Atlanta, on charges of jay-walking accident.

And for the benefit of the taxpayer—this is not a part of your tax money. This is just a refund of the surplus dividends paid by the veterans who held this so-called "GI Insurance."

Testimony indicated that Miss West and Miss Chaufoin were crossing Peachtree street about 100 feet from the intersection of Fifth street.

Meeting the Future MORE AND more Bulloch counties are turning to pure bred livestock.

We do not know what the attitude of our own mayor and judges are regarding such an accident.

Last week twenty-five of our farm owners purchased 31 purebred Spotted China hogs to add to their herds.

But Section 74 (a) of the City Traffic Code says, "Every pedestrian crossing a roadway at any point other than within a marked crosswalk at an intersection, shall yield the right-of-way to all vehicles upon the street."

It's a healthy arrangement STATESBORO BUSINESSMEN are recognizing that the progress of their city depends on the progress of their country neighbors.

Section 74 (c) says, "Between adjacent intersections at which traffic control signals are operation, pedestrians shall not cross at any place except in a marked crosswalk."

And one way to meet the future is to work in the present with the best you can get.

In a traffic check here on May 3 of this year, observers recorded 465 pedestrians violating the city traffic code during a two-hour period when they jay-walked between the post office and the traffic light.

With this in mind and with a sincere desire to promote goodwill between the city and county, members of the Chamber of Commerce are acting as "Buddy Advisor" to members of the 4-H Club.

Judge Arnold's ruling should put all pedestrians, not only in Atlanta but in Statesboro as well, on notice.

Each of thirty members of the Chamber of Commerce has selected one of these 4-H Club boys to be his "Buddy-Advisor."

His closing order should put on notice such other places that may be causing neighbors and citizens to talk thus giving them "bad reputations."

With all these eggs starting us in the face, a Congressman asks, "Will not the consumer and taxpayer act to end supports unless the programs are administered for the benefit of all the people?"

Gathering places on edge of town, at crossroads, and community centers, can easily become places where "disturbances are created" necessitating the calling of the "law."

It's a healthy arrangement—for the county and for the city.

It is only by constant vigilance of the operators of such places that they may continue their business with a good reputation.

And we believe that the businessman is going to get more out of the association than the other way round.

A place attracts only the type of customers it wishes.

The heart that is soonest awake to the flowers is always the first to be touched by the thorns.

But if a place wishes to earn and keep the good will of the neighbors and citizens in the community then the operators must make it understood that drunkards, rioters, and liquor-drinkers are not wanted, and will not be tolerated.

Feelings come and go like light troops following the victory of the present but principles, like troops of the line, are undisturbed and stand fast.

With Judge Renroe's closing order fresh in mind, it's a good time for such other places to begin taking "stock."

Some people carry their hearts in their heads; very many carry their heads in their hearts. The difficulty is to keep them apart, and yet both actively working together.

To Keep the Pot Boiling IF YOU are a veteran of World War II and at any time held a National Service Life Insurance contract for a period of ninety days or more, you are now entitled to a share of the multi-billion dollar insurance dividend to be distributed by the Veterans Administration.

Live for something! Do good and leave behind you a monument of virtue that the storm of time can never destroy.

It makes no difference whether your contract has lapsed or is still in effect, just so at one time it was effective for at least ninety days. The refund will be paid on all kind of National Life Insurance contracts, on terms or converted insurance.

Write your name in kindness, love and mercy on the hearts of the thousands you come in contact with, year by year and you will never be forgotten. Your name, your deeds, will be as legible on the hearts you leave behind, as the stars on the brow of evening. Good deeds will shine as the stars of heaven—Chalmers.

"Applications for Special Dividend" forms are now available and may be obtained from Veterans Administration offices, post offices, and veterans service organizations.

Then our good friend, Bruce Wilson, pastor of the Methodist Church, came by and sorer "raked us over the coals" for not having been around to his church for one of his sermons.

But don't become impatient about your dividend. Do not write your Congressman to try to hurry your check.

