FOR REPRESENTATIVE
To the Voters of Bulloch County: I hereby announce my candidacy to succeed myself as Representative from Bulloch County, to serve in the House of Representatives of the State Legislature, subject to the rules of the Democratic Primary, to be held June 28, next. I will appreciate your vote, support and influence, and will earnestly strive, as before, to represent your best interests. Sincerely,
ALGIE J. TRAPPNELL (4-20-31p)

FOR STATE SENATOR
Subject to the rules of the Democratic Primary to be held June 28, 1950, I hereby announce my candidacy for State Senator from the 49th Senatorial District of Georgia, comprising Bulloch, Camden and Evans counties, subject to the rules of the Democratic Primary to be held on June 28, 1950. As one of the co-authors of the Representative during the past session, held in 1948, and during the special session last July, and during this session completed in January, it was my purpose to serve you in a manner that would further the best interests of all the people of Bulloch county. My record will show a consistent vote for the things that meant progress for our State and County, and it will likewise show a consistent vote against all measures that were introduced by anyone from a partisan political standpoint for his own interest and against the welfare of the people as a whole. My record will show that I was one of the co-authors of the Minimum Foundation Program for Education, that I voted for this act for the betterment of our educational system in Georgia as it would materially improve our grade school system and also our Georgia Teachers College, and, to go even further, I voted to finance this program as one without the other was mere politics. I feel that my experience in the House of Representatives would aid me in representing you in the State, where your best interests would be protected. My promises to you is my past record and my desire to serve you fairly, impartially and honestly in every matter that it would be my pleasure to have before me. Your vote and influence in my behalf will be greatly appreciated. Sincerely,
A. S. DODD, JR.

FOR CONGRESS
Subject to the rules adopted by the State Democratic Executive Committee and the rules adopted by the First District Democratic Executive Committee, I hereby announce my candidacy for re-election as Representative in the Congress of the United States in the forthcoming Democratic Primary to be held on June 28, 1950. In again seeking the Democratic nomination, I wish to express my sincere appreciation for the support and cooperation given me

Ladies' Day Golf Tournery Is Held

In the first of a series of bi-monthly golf tournaments being held for the ladies of the Forest Heights Country Club, Mrs. Sam Straus and Mrs. Joe Brown tied for first place.

Mrs. Grady Bland placed second, Mrs. Lloyd Brannen, third; and Mrs. Charles Olliv was winner of the special award for the day.

Other entrants in the ladies' tournament were: Mrs. Buster Bowen, Mrs. Hugh Arundel, Mrs. Arnold Rose, and Mrs. Fleming Pruitt.

Hank Donchevsky, golf professional at the club, states that this handicap tournament marks the first of a series to be known as "Ladies' Day," to be held every first and third Tuesday of each month. Various types of tournaments will be featured on these days. Lunch will be served at the club for the players.

In the first Ladies' Day players teed off at 10 o'clock. Mrs. Clint Anderson served lunch, made up of creamed chicken with noodles, tomato salad, fresh butterbeans, hot rolls, tea, and ice cream.

After lunch the last nine holes were played and awards were made.

The feature of the first tournament was the evenly matched play throughout the day.

For further information regarding Ladies' Day call Mr. Donchevsky at the club.

Local Golfers Win Two Cups

The Chamber of Commerce will hold a full-time secretary shortly. The Chamber of Commerce has its way, some of the present area around the city will be taken into the corporate limits of the city. Many of the places of business around the city limits are enjoying city advantages but are not helping to pay for them to the extent that city dwellers are paying, according to the thinking of many members of the organization.

Statesboro Sees New Annex at High School

Citizens and patrons of Statesboro High School were guests of the City Board of Education, Supt. S. H. Sherman, and members of the faculty of the high school, at open house at the high school building yesterday afternoon.

The new annex to the school building, the renovated building, the renovated auditorium, the new stage, the new library, and the lunchroom, together with other improvements.

