Two Heads Are Better Than One (Or None)
I get a kick out of buying stuff down at the hardware store. And I always ask for a little advice from one of the two brothers who run it, because I know beforehand exactly what the answer will be.
Like when I needed a new garden hose, "Henry," I says, "how about this new plastic hose—it is really as good as rubber?" "Well," he says, "I'm inclined to think it is—but you'd better ask Tom."
I found Tom in back and asks him the same question. "Well," says Tom, "in my opinion it is—"

18 Blood Donors Report Yesterday

Eighty-one blood donors reported to the Bloodmobile at the Community Center yesterday. Of this number, eight were rejected. 250 cards were mailed out asking the donor pledges if they could report to the bloodmobile for the next week.

14,140 Bulloch Countians Get Free VD-TB Tests; 2,360 Short Of Goal
Bulloch County's VD-TB drive ended Tuesday night after 14,140 people had taken the free tests. Bulloch fell 2,360 short of the 16,500 goal.

Three weeks to do follow-up work on the cases of syphilis and tuberculosis uncovered during the two-week drive.

The state team moves from Bulloch to Liberty county where a similar VD-TB survey will be conducted.

If Metter Can . . .

IF WE SHOULD just up and say, "Why sure, Metter is a better community than Statesboro. Why? Metter is on the hill. They get things done. They're civic-minded and work together," the local Chamber of Commerce would be down on us like a ton of bricks.

The local Jaycees would scream to high heavens, "Why, you low-life! Scores of 'Where Nature Smiles and Progress Has the Right-of-Way' singers would think we're off our trolley.

But, listen, citizens of Statesboro and Bulloch County: On September 27 when the American Red Cross Bloodmobile came to Statesboro to collect the blood pledges made in a recent drive only 64 citizens reported to the Community Center to offer their pint of blood. Twelve of these were rejected for various reasons and 52 persons donated that many pints of blood.

Recently, when the American Red Cross Bloodmobile went to Metter, they ran short of containers in which to collect the blood. One hundred and eleven pints of precious life-giving blood were donated by the citizens of Metter and Candler county. And 30 persons who volunteered to give their blood were turned away because the Bloodmobile operators had not figured on such an overwhelming response.

Our Bulloch County Hospital has used 100 pints of blood during the period in which the county's citizens were giving 52 pints. This means that the community which our hospital serves owes somebody 48 pints of blood. . . .

Could be that we owe it to the citizens of Metter and Candler!

Let's Be Santa Claus

ANY OLD TOYS this year? No? Well, now, think — what about that beat-up rocking-horse Santa brought Junior last Christmas . . . And there's that Donald Duck "gizmo" with all the wheels off . . . and there's that set of doll furniture that sister has outgrown . . . that little red wagon that Junior busted in with the hammer he got from off the back porch. . . .

And there's scores of toys stuck away in the closets or in Junior's or sister's toy trunk. . . .

And every time you clean out the closet and see these things you think to yourself, "What a shame to throw them out. There's someone who would just love to have them."

Now comes the opportunity to clear them out and at the same time to make some kid happy at 1949 Christmastime.

The Industrial Art classes at Statesboro High School, under the direction of Don Coleman, instructor, will again this year collect these broken down, busted up, discarded, unwanted last year's toys and repair them, mend them, paint them, and put them in proper hands for distribution.

Send them in, bring them in, mail them in, pull them in, push them in, or throw them in—but get those old toys in. . . .

And know that some young'un will be made Santa Claus-happy this December 25.

And, is there any reason why Statesboro cannot have a "Homes and Garden Tour" come springtime? Miss Hattie Powell planted the idea with us months ago. Home owners and garden fanciers in other communities like Statesboro open their homes and gardens that their neighbors might see them and enjoy them at the height of their season of beauty.

There are many beautiful homes here which citizens of this community would like to visit in a group. Homes housing rare and fine furniture, prize pictures, homes of modern design, with modern furnishings.

There are scores of lovely gardens here in which their owners take great pride and where beauty in proper season is without equal.

There's one for the Business and Professional Women's Club. Just an idea.

Well Done, Boys in Blue

WELL DONE, BOYS IN BLUE! Your heart-breaking game in Savannah last Friday raked the curtain down on the 1949 football season.

Just because you did not win that game and the region championship does not reduce your championship status in the eyes and hearts of your friends in Statesboro and Bulloch county.

