T. O. Wynn Serves "Cooter" Supper

T. O. Wynn served his annual "cooter" supper Friday night to approximately 150 business associates and friends.

"Uncle Oscar" started these "cooter" suppers several years ago for the fellows he sold fertilizer to and for his close neighbors. The event was so delightful that he has reached out to include members of the family and friends all over the county.

Although he calls it a "cooter" supper, no "cooters" have ever been served. The menu always includes plenty of fresh water fish, barbecue, slaw, salad, pie, and green lemonade.

Two years ago he put on a special show for his friends in the form of a bull fight. It will be recalled that a neighbor's large Herford bull came over to Mr. Wynn's house about the time supper was being finished. The visiting bull was met by a like animal of Mr. Wynn's. After a few rushes and pushes, one of the animals pushed the other in a well and then fell in on it. Both animals had to be removed from the well with a wrecker. Neither of the bulls were hurt by the encounter.

Tobacco Now 'Rolling In'; 3,286,828 Pounds Sold Here

The citizens of Statesboro and Bulloch county intend to let the members of the local National Guard know they appreciate them and want to bid them farewell with a fine feeling in their hearts.

The Chamber of Commerce assumed the initiative and with all the civic organizations of Statesboro, the Farm Bureau of Bulloch county and other community organizations taking part, the National Guard will be honored at a community farewell on a date to be determined by Lt. Col. Henry J. Ellis, commanding officer of the guard.

At the regular meeting of the Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday of this week, Dr. John Mooney, president, asked for action on the idea. Dub Lovett, president of the Jaycees; M. O. Lawrence, president of the Lions Club; Dr. Ed Smart, vice president of the Lions Club; Bob Mikell, president of the county Farm Bureau; Dew Groover, vice president of the Rotary Club; and John Lough, who spoke for the churches of Statesboro, all pledged support to the project. All other organizations, including the women's groups, will be invited to participate.

The form of the farewell will be determined by a committee made up of the Chamber of Commerce, Dr. B. Turner, and Gilbert Cone. The date will be announced later.

Donaldson On State Committee
Announcement was made last week that Robert Donaldson, of Johnston and Donaldson Insurance Agency, Statesboro, has been appointed a member of the executive committee of the Georgia Association of Insurance Agents. John R. Hall Jr., president, of Atlanta, and Alfred Dorman, C. B. McAllister, C. R. Smith, and D. B. Turner, of Statesboro, are also members of the committee.

The association proposes progressive motor vehicle safety legislation to cover financial responsibility, convicts of title, and periodic inspection of all motor vehicles.

Danny Lingo Will Play in F.F.A. Band
Danny Lingo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Lingo of Statesboro and Bulloch county, is one of four members of the Georgia Future Farmers of America to be selected to play in the National F. F. A. Band when it appears at the organization's national convention in Kansas City on October 6-14.

Young Lingo plays the saxophone in the Statesboro High School Blue Devils Band. He has been in the local band for seven years.

He received notice of his selection this week and has ordered the special uniform prescribed by the director of the National F. F. A. Band. During the convention, the band will play for the parades and other functions.

Total sales for all markets in Georgia through Monday, July 31, were 41,241,175 pounds for an average of $43.65.

This morning (Thursday) tobacco began "rolling into the Statesboro warehouses" as one warehouseman put it. For the first time on the 1950 market trucks are lined up to unload their tobacco.

With the crops in this section late, some farmers are still picking their tobacco, while some are still curing.

Prices this morning on the local market were strong. Sales are very orderly on the Statesboro market. Growers are able to bring their weed to market in the afternoon and have it on the next day.

Warehousemen are urging the growers of this section to bring their tobacco to this market. Businessmen of Statesboro are backing the market here and are urging growers to sell their tobacco here.

Statesboro Market Has Excellent Sales Facilities

With a total of 485,000 square feet of floor space, the eight tobacco warehouses on the Statesboro tobacco market offer sales facilities equal to any market in the state.

Since the establishment of the market here in 1928 with two warehouses (now occupied by Cobb and Foxhall No. 1 and No. 2) the market has grown to its present eight warehouses which handled a state record of 14,458,456 pounds of tobacco.