The annex to the building is on the east wing of the old structure and houses the seventh, eighth and ninth grades of the Junior High School. It is three stories high and of the same construction as the original building. There are nine new rooms and four renovated rooms.

The renovated auditorium will seat 700 people. The new stage is one of the most modern in this section. There are two new curtains with backdrops and side curtains.

The lunchroom in the basement under the auditorium and the new stage are believed to be the largest in this section.

All the new classrooms have the latest type lighting, fixtures, ceiling, blackboards, and other facilities.

A new boiler and heating system will provide heat for the building in winter.

Supt. Sherman says the additions to the present plant will take care of Statesboro's future needs. There are now 636 students in grammar school and 288 in high school.

Indications are these cattle will attract one of Statesboro's largest crowds; a livestock-come party. Requests to the county agents of the various counties have been pouring in for two weeks. These letters are from most every section of the southeast. One is from Purdue University, LaPorte, Indiana, another from Cincinnati, Ohio, Kansas City, Missouri, Little Rock, Arkansas, and then from the south as far away as St. Petersburg, Fla. Myers, Orlando, Ft. Pierce and other Florida towns. Many requests are from this section of Georgia, South Carolina, Tennessee, and from the entire here and brought them to the Statesboro Livestock Commission Company here to sell.

The lot has 120 cows with November and December calves at foot, and rebred; 52 heifers, two-year olds rebred to calve in the early fall; 50 yearling cows with second and third calves to drop in the early fall; and eight sties. Six of the sties are two-year olds of Prince Domino breeding; one is a five-year old son of T. Royal Roper 60th and one is a four-year old son of the same sire. The lot also has been treated with TB and Bangs twice since September and will stay "clean."

305 Herefords To Be Sold Here

They Follow the Sun...

TO THE DOUBTING Thomases who pose the stock question, "What good does the tourist do us here in Statesboro?" one Statesboro businessman has an answer.

It seems this business man is getting a little fed up with expressions of doubt that tourists using U.S. Highway 301, U.S. Highway 25, and U.S. Highway 20 through Statesboro on their way to and from tourist playgrounds in Florida bring any lasting benefits to our community.

He made a survey. A pretty complete survey. And he can back it up, for those who wish to challenge him.

Beginning at Phil Bean's "Ogeechee Lodge" on U.S. 301, near Dover, and moving along 301 into town, through town, and on out to "Tobacco Trail" on 301, he found that 23 businesses had added 110 people to their payrolls.

These are 110 brand new jobs created by the motorists who choose 301 as their tourist route.

No attempt was made to determine the amount of salaries paid in these 110 people in these 110 newly created "301" jobs.

No attempt was made to determine the amount paid to contractors, builders, building supply concerns, carpenters, brick masons, for constructing new buildings, improving present buildings—that the wishes, the desires, the whims of people following the sun might be granted—for a sum.

We'll go along with this businessman and his figures.

If there is any doubt in your mind that tourists add something to the material welfare of our community, take time out and observe the new tourist motels built within the last two years to house the travellers—for a sum; the new restaurants and improvements to existing restaurants to feed the travellers—for a sum; the new filling stations, and improvements to existing filling stations to supply gas and oil to travellers—for a sum.

All these spending money to attract the tourists, who respond generously when pleased with what they see and buy.

And the money taken in by these businessmen fans out to the groceryman, the druggist, the clothier, the theatres, the auto dealer, the baker, and on out over the community.

And we improve our recreation center, more streets are improved, store fronts are cleaner, homes are better kept.

No benefit from tourists?

Sit this one out and figure it yourself.

And IF Bulloch county should have a crop failure—there'll always be enough tourists with enough money to follow the sun... down U.S. 301, right through Statesboro.

Remember "Mother"

SUNDAY, MAY 14, is Mother's Day. To express your homage in time-honored fashion, serve her steaming waffles. Preferably in bed.

Later in the day you'll be showering her with gifts, flowers, and warm-hearted Mother's Day greeting cards. But waffles are the most traditional Mother's Day present of them all.