All of which leads us to say that our Congressman is right—

Do not write the Washington Central office or any Veterans Administration office for these forms or for information about your expected check.

On Thy compassion I repose In weakness and distress; I will not ask for greater ease, Lest I should lose Thee less; Oh, 'tis a blessed thing for me To needy Thy tenderness.

You just secure a dividend form, fill it out, place a one-cent stamp on it, and drop it in any mail box or post office. It's already addressed for you.

It's that easy.

Then come January 1, 1950, you may begin to expect your check. However, it will be at least June 30, 1950, before all the checks will be released.

And for the benefit of the taxpayer—this is not a part of your tax money. This is just a refund of the surplus dividends paid by the veterans who held this so-called "GI Insurance."

The Doubtful Traveler

The Editor's Uneasy Chair

WELL BET his face is red. Tucked away in an inside page of Friday morning's Morning News is the following story:

BARTOW, Fla., Aug. 25—When the man asked to see Mr. Evans about getting a job as school principal, employees of the Polk county school board office today looked blank.

There is no Mr. Evans in the county school office, and no principalship open in this section of the state.

But the man insisted that Mr. Evans had talked to him on the phone last night and told him to come to Bartow for an interview.

"Where did you come from?" he was asked by Mrs. R. L. Hughes Jr., a member of the county staff.

"Could it possibly be," she inquired, "that Mr. Evans is in Bartow, Ga., which is about 60 miles from Statesboro?"

The visitor nearly collapsed. A phone call to a local resident who is familiar with that section of Georgia, confirmed that Bartow, Ga., is in a neighboring county to Statesboro, and that there is a prominent family there by the name of Evans.

The visitor drooped in every muscle, walked out of the school board office, presumably to start the 400-mile drive back to the other Bartow.

Mrs. Hughes declined to give his name to reporters.

Say "powdered eggs" to a veteran of World War II and he'll start tearing his hair.

With all these eggs starting us in the face, a Congressman asks, "Will not the consumer and taxpayer act to end supports unless the programs are administered for the benefit of all the people?"

That, Mr. Congress, is a good question.

He Wants More Patience (Frank Miller in The Pembroke Journal).

During the past week we received a letter from our Congressman, Prince Preston, who added a postscript which read as follows: "You have had enough accidents, I want you to be seen in the company of your pastor more often in the future."

Shortly after receiving this letter, our pastor, Rev. John R. Joyner, called in to thank us for the article last week in which we urged all church members and the public in general to turn out for the services at the Baptist Church Sunday, as their pastor had returned from his vacation and he urged the members to get back in the habit of going to Sunday School and church. But he said that he noticed that Ye Editor was absent. That he himself had not done the very thing that he had urged others to do.

Then our good friend, Bruce Wilson, pastor of the Methodist Church, came by and sorer "raked us over the coals" for not having been around to his church for one of his sermons.

All of which leads us to say that our Congressman is right—

Ye Editor belongs to be with his pastors more than he is, and our pastor, Rev. Joyner, is right, for we should have held the procession at his church Sunday instead of remaining at home, and Rev. Wilson is also right, for variety is the spice of life, and by going and hearing Bruce exhort once in a while it will help us to keep John in the straight and narrow. But,

And there is always a but. None of these fellows have ever run a "weekly" newspaper, with all of its trials and tribulations, and for the past ten weeks we have been out of one hot spot in another one.

To start with, our son has started a paper in Hampton, S. C., and has been on the job of getting a printing plant established there and moving from Atlanta, all of which has had its ups and downs, and has caused Ye Editor many heartaches as well as backaches.

He, like his daddy, has been suffering from the "shorts," and for the benefit of those that do not know what the "shorts" is, it is a shortage of cash. We have tried to help him get established, and in helping move his plant

Dottie Hargrove's .DOTS.

WORK! WORK! WORK!

Monday will be Labor Day, and I'm reminded of days in past years when my brother and I were decked out in Sunday clothes and hustled to Akron's busy "Four Corners" (Main and Exchange) to watch one of that city's big annual parades.