In every game you played you provided your admirers with thrills—long runs, beautiful passes, terrific tackling, skillful blocking, and plenty of touchdowns.

At the moment the loss seems tremendously important. By the time you read this you will already be thinking about basketball.

And there's always another year. After all, you were just playing a game.

A Verse for This Week

Wait, then, my soul! submissive wait, Prostrate before His awful seat; And 'mid the terrors of His rod, Trust in a wise and gracious God!

—Beddome.

The Seal of Humanity

The Bloodmobile was here yesterday to collect more blood. They wanted 100 pints. We do not know if the visit was successful.

As we write this we wonder if this community is really as community-minded as we would have ourselves believe.

On Tuesday of this week the County Health Department wound up a campaign to test 16,500 citizens of this city and county for tuberculosis and venereal diseases. With the last report in on last Wednesday night, only four days to go, less than one-half that number had shown enough interest in the welfare of this city and community (only 8,154 of the 16,500 seemed interested in their own personal welfare), to report to a testing station and have an x-ray made and their blood tested.

We don't get it. With the progress of our community based upon the health and happiness of its citizens, with the health and happiness of our neighboring communities so inter-related, we must realize that our future is tied up in cooperation in all such movements as these two—the Bloodmobile and the VD-Test testing.

It's too late now to do anything about it. And to say "If Metter can . . ." would be to bring the wrath of the lip-serving citizenry about our head.

But we still have faith in this community. Where we come up short on two things, we go long on something else.

So, we can still sing "Where Nature Smiles and Progress Has the Right-of-Way", with the drum section playing the fortissimo!

TRAMP! TRAMP! TRAMP! Ratta-ta-tap, ratta-ta-tap, ratta-ta-tap-tap-tap! A-boom . . . a-boom . . . a-boom-boom! Boom-pah . . . boom-pah . . . boom-pah . . . boom-pah . . .

And marching they go. With the football season over, the Blue Devil Band goes marching on.

And on Saturday of this week they will go to Savannah and play in the annual Christmas parade. The parade is sponsored by the Merchants Council of the Savannah Chamber of Commerce.

Clear those old toys out today! Gather them up and put them in your car and bring them to the office of The Bulloch Herald, or take them directly to the High School and turn them over to Don Coleman and his classes.

If you bring them to our office on West Main street we'll see that they get to Mr. Coleman and his Industrial Arts classes. School is out on Friday, December 17. This means that there are only 10 days that can be devoted to this project. So do it today. Let's get them to Mr. Coleman now!

Send them in, bring them in, mail them in, pull them in, push them in, or throw them in—but get those old toys in. . . .

And know that some young'un will be made Santa Claus-happy this December 25.

Our community should be tremendously proud of this band organization. Gaining new experience weekly, the Blue Devil band is fast developing into one of the fine bands in the state.

We should be very proud of it. It pays off in intangible dividends—good will for Statesboro.

And, come Tuesday, we have an opportunity to show it. The blue Devil band, together with the Phi Mu honorary music fraternity of the college, is sponsoring the DeLand High School organization.

With restaurants, cafes, lunch counters all over hating the price of a cuppa coffee up to seven and ten cents, we want to commend our local coffee dispensers for holding the line.

A waitress at one of our cafes said this way: "It's a nickel here, but we don't know for how long."

We thought we had settled the price of that nickel cuppa coffee when the secretary of agriculture stated that there is no threat of a shortage of coffee, hence there was no need for a ten cent cuppa coffee.

And now comes Senator Johnson (Democrat), South Carolina, making a bid for the votes of all the nickel cuppa coffee boys. He says he's going to ask Congress to investigate the cost of coffee. He adds: "I feel that the American people should know just what it costs to get a cuppa coffee. The American family should be able to set down a cup of drinker on the breakfast table without having to pay some outrageous price due to causes yet to be known."

Makes good campaign talk. We hope we can keep our nickel cuppa coffee!

At the last meeting of the KHO four new pledges were initiated. These were W. L. Cason, Charles Cason, Sonny Wright and Charles Clements. The library committee completed their project last week and the library is now fast filling up with good books and sports magazines.

At the meeting this week plans will be completed for the Christmas party. The Christmas project of gathering toys for other children is off to a good start and anyone who has used toys that they would like to donate to the Knot Hole Club for this project are asked to call 4081 and a member of the club will pick them up. The club is open on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons from 3 until 5 p.m. for the members to work on their projects.