Ancient Romans held a festival in honor of the Mother-Goddess Hilaria on the fifteenth of March each year. Feasting, music and dancing followed offerings in her temples. To lure converts, early Christian missionaries distributed the first "waffles"—hot, crisp, grid-stamped cakes.

Devotion to mother is an ancient tradition. King Solomon paid history's first great tribute to mother love when he judged between two women claiming the same child. And many generations of Jewish and Christian children alike have bowed before the Biblical command, "Honor Thy Father and Thy Mother."

All over the world, motherhood is held in high esteem. Extreme veneration for family patriarchs is an ancient Chinese tradition. The Taj Mahal of India, the world's most beautiful building, is a monument to a mother. Shah Jehan built it in memory of Mumtaz Mahal, his favorite wife and mother of his sons. He lives buried there beside her.

Mothers in medieval Europe were honored on "The Virgin's Day," dedicated to the mother of Christ. On Midlent Sunday—the fourth Sunday before Easter—presenters were brought to Mary's shrines and living mothers were similarly remembered.

Sixteenth Century England converted Midlent Sunday into "Mothering Sunday." Boy and girl apprentices journeyed home for the day, bringing remembrances and trinkets. Mother's traditional gift became a simple cake—a rich plum pudding enclosed in a very hard crust.

The famous American statue, "The Pioneer Woman," honors the valiant mothers who carried civilization westward through hostile Indian territory. President Abraham Lincoln expressed typical appreciation when he said, "All I am or hope to be, I owe to my angel mother." At the age of 9, he had stood by her deathbed as she voiced her last request, "Be something, Abe."

The first specific "Mother's Day" in the United States was not a popular success. Miss Mary Towles Sasseen, a school teacher in Henderson, Ky., in 1887 began holding annual exercises to honor mothers. The idea was adopted by the schools of Springfield, Ohio, in 1890, but it spread no further.

Miss Anna M. Jarvis founded our present Mother's Day in 1907 when she arranged a memorial service for her own mother in Andrews Methodist Church in Grafton, W. Va. Her spirited campaign for nationwide observance was crowned with success in 1914, when President Wilson signed a Congressional Resolution setting aside the second Sunday in May as Mother's Day and authorizing Federal display of the flag.

The custom of annually expressing affection for Mother with thoughtful gifts and warmly sentimental Mother's Day greeting cards has spread steadily ever since.

May 26—Opportunity Day

MAY 26 REPRESENTS "Opportunity Day" for farmers of Bulloch county.

For on that day 305 head of purebred Hereford cattle will be sold at auction at the barns of the Statesboro Livestock Commission Company.

The demand for purebred breeding stock in Bploch county this spring has far exceeded the supply. The Bulloch county farmers' problem today is a lack of sufficient cows in their breeding herds.

Included in the nine carloads of cattle received here last Friday, and now grazing in Bulloch county, are 120 cows with November and December calves at foot, and rebred; 52 heifers, two-year olds, bred to calve in the early fall; 50 cows, now with second and third calves to drop in the early fall; and 8 sires. Six of the sires are two-year olds of Prince Domino breeding; one is a five-year-old son of T. Royal Rupert 60th, and one is a four-year-old son of a Prince Domino Return Bull.

All of these cattle have been tested for TB and Bangs twice since September and will sell "clean."

These purebred cattle come here from the M. B. Hughey Estate of Charlotte, Texas, a section of the country very much like that we have here. John C. and W. F. Smithdale Farm, Limestone, Tennessee, bought the entire herd and brought them to Statesboro, where they will be sold. They are now grazing in this county and will be adapted to local conditions by sale time.

This sale will give Bulloch County farmers an opportunity to add profit-making stock to their herds.

We believe one of the best ways to utilize land taken from row crops by artificial allotments is to convert the land into good permanent pastures and graze it with good blooded livestock—the kind of livestock that will utilize this feed to the best advantage. Livestock will give more dollars per pound of feed.