John and I always thought we heard band music before we got there, and we suffered audibly from disturbed and desperate visions of reaching that teeming intersection and finding the bands and marchers gone. "Oh, we're missing the parade!" we'd wail. "The parade's over right now!"

But my members to be the only panicky members of our party, and nobody except me putting on extra steam, or stepping hard on the gas, to land us within watching distance of the corner before the excitement died down.

And it always turned out that we were on hand too soon. We would wait and wait. John would prick up his ears and declare he heard horns blowing and I'd immediately convince myself that I heard them, too—or horse's hoofs on an echoing pavement—or the measured tread of marching feet.

Usually, at the same precise instant, we both put up a plea for ice cream. If no ice cream was provided, we yelled for cracker-jack. If no crackerjack, we got really ambitious and shouted that we were starving and needed hamburgers or hot-dogs. Then, after getting nothing but admonitions to hush, we'd back-track a little and offer to settle for ice cream.

But parents had the queer notion that we should be glad we'd found a vantage point from which to view the parade, and should be willing to wait for refreshments until the thing was over.

And we waited.

We said we didn't want to wait any longer, and were promptly reminded that we'd been the ones who couldn't get there soon enough, and who'd kept yapping about hearing horns blow and horses canter and heavy shoes hit the pavement?

If a balloon man came through the crowd, our folks let each of us select one. This kept us occupied for at least a few minutes, and sometimes, one or the other of us managed to keep a balloon in one piece and still have it, days afterward, to pay with and to hang like an opaque soap-bubble, against the ceiling while we slept.

"Ba-room! Ba-room! Ba-room! Boom!" The big bass drum, and then the brasses! Those shining and intricate horns that gave life and melody to the thrilling thump of drums!

And the marchers! . . . proud and smiling, with printed ribbons stretched across their bosoms, and pride in every line of their bodies.

"Here come the Iron Molders! Watch for Harry," some woman would blurt, and folks would turn and stare at her, but she didn't care. She was proud because her son, or perhaps her husband, or nephew, or uncle was part of that stirring spectacle. "Hey! There's the tire-builders! There's Eugene!"

"Oh, Grandma, watch now for Everett and Timmy! They'll be in the next bunch!"

"There's Ernest!" . . . "There is Peter!"

My own father never paraded. (continued on page seven.)

Bethany Home Aids the Needy; In Operation Over 26 Years

By ALVIN L. McLENDON JR. More than 26 years ago the institution of charity near Vidalia, known as Bethany Home, was first opened. It opened with seven old ladies at the very beginning.

It is significant that at this point in its history that there have been just a few more than 700 persons who have been or who are now being cared for in this home for the aged. These seven hundred have come from all over Georgia. Bulloch county has had its share.

There now are two from Bulloch county living at Bethany Home.

The present population at this home is 86 elderly ladies. These come from 52 different Georgia counties and two are from out of the state. Roughly, the guests of the home now are divided into church denominations as follows: All half are Missionary Baptists, one-fourth are Methodists, and the remaining fourth is divided into seven groups, namely: Primitive Baptists, Christian, Church of God, Church of Christ, Presbyterian, Episcopal, and those belonging to no church.

The Bethany Home holds its doors open to all needy cases, regardless of church beliefs and geographic location, though it is owned and operated by the Primitive Baptists.

The people of Bulloch county have always supported this Christian cause of charity with their money. When our solicitor, Mrs. Velma Cowart, of Statesboro, makes her annual solicitations in this community in the next few weeks, will you do your best you can for this institution? All contributions will receive recognition for the full amount they contribute directly from the Bethany Home office—and remember, all contributions to this home are exempt from taxation on your income tax returns.

It costs a little more than $45 every day of the year to keep up the service being rendered at Bethany Home. This means $45 in charity money (above all other sources of income). The primary function of the home is to render charitable service, however some cases are cared for where the family or relatives pay the cost of board at the home.

Can you pay one or more days' cost? If not, how much of a day can you assume? Every dollar you can give is needed. Many gifts, both large and small, are needed for the on-going of this as you have been prospered to earn out yourself and store up of this world's goods.