The Brownie troop, under the direction of Mrs. Joe Fuller, is off to an excellent start and it looks as though we will have one of the best Brownie programs to-date. All girls 7 through 10 are invited to join this group. They meet on Tuesday afternoons at 4 p.m. at the swimming pool.

BOY MAKES GOOD: Billy Johnson, who started off as pharmacist with Jacob's Pharmacy, has been named manager of the new Jacob's in East Atlanta. Mom went up for the opening.

BAPTIST LADIES will help to solve that special gift problem at Frances' Cloth Shop on South Main.

ROBERT AND LAVERNE BLAND have started a brick home on East Inman street. If you don't know where that is, you'll find it back of Ruth Sewell's.

As ever, JANE.

A waitress at one of our cafes said this way: "It's a nickel here, but we don't know for how long."

We thought we had settled the price of that nickel cuppa coffee when the secretary of agriculture stated that there is no threat of a shortage of coffee, hence there was no need for a ten cent cuppa coffee.

And now comes Senator Johnson (Democrat), South Carolina, making a bid for the votes of all the nickel cuppa coffee boys. He says he's going to ask Congress to investigate the cost of coffee. He adds: "I feel that the American people should know just what it costs to get a cuppa coffee. The American family should be able to set down a cup of drinker on the breakfast table without having to pay some outrageous price due to causes yet to be known."

Makes good campaign talk. We hope we can keep our nickel cuppa coffee!

At the last meeting of the KHO four new pledges were initiated. These were W. L. Cason, Charles Cason, Sonny Wright and Charles Clements. The library committee completed their project last week and the library is now fast filling up with good books and sports magazines.

At the meeting this week plans will be completed for the Christmas party. The Christmas project of gathering toys for other children is off to a good start and anyone who has used toys that they would like to donate to the Knot Hole Club for this project are asked to call 4081 and a member of the club will pick them up. The club is open on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons from 3 until 5 p.m. for the members to work on their projects.

The Brownie troop, under the direction of Mrs. Joe Fuller, is off to an excellent start and it looks as though we will have one of the best Brownie programs to-date. All girls 7 through 10 are invited to join this group. They meet on Tuesday afternoons at 4 p.m. at the swimming pool.

BOY MAKES GOOD: Billy Johnson, who started off as pharmacist with Jacob's Pharmacy, has been named manager of the new Jacob's in East Atlanta. Mom went up for the opening.

BAPTIST LADIES will help to solve that special gift problem at Frances' Cloth Shop on South Main.

ROBERT AND LAVERNE BLAND have started a brick home on East Inman street. If you don't know where that is, you'll find it back of Ruth Sewell's.

As ever, JANE.

Albin Eber Gives Thanks to Rotary

Members of the Statesboro Rotary Club are pleased with the record of their German student at the Georgia Teachers College. Dr. Marvin S. Pittman announced on Monday at the club meeting that young Eber is an "A" student.

The club voted to provide Eber with funds to continue his studies to secure his degree at the college. He can do this in three quarters.

Eber came here just a year ago under sponsorship of the Statesboro Rotary. In the December issue of "The Rotarian," the club's magazine, young Eber writes his thanks as follows:

MY THANKS TO ROTARY By ALBIN EBER

Who could have ever imagined that in a concert at the college on September 17, 1944, I was a German Coast Guardman at Brest, France, trying to blast the American forces out of the sky today. I was a member of the American air force and a close friend of one of those same American airmen.

Who did this miracle come to pass? With the fall of France I was captured and sent with three of my comrades to a prisoner-of-war camp in Western France. After seven months of war my good fortune to be sent, along with thousands of others, in a gigantic convoy to America.

Of course, I was the uniform of a P.O.W., but, strangely, I never once heard an epithet applied to me or any of my comrades because we had been enemies in war. It did not mean the Americans were too soft or sentimental. They were, rather, blessed with a wonderful spirit of sportsmanship which has taught the entire population how to deal with a vanquished foe.

When I finally was liberated and returned to my home in July, 1946, I naturally was glad the war was behind me, glad to be back with my own village in my native Bavaria. I was glad the war was behind me, glad to be back with my own village in my native Bavaria. I was glad the war was behind me, glad to be back with my own village in my native Bavaria.