The Two Great Hopes For Peace

Editor's Uneasy Chair

LAST WEEK six of Statesboro's youthful poets occupied our Uneasy Chair. Now, a new crop of poets take over this week. Please be patient. Read their poems and know that we are ever on the side of youth and stand on "ready" to promote everything we can for their happiness. And if it makes them happy to see their poems in print, then we print them—and you'll better like them.

MOON THROUGH THE SKIES
As I look through my window each night,
I see a most beautiful sight.
The moon casting a frosty light through the pines
Inspired me to write these lines.
—JEAN MARTIN.

THE MOON
The moon waltz in the sky
Sat and watched the stars dance
By and when a dark cloud passed his face,
He frowned and hoped it would hurry its pace.
—ROBERT STOCKDALE.

FLOWING WATER
The water flows down the stream.
It shines like a silver beam.
It whispers to the lonesome trees
And plays a melody with the breeze.
—DEAN ARNETT.

FISHING
Smoothly floating on the pond,
Of fishing I am very fond.
Bait your hook and throw it in,
Fishing happily till day's end.
Carry home your string of fish,
Mother'll clean them, that's your wish.
But Mother has another thought.
To you the knife she has brought.
Tired and sleepy, weary too,
This day has the best of you.
Fun was fun while it lasted;
But now it's work, dad-blast it!
—JOE JOHNSTON.

ALL'S FAIR

Believe me, I hang my head in shame; when I telephone rang, I hardly knew my name. "Is this 212," a strange voice said (nice one, too). "Oh, dear," I thought, "Is somebody dead?" "What's playing at the Georgia Theatre," the voice gently coaxed. I smothered a yawn—"What's this?" I wondered. "Am I being hoaxed?" "THIS IS BOB Thompson, WYNS."

RIGHT THEN WE came to the conclusion that a man who has the nerve to wake us up at seven o'clock in the morning is fearless, intrepid, energetic. We soon appeared at WYNS and encountered so much activity that we thought we should have done the breakfast dishes or least dusted the living room when we left home.

WE MET Bob Thompson, who introduced us to Jack LoPrestiz, program director.

THE INTERIOR of the radio station is being redecorated. Venetian blinds, drapes, and other changes are being made. Before Bob has Open House he plans to have the grounds landscaped.

WE KNOW how to sympathize with Ruth Mrs. John N. Hushing of Brooklet, as we saw her stop half way up the stairs at a department store. Ruth was accompanied by her twin sister, Lella. Mrs. Bland Lella has constantly attended her twin since a serious operation several months ago. Ruth looked wonderful to us. We felt like applauding her efforts as she rallied and continued up the stairs. Anyone who has had a similar experience can appreciate the spunk it takes to go all the way to the top. Ruth, honey, it will be so much easier next time.

WERE GLAD that Mrs. George Lovell recovered from an operation in time for Rev. Lovell to attend the Southern Baptist Convention in Chicago. We thought this was cute when we heard it, so we pass it on: Margaret Robertson (Mrs. Dr. Hunter) was dressing to go out to the hospital to visit Mrs. Lovell. Florence Ann, the one who's just three, recognized that certain activities at the dressing table meant that mother was going places. "Where are you going Mother?" Margaret went right on applying lipstick, but managed a reply, "I am going to see Mrs. Lovell; she's at the hospital." Florence Ann, quite seriously queried, "Is the Giant's mother in the hospital?" To Florence Ann, George Lovell is still the "Giant" from "Jack and the Bean Stalk," presented at the college auditorium by the Children's Theatre group recently.