Remember, that a gift of pity (charity or love) unto the poor is a loan unto the Lord; and that the Lord will repay his debts in full measure and running over. "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto Me." (Matthew 25:40). Not only will the Lord repay you many fold, but you will find spiritual blessings in giving; Bethany Home will be blessed to carry on in a finer and bigger way the work that needs so much to be expanded.

To have a standing invitation to visit this home at any time you are in the vicinity. Look for our buildings to the left of U. S. 280 going east from Vidalia.

noble work of mercy. Try to give

BETHANY HOME — Began operation more than 26 years ago, with seven elderly ladies. To date, more than 700 persons have been and are being cared for at this institution.

JIMMIE ADAMS, ROGER AND RAYMOND HAGAN NAMED POULTRY SHOW WINNERS

Jimmie Adams, Roger and Raymond Hagan were declared top winners in Bulloch county's third annual poultry show held Friday morning of last week.

Birds from these two top flocks will represent Bulloch county in the state poultry show to be held in connection with the State Fair in Macon during October.

Also in the Blue Award group were Mary Lee Wilson and Ernest Alford Jr., who ran a very close second to the two top pens of birds.

In the Red Award group were Richard Cowart, Jimmie DeLoach, Joann Robbins, Janice Deal, Margie Floyd, and Howard Morris.

No entry from the county was placed in the White Award group which represents only a fair flock.

Sears, Roebuck and Company, sponsors of the poultry chain in 15 counties throughout the state, also offers $80.00 prize money which is shared by these boys and girls on the basis of showings when the birds are exhibited. The birds were received in February and most of them are now in production, which means that the boys and girls will be getting eggs during the fall and winter when egg prices are usually best.

Out of the 1,000 baby chicks received at the beginning of this project, these clubbers lost only 47 chicks throughout the growing season, a record of 53 percent.

Mr. H. W. Bennett, Extension Poultry Specialist, was high in his praise of the work done with the chicks and said that it was the best show that he had judged this season.

Funds realized from these birds will be used to procure chicks for other boys and girls next year, according to Robert A. Wynn, assistant county agent, who acted as advisor for the group.

Applications For GI Insurance Were Available Monday

Monday, August 29, is the first day Applications for GI Insurance Dividends will be available to World War II veterans. The announcement was made this week by Vaux Owen, Manager of the Georgia Regional office for the Veterans Administration.

Veterans may obtain forms from VA offices-post offices and veterans' service organizations.

Veterans are urged not to write the Washington Central Office or any VA office for these forms. Mr. Owen said, or even for information about the NSLI dividend checks. In fact, it isn't necessary to write the VA at all. Just pick up your dividend form on or after August 29, fill it out, place a one cent stamp on it, and drop it in any mail box or post office. It's already properly addressed.

It is anticipated that no check will be released before January 1, 1950 and that it will be at least June 30, 1950 before all the checks will be released. Mr. Owen pointed out that since it will take several months to process the applications, unnecessary inquiries or correspondence on the subject would accomplish nothing and it would tend to slow down the operation.

If the veteran is deceased, no application is necessary. Beneficiaries currently receiving insurance payments or who have been paid completely, will receive dividends without applications. Veterans who had no service after October 7, 1940 should not apply. This dividend is payable only to a veteran who had service on or after October 8, 1940, and who kept his National Service Life Insurance in force for at least three months.

day, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wynn, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Wynn and Mr. and Mrs. Creig Gay and little daughter, Gale.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jordan and children, Jimmy and Becky, left Saturday for their new home in Sylvania, where Mr. Jordan will be principal of the Sylvania School and Mrs. Jordan will teach in the grade school this year.

Bulloch County Farmers Buy 31 Purebred Hogs

Thirty-one of the 46 purebred Spotted Poland China hogs sold here on Wednesday of last week were kept in Bulloch county.

This sale of blooded hogs upped the total placed with hog farmers during August to 105. If good blood helps to improve the kind of hogs grown here, Bulloch county is on its way toward having the best hogs it has ever grown.