The market here was the result of hard work and much grief on the part of the Statesboro Chamber of Commerce, Jake Bennett of the Georgia & Florida Railway, and local businessmen. With its assurance, two warehouses were built by local businessmen. One was leased to W. E. Cobb of Rocky Mount, N. C., and R. P. Holt, who operated as Holt and Cobb, and the other was leased to H. W. Gauchet, of Tennessee.

In 1930 H. P. Foxhall joined Mr. Cobb and in 1933 they bought the two warehouses built by the local corporation. This season will mark Mr. Cobb's twenty-third year and Mr. Foxhall's twentieth year on the Statesboro market, operating as Cobb and Foxhall.

Mr. Strauss says he planted 12 acres March 16. He used no poison and says that his crop is "pretty good." He believes that the overall crop this year will be "pretty good." "There's a lot of growth fruit on the stalks we've not been having at this time of the year in the past," he says.

The boll he brought in was full, white and fluffy, and well formed.

First Cotton Boll Came in Monday

What is believed to be one of the county's first open cotton bolls was brought into the office of The Herald on Monday of this week by Mr. Moore Strauss, who lives about three miles east of Statesboro.

$38,372,947.56 for 127,428,396 pounds of tobacco... In 1945, Cecil Wooten and Norman Swain built a 70,000 square foot warehouse on Hill street on the Central of Georgia Railway.

There can be no doubt that the market here is the most friendly in Georgia. The warehousemen are widely known for their fair dealing and efforts to secure the tobacco growers who patronize their warehouses the very highest prices possible.

LOOKING BACK . . .

The Statesboro Tobacco Market has sold 127,428,396 pounds of tobacco in the 22 years since its opening for a total of $38,372,947.56.

For A Friendly Market

FOR A PERIOD of about four to six weeks every year we have a payroll that is no small one, but one we are prone to overlook.

The local Tobacco Board of Trade played host to these people at the Country Club last Saturday night, and it was good to see. There was an excellent banquet, singing, and much good fellowship.

Bulloch County Cotton Farmers Can Get Good Samples From Gins

Bulloch county cotton farmers will get a good sample from the gin, if the ginners can make the product brought to them into a good sample.

Ginners from this district met here Wednesday of last week and spent the entire day trying to learn the best methods known in producing a good sample; the sample that the buyer will pay most for. However, cotton growers will have to cooperate with the ginners by not picking cotton too green, too wet, or too trashy.

James E. Forchard, Georgia Extension Service gin specialist; Charles J. Bryant, cotton marketing specialist; and Charlie Oglesby, U. S. D. A. Extension Services gin specialist, now stationed in Atlanta, conducted the one-day gin school here. The entire morning was devoted to making a study of gin stands and gin methods on charts. The afternoon was used for study of the strong and weak points in the three local gins.

Warren B. Hodges, president of Georgia Ginners Association, was also here for the clinic, as well as I. M. Foy, former president and a director in the association. Around 100 ginners from this district attended the meeting.

Ginners indicated by their attitude that they had in mind first of all to give the cotton grower the top grade his cotton would turn out. Methods of adjusting gins and ginning equipment needed in this work were stressed all through the program by ginners and specialists. Most of the ginners have spent large sums during the past two years trying to put in adequate equipment to give good samples to growers who bring in anything like decent lots of cotton with which to work. Cotton which is green and wet can be improved quite a bit; but the ginners cannot do the entire job. Cotton that is raked up instead of being picked cannot be thoroughly cleaned. Extractors will remove lots of trash.

Ginners, generally, believe there will be a good crop of cotton in the first district area this year.

Keep Up Weevil Fight In August, Westbrook Urges

Georgia's 1950 cotton crop is going to be much smaller than in the past several years, according to the July cotton acreage report, and this makes it desirable to produce as large a crop this year as is practical, E. C. Westbrook, Extension Service cotton specialist, says.

"The present war situation makes it desirable for farmers to continue to put up a good fight against the boll weevil and boll worm," Westbrook said recently. "Don't stop poisoning too soon," he warned. "If farmers do this they may lose a considerable part of the gains that have been made up to now by poisoning."

The cotton specialist pointed out that considerable quantities of poisons are being shipped out of the state, and he urged farmers to obtain as soon as practical amounts of poison they will need during the next 30 days.

Westbrook continued that Georgia cotton growers are doing the best job in history in poisoning boll weevils and other cotton insects.