COOKING SCHOOL, sponsored by the Junior Woman's Club with Alfred Marie Savas, president, and Betty Parker doing the cooking, attracted large crowds both Wednesday and Thursday afternoons of last week. Right in front of our eyes she prepared "Best Stroganoff." We hope we spelled it right. And we're glad we don't have to pronounce it. But upon viewing the finished dish, as reflected in a mirror behind it, we think we could have eaten it. Betty made a "Jack Robinson" cake—as fast as you could say it. Come to think of it, Betty wouldn't have had to "know you was a-come," to have baked a cake. We marvelled that she did so many things right before our eyes without getting all hot and bothered. There were no flour smudges on the tip of her nose and no beaten eggs on the ceiling. She even slipped in jokes—like the one about the Negro cook who carried home grapefruit rinds. When asked by the lady of the house, "What are you going to do, candy them?" "No, m'am," her cook said, "I'm going to put 'em in the garbage can. They makes it look so stylish."

WE SAW lovely Betty Bird Sanders of Augusta down town with a large fello under her arm. We promptly reached for it, and were we amazed! And for a time inarticulate. In the folio were beautiful flowers that Betty had done. A collection of her work was used in a private showing at Mrs. Goodrich's during the National Golf Tournament here there last week. They bought up all of her rose prints. But we admired her collection of camellia prints. Then when we saw her magnolia prints we were undecided which were prettier, and upon seeing the delicate beauty of her iris in water color, we gave up. We wanted them all. We hope some of our neighbors buy some so when we feel a bit dejected, we can get a lift by

YOUTH

The baseball program at the Recreation Center is in full swing, with more than 100 boys playing in the Junior, Senior, and Midget leagues.

SENIOR LEAGUE
The Gold Bricks won a close one over the Cobras in a rainy game, 3 to 2. Lurette hurried for the Cobras and Randy Everett for the Gold Bricks. Each gave up but one hit.

JUNIOR LEAGUE
The Bull Dogs ran over the Red Caps 14 to 3. Stockdale and Evans were pitchers for the Red Caps and Paul Waters hurled for the Bull Dogs. Buddy Preestorius, manager of the Bull Dogs, slammed out four for four and scored three runs.

MIDGET LEAGUE
The Indians defeated the Thunderbolts 9 to 5 in their second win of the week. Butch Collins pitched for the Indians, and John Dekle was the mound for the Thunderbolts. John M. Jackson hit 500 for the Thunderbolts and Franklin Newsome and Dodi got one each for the Indians. Dekle gave up only three hits to lose a tough game.

The Rattlers defeated the Cobras 4 to 3. Don Anderson hurled for the Cobras and Bill Adams for the Rattlers.

The Cobras are out in front by a single game, with the Rattlers second, Thunderbolts third, and Indians fourth.

merely drinking in the exquisite beauty Betty has created with her pen.

SOMEDAY about lunch time over on South College street you can see Laddie Boy, a dog belonging to W. M. Harrison's, carrying a neatly wrapped package. He turns in at the grammar school and goes straight to Sandra Harrison's room for the sandwiches which his mother has prepared. Laddie Boy watches his little mistress eat her lunch. Sandra then hands the dog the wax paper and he carries it home. We forgot to ask if he puts the paper in the garbage can.

WHAT WOMAN cooked her Sunday dinner recently, all dressed up and wearing an orchid corsage.

JANE CLAIMS a little credit for a high school senior receiving her graduation present last week. In last week's column we mentioned that a short-haired, blue-eyed girl might receive a diamond ring most any day now. "Dinky" Nichols, our next door neighbor, had her heart set on a diamond, and when she read the item, she read it aloud to her Grandmother Futch. "Dinky" went to the mirror and studied her features carefully. No matter how the light fell on her those eyes were practically black. "It can't be me," she sighed. Then "Mama" as "Dinky" calls her grandmother, got to thinking and decided she didn't want to disappoint her granddaughter. Just a few days ago, "Dinky," with shining eyes, showed me her beautiful diamond, encircled with smaller diamonds in a platinum setting—a gift from "Mama" Futch.

WE HAVEN'T inquired lately if the mother who has the diamond ready for her daughter has finally made the presentation ahead of time. Virginia Lee Floyd is among the lucky ones who have already received diamonds for graduation gifts. "Ginny" is a former belonging to her grandmother, reset for her by her parents.

As ever,
JANE.