While there I met Dr. Marvin S. Pittman, who was president of the Statesboro Rotary Club, and who had been sent by the American Army of Occupation as an educational expert to advise on matters of higher education in the colleges of Bavaria. Because I could speak English and had served as an interpreter while in prison camp, I was accepted as a possible enrollee of the semester.

I learned that Dr. Pittman had a son who had been a P.O.W. at Stalag Luft 3 in Germany. And even more surprising, Dr. Pittman had himself been reared near Grenada, Mississippi, where I had been a P.O.W. These two facts were enough to give us an immediate feeling of kinship.

When our conference ended, I assumed that I would never see nor hear from Dr. Pittman again. Then one day, months later, one of my fellow students rushed into my room with a message for me to report at once. Imagine, if you can, my surprise, my delight, my measureless joy, when he informed me that the Rotary Club of Statesboro, Georgia, were offering me a scholarship for one year to attend Georgia Teachers College—with all my expenses paid!

I feared that it was not really true, that I was having some wonderful dream, and that I would awake to find it only a dream. But it was true!

So, here I am in America, a student at Georgia Teachers College—the beneficiary of unbelievable hospitality and friendship.

In all this I have profited from two great ideals: international goodwill, and democracy in action. Ever since the close of the war, America as a nation has demonstrated these two great ideals. Rotary is now implementing these ideals through its program of service.

Congratulations TO THE WINNERS ON THEIR WELL EARNED VICTORY!

An outstanding array of Reports of Progress—all of excellent quality—made the judging most difficult in the 1949 Champion Home Town Contest. All factors, projects, accomplishments in the Reports were carefully considered, studied, weighed by five impartial, distinguished judges. Their selections are listed above—six prize winners, twelve honorable mentions, and eighteen "certificates of achievement."

But, citation or none, ALL towns in the Contest have accomplished many things that money cannot buy! Communities in this competition have acquired a spirit of cooperation, a forthright leadership, that help to create a brighter, cleaner, richer home town for each and every citizen!

We sincerely hope that all towns will go ever forward in Georgia's Parade of Progress. And to that end we pledge our efforts and our slogan: "A Citizen Wherever We Serve."

TC 'Professors' Announce 1949-50 Basketball Schedule; Play 27 Games

Blue Devils Lose—

The Jesup line completely dominated the game and with three hard running backs to come behind them, it was only a matter of time before the bruising power would tell. It almost didn't arrive and the longer the game went on, the more those six points on the scoreboard increased in size.

For one brief spell, Statesboro looked like the power it was supposed to be. After they found they couldn't make headway on the ground, they resorted to passing, and Ashton Cassidy fired until finally hit C. P. Claxton with a score. The kick for the extra point failed.

But in the long run, it was all-around power of the Jesup line that told the tale.

By far the outstanding players on the field were Mears and Ashton Cassidy.

Mears, besides being the big gun in the Jesup attack, was a stone wall on defense. He played guard in the line when Jesup didn't have the ball.

Cassidy just didn't have as much help as Mears. But, at head and shoulders above any other Statesboro player.

Coach Ben Park said after the game that he was the "finest player" he has met and called Cassidy "Statesboro's touchdown move" started when Hendrix recovered a fumble on the Jesup 45 just before the first quarter ended.

Cassidy passed twice to Jack Upchurch, and although the ball was right in his hands, he couldn't hold onto it. After a pass to Claxton failed, and backfield motion had set the ball back five yards, Cassidy hit Upchurch for a first down on the Jesup 37.

A fumble that went out of bounds lost to the 43 for the Blue Devils, but a penalty moved it to the 30. Cassidy then jumped up and hit Claxton right over the middle and he went over standing up.

Jesup, meanwhile, had moved inside the Statesboro 20 twice in the first half and were ahead on penetrations at the whistle.

The third quarter found neither team doing much damage. Late in the period, Jesup drove inside Statesboro's 10, only to be halted two plays after the fourth quarter started.

Statesboro punted out to their own 40 and on the first play Tommy Blitch recovered. Statesboro moved to a first down to the Jesup 40 and Joe Ben Cassidy carried to the 37, but Albritton intercepted a pass on the next play to the 39.

Statesboro intercepted one play later when Bobby Olliff batted the ball into Upchurch's hands on the Statesboro 38. Joe Ben Cassidy made three, but a fumble lost to the 34. Statesboro kicked, and Jesup started that touchdown drive from their own 42 with four minutes left.