Bulloch County 4-H Club Boys Off To Summer Camp

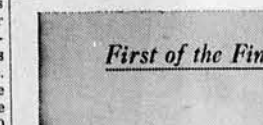

Some 75 Bulloch 4-H Club boys will spend the week end, August 4, 5, and 6, at the Chatham county 4-H Club camp at Tybee.

4-H Club organizational activities, swimming and fishing will round out the program at camp. Generally, classes in all phases of club activities are used at club camps, but this is more of a get-together than a camp for usual club work.

Adults going with the clubsters are Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus G. Brannen, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse N. Akins, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Rushing, and Mr. and Mrs. Dorris R. Cason. Several parents will be with the clubsters on Sunday, when Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Johnson, manager of Sears, Roebuck store in Savannah, will be the honor guests.

Regular 4-H Club camps are assigned to counties, with only a limited number of clubsters permitted due to the shortage of such camps available to these boys and girls. The boys in Bulloch county asked the county agent to try to work out a week end camp at Tybee so that every boy who wanted to spend some time in camp during the summer could do so. It was for this reason that the Tybee camp was arranged for.

Bulloch Forestry Unit Completes Successful Year

By J. W. ROBERTS

Through the cooperation of the woodland owners in Bulloch county who are interested in the protection of their timber land, the Bulloch County Forestry Unit ended a fairly successful year June 30, compared to other sections of the state.

Our county has 284,053 acres of forest land, ranking sixth in the state, with more than 80 counties having fire protection units. Our loss from uncontrolled fires, however, was much less than counties having far less woodland acreage.

According to records of the Georgia Forestry Commission, the Bulloch county unit suppressed 210 wild fires from July 1, 1949,

ADVENTURES OF A YANK RIFLE . . . Captain H. W. Awards Approved For Two '50 4-H Programs

Handsome awards for superior records of Georgia members in 4-H Field Crops and Frozen Foods programs for 1950 have been approved by the State Club office.

County winners will receive gold filled medals of honor. The State Champion in Field Crops and 29 in Frozen Foods.

County Extension agents will furnish complete information on these programs.

Tobacco Issue— State Shows Gains

Pigs to Cuba

Officials of the Cuban Government have purchased approximately 150 Georgia purchased pigs in an effort to improve swine herds in that country. Extension Service officials say, Hampshire, Spotted Poland, Chinas and Durocs were the three breeds purchased.

4-H Clubs Showing Interest In Home Improvement

Trend of the times—people are spending more leisure hours in the home. This is particularly true of rural folk. Many have recently electrified their homes, added telephones and modern farm machinery. Consequently farm families are giving more consideration to the comfort and beauty of their dwellings. Of particular value in this direction is the national 4-H Home Improvement program now in its fourth year. Enrollment has increased almost 15,000 in the past year, and the number of 4-Hers awarded county medals has jumped from 3,433 to 3,952.

In Georgia some 2,725 club members will take part in the 1950 program, according to the State Extension office which conducts the activity. County Extension Agents and local club leaders give demonstrations, displays and instruct the youth in phases of home improvement. Members who become skilled in some particular job such as upholstering, refinishing furniture or working with color also give demonstrations. Enthusiasm shown by their sons and daughters inspires parents to cooperate in carrying out long-range plans to make their homes more livable.

A favorite starting place for the girls—and boys, too—has been their own bedrooms. They have done amazing things with a little ingenuity, lots of hard work, a few cans of paint and bright new fabrics. Living rooms should be high on the list this year, because the family finds extra time to spend together indoors. Club members who have been active in the home improvement program during the past few years are now skilled in renovating old furniture and redecorating. Many have done remarkable carpentry work building closets, cupboards, bookshelves.

Outstanding accomplishments will again be rewarded by the Sears Roebuck Foundation. A $200 college scholarship will be awarded to the eight top-ranking 4-Hers in the nation. The State champion will be given a trip to the National 4-H Club Congress. District winners a trip to State 4-H Club Congress, and county winners a medal. State honorees went to Sara Holcombe, of Nelson.