Farm Bureau

Portal F.B. Hears Mrs. Joe Ray, President of Associated Women

Mrs. Joe S. Ray, president of the Associated Women of the Georgia Farm Bureau, was the guest of honor at the Portal Farm Bureau meeting Thursday night.

Mrs. Ray urged the ladies to be more active in the Farm Bureau and pointed out that the major objective of the Farm Bureau was to improve the standard of living on the farm. The ladies control the spending of some 85 percent of income and if any organization helped to increase the farm income, then the ladies should help promote that organization, she stated.

Mrs. Ray then came right back at the men and asked them to call on the lady members to help and to give them a job. Most women felt that they should help, but so many of them do not know what to do.

Portal F.B.A. girls put on a style show as a part of the program. Motion pictures followed the barbecue supper, enjoyed by the 400 present. C. M. Cowart, president of the county Associated Women, told the Wilson group. She stated that they would have a county contest some time around the middle of May. These young ladies must be from 15 to 20 years of age, talented, and good leaders, she stated.

Farm Bureau groups are being selected by all the community chapters and will be brought together to name a county queen later this month.

DENMARK, MIDDLEGROUND HEAR SUPT. H. P. WOMACK
Denmark and Middle Ground had H. P. Womack, county school superintendent, as speaker at their meetings last week. Mr. Womack discussed conditions of the schools in the county briefly and expressed belief that patrons as a whole were behind their schools more now than had ever been. They are not only improving the buildings and grounds, but are making every possible effort to have better schools.

Mr. Womack predicted that Bulloch county would have the best schools next year it has ever had. Discussions on cotton dusting to control the boll weevil, and use of bottled gas in tractors was a part of the program at all the meetings.

R. P. Mikell, county president, discussed methods used in getting the livestock sanitation program underway by the Georgia Farm Bureau, pointing out that the past two state conventions passed resolutions demanding that the Farm Bureau try to get such legislation passed. The move was started by Georgia farmers and not by any officials of the Farm Bureau.

STILSON
Stilson's senior class served the supper at the meeting that chapter Wednesday night. Emerson Proctor, class president, stated they were trying to raise enough money to again go to Washington with the seniors.

A motion picture on milking of goats and how to get them to produce more milk was a part of the Stilson Bureau program.

DENMARK, MIDDLEGROUND HEAR SUPT. H. P. WOMACK
Denmark and Middle Ground had H. P. Womack, county school superintendent, as speaker at their meetings last week. Mr. Womack discussed conditions of the schools in the county briefly and expressed belief that patrons as a whole were behind their schools more now than had ever been. They are not only improving the buildings and grounds, but are making every possible effort to have better schools.

Mr. Womack predicted that Bulloch county would have the best schools next year it has ever had. Discussions on cotton dusting to control the boll weevil, and use of bottled gas in tractors was a part of the program at all the meetings.

R. P. Mikell, county president, discussed methods used in getting the livestock sanitation program underway by the Georgia Farm Bureau, pointing out that the past two state conventions passed resolutions demanding that the Farm Bureau try to get such legislation passed. The move was started by Georgia farmers and not by any officials of the Farm Bureau.

STILSON
Stilson's senior class served the supper at the meeting that chapter Wednesday night. Emerson Proctor, class president, stated they were trying to raise enough money to again go to Washington with the seniors.

A motion picture on milking of goats and how to get them to produce more milk was a part of the Stilson Bureau program.

In May, 1950, on the occasion of the REA's Fifteenth Birthday

For an Electrified Georgia... WHERE WE OURSELVES CAN'T BUILD WE WILL HELP OTHERS TO BUILD

DURING all these years that the Georgia Power Company has been working side by side with REA cooperatives, providing electric service to the citizens of this State, our policy has never varied. Where we cannot build we will help others to build.

Now, the job of extending service to rural Georgians is almost completed—about 90 per cent completed, as a matter of fact. But that does not signal the end of our cooperation with the REA. In 1950, and in the years to come, we will continue to extend our lines and continue to help REA cooperatives extend their lines to the few Georgians now without electric service. We will continue to supply REA cooperatives with dependable electric power at low wholesale rates—rates so low that farmers throughout the State can make the fullest use of electricity.