Left Half Blitch Polk carried to the 46, and Mears, on a pitchout, ran his own right end to the Statesboro 45 for a first down. Cassidy carried to the 36 for another first. Mears lost one on a reverse, and Polk got no more than that on the next play. Mears moved to the 31, then exploded through the middle to the 17. Polk carried to the 15, Mears to the 10, and Count failed to gain. Polk made it a first down to the four and Mears scooted over. His run for the extra point through the middle ended the scoring.

Joe Ben Cassidy carried the kickoff to the 33 and after falling once, Ashton Cassidy then hit Olliff for a first down to the Statesboro 44. Blitch pulled his dazzling run that was 15 yards short of glory and victory. That was the ball game.

Score by periods:

Jesup 0 0 0 7—7

Camilla, Hopeful, Winners in Georgia Power Co.'s Champion Home Contest

A little place called Hopeful made hope and hard work pay off, and Camilla, the city that wasn't satisfied with second place, took first.

Within 12 miles of each other in northwest Georgia, Camilla and Hopeful are the two $1,000 top prize winners of the 1949 Champion Home Town Contest, sponsored by the Georgia Power Company, in which 286 communities were entered and 211 qualified for the judging by submitting progress reports. Since taking second place in the 1948 contest, civic leaders of Camilla had publicly announced their determination to be first this year. Little Hopeful, a community of 200 inhabitants served by an REA line, doesn't even appear on most Georgia maps.

Among the 112 towns that finished the contest in the group of over 1,000 population, second prize of $750 went to Toccoa and the third prize of $500 was won by Gainesville. Among the 99 small communities, Chatsworth was second and Nicholls third.

Because of the large number of other outstanding entries, the power company increased the total prize money from $4,500 to $5,700 in order to give awards of $100 each to 12 towns chosen by the judges for honorable mention. These are Arlington, Dalton, Ellijay, Sylva, Sylvester, and Thomaston; and Buchanan, Danville, Fairmount, Hartem, Jasper and Ludowici.

Eighteen other communities were selected to receive special Certificates of Achievement for the high quality of their civic improvement efforts. These are Brunswick, Carrollton, Cedartown, Easton, Marietta, Monticello, Smyrna, Thomson and Tifton; and Alley, Ellaville, Forest Park, Funston, Linnell, Mansfield, Sain, Marys, Sandy Springs, and Watkinsonville.

Final judges of the contest were Raimundo de Ovie, dean emeritus of St. Philip's Cathedral in Atlanta; Dr. M. D. Mobley, state director of vocational education; Mrs. Pauline Parks Wilson, dean of home economics at the University of Georgia; Miss Susan Myrick, associate editor of the Macon Telegraph; and O. M. Jackson, vice president of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce.

The cash prizes for the six top winners will be awarded at a series of dinners in January.

County Is Short On Blood Donors

Despite the fact the Red Cross Bloodmobile on its second visit to Statesboro and Bulloch county obtained more blood than the first visit is still falling short of the 100-pint quota every two months.

The Bloodmobile on its second visit secured blood from 82 volunteers which was 18 pints short of the quota. Bulloch county has been using over 50 pints of blood each month and Red Cross officials say that the county should at least contribute 50 pints each month. The officials also pointed out that the American Red Cross does not need any blood and that the blood given by volunteers is for local use and is free of any cost to the user.

On the second visit of the Bloodmobile, Congressman Prince H. Preston of the First District was first line as a donor. Ed Hartley, general field representative of the Southeastern Area, American Red Cross, was second in line as a volunteer blood contributor.

Cotton Farmers To Vote On 1950 Cotton Quotas
Around 3,000 cotton farmers in Bulloch are eligible to vote in the national marketing quota referendum Thursday, December 15, Mr. L. Taylor, chairman of the county PMA committee, announced today.

"Farmers who produced cotton in 1948 are eligible to vote. Every farmer who had an interest in the 1948 crop as owner, tenant, or sharecropper may cast his ballot," Mr. Taylor said. "However," he added, "no producer can vote more than once in the referendum even though he has several farms in cotton production. The Secretary of Agriculture has declared quotas on the 1950 crop. It is up to the farmers themselves to approve or reject them."

Pilots to Play Bulldogs Today in League Playoff
In the football league, junior size, the Cardinals this week dropped their candy to the Bull Dogs and are out of the running for the American Legion trophy.

The Bull Dogs eased out the Cards on a long pass from Jimmy Jones to Bobby Steptoe in the last few minutes of the game to win 6 to 0.