Georgia-Florida Tobacco Markets Sell 40,019,342 Pounds In First Week's Sale

Most grades offered on Georgia-Florida flue-cured tobacco markets opening week averaged $5.00 to $8.00 above the first week in 1949. The general quality showed improvement. Volume sales was considerably smaller.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture reports gross sales for the first five days totaled 40,019,342 pounds for an average of $51.08 per hundred. The poundage was around 2 million less than for the four days comprising the first week of sales last year. The general average, however, was $6.58 higher.

Increases in average prices by grade ranged from $3.50 to $14.00. Most leaf moved up $6.00 to $9.00, cutters $3.00 to $8.00, and lugs and primings $4.00 to $7.00. Nondescript gained from $4.75 to $8.50. Common to good offerings brought average prices well above their advance loan values except fair and good cutters. These grades, together with choice and fine lugs, were only $1.00 to $3.00 above.

The tobacco was thinner-bodied and of better color than offerings of the first week of last year. Proportions of lugs and cutters increased and less leaf was sold. Principal sales were low to fine lugs, low and fair cutters, low to good leaf, and nondescript. Last year the bulk consisted of common to fair leaf and fair to fine lugs.

Volume sales was heavy, generally, although some central and northern markets reported auctions completed by noon some days. In these sections farmers are busy harvesting and curing late crops. Last year, for the first five days, gross sales averaged well over 10.5 million pounds per day as compared with 8 million this year. To date, the sales are running 12.6 million pounds less than during the corresponding period last season.

Receipts from the Stabilization Corporation, under the Government loan program, amounted to slightly over 6 percent of weekly gross sales. Last year the deliveries represented 19.5 percent.

Food Preservation Champ

A Georgia woman is to be named food preservation champion for the state for 1950 during the State Fair in Macon in October. Any homemaker who has canned and frozen a supply of food for her family this year may enter the contests.

A Farmer... And His Hired Hand

THAT'S THE WAY the farmer figures it: Reddy Kilowatt is his hired hand whether the crop be tobacco, cotton or some other product.

For Reddy lives up to his name when there is work to be done. He can do hundreds of farm jobs and do them better and faster and cheaper than anybody else.

Studies show that for less than a dollar Reddy will do as much work as an average farm hand can do in a month. You can't beat that for a bargain. Another thing about Reddy—the more work you give him to do, the less his hourly wage.

It's just plain smart to keep Reddy busy. It shows up on the right side of the ledger, in greater farm production, large farm profits, but lower costs for labor.

How many ways does Reddy help you now? What other jobs could he help you do? Talk it over with one of our Rural Engineers. His help is free. Just ask at our nearest office.

State Gaining In Soil, Pasture Improvements

As Georgia's livestock program expands, pasture and soil improvement work is being given greater emphasis, according to a summary of reports from Georgia county agricultural agents.

E. D. Alexander, Agricultural Extension Service agronomist, says that county agent reports for the past year show that 200,000 acres of Georgia farm land were planted to permanent pasture and 225,000 additional acres of pasture land were improved by fertilizing or reseeding.

Georgia is recognized as being among the leading states in the nation in developing winter pastures, and county agents reported special interest in this project during the past year.

The agents said that 267,000 acres were planted to small grain winter legume mixtures and 136,000 acres to ryegrass-crimson clover mixtures. Reports from the agents also show that 60 percent of the small grain planted in Georgia now is grazed by livestock and this means, according to Alexander, that 500,000 to 600,000 acres of grain crops are grazed in the state annually.

A summer temporary pasture program, the agents reported, now includes approximately one million acres of annual lespedeza, 152,000 acres of sericea lespedeza and 105,000 acres of kudzu.

One of the most spectacular increases in pasture planting, according to the reports from county agents, is that of ladino clover. While only 63,000 acres were planted to ladino clover-grass mixtures in 1948, this was increased to 185,000 acres in 1949.

Alexander continues that fescue is used with ladino clover in most instances and that ladino-grass mixture is one of the best combinations in many parts of the state.

A Civic Creed

I believe that the place in which I live, while I live in it, should be regarded by me as the greatest place in the world; and that, as it gives me the best which it has, deserves from me the best that I can give to it.

I believe that my duty to my city and to my county is as sacred as my duty to my family and to my church, and a part of my duty to my God.

I believe that service of the Public is one of true religion, and that the right use of the ballot is a Sacrament as holy as the Supper of the Lord.