The REA's 15-year record of service to rural America is a good record. The REA deserves hearty congratulations on a fine job well done. So from the Georgia Power Company to the REA goes a Happy Birthday wish—and a pledge of continued cooperation in building an Electrified Georgia!

These Services—And More!
The Georgia Power Company, we will help you get the most out of your electric service. For an ELECTRIFIED GEORGIA, we will help you get the most out of your electric service. We will help you get the most out of your electric service. We will help you get the most out of your electric service.

COME SEE FOR YOURSELF!

THIS TIME we'd like to tell you about something that you cannot see in this picture—something, in fact, you cannot know about from looking at someone else in a passing Buick—or from viewing a Buick on our showroom floor.

It's the feel you get from a Buick in motion.

You are going to find out that it is something like traveling on your own private, jet-propelled cloud—only firmer.

Maybe you know a stretch of washboard road, where you have to slow down, or bounce and jitter.

Try that in a Buick and see how you keep a level, comfortable boulevard smoothness.

Maybe you're always on edge to dodge dips and chuckholes. Those also lose

Each member received a nose-gay of sweet peas, and the outgoing president, Mrs. Paul Carroll, and the incoming president, Mrs. John Erickson, received corsages of center pieces.

Other officers installed for the coming year were the following: progress pins were awarded to the following members of the band: Guy McLendon, Jr., Guy Freeman, Carey Donaldson, Linda Heath, Jane Morris, and Geraldine Lane. These pins are presented to those who meet certain required points on their progress charts.

On Friday and Saturday Mr. McLendon attended the annual G. E. A. Planning Conference at Milledgeville. He represented the First District of the Georgia Music Educators' Association.

The High School Band played for assembly at Georgia Teachers College Monday.

most of their jolt when you're at the wheel of a Buick—or in the rear seat.

In a few simple words—the ride of any Buick—Special, Super or Roadmaster—is out of this world!

We could give you a lot of reasons. Soft coil springs on all four wheels, for example—the firm linkage of the torque-tube drive—the distribution of weight—big soft tires on wide rims—the way Buick engines are mounted.

Even Dynaflo Drive*—always silky-smooth and free of geared-drive harshness—plays its part in the marvelous Buick ride.

But why simply listen to reasons? Experience is still the best teacher.

Come see for yourself why the Buick ride is called "matchless"—and how little it costs to replace a jittersbuggy with one of these level-striding honies.

*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on SUPER and SPECIAL models.

ONLY BUICK HAS Dynaflo—AND WITH IT GOES:
HIGHER-COMPRESSION Freebalt valve-in-head power in three engines. Teachers College Nine's Fast Start Has Slowed Down to a Slow Trot

What promised to be one of the most successful baseball seasons at Georgia Teachers College will end this week as possibly one of the worst.

While the Professor Nine could have been in games here with Newberry College Monday night and Piedmont College this Friday and Saturday afternoon, they were not expected to improve their standing in a three-day trek to North Georgia last week end. The record on departure was seven victories and eight defeats.

Injuries to key players, academically obligations preventing travel by class of 1950 to investigate careers in the peacetime Navy.

Rotarians Hear Foreign Students

Rotarians were given a lesson in international relations recently when Dr. M. S. Pittman presented a young lady from Seoul, Korea, who is studying in the Statesboro Rotary Club, who, in turn, introduced the other young people.

Dr. Pittman presented Albin Eber, German student, who has been attending Georgia Teachers College near two years, under sponsorship of the Statesboro Rotary Club, who, in turn, introduced the other young people.

Hans Grossman, of Ulm, Germany, made a brief statement in which he likened personal contact and friendship, mutual understanding and information and education to the three principal ingredients which make up concrete—cement, sand, and steel—with which he build the foundations of a great "bridge" joining the United States and Germany.