Most farmers feel that, with allotments of various row-crops here or on its way, they must make plans to include livestock in their farming program for a larger part of their income. One way of making livestock pay off is to grow the best. Our farmers seem to be headed that way.

Purchasing purebreds at Wednesday's sale were Alfred Dorman, Misses Catherine and Rachel Meldrim, J. H. Woodward, Cecil Womack, T. H. Newsome, W. R. Newsome, D. A. Edenfield, Jack Beamon, J. A. Hart, W. L. Cull, Dean Nichols, J. W. Marton, W. W. Whaley, John H. Brannen, G. W. Whaley, John H. Godbee, Jim H. Strickland, Arthur Sparks, James O. Anderson, George Strickland, W. C. Thomas, Felix DeLoach, Thurmond Jones and Ernest Nesmith.

Wednesday night the Explorers Scouts of the troop staged an Indian ceremony. Members of the troop, dressed like Indians, carried torches and did a dance around the campfire.

The campfire was closed with all Scouts lighting a torch to rededicate themselves to the principles and ideals of Scouting.

Thursday the camp was closed and awards given the patrol with the cleanest campsite. They then headed home following their outing highlighting their theme, "Adventure that's Scouting."

Blue Devils 49 Schedule Opens at Waynesboro

With two weeks' work-outs already under their shoulder pads the Statesboro High School Blue Devils are working hard for their first game of the 199 season with Waynesboro.

Coach James Hall says that competition places on the 25-man squad is keen. "There are now 40 boys working out and by the time school begins next week there will be 65 men out scraping for a place on the squad," he said.

He announced that there will be a Blue Devil "B" Team this year with a six-game schedule. B-Team games will be played on Thursday nights. The A team will play on the regular schedule for positions on the varsity squad.

Members of the 1948 Blue Devil squad that are having to work to keep the places they held last year are: Center—Lair Price and Ferrell Parrish; Ends—C. P. Claxton and Jack Uphurch; Tackles—Dight Spence, Guards—Howard Allen, Bobby Stubbs, Jimmy Johnson, Oscar Hendrix, and Tommy Blitch; Backs—Bobby Olliff, Ash-ton Cassidy, Joe Ben Cassidy, Emory Smith, Emory Nessmith, and Jerry Marsh.

Gross sales of the 1949 tobacco crop of Georgia and Florida flue-cured tobacco totaled 154,869,578 pounds, the second largest in history. And Statesboro led the state of Georgia in total sales with 12,507,124 pounds, officially reported by the United States Department of Agriculture.

Douglas was second with 11,608,485 pounds. Sylvester led the state in the average price per pound with a total sales of only 842,012 pounds to average 43.63 per hundred. Douglas was third with an average price per pound of 42.56.

Statesboro and Vidalia tied for fourth place in average price per hundred pound at $39.94, however Vidalia sold 10,359,734 pounds compared with Statesboro's 12,507,124 pounds.

The total Georgia sales were 137,043,473 for an average of $40.13 per hundred pounds. Last year Statesboro sold a total of 12,701,222 pounds for an average of $43.40 per hundred pounds.

According to the report, a fine quality summary shows a slightly better crop this year than last, although it did not come up to expectations reported at the first of the season.

Auctioning of the 1949 crop began Tuesday, July 26. The final sales were held at Statesboro August 23.

Sylvester opened as a new auction center but closed after only four days of sales. Sufficient company buyers were not obtained for that market.

'Barbara June Fund' Is Over Top With $1,675

A phone call from Baltimore this morning reports that Barbara June has been successfully operated upon and came through "fine." The doctors are pleased at the way she reacted to the 3 1/2-hour operation.

"Mission accomplished. Results successful." Those four words might well sum up the story that has touched the hearts of hundreds of citizens of Statesboro, of Bulloch county, and of southeastern Georgia. For, as you read this, the ten-day drive for funds for Bulloch county's "Blue Baby" will have come to a close.

The campaign, which up until Wednesday noon had raised $1,675.60, has been extremely successful and has proved conclusively that there are plenty of good people in this section of our state.

They trail Barbara June Smith, the three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