This Civic Creed was written by Dr. Amory H. Bradford, Minister of the First Congregational Church, Montclair, New Jersey, from 1870 to 1911. It was written by him for a community gathering in Montclair in the year 1910, a few months before he died.

It was read in a short devotional service conducted by Rev. Arthur H. Bradford, D. D., pastor of the Central Congregational Church, of Providence, R. I., a son of the late clergyman, before members of the National Editorial Association Sunday morning, June 18, in the Hotel Sheraton-Biltmore, in Providence.

We commend it to the citizens of Statesboro.

BERLIN COMMUNISTS BLOW UP CHURCH . . . The historic Georgian church, one of Berlin's most famous landmarks, was destroyed by the fire and explosives of World War II. The Communists, contrary to reports by engineers, termed it unsafe and destroyed it by dynamite. Protestant leaders protested, but the demolition squad destroyed it as Communist police and Russian soldiers cowed an indignant crowd of Berliners. The church was damaged by World War II bombs.

Farm Bureau Attitude of Farm People Is Attitude Desired Under Present Conditions

The attitude of farm people is the kind desired during times like these, H. R. Yandle, director of public relations for the Georgia Farm Bureau, told the West Side group at their regular meeting on Tuesday night of last week.

Too many groups are out for whatever they can get out of such conditions as now exist here, but farmers don't strike, nor do they quibble about the production they are on for in an emergency, Mr. Yandle stated. However, farmers should build their organizations strong enough to make certain other groups do not hinder emergency efforts of the country as a whole. As long as pressure groups control votes, officials have to follow the dictation of these groups. If the group is one that does not believe in living and let live, it can do serious damage to the country.

The Farm Bureau has always followed a middle-of-the-road policy and will always follow that policy, Mr. Yandle thinks. Farm people just naturally think that way.

L. R. Lanier, district agent for the Extension Service, was also at the West Side meeting, having arrived here early for the ginners' meeting which followed the next day.

A highlight of the West Side program was Jack N. Averitt and a group of musicians from town and Georgia Teachers College. Songs and reading were presented. Miss Ninette Sturgis and mother, Mrs. Nina D. Sturgis, Russell Everett, and Miss Betty Lewis participated in this phase of the program. The 26th present at the West Side meeting thoroughly enjoyed Mr. Yandle's remarks and the presentations of the musicians.

State Democratic Convention Meets in Macon Aug. 9

State Democratic Chairman James S. Peters, of Manchester, issued a call last week for Georgia's 1950 Democratic Convention to meet in Macon on August 9.

The convention is scheduled to convene at 11:00 a. m. that day in the Macon City Auditorium to designate successful candidates in the June 28 primary as official nominees of the party in the November 7 general election.

Governor Herman Talmadge has stated that the convention will be one of the most important in the history of Georgia.

"I will chart our course and set the goal for the next four years.

"The time is at hand for all loyal party members to close ranks and do for our state, its people, and our children those things which so long have needed to be done."

Chairman Peters said that the convention will be held for the purpose of nominating successful candidates in the recent primary, adopting a platform and transacting other business.

The Governor has re-emphasized his desire for harmony and unity in Georgia's state government in a letter sent to many of his friends over the state. In part, Talmadge said: "To all the counties in Georgia I am sending assurance that my single purpose is to help all I can in building a bigger and better Georgia that we all want to see developed here."

"From now on we must all work together in harmony in carrying out the constructive programs which will mean so much to our citizens, particularly to our boys and girls."

Sheriff and Police Break Up Stealing Spree

A six-week's stealing spree, during which nine kids from nine to 14 years of age stole $307 from 11 business houses in Statesboro, was clipped short on Friday last week by Sheriff Stothard Head, Chief of Police Henry Anderson, County Policeman Edgar Hart, their officers and deputies.

The county police caught two of them last Thursday night going through pockets of clothing left in the dressing rooms at Pilots Field by the ball players. They were brought to town and on Friday another was picked up. In the sheriff's office Friday afternoon, the three told a fantastic story of breaking in local stores, stealing money, hiding it, and spending it for "junk."

They carried police to Dorman's warehouse, under which was found six baskets of peanuts which they had dumped. They told that they paid Mr. Sparks, for whom they worked, for these peanuts (about $24.00) with money they had stolen and then collected their commission (about 80 cents) on a bag program their club house at the Community Center, together with financial contributions.