The Pilots dropped their first game of the playoff to the Red Caps, with Gene Newton and Gordon Franklin on the injury list. Max Roberts tallied three of the six touchdowns for the Red Caps.

Today the Pilots will play the Bull Dogs to determine which team will play the Red Caps for the championship trophy.

The Red Caps are already the league champions, on the basis of the league play, having gone the entire season undefeated. However, the junior league rules call for a city-wide playoff.

Sen. George Tells FB Members Why He Believes In Farm Help

Senator Walter R. George told Georgia's largest Farm Bureau Federation bureau in annual convention here today that if the farmer cannot get reasonable income out of his efforts it will be entirely impossible to maintain a higher national income and that was the reason why he strongly believed in farm relief.

Speaking before an overflowing crowd of Bulloch County Farm Bureau members in the main auditorium of the Georgia Teachers College, the senior Senator from Georgia reviewed agricultural legislation in the National Congress from its beginning to the most recent bills passed.

He pointed to early land grants, later the extension service, and 1916 farm financing, vocational training, and on down to the legislation following World War I Side Community Center's bar-becue supper tomorrow (Friday) night. Just a dollar!

Don't Let Santa Claus Be a Fireman!
This week Christmas trees will be bought and preparations will be made for setting them up.

Logan Hagan, local fire chief, offers the following warning:

"DON'T LET SANTA CLAUS BE A FIREMAN!"

He urges home owners to keep Christmas trees by preventing fire in their homes. Here are four safety rules he suggests:

1. Never use candles to decorate Christmas trees. Use electric lights instead.
2. See that lighting sets and cords are in good condition. Look for the U.L. label on your lighting sets.
3. Never use cotton or other inflammable decorations on or around your tree.
4. Place tree in the coolest part of the room; never near fireplaces or radiators.

Remember—Christmas trees are inflammable! Keep your Christmas merry. Play it safe!

Ellis Furniture Co. Hit By Fire Mon. Afternoon
One of the worst fires in recent years hit the business district here late Monday afternoon when the John H. Brannen Building on West Main Street was completely destroyed.

Lewis Ellis operated the Ellis Furniture Company in the building. His stock of furniture and some appliances was a complete loss.

The fire was discovered about 6:30 Monday afternoon and kept the Statesboro fire department battling for nearly four hours. Fire Chief Logan Hagan stated that the fire was out by midnight but that firemen remained on duty the remainder of the night.

The fire is believed to have been started by defective wiring. Mr. Hagan stated that the fire in the closed building, blew out plate glass windows. By the time the fire department arrived the building was engulfed in flames.

Mr. Ellis, owner of the furniture company, said that his stock was partially covered by insurance. He stated that he will continue his furniture business and will operate in the building next to the destroyed one, where the Firestone Store formerly was located. He added that none of his records and books were destroyed. He expected to have a new stock of home furnishings immediately.

Hudson Allen To Head 1950 Fair
Hudson Allen will again head the Bulloch county fair for 1950. Mr. Allen was the general chairman for this year.

Cecil Kennedy and Rufus G. Branson were also retained by the overall committee to be vice president and secretary, respectively, for next year. The committee met Friday afternoon to make plans for 1950.

The Home Demonstration clubs were invited to again put on the exhibits and the 4-H Club to do the work in getting ready for the fair. P. F. Davis, Milledgeville, was asked to assume the promotional end of the fair. He accepted and plans to come here early next year to make definite plans from the interest side.

October 16 to 21 was designated as the date desired. The Royal Shows could not be procured for earlier dates.

Some system of adding a good livestock display is to be worked out if finances will permit. With the present livestock work in connection with the fair.

ENTRANCE TO NOW TO BE 'ALUMNI PARK'

Don't Let Your Xmas Cards 'Die' In Post Office
It'll take a two-cent stamp on your unsealed Christmas cards this year, if it is deposited at the peak of the Christmas mailing rush and it has no return address.

If you wish your beautiful Christmas message to reach your friends, Postmaster Turner suggests that you use the first class service at 3 cents each. He points out that this type mail receives "directory service" which means that skilled post office clerks try to trace down addresses who may have moved since you last heard from them. It may be forwarded from one address to another. And if your friends cannot be found your card will come back to you, if your card bears your return address.

If you put a two-cent stamp on your Christmas card it goes as third class mail. It must not be Continued on back page