Teachers College Nine's Fast Start Has Slowed Down to a Slow Trot

What promised to be one of the most successful baseball seasons at Georgia Teachers College will end this week as possibly one of the worst.

While the Professor Nine could have been in games here with Newberry College Monday night and Piedmont College this Friday and Saturday afternoon, they were not expected to improve their standing in a three-day trek to North Georgia last week end. The record on departure was seven victories and eight defeats.

3 Candidates Answer League Women Voters' Political Questionnaire

During the first week in May the Bulloch County League of Women Voters mailed a questionnaire to each of the candidates seeking election to public office in the June 28 primary.

On April 20 the League published the five questions the candidates were asked. The League stated that the organization has been asking candidates such questions before each election, to help spotlight and clarify issues.

This week the answers are in. Here are the five questions asked in the questionnaire, and the answers given by each candidate:

1. (a) Since the primary in Georgia is equivalent to election, will you work to tighten the legal controls safeguarding those elections?

EDYVET WILLIAMS—"Yes. As an attorney, I feel that election laws must be strengthened to encourage fair and legal elections in Georgia. I feel that the courts and not any committee should have the final word over the conduct of our elections."

BONNIE MORRIS—"Yes. I believe the new registration law when and if ever completed should be a permanent law, and that it can be kept up-to-date with a minimum of work and expense."

Survey Shows 32 Negro Schools Quatered In Lodges, Churches, Frame and Brick Buildings

(ED'S. NOTE: We are interested in the schools of Bulloch county. Recently we were made chairman of a committee which is surveying the white schools of the county. Since working with this survey we have become keenly concerned about all the schools in this community.)

Our concern prompted us to begin a series of articles on the schools of the children of our county. We intend to do two series of articles. The first will cover the negro schools in the county, and the second to cover the white schools in the county. Because the schools are closing this month the second series probably will be scheduled for this fall.

Beginning this week, we take a look at the negro schools. We plan to report on the schools, finding sincerely, and objectively. We intend to stray away from colorful reporting and shall try to make our articles purely factual reporting.

Last week we visited five of the negro schools in the Register community. But before reporting on our findings at these schools we present a background of the overall picture of the negro schools in Bulloch county.

In Bulloch county there are 32 negro schools—one senior high school, one junior high school, and 30 one-teacher elementary schools, and six two-teacher elementary schools.

William James High School here in Statesboro is a senior high school, housing eleven grades in 13 classrooms, with an average enrollment per classroom of 29. The building is of brick construction and is valued at approximately $35,000.

Willow Hill Junior High School has ten grades with seven classrooms, with an average enrollment of 32, and is valued at about $4,700.

Brooklet Junior High School houses nine grades in seven classrooms, with an average enrollment of 28, and is valued at about $4,500.

New Sandridge Junior High houses nine grades in six classrooms, with an average enrollment of 30, and is valued at about $2,900.

Pope's Junior High houses nine grades in five rooms, with an average enrollment per classroom of 28, and is valued at about $1,500.

All the following schools have seven grades. (The values given are approximate.)

Ada Bell—two class rooms. Average enrollment, 44. Value, $200.

Harmony—one classroom. Average enrollment, 45. Approximate value, $200.

Nevis—two classrooms with average enrollment of 28, and is valued at about $1,500.

Who Says Tourists Don't Spend Money In Statesboro As They Follow The Sun?

Come positive proof that one merchant profits by U.S. Highway 301 tourist traffic.

Recently, a couple, using 301, stopped here for a short while. The lady in walking about on South Main street went into H. Minkovitz and Sons. She saw a suit she liked and "Miss Minnie" Mikell sold it to her.

The lady, upon arriving at her home in Newbury Port, Mass., wrote the following letter to "Miss Minnie":

"Dear Madam: This is to tell you how pleased I am with my green suit. It fits beautifully. I shall surely stop next time we go South. Sincerely, Blanche Dean."

Who says tourists don't mean a thing to Statesboro and Bulloch county?
